1998 - D'Backs Debut in Desert
(65-97, Fifth in N.L. West)

3.6 million visit Bank One Ballpark during inaugural season

After years of dreaming, and a three-year building process, Arizona finally entered Major League Baseball on March 31, 1998, as the Diamondbacks played their inaugural game against the Colorado Rockies in Bank One Ballpark. Andy Benes was the first-ever starting pitcher, and Travis Lee produced the franchise's first base hit and home run. The first win for the Diamondbacks occurred on April 5, with a 3-2 victory at home over San Francisco after the club opened up with 5 consecutive losses. The belief that Arizona was ready for the majors was validated at the box office, as the Diamondbacks played to 21 sellouts at Bank One Ballpark, and drew a total of 3,602,856 fans.

Arizona, like all expansion teams, struggled out of the gate, losing 31 of its first 40, but under manager Buck Showalter's guidance, the Snakes shed the look of an expansion team, and eventually tied a major league expansion team record by putting together a 7-game winning streak in early September.

The year was highlighted by players who came to Arizona from different paths. Free agency brought Jay Bell, who hit 20 home runs, while a trade on the night of the Expansion Draft brought Devon White, who led the club with 85 RBI and 22 stolen bases while tying Lee for the club lead in home runs with 22. Benes, who was signed as a free agent, posted a 14-13 record, with the 14 wins tying Tampa Bay's Rolando Arrojo for most wins by an expansion pitcher.

The Expansion Draft produced pitcher Omar Daal, whose 8-12 record was deceiving, considering his 2.88 earned run average, infielder Tony Batista, who hit 18 home runs, and outfielder David Dellucci who hit .260 while playing in 124 games. Reliever Gregg Olson, signed by the club as a minor league free agent, ended the season as the club's Pitcher of the Year, earning 30 saves, the second highest total in expansion history.

Arizona gained national notoriety in an 8-7 win at San Francisco on May 28. With an 8-6 lead, two out in the bottom of the ninth and the bases loaded, Showalter elected to intentionally walk Barry Bonds, bringing home a run to cut the lead to 8-7. The move paid off, as Olson got Brent Mayne to line out to right to ice the win.

Interleague play was highlighted by a late June home series with Seattle, in which outfielder Yamil Benitez hit two dramatic homers. The first was launched 452 feet into Friday's Front Row, then 2 days later, Benitez hit a game-winning solo home run in the ninth, giving the Arizona 2 of 3 against the Mariners. Benitez had made his way into the record books 2 weeks earlier, clubbing his first career grand slam on June 9 vs. Anaheim. In the top half of the same inning, Cecil Fielder also hit a slam, the sixth time ever that each team hit a grand slam in the same inning.

White and Lee represented the Diamondbacks at the annual All-Star Game, with White going 3-for-3 with a triple in the mid-summer classic in Denver, and Lee participating in the Rookie Skills Competition. Daal produced the first complete-game shutout in team history on July 30, blanking the Cubs on four hits.

Arizona posted a 13-16 record in August, with Olson saving 6 of the 13 wins. The highlight victory of the month occurred in the nightcap of a doubleheader in Philadelphia. After losing the opener 11-1, the Diamondbacks scored 5 times in the top of the ninth to tie the second game at 9-9, with White's three-run homer in the 11th producing a 12-9 victory. Batista hit 8 home runs in the month, while batting .338. White drove in 5 runs in the contest, the third of 5 5-RBI games during the season.

By September, the Diamondbacks had left their first 40 games behind them, and played more like a contender. Not only did they split the 24 games played in the season's final month, 2 of the wins came at the expense of the Giants, who were battling for the National League Wild Card spot. Brian Anderson tossed a 1-0 shutout at Pittsburgh on September 3, while Benes posted a 3-0 record and 0.47 ERA for the month. Olson picked up 7 more saves, including his 200th career save on September 7. The month, and the inaugural season, ended with the Diamondbacks taking 2 of 3 games from the eventual National League champion Padres.

1999 - Fastest to First Division Crown
(100-62, First in N.L. West)

Diamondbacks dominate by 14 games with 100-win season... Big Unit captures Cy Young Award

The Diamondbacks' commitment to winning produced historic results in 1999, as they became the fastest team to go from expansion to post-season, winning 100 games and the National League West in their second year of existence.

The foundation was laid during the winter, when the club made a series of free agent signings and trades to transform the roster. Randy Johnson, Todd Stottlemyre, Armando Reynoso, Steve Finley, Greg Colbrunn and Greg Swindell, while G.M. Joe Garagiola Jr. consummated trades to acquire outfielders Luis Gonzalez and Tony Womack.

With new talent surrounding them, returning veterans Jay Bell and Matt Williams flourished. Bell led the club with 38 home runs, while Williams hit 35 and drove in 142. Finley added 34 homers and 103 RBI. Gonzalez had a breakout season, batting .336, with 26 home runs and 111 RBI. Womack, who had led the National League in stolen bases the prior two seasons in Pittsburgh, topped the majors with 72 thefts, 1 shy of the team stolen base total in inaugural season of 1998.

Johnson, who returned to the National League midway through 1998, going from Seattle to Houston, anchored a pitching staff that posted a 3.77 ERA. The Big Unit led the majors with 364 K's and the league with a 2.48 ERA to procure his first N.L. Cy Young Award, second of his career. Omar Daal had a career season with a 16-9 record and 3.65 ERA, while Reynoso went 10-6.

Even with all the new talent, it took time for the Diamondbacks to gel, going 13-11 in April after a 1-5 start. Included was a 16-inning, 5-hour, 14-minute marathon against the Dodgers on April 13, highlighted by Kelly Stinnett's pinch-hit homer run in the bottom of the 16th to tie the game at 6-6, and Dante Powell's game-ending RBI single. On April 11, Gonzalez began a hitting streak that would last 30 games, while Williams earned National League Player-of-the-Month honors, batting .357, with 8 homers and 25 RBI.

Arizona's fortunes turned in May as the club was 18-10, going from third place when the month began to a 3 1/2-game advantage by the end of May. Gonzalez continued his torrid hitting streak, a streak that ended in San Francisco on May 20. The marquee wins of the month were 3 consecutive victories at home over Montreal on May 10-12, all coming on home runs. Jay Bell ended the first game of the series in the ninth inning, then Luis Gonzalez was the hero in the middle game, extending his hitting streak with a 10th inning walk-off shot, followed in the series finale by Matt Williams, who capped the sweep of the Expos with a bottom of the ninth blast. Travis Lee's second grand slam of the season keyed a 7-3 win in San Francisco on May 18, putting Arizona alone in 1st place for the first time in franchise history. One setback in May occurred the night before Lee's grand slam, as pitcher Todd Stottlemyre was diagnosed with a partial tear of the right rotator cuff on the 17th.

The Diamondbacks struggled through June as their offense hit a collective slump. The low point came on June 25, when St. Louis righthander Jose Jimenez pitched the first no-hitter in Bank One Ballpark history. To make matters worse, Arizona wasted a strong effort by Johnson, who allowed just a run on 5 hits, while striking out 14. The lone run of the game came in the 9th inning. Things didn't get much better for the Big Unit over his next 3 starts as he was blanked each time out, giving the opposition 4 consecutive shutout victories over Johnson to tie a major league record, while the D'Backs were no-hit, 1-hit, 2-hit and 3-hit in succession.

With the All-Star break approaching, Garagiola worked some trade magic by making a dramatic move to improve Arizona's bullpen on July 9, acquiring closer Matt Mantei from Florida in exchange for pitchers Vladimir Nunez, Brad Penny and a player to be named. Mantei's first appearance as a Diamondback came 2 days later, as he earned the save in a 7-4 victory over Oakland in the final game before the break. That was also the day that Jay Bell won $1 million for a fan by hitting a tie-breaking grand slam in the fifth inning, the player and the inning that was predicted by that fan.

Out of the break, the Diamondbacks embarked on a an 8-game road trip that proved to be the turning point of their season. On July 20, with Arizona just 4 games above .500, and 2 1/2 games out of first, Johnson took the mound against his former teammates in Seattle's new Safeco Field, and tossed an 8-hit shutout for a 6-0 Arizona win, the first-ever shutout in the Mariners' new home. The win sparked a run that saw the Diamondbacks post a 51-17 record over the season's remaining 68 games. It also started a run that saw the D'Backs win 10 out of 11 to close out the month.

Just 2 nights after Johnson's performance in Seattle, the Diamondbacks recorded another key victory as Tony Womack hit an inside-the-park grand slam off of Houston's Billy Wagner in the Astrodome to stake Arizona to a come-from-behind win. It was the first inside-the-park homer in franchise history.

Johnson was named National League Pitcher-of-the-Month for July, despite posting a 2-3 record. During the month, Johnson's ERA was 1.13, and he recorded 64 strikeouts.

The winning continued in August, as Arizona posted streaks of 5, 4 and 6 games, en route to a 20-8 record for the month, the best monthly mark in club history to date. Most impressive was that the majority of the winning occurred on the road, as Arizona took 5 out of 6 on a trip to Philadelphia and Chicago, and 6 out of 7 on a swing through Pittsburgh and Florida. Gonzalez led the offensive charge, batting .342 for the month, with 7 home runs and 24 RBI. In his first full month with the club, Mantei recorded 7 saves, allowing just 1 earned run over 10.1 innings pitched. By the end of August, the Diamondbacks' lead in the National League West had ballooned to 7.5 games. August also saw the return of Stottlemyre, who opted not to have surgery on his torn rotator cuff. Instead, an intense rehab program put Stottlemyre back on the mound in Pittsburgh on August 20, and he notched the first win after his return 5 days later in Florida.

Matt Williams hammered 35 home runs and drove in 142 to assist in leading the Diamondbacks to the fastest post-season qualification in expansion history.

Nothing changed in September, as Arizona took complete command of the race with a 19-7 finish. Fate played a part in the Diamondbacks' fortunes on September 5, as Arizona defeated Atlanta 7-5. when a 3-run, ninth inning rally was sparked when Stinnett reached first base after striking out on a wild pitch that had appeared to end the game.

Arizona passed the 1962 Los Angeles Angels as baseball's most successful second-year team by posting its 87th win of the season on September 13th over Pittsburgh. A season of remarkable firsts was capped on the night of September 24th, as the Big Unit pitched a complete-game, 11-3 win at San Francisco to give the Diamondbacks the N.L. West crown. Johnson was 3-0 in September, while Andy Benes posted a 4-1 mark. Matt Mantei added 6 more saves, and the Diamondbacks as a team batted .301.

The Diamondbacks' first trip to the post-season was a brief, but dramatic Division Series against the Wild Card New York Mets. After dropping the opener 8-4, Arizona bounced back to even the series behind a gutty performance from Stottlemyre, who limited the Mets to 4 hits over 6.2 innings, while Steve Finley drove in 5 runs in a 7-1 victory. The series then shifted to New York, where the Mets took Game #3, 9-2, then won the series on Todd Pratt's home run to center, just out of the reach of a leaping Finley, to take a 4-3. 10-inning victory.

The first major league free agent acquired by the Diamondbacks, Jay Bell led the club with a career-high 38 homers in 1999 and was voted by the fans to start in the All-Star Game in Boston.

Gonzalez led the National League in hits with 206 while finishing second in the batting race (.336) and second in doubles (45). Bell closed the year second in runs scored (132), while the foursome of Gonzalez, Bell, Finley and Williams all eclipsed the 100-RBI mark, the seventh time a quartet achieved that mark in league history. Johnson's Cy Young campaign included league leading totals in innings (271.2), complete games (12), ERA (2.48) and strikeouts per 9-innings (12.06)

Bell, Williams and Finley each earned National League Player-of-the-Week honors during the season, as did Johnson, who won the award twice. Finley earned his third career Rawlings Gold Glove, the first-ever for the Diamondbacks' franchise. Bell, Williams, Johnson and Gonzalez represented the Diamondbacks at the All-Star Game in Boston, with Bell and Williams voted to the National League starting lineup.

2000 - Late Tailspin Seals Fate
(85-77, Third in N.L. West)

D'Backs finish 12 games out... Johnson wins second straight Cy Young Award

A season of high expectations ended in frustration, as the Diamondbacks suffered through a series of injuries, winding up third in the National League West with an 86-76 record. The day after the regular season ended a change was made as manager Buck Showalter was relieved of his duties on October 2. He was replaced at the end of the month by former big league catcher and Diamondbacks broadcaster Bob Brenly.

The cast that had made up the 1999 National West Champions was virtually unchanged as spring training began, but the first sign that things would be different in 2000 occurred during the final game of the exhibition schedule when third baseman Matt Williams fouled a pitch off his right foot, breaking the second metatarsal. He then suffered a right quadriceps strain during a rehab assignment in late May in El Paso, forcing him to go back on the disabled list. All told, Williams, who had been the cornerstone of the Diamondbacks offense during its first 2 seasons, would play in just 96 games, and not truly regain his form offensively until the final month of the season. Closer Matt Mantei also opened the season on the disabled list with tendinitis in his right biceps.

In spite of injuries, the Diamondbacks opened with their strongest start in history, going 16-9 in April to jump to a 1 1/2 game lead in the division. Randy Johnson was 6-0 with a tiny 0.91 ERA in April, earning National League Pitcher-of-the-Month honor, just the third pitcher in history to win 6 games before May 1. The Big Unit wound up winning a second consecutive Cy Young Award from the BBWAA. Todd Stottlemyre, still pitching with a partial tear in his right rotator cuff, went 4-1 during the initial month. Luis Gonzalez led Arizona's power numbers with 8 home runs, while Erubiel Durazo opened the year by batting .333 in 22 games.

The Diamondbacks also made a pair of "discoveries" prior to the 2000 campaign, signing 40-year-old righthanded pitcher Mike Morgan as a non-roster invitee to spring training, and signing infielder Craig Counsell after he had been released in March by Los Angeles. Morgan came on in relief of Stottlemyre on April 5 to pitch 4.0 shutout innings in an 11-3 victory over Philadelphia, to earn his first save in 9 years, and finished the month with 4 saves, 1 more than his previous career total. The club also bolstered its bench in a mid-June trade that brought outfielder Danny Bautista from Florida in exchange for utility man Andy Fox.

Arizona reeled off a 9-game winning streak in May, as well as an 11-game home winning streak, as they continued to pace the N.L. West. Womack assembled a career-best 24-game hitting streak, leading the club in batting for the month with a .347 mark. Steve Finley clubbed a franchise-record 9 home runs in May, while driving in 31. The Diamondbacks' starting pitching, in particular it's top 2 pitchers, continued to dominate, with Johnson going 3-1 and Stottlemyre posting a 4-2 mark. For the first 2 months of the season, Johnson and Stottlemyre had combined to post a 17-3 mark. Meanwhile, Mantei had returned to the 15-day D.L. due to shoulder weakness, opening the door for Byung-Hyun Kim, who had come to the Diamondbacks in 1999 from Korea and assumed the closer's role by posting 5 saves and a 2-1 record.

The final game of May saw the Diamondbacks record their first-ever triple play, in the fifth inning of a home game against St. Louis, as Steve Finley took a fly ball to center, threw in to catcher Damian Miller to tag Placido Polanco at the plate, with Miller firing to Tony Womack covering third for the tag on Edgar Renteria.

The Diamondbacks' injury problems continued to mount during a 13-14 month of June, including a 3-9 road mark, and a 5-game losing streak during a road trip to Texas and Chicago. Williams, Durazo and Stottlemyre all ended up on the D.L., with Stottlemyre's injury being the most painful. During the first inning of the June 25 game at home against Colorado, Stottlemyre was forced to leave due to an inflamed right elbow. This, after Stottlemyre had been on the D.L. earlier in the month due to tendinitis. Stottlemyre would eventually miss all of July and August, making just 4 starts in September before undergoing season-ending elbow surgery on September 26. Durazo had been bothered throughout the early portion of the season by a right wrist injury that required surgery on May 30. After appearing in 3 games at the end of June, Durazo returned to the D.L., and played in just 5 games in August before undergoing another wrist operation on August 24.

In an effort to bolster the offense, the Diamondbacks brought up infielder Alex Cabrera, who, like Durazo, had been discovered by the club in the Mexican League. Cabrera had been so dominant at both AA El Paso and AAA Tucson that he was named Howe Sportsdata's Minor League Player-of-the-Year, despite appearing in just 74 games. He made his major league appearance one for the record books, as he homered in his first trip to the plate, off of Houston's Yorkis Perez. It marked the 78th time in Major League history a player had hit a home run in his first career at-bat, and just the 13th time it had happened in a pinch-hitting role.

The Diamondbacks continued to struggle in July, winning just one home series during the month. Randy Johnson's 4-2 win at Oakland on July 9 gave Arizona a 52-39 record and 2 1/2-game lead in the division at the All-Star break. Out of the break, Texas and Seattle combined to take 5 out of 6 from the D'Backs at Bank One Ballpark. The lone victory during that stretch came courtesy of righthanded pitcher Geraldo Guzman. In his second major league start, Guzman limited the eventual A.L. West champs to five hits in a 7-0 victory. After sweeping a 2-game set from St. Louis, Arizona dropped 6 of its next 9 games. Still clinging to the division lead, Arizona made a blockbuster trade on July 26, obtaining pitcher Curt Schilling from Philadelphia for infielder Travis Lee and pitchers Omar Daal, Nelson Figueroa and Vicente Padilla. The following night, Arizona enjoyed its most productive offensive night of the season, using 19 hits to defeat the Cardinals in St. Louis, 17-5. On July 28, Schilling made his Arizona debut, limiting the Marlins to six hits in a 4-1 win at Florida.

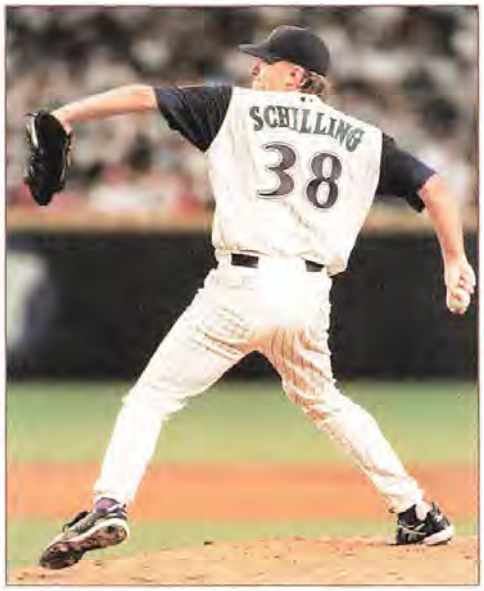
Sure-handed Steve Finley earned his second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove, fourth of his career, for his defensive work in 2000.

August provided both a reprieve and the ultimate undoing of the Diamondbacks in 2000. Arizona reeled off a 7-game winning streak in the middle of the month that included series sweeps in Philadelphia and at home against the Cubs. Schilling and Johnson both tossed complete games in the Chicago series, but even with the win ning streak, the Diamondbacks were unable to get back into first, still sitting a half-game out after the Cubs left town. It was the next series, a 3-game home set with Milwaukee, that proved to be the beginning of the end. The Brewers pulled off a stunning sweep, including a defeat of Schilling in the series finale. Greg Colbrunn, playing at first base after Durazo's injury, responded by hitting .425 in August, while Steve Finley hit .330 with 6 home runs. Lefthander Dan Plesac went 3-0 out of the bullpen, with a 1.08 ERA.

A September swoon ended the Diamondbacks hopes of a second consecutive division title. Atlanta's 3-game sweep at Turner Field early in the month pushed the Diamondbacks 8 games behind red-hot San Francisco in the N.L. West. The Big Unit eased some of the pain on September 10, when he notched his 3,000th career strikeout at Florida. However, even a run at the Wild Card faded when the Diamondbacks were swept in a 3-game set in the middle of the month at Los Angeles, as the Dodgers scored only 4 runs in pulling off the sweep. The Diamondbacks scored once in the series opener, then were blanked over the final 19 innings of the series.

As had been the case the year before, the National League West crown was decided in San Francisco, only this time it was the Giants doing the celebrating in a win over the D'Backs. Their 8-7 victory in the series opener gave the Giants the title, although Arizona ended up winning 3 games in the 5-game set.

A finally healthy Matt Williams turned in his best month of the season in September, batting .315 with 6 home runs and 20 RBI, while Craig Counsell, who had seen his playing time increase due to Tony Womack's knee injury, batted .357. Matt Mantei also rebounded to post saves in 6 of the club's 12 September victories, allowing opponents to bat just .118 over 10.0 innings.



Shadow Mountain High School graduate, Curt Schilling, is acquired from the Phillies in a 5-player exchange on July 26.

Despite the struggles, the Diamondbacks earned their share of post-season honors. Johnson earned his second consecutive National League Cy Young Award, posting a 19-7 record, with a 2.64 ERA (second in the National League), while striking out a league-leading 347 batters, and tying teammate Schilling for the league lead in complete games with 8. The Big Unit tied Greg Maddux for the N.L. lead in shutouts with 3, and limited opponents to a .224 batting average. Steve Finley overcame late season injuries to earn his second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove. Johnson and Gonzalez were selected National League Player-of-the-Week during the season, with Gonzalez taking the honors twice. Johnson earned the starting assignment for the National League in the All-Star Game in Atlanta, with Finley also being selected as a reserve. In November, Johnson and Gonzalez were among 28 members of the Major League Baseball All-Star team that made an 8-game tour of Japan, defeating a team of Japanese All-Stars in the series.

2001 - World Title Lands in Arizona
(92-70, First in N.L. West - World Series Champs)

Brenly's troops defeat Yankees in seven-game thriller... Johnson/Schilling co-World Series MVP's

A season that began full of question marks ended with the most emphatic exclamation point imaginable as the Diamondbacks went from potential contender in the spring of 2001 to Champions of the first World Series ever staged in the month of November.

New manager Bob Brenly wanted a more relaxed atmosphere for a clubhouse still comprised of mostly veteran players, and he was aided in that cause by the winter signing of free agent first baseman Mark Grace. The longtime Chicago Cub was brought in to not only solidify the Diamondbacks' infield, but to bring a fresh attitude to a team that had bogged down under the weight of high expectations and mounting injuries the year before.

The Diamondbacks also sought to improve an offense that had struggled throughout 2000. In addition to Grace, who had led the majors in hits during the decade of the 1990's, Arizona signed outfielder Reggie Sanders, who brought with him a booming bat that had been slowed by injuries the season prior while a member of the Atlanta Braves. Arizona would also benefit from a full season's production of 2 of the game's most dominant pitchers, Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling. Still, the experts had the Diamondbacks pegged anywhere from first to third with a lot of concerns about age as the season began.

In the season's first month, Arizona started slowly. After giving their new manager a win in the season opener at Los Angeles and a series win by taking 2 of 3 from the Dodgers, the Diamondbacks returned home, only to be swept in a 3-game set by St. Louis. The night after the Cardinals series, Diamondback fans were treated to a classic pitcher's duel, as Curt Schilling bested Kevin Brown and the Dodgers, 2-0, in a game that took only 1 hour and 55 minutes to complete.

Sanders roared out of the starting gates, batting .344 in April, hitting 8 home runs, including a walk-off shot on April 20 to beat Colorado. The next day, Sanders hit his first career grand slam as part of a 2-homer game in a 10-5 Diamondback win. Sanders' power output paled in comparison to teammate Luis Gonzalez, who tied a major league record by hitting 13 home runs in the month., earning National League Player-of-the-Month honors in the process. The pitching staff was bolstered by Schilling, who went 3-0 in April, and by a surprising face, righthander Robert Ellis. A non-roster invitee in the spring, Ellis stepped into the starting rotation after injuries claimed Bobby Witt and Brian Anderson, and posted a 3-0 record, including a 6.0 inning effort in a 2-1 debut win at St. Louis on April 16.

Injuries, which had derailed Arizona's pennant hopes in 2000, became a factor again as closer Matt Mantei suffered a capsule strain of the right elbow on April 25. The injury eventually required season-ending "Tommy John" surgery.

Randy Johnson added yet another accomplishment to an already long list on the night of May 8, when he struck out 20 Cincinnati Reds at Bank One Ballpark to tie a major league record for 9 innings of work. Johnson, however, was not involved in the decision, though the Diamondbacks pulled out a 4-3 win in 11 innings.

The Diamondbacks hit their stride in May, going 18-10, including a 13-6 mark at home. Arizona moved from third place at the start of the month to first place in the N.L. West by month's end. The key was an 8-2 record against division competition, and the start of a 9-game winning streak that would go into June. Gonzalez continued to sizzle at the plate, batting .339 for the month, with 7 home runs, and Grace drove in 23 runs while hitting .345. In addition to Johnson's record-setting performance, Arizona pitchers had a strong month overall, setting team monthly records for runs allowed (88) and ERA (2.75). Rookie Bret Prinz, called up to replace the injured Mantei, picked up 4 saves while recording a 0.82 ERA. Schilling also continued to dominate, going 5-1 for the month.

All-Star outfielder Luis Gonzalez keeps an eye on one of his club record 57 home runs in 2001.

Near the end of the May, Arizona was locked in the longest game in franchise history, an 18-inning marathon in San Francisco, that was scoreless until Erubiel Durazo's RBI double in the top of the 18th just after 1:00 a.m.

A winning streak against division foes that began in late May carried into June, as Arizona reeled off 9 in a row, all against N.L. West foes. An 18-9 record in June pushed Arizona to a 6-game lead in the N.L. West. Gonzalez earned his second National League Player-of-the-Month Award of the still not half over season, batting .417 with 12 home runs and 35 driven in. In the process, Gonzalez set team monthly records in 6 offensive categories. His performance was highlighted by a 3-homer game on June 8 in Kansas City, hitting roundtrippers to each part of the outfield. Rookie infielder Junior Spivey, called up earlier in the month, tied a club record with a 5-hit game at Colorado on June 21.

Johnson and Schilling combined to go 9-1 for the month, while as a team, Arizona hit .300. The D'Backs tied a team record with 12 home wins in June.

As strong as they were in June, the Diamondbacks found an equal amount of trouble in July, going 11-15. The club went into the All-Star Break on a downward slide, losing 5 out of 6, including being swept at home by Oakland, a series in which Arizona managed just 2 runs. It took a Danny Bautista leadoff single in the eighth to break up Mark Mulder's bid for a perfect game in the series opener, while Tim Hudson and Barry Zito continued the dominance in the remaining games. An 11-game road trip out of the break saw the Diamondbacks go 6-5, yet their division lead shrunk to 1 1/2 games, and the lead turned into a deficit after Arizona was swept in a 4-game home set by San Francisco. After beating Montreal on July 31, Arizona stood a half-game out of the lead.

The Diamondback logo took on a patriotic look behind home plate at Bank One Ballpark following the tragedies of September 11, 2001.

Johnson remained a steady force during the month, and continued to make history. On July 18, Arizona's game at San Diego had to be suspended when a transformer in Qualcomm Stadium exploded. The game was resumed as part of a doubleheader the next day, with Johnson coming on in "relief" of Curt Schilling. Johnson struck out 16 Padres, setting a major league record for most strikeouts in a relief appearance. In addition, the Big Unit limited the Padres to 1 hit over 7.0 innings in a 3-0 Diamondbacks win. For the month, Johnson went 3-0. The closer's role had been given to righthander Byung-Hyun Kim, who picked up 4 saves. It was another strong month at the plate for Gonzalez, who batted .310 with 9 home runs.

In an attempt to bolster a pitching staff hit by injuries, the Diamondbacks acquired righthanded pitcher Albie Lopez from Tampa Bay on July 25.

Johnson, Schilling and Gonzalez were selected to the National League All-Star Game, and Gonzalez was selected to participate in the Home Run Derby the night before the midsummer classic in Seattle. Gonzo, who had been voted by fans to the N.L. starting lineup, knocked off Sammy Sosa in the finals to take home a surprise victory. Schilling had been selected by N.L. Manager Bobby Valentine to start the game, but citing the fact he would be pitching in Anaheim 3 days later, deferred to Johnson, who made his second consecutive start, and the eighth appearance of his career.

With the season hanging in the balance, Arizona righted itself in August, and the night of August 10 can be targeted as the specific date things got put back on track. After dropping 2 out of 3 in Florida, and with a weekend series with the Braves in Atlanta next, Curt Schilling delivered a masterpiece, blanking the Braves on 6 hits over 7.0 innings, with Spivey and Grace both collecting 2 hits in a 7-0 win. Arizona went on to sweep the 3-game set, with Spivey delivering another 5-hit game in the series finale, becoming the 50th rookie all-time to have a pair of 5-hit games in his first season.

Danny Bautista slides head-first at home plate on Tony Womack's game-ending single that staked the Diamondbacks to a 2-1 victory over the Cardinals, propelling Arizona into the NLCS against Atlanta.

Johnson hit the record books again in August, becoming the first pitcher in history to have 4 consecutive 300-plus strikeout seasons by fanning his 300th victim on August 23 in Pittsburgh. Johnson went 5-1 for the month, coupled with Schilling's 4-1 mark. The pitching staff set monthly records in strikeouts (227) and fewest home runs allowed (20). Gonzalez and Sanders each hit 10 homers in the month, with Sanders batting .322. By month's end, the Diamondbacks were back in first place by 4 games.

A pair of heartbreaking 1-run losses in San Diego opened September, but baseball took a back seat on September 11 due to the terrorists attacks. A week-long postponement of games would push the regular season into the first week of October. When play resumed on September 17, the Diamondbacks' game at Colorado was both a game and somber tribute to those who had lost their lives and the public servants who put their lives on the line to help others. On the field, Arizona maintained a steady lead on San Francisco, in spite of losing 2 of 3 at Pac Bell. The lone win was Curt Schilling's 20th of the season, making him the franchise's first 20-game winner. Johnson followed him on September 27, making the duo the first 20-win teammates since 1999.

Craig Counsell, Curt Schilling and David Dellucci surround Luis Gonzalez after his game-winning hit to end the World Series against the Yankees

Luis Gonzalez' magic season continued, as he became the 26th player in history to go over 400 total bases in a season on September 29. The night before, Gonzalez' 11th inning walk-off homer gave Arizona a huge 4-3 win over Los Angeles.

The Diamondbacks used the final week of the season, rescheduled due to the terrorist attacks, to clinch their second N.L. West title in 3 years. After a 3-game home sweep of the Rockies, the club traveled to Milwaukee, where Albie Lopez tossed a 3-hit complete-game for a 5-0 victory. Later, much later that night (1:00 a.m. local time), the Giants lost at home, giving the Diamondbacks the title. After an emotional rollercoaster of a season, and the events that shook the nation, Arizona and its fans had been through plenty. The ride, however, was just getting started.

Arizona defeated St. Louis in the Division Series, 3 games to 2, beating Atlanta in the National League Championship Series, 4 games to 1, and became the fastest team to win a World Series, defeating the New York Yankees in a classic confrontation, 4 games to 3. This historic week climaxed on Sunday, November 4, when Luis Gonzalez looped a single over a drawn-in Yankee infield to cap a 2-run ninth inning rally off of Mariano Rivera and to set off the celebration and bring the Valley of the Sun its first major sports championship.

The series was credited with giving the nation a much-needed break from the tragedy, and reaffirmed baseball's place in the fabric of the country. In addition to being able to raise the Commissioner's Trophy, Diamondback pitchers Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling ended a season in which they dominated as few pitching duos ever had, by being named World Series co-Most Valuable Players.

Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling display the World Series Most Valuable Player award after sharing the honor by going a combined 4-0 with a 1.40 ERA during the Fall Classic. They were also named Co-Sportsmen of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

The accolades continued days later, as the club treated 300,000 fans to a parade through Copper Square, leading to a championship celebration in a packed Bank One Ballpark. In mid-November, Johnson received his third consecutive National League Cy Young Award. Luis Gonzalez earned the Louisville Slugger Silver Slugger Award, and as the World Champions, the Diamondbacks capped their phenomenal season with a visit to the White House to meet President George Bush on December 13.

2002 - Third Crown in Five Years
(98-64, First in N.L. West)

Late-season injuries contribute to early first round playoff exit... Johnson lands fourth straight Cy Young honor

With hardly a chance to catch its collective breath, the Arizona Diamondbacks entered 2002 as baseball's defending World Champions, intent on making it 2 titles in as many years. Unfortunately, the injury bug bit hard and the Diamondbacks stayed afloat long enough to clinch a third National League West crown, but found themselves eliminated in 3 straight games of the Division Series against St. Louis.

Knowing that standing pat would mean falling behind, the Diamondbacks made moves to bolster its pitching depth, signing free agent righthanded starter Rick Helling, and trading for lefthanded relief specialist Mike Myers. Helling, who had been Texas' staff ace the past 4 seasons, was set to join a starting rotation that already featured that dominant duo of Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling, while Myers would be used to go against left-handed hitters in late-game situations.

However, as had been the case 2 years before, injuries would dictate the fortunes of the 2002 D'Backs, and, like 2000, it started in the spring.

Third baseman Matt Williams, who had battled various injuries the previous 2 seasons, but had rebounded to be a productive force in the 2001 World Series, broke his left fibula while taking ground balls on February 25 in Tucson. The injury would keep Williams out of action until July 10. In the meantime, Craig Counsell stepped in and thrived in his new role as everyday third baseman. Counsell hit .292 in the season's first month, while provided stellar defense at the hot corner.

Jay Bell also went down with a right calf injury in the spring, clearing the way for Junior Spivey to become a bonafide star. Spivey, who was expected to open the season at Tucson (AAA), instead became the everyday second baseman. He opened the season by batting .323 in April, while tying for second in the National League in doubles, and placing himself in the top ten in multi-hit games, hits, extra-base hit and hit-by-pitches. Damian Miller also had a strong April with 22 RBI's in the first month. Johnson and Schilling picked up where they left off, with Johnson posting a 6-0 mark, and Schilling going 5-1. Johnson earned the National League Pitcher of the Month award for April, becoming the first pitcher ever to post 6 wins prior to May 1 in 2 different seasons (1999).

Schilling turned in April's pitching highlight, tossing a 1-hitter at Milwaukee on April 7, while striking out 17. Johnson also had a 17-strikeout game on April 21 against Colorado, marking the first time teammates had 17-K games in the same season. While Byung-Hyun Kim notched 5 saves in the closer's role, Myers also picked up a pair of his own. As a team, the Diamondbacks were tied with Los Angeles for the N.L. West lead at month's end, with a 16-10 mark.

Arizona took sole possession of the division lead in May, posting an 18-10 ledger that included a 12-5 record at home, closing out the month by taking 6 of 10 games from their closest pursuers in the N.L. West. Schilling earned National League Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for the third time in the last 4 seasons by posting a 5-0 record with a 2.80 ERA. Spivey continued his torrid hitting, batting .333 for the month with 4 home runs, while moving into a tie for the league lead in triples. Erubiel Durazo, who had missed the first 6 weeks of the season with a broken wrist, made an immediate impact on the club when he returned. In his second game back on May 17, Durazo hit a trio of 2-run homers against the Phils, while setting team records in RBI (9) and total bases (14).

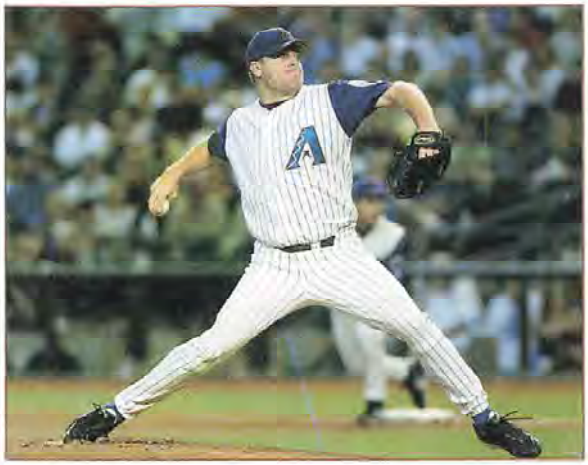
The injury bug bit yet again on May 22, when Danny Bautista suffered a season-ending shoulder injury just months after earning the everyday roll thanks to his 2001 post-season work.

June was a month of extremes. At the beginning of the month, the Diamondbacks swept an interleague series at Boston's Fenway Park on a road trip that included a return to Yankee Stadium, where Arizona salvaged the final game of a 3-game set. By the end of the month, the club needed wins in 2 of 3 games at Cleveland to earn a split of a road trip in which they had dropped 2 of 3 in Houston.

Craig Counsell provided solid defense and clutch hitting before a neck injury ended his season on August 9.

Quinton McCracken, signed as a minor league free agent in the spring, saw increased playing time due to the Bautista injury, and responded with a .403 batting average for the month. Matt Mantei returned to active duty after missing over a year due to "Tommy John" surgery, making his first appearance June 28 at Cleveland.

The All-Star break was just what the D'Backs needed. After entering the break 2 1/2 games out of first, Arizona posted a 14-6 mark for the remainder of July, and used the club's first-ever 7-0 homestand to move back into first place by 5 games. The Diamondback pitching staff reeled off a 31-inning scoreless streak during the homestand, while Luis Gonzalez batted .340 for the month.



Curt Schilling recorded a career-high 23 wins and joined Randy Johnson as the only teammates in history to achieve 300 strikeouts in the same season.

Arizona took control of the division race in August with a 19-10 mark, including a 10-4 road record, highlighted by a 4-game sweep of the Mets at Shea Stadium. Consecutive sweeps of Florida and Cincinnati led to an 8-game winning streak. Curt Schilling's win over the Cubs on August 16 made him a 20-game winner for the second consecutive year, while Byung-Hyun Kim went 3-0 with 6 saves. However, another player was lost to injury, as infielder Craig Counsell was sidelined on August 9 due to a pinched nerve in his neck. The injury eventually required season-ending surgery.

September was difficult and costly, as the Diamondbacks struggled to clinch their third division title in 4 years, with yet another injury adding to the difficulty. Luis Gonzalez suffered a separated shoulder while attempting to make a sliding catch of a foul ball of the bat of former high school teammate Tino Martinez on September 23 in St. Louis. Just 2 days earlier, lefthanded pitcher Brian Anderson was sidelined for the remainder of the campaign with a broken bone in his left foot. The N.L. West title was finally claimed on the next-to-last day of the season with a home win over Colorado, marking the first time the Diamondbacks were able to clinch a division crown in front of the home fans.

The Big Unit stood tall once again, delivering the first "Triple Crown" of his major league career, leading the league in wins, ERA and strikeouts to earn his fourth consecutive Cy Young Award.

During the month, Steve Finley collected his 2,000th career hit, and Schilling joined Johnson on the 300-strikeout list for the season, marking the first time in baseball history that one team had a pair of 300-strikeout pitchers.

Battered and bruised, the Diamondbacks could not match up against St. Louis in the Division Series and were swept in 3 straight.

Johnson's career best 24-5 record earned him a fourth consecutive National League Cy Young Award, only the second pitcher in major league history to win 4 in a row, joining Greg Maddux (1992-95). During the season, Johnson moved from ninth to fourth on baseball's all-time strikeout list, and joined Schilling as the first teammates to win at least 23 games. Schilling, Gonzalez, Spivey and Damian Miller joined manager Bob Brenly and his coaching staff on the National League All-Star team in Milwaukee. Johnson was selected, but chose not to attend due to rest a sore back and prepare for the second half of the season.

Jerry Colangelo

Managing General Partner

When Jerry Colangelo left his hometown of Chicago Heights in 1968, little did anyone know the impact he would eventually have on a community nearly 1,750 miles to the southwest. Combining the unique ability to recognize athletic talent and provide instinctive business acumen, Colangelo has served as the architect that has built the Valley of the Sun into one of the top sports meccas in the United States. In five years he has developed the most successful expansion franchise in major league baseball history, while also dedicating his time to the Phoenix Suns, the franchise that started it all for Colangelo in 1968. It's no surprise that the The Arizona Republic named him the Most Influencial Sports Figure in Arizona during the 20th century. He was also tabbed by The Arizona Business Journal as the top businessperson in the Valley.

Colangelo delivered a baseball franchise that has won three division titles in its first five seasons, including a World Series crown in just its fourth year of existence, a year faster than the 1997 Florida Marlins. The major difference between the two expansion winners starts at the top as the ownership group that is led by Colangelo kept the core of the championship club together. Conversely, the Marlins were dismantled immediately after winning their title and have been sold twice since the '97 Fall Classic.

The back-to-back National League West crowns, highlighted by the World Championship season of 2001, came after Colangelo sensed a change was necessary following a disappointing 2000 season. He and his staff recognized the need for a philosophical change in the managerial role, and hired team television analyst Bob Brenly to handle the day-to-day operation from the manager's office. A looser more casual approach by Brenly proved the right mix for a clubhouse full of veterans, something that Colangelo had stated would be the perfect tonic when he made the decision.

A highly visible leader, his typical day during the baseball season begins at America West Arena in the early morning and winds up well into the night at Bank One Ballpark. Despite the hectic schedule, Colangelo is available to the field staff, the players and the media on a daily basis.

The Diamondbacks are the second expansion success story of Colangelo's distinguished career, establishing his reputation in athletics with the Suns, joining the franchise in 1968 as the general manager and climbing through that organization to his present status as Chairman, CEO and Managing General Partner. He has been behind the construction of two of the top venues in professional sports, first spearheading the effort to build America West Arena, then leading the charge for Bank One Ballpark, a necessary commodity for Major League Baseball to grant a franchise to the Valley. He also spread his interests into the entertainment area by leading the charge for the new Dodge Theatre in downtown Phoenix, an amazing $35 million state-of-the-art venue designed specifically for concerts, Broadway stage shows, boxing and convention meetings.

"Losing" is not part of his vocabulary, typifying his upbringing in the "Hungry Hill" neighborhood of Chicago Heights. As a youth he was one of the top pitchers on a team that also featured the talents of future New York Yankee Jim Bouton. On the hardwood, Colangelo captured All-State honors, leading Bloom Township to a 49-8 mark and two appearances in the Illinois State Tournament. His athleticism led to 66 college scholarship offers for basketball and seven for professional baseball contracts. He was honored in his old neighborhood with the dedication of the Jerry Colangelo Gymnasium at Bloom Township on November 10, 1996, and Colangelo Way, a street named after him. Currently under construction in Chicago is the Colangelo Center which will house the Italian-American Hall of Fame.

He initially chose to attend the University of Kansas, but transferred to the University of Illinois after prospective teammate, Wilt Chamberlain, decided to sign professionally. A high school arm injury to Colangelo limited his playing career to just two seasons of baseball at Illinois, thus his athletic focus turned to hoops. He earned All-Big Ten honors for the Illini, averaging 15 points a game, served as team captain as a senior and was an eventual inductee in the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame.

Colangelo's professional career in athletics began with the Chicago Bulls as head scout and director of merchandising in 1966. Only two years later he made the now historic move to Phoenix, becoming the youngest general manager in pro sports, taking over the reins of the Suns. He held that role until October, 1987, when he led a group of investors that purchased the Suns franchise for $44.5 million, and he has served as the team CEO since.

In 1993, the same year he earned an unprecedented fourth NBA Executive of the Year award, Colangelo began assembling yet another group of investors that would eventually convince the expansion committee that big league baseball was not just a spring fling in the Valley.

The assertive and confident style of management that directed the Suns to seven consecutive 50-win seasons, and three appearances in the Western Conference finals, was now headed to another major sport. On behalf of the potential ownership group, he negotiated a deal with the Maricopa County Board of Supervisors that enabled the county to fund $238 million toward the construction of what is now Bank One Ballpark. During the same time frame, he helped facilitate the relocation of the NHL's Winnipeg Jets, now the Phoenix Coyotes, arranging the lease agreement for major league hockey in America West Arena.

Hard work and a winning attitude have been a way of life for Colangelo, and those characteristics have been instilled throughout the Diamondbacks' organization. A tour of Bank One Ballpark or America West Arena provides insight into the first class way that Colangelo wishes his franchises to be perceived, not only by the athletes who call Phoenix home, but by the opposition as well.

The respect and presence that Jerry Colangelo established in the NBA quickly surfaced around his brethren in Major League Baseball, as he serves on the MLBAM Internet Committee, the Legislative Committee and Equal Opportunity Committee. As for his original venture into the professional sports field - the NBA, Jerry is the Chairman of the NBA Board of Governors. Commissioner David Stern asked Colangelo to chair a special group in the 2000-01 season that evaulated the state of the game and made rules modifications. Jerry is also a member of the NBA Planning Committee, NBA Advisory/Finance Committee, Chairman of the NBA Expansion Committee and Chairman of the NBA Relocation Committee. His work in basketball earned him a nomination as a finalist for the Basketball Hall of Fame, Class of 2002.

A man who believes in commitment, not only professionally, but within the community, Colangelo has distinguished himself as one of the Valley's most active community leaders. The list of his "off-field" activities reads like a veritable who's who in the region. He is on the Board of Directors of the Phoenix Art Museum, Greater Phoenix Economic Council, Phoenix Community Alliance and Phoenix Suns Charities. He serves as vice president of the Phoenix Downtown Partnership and is chairman of Southwest Leadership Foundation. He is a lifetime member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds, an organization dedicated to the promotion of Phoenix through sports and the driving force of the Phoenix Open golf tournament, easily the most attended single sporting event in the country. He is past chairman of Arizona State University's Dean's Council of 100, on the Honor Board for Junior Achievement of Central Arizona and is past chairman of the board for the Christian Businessmen's Club. Colangelo currently serves as chairman of the board for the Council of Leadership Foundation, chairman of the board for the Collaboration for a New Century, he's on the board of Athletes in Action and is the director and principal partner of Stratford American Corporation, a real estate development company. He is a former president of Valley Big Brothers. He also served as the Honorary Grand Marshal for the 2000 Fiesta Bowl Parade.

Colangelo and his wife, Joan, whom he met on a blind date while at the University of Illinois, have raised a family of four children that includes ten grandchildren. The Colangelo family includes daughters Kathy Holcombe, Kristen Brubaker and Mandie Colangelo, and son, Bryan, who also maintains the Colangelo name on the basketball side, serving as the Suns' president and general manager.

Though his time is always at a premium, he found time to author a book, titled "How You Play the Game," giving insight into the world of the business of sports. Proceeds of the book sales go to YoungLife of Arizona, Arizona Diamondbacks Charities and Phoenix Suns Charities.

Jerry shares a laugh with NBA All-Star Shawn Marion during a Diamondbacks game last summer.

Richard H. Dozer

President

Named team President on March 9, 1995, the energetic Rich Dozer has kept the family name prominent in major league baseball circles. Raised in a baseball environment, his father Dick Dozer was a nationally renowned sportswriter, covering both the Chicago Cubs and White Sox for the Chicago Tribune. In taking advantage of every opportunity to spend time with his growing boy, Dick allowed his son to accompany him to spring training, where Rich lived out any young man's dream serving as a bat boy for each team.

The family aspect has not been lost on the younger Dozer, who has instilled that quality in all who have come aboard from other organizations. His unpretentious, open-door style has made the Diamondback front office one of the most comfortable and successful franchises in sports. He is passionate about his work and compassionate to those in the community, as evidenced by the '99 post-season when he invited Dwight Patterson to throw out the first pitch prior to the first Division Series game ever played in Bank One Ballpark. Patterson, who lured the Chicago Cubs to the Valley over 50 years ago to start what is now the Cactus League, was one of the most popular sports figures in Arizona. Sadly, the ceremonial first pitch was one of Patterson's final great memories, as the Arizona legend passed away just three days later.

Dozer proved to be the ideal candidate for his current role, possessing the knowledge of the inner workings of a Jerry Colangelo operated sports franchise after working for eight seasons with the Phoenix Suns. He joined the NBA franchise in July 1987 as business manager, and eventually ascended to Vice President and Chief Operating Officer by June of 1989. Responsibilities varied from accounting, finance, ticketing, office administration, insurance, and arena financing and operations. He was also the President of America West Arena and was intimately involved in that facility's development.

Dozer is a former Certified Public Accountant, specializing as an audit manager for clients in sports, hospitality and retail industries.

Though his responsibilities are many during the course of the year, fan comfort and enjoyment at Bank One Ballpark is among his highest priorities. In the last year Dozer has instituted "town hall" type meetings with season ticket holders, giving them a forum to display any concerns or ideas they may have to make the experience more enjoyable during a Diamondbacks game. He also endures the task of making the call on opening or closing the roof on a daily basis. The daily timing of the roof closure is vital to ensure that enough sunlight reaches the grass to keep it growing, and most importantly that the ballpark stays cool enough to allow the air conditioning to make the ballpark comfortable by game time. Dozer not only takes the playing conditions into consideration, but the building temperatures at all seating levels to ensure the comfort of the fans.

Much like Colangelo, Dozer's role is not just about the team, but about community as well. He serves on several boards, including Arizona Diamondbacks Charities, Phoenix & Valley of the Sun Convention and Visitors Bureau, and the Goodwill Industries Honor Board. He is a member of the the Major League Baseball Enterprises Board of Directors, the Greater Phoenix Economic Council and the City of Phoenix Executive Bond Committee. He is a life member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds, an arm of the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce that stages the Phoenix Open each year, one of the top attended single sporting events in the country, and he's also a member of the Phoenix Civic Plaza - Strategic Planning Task Force. He's also on the board of the YMCA, the Dean's Council of 100 for the Arizona State University College of Business, the Arizona Tourism Alliance and the Phoenix Community Alliance.

Dozer was the 2000/2001 and 2001/2002 Chairman - Alexis de Tocqueville Society, Valley of the Sun United Way. He and his wife Karie are the co-chairs for the $4 million capital campaign of the United Cerebral Palsy, whose goal is to complete the Laura Dozer Center, built to serve the needs of families whose children suffer from various disabilities.

He possesses a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Arizona, graduating in 1979. Rich has an 11-year old daughter, Danielle, and he and his wife Karie have a four-year old daughter, Laura Grace. They make their home in Phoenix.

Joe Garagiola Jr.

Senior Vice President - General Manager

The best testimony to the work of Joe Garagiola and his baseball operations department was the success of last year's club. Challenged by wearing a target as the defending World Series champs, the now three-time Western Division title holders had to rely on the depth of a bench and farm system to survive the rigors of a season that was challenged with injuries at several key positions. No general manager in expansion history with healthy players has achieved the success of Garagiola, with three division titles in five years, much less after losing the likes of Matt Williams, Jay Bell, Danny Bautista and Craig Counsell for extended periods due to injuries.

Following the euphoria of the 2001 World Series victory, the roster underwent a few adjustments with the addition of lefthanded specialist Mike Myers, signing of free agent Rick Helling and non-roster invitees Quinton McCracken and Chris Donnels. Those moves plus the emergence of organization originals like Junior Spivey, Mike Koplove and Rod Barajas, all fall under the umbrella that is held by Garagiola. Challenged prior to this year to add depth to the pitching staff, Garagiola pulled the trigger on a four-team deal that landed Elmer Dessens to the Arizona starting rotation. He and his staff also worked to deepen the bullpen by signing veteran relievers Mike Jackson, Ron Villone and Ricky Bottalico to minor league deals prior to spring training.

While change is evident on a daily basis throughout baseball one constant has been the consistency of the Diamondbacks thanks to the effort put forth by Garagiola and his staff. The only general manager that this organization has known, Garagiola has acquired by trade such vital components to the everyday lineup as Bautista, Williams, Luis Gonzalez and Tony Womack, as well as closer Matt Mantei, who was lost due to elbow surgery, but returned to the bullpen for the second half of 2002. One of Garagiola's less heralded moves at the time, but one that has brought huge dividends was the signing of a 20-year old pitcher from Korea named Byung-Hyun Kim, who stepped in as the closer after Mantei's injury and last year established a single-season franchise record for saves. Entering the 2003 campaign, Garagiola was able to secure signatures of every arbitration eligible player prior to the exchanging financial figures between the two sides.

BINGSTREBEST on Archive.org

When the 2001 Fall Classic began, Craig Counsell was the only active Diamondback with a World Series ring, but there was another graduate of the University of Notre Dame who also owned such a ring, and he just happened to be the person who sat in the General Manager's chair at Bank One Ballpark. Joe Garagiola had served 25 years earlier as the general counsel and assistant to the president of the New York Yankees, earning a ring while employed in the Bronx.

Taking advantage of the resources provided by ownership, Joe was the foreman of a construction team that assembled the fastest World Series winner in expansion baseball history. He fine tuned a club that had finished 12 games out of the hunt in 2000 after winning 100 games the year before. Included were the signings of Mark Grace and Reggie Sanders, both of whom provided outstanding numbers, while the quiet off-season discovery of Miguel Batista turned into one of the top bargains in the game.

Garagiola's effort was congratulated by the highest of powers when President George W. Bush invited the organization to the White House on December 13, 2001. During the course of the visit, the President couldn't resist bringing up a comparison between himself and Joe Jr. stating, "I've always been suspicious of guys who have a famous father," referring in jest to his father the former President and Joe's dad who has made a name for himself both on and off the field.

The changes leading up to 2001 were far less dramatic than those he engineered in turning this club from a 65-win inaugural season to the 100-win squad that represented the greatest single-season turnaround in major league history. Featuring players from the expansion draft, trades, free agency and the amateur draft, the Diamondbacks jelled as a team quicker than any previous expansion effort, winning a division title six years sooner than any other first-year franchise. Garagiola's preparatory work for 1999 did not go unnoticed, as he finished third in Executive-of-the-Year balloting.

Following the inaugural campaign of '98, Garagiola immediately went to work to overhaul the roster, signing key free agents that included the likes of Randy Johnson, Steve Finley, Todd Stottlemyre, Greg Swindell, Greg Colbrunn and Reynoso. Garagiola then went to work with other GM's, procuring key pieces to the puzzle via the trade route. One of the least publicized yet most productive deals came during the Christmas holidays with Detroit, as the Diamondbacks received Luis Gonzalez and cash considerations from the Tigers in exchange for Karim Garcia. Still seeking a leadoff hitter, Garagiola delivered during the second week of spring training, acquiring Tony Womack from Pittsburgh in exchange for a pair of minor leaguers. Womack has had four solid years since arriving in Arizona, highlighted by a pair of huge hits that led to the 2001 World Series title.

Once the '99 campaign was underway the Diamondbacks hovered near the top in the N.L. West, but it became apparent that more bullpen help was a necessity. Garagiola solidified the pen with the mid-July acquisition of Matt Mantei in a package that sent three players to Florida. The arrival of Mantei helped stake the Arizona bullpen to the second best ERA in the National League.

Garagiola joined the Diamondbacks in March, 1995, when the franchise was awarded to the region, but it was his work on the Arizona Baseball Commission that served as a driving force in procuring major league baseball for the Valley. He served as vice-chairman of the Governor's Cactus League Task Force, and was a member of the Mayor's Professional Baseball Committee. From there he branched out to the Maricopa County Sports Authority, serving as chairman. Garagiola was also chairman of the Arizona Baseball Commission, the group best known for completing the task of convincing existing major league clubs that Phoenix and the region were ready to possess their own club. Garagiola made his move to the Valley in 1982, applying his law practice to the firm of Gallagher and Kennedy. His concentration was on sports law, and he was the chairman of the Phoenix Metropolitan Sports Foundation from 1985-87.

Joe was the 1998 recipient of the prestigious Institute of Human Relations Award from the American Jewish Committee. He is also a life member of the Thunderbirds, the group that procures and distributes charitable money through the highly successful Phoenix Open.

Joe graduated from the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, IN, earning a B.A. cum laude in 1972. He earned his law degree from Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., 1975), and is admitted to practice law in Arizona, California and New York. He and his wife, Noel, have four children, Meredith, Valerie, Natalie and Christopher, and make their home in Scottsdale.

Sandy Johnson

Vice President - Assistant General Manager

Sandy has served the Diamondbacks as the Assistant General Manager since April 1, 1998, and was promoted to Vice President/Assistant G.M. prior to the 2003 campaign. Originally a major league scout and Special Assistant to the General Manager, he played an integral part in preparation for the expansion draft, supplying a lifetime of knowledge and scouting experience.

Highly respected throughout the game of baseball, he received a true testimony to the friendships he has gained over his career when the Diamondbacks visited the White House last December 13. His former boss with the Texas Rangers and current President of the United States, George W. Bush, completed his remarks on Arizona's World Championship and while exiting the East Room he spotted Sandy and came over to give him a hug and special hello.

In addition to Johnson's responsibilities with the Diamondbacks, he was a member of the USA Baseball Selection Committee, the group that chose the 24-man roster that made-up the Gold Medal winning squad in the 2000 Olympics in Sydney.

Signing out of high school with the Pirates' organization, Sandy broke into professional baseball with the Pittsburgh organization in 1959, playing with Hall of Famer Willie Stargell in San Angelo, TX. Johnson finished his career as a player/coach in the Pirates' minor league system. He scouted and managed with the Seattle Pilots organization during their brief history, then followed the franchise to Milwaukee when they became the Brewers. Sandy managed for three seasons in that chain after the move, which included a Midwest League title with Danville in 1971.

After serving as a full-time scout for the Brewers in 1973-74, Sandy joined the Major League Scouting Bureau, serving as the Eastern Supervisor until 1981. He then joined the San Diego Padres as their Director of Scouting working there through the championship season of '84. While with the Padres, Johnson's ability to recognize and sign talent began to show in earnest, with the signings of youngsters Benito Santiago, Mitch Williams and Sandy Alomar, Jr.

The who's who of signings continued as his career moved to Texas, as Assistant General Manager and serving in Player Personnel and Scouting. While with the Rangers, Sandy was instrumental in acquiring Juan Gonzalez, Pudge Rodriguez, Sammy Sosa, Rich Aurilia and pitchers Kevin Brown and Robb Nen.

Raised in South San Gabriel, CA, Sandy was inducted into the RBI Hall of Fame in February, 1999, joining a list of prestigious previous honorees that include Duke Snider, Eddie Murray, Tom Lasorda and Ozzie Smith.

Sandy and his wife, Linda, make their home in Phoenix. They have three children, Matthew, Bethany Gehrman and Dane, and four grandsons, Stefan, Leo and August Gehrman, and Lars Johnson.

Mike Rizzo

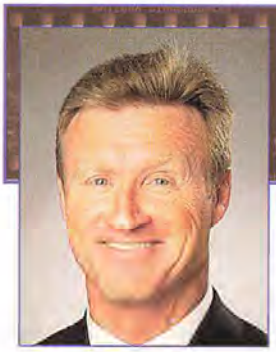
Director of Scouting

Mike is in his fourth full season as the Director of Scouting for the Diamondbacks, a role that has him traveling the globe to procure talent that will hopefully find its way to Bank One Ballpark. Responsible for all facets of scouting, including draft strategy and selections in the June First-Year Player Draft, Rizzo operates a streamlined department of 47 while also controlling the scouting operations budget. There is no off season for Rizzo, who spent a portion of his winter in Australia and at the Caribbean World Series as he continues to expand Arizona's world-wide coverage.

The 2003 campaign is Mike's 21st year in pro ball, a career that began with a four-year stint as a minor league player in the California Angels' system. Once his playing career ended, he served as an assistant coach at the University of Illinois while completing his Bachelor of Arts in Communications. The Illinois-native began his professional scouting career with the Chicago White Sox, where he served as Midwest and Southeast territorial scout, during which time he inked future two-time American League MVP Frank Thomas. His stint with the White Sox was followed by a six-year stay with the Boston Red Sox, where his responsibilities included area supervisor, international scout and major league advance scout.

He first arrived in the Valley in 1998, serving the Diamondbacks as the national supervisor of the Central region prior to his promotion to Director. In his three years overseeing the scouting department, Rizzo has placed an emphasis on drafting players with collegiate baseball experience. Of the first 20 draft picks in each of his first three drafts, Rizzo and his staff have successfully made 92% (55 of 60) part of the organization. In the most recent Baseball America listing of the team's top 30 prospects, 22 were signed by Rizzo. He earned the 2002 Scouting Director of the Year Award from the Chicago Pitch and Hit Club.

Mike was raised in Chicago, lettering in baseball, basketball and football at Holy Cross High School. He and his wife, Sheilah, have a son, Michael Jr. (2/15/90) and make their home in Scottsdale.



Tommy Jones
Director of Player Development

An organization original, Tommy Jones has a variety of responsibilities that run year-round, including coordination between minor league general managers, field managers, coaches and trainers. A field manager at virtually every minor league level, Tommy recognizes the necessities of a minor league franchise while still keeping his focus on the development of players at every level.

Jones came to Arizona after a 12-year minor league managerial career that included seven Manager-of-the-Year honors.

After concluding a minor league playing career in the San Diego and San Francisco organizations (1976-81), Tommy went to work as a manager in the Kansas City organization. It was an eventful five years in the Royals' chain, from managing Bo Jackson in his first professional season at Memphis to being a member of the big league coaching staff the year that Kansas City won the World Series in 1985.

Jones' minor league travelogue also included stops in the organizations of the New York Yankees, Seattle Mariners, Milwaukee Brewers and Chicago Cubs, managing in each chain. He managed the Rookie League Lethbridge club in 1997.

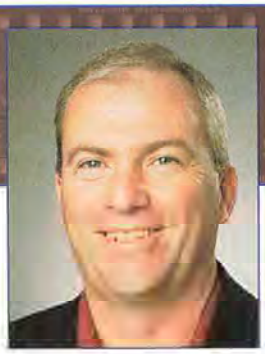
Jones has a B.A. degree in pre-law studies from the University of the Pacific, where he played collegiately. He and wife, Joan, have two children, Sarah and Tyler, and make their home in Scottsdale.

Bob Miller
Director of Baseball Operations

Bob is in his 21st year in baseball and fifth with the Diamondbacks. As Director of Baseball Operations, he has numerous administrative responsibilities in Scouting and Player Development and assists the Baseball Department in all phases of operation, including arbitration cases, contract negotiations, waiver rules and interpretation and computer work. Miller paid his dues prior to arriving in the Valley, working for 16 years in the minors, applying his baseball knowledge to a variety of stops. He was the Executive General Manager of the Amarillo Dillas of the independent Texas-Louisiana League, joining the organization prior to the '99 season, after a year as the Vice President of Baseball Operations in the league's Abilene (TX) office.

Prior to his work in the Texas-Louisiana League, Miller spent 14 seasons with the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, serving in a variety of roles. He began with the National Association in 1983 as the Director of Records and Computer Operations, overseeing the free agent program, reserve lists, qualification register, approval of Rule 4 Draft signings, free agent signings and rules interpretations. In 1994, he was named the Executive Director of Business and Finance, supervising the Minor League commissioner's office baseball operations finances.

A long-time Florida resident, Bob graduated with honors with a B.S. in Finance from the University of South Florida. He and his wife, Chris, make their home in Phoenix.



Roger Riley

Director of Team Travel

Roger is in his sixth season with the Diamondbacks, beginning as the Director of Team Travel in the winter of 1997, then adding the duties of Clubhouse Manager prior to the World Series season of 2001. As if being a member of a World Championship wasn't enough, he capped that year by earning the 2001 Traveling Secretary of the Year award, as voted his peers in major league baseball. Aside from his regular duties on the road, Riley assists baseball operations when the needs arise regarding player movement and computer work.

Roger doesn't have much of an "off-season" as evidenced by his departure for the MLB clubhouse manager meetings just 72 hours after the Diamondbacks won the World Series title last year. He spends the majority of the winter signing hotel and charter aircraft contracts for the upcoming year. As the season commences he arranges for ground transportation in each city and makes sure the hotel is prepared for the team's arrival with room keys in hand, regardless of the hour. Roger is also in charge of dispensing meal money to the traveling party, and handles player ticket requests both at home and on the road.

His role with the Diamondbacks also includes work on the schedule, and making sure that game times both at home and on the road are within the guidelines of Major League Baseball. Riley also works on the exhibition schedule with other Cactus League clubs and coordinates the travel plans for all players and staff members as they prepare for the six-week stay in Tucson.

Baseball was far from uncharted territory for Riley, who played college ball at the University of Kansas. It was there he began working as a statistician, and spent 19 years with a variety of network television assignments, including the Bowl Championship Series title game in the Sugar Bowl in 2000. Upon joining the Padres in 1990, Roger was the Assistant Director of Media Relations, then for two seasons worked as both the Director of Media Relations and the Travel Director. He departed from the media chair after the '96 season and combined his travel responsibilities with Baseball Administration, working with the General Manager.

He and his wife, Donna, have three daughters, Taylor, Shannon and Ashley, and make their home in Chandler.

Mike Swanson

Director of Public Relations

Simply known as "Swanee," the 2003 season is Mike's 25th in major league baseball. His arrival in Arizona has been far from uneventful, capped last year by earning the prestigious Robert O. Fishel Award for Public Relations Excellence. The award, named after the long-time baseball executive, goes to the "Active, non-uniformed representative of Major League Baseball whose ethics, character, dedication, service, professionalism and humanitarianism best represents the standards propounded by Robert O. Fishel." The honor came a year after working for his first-ever World Series champion, and two years after serving as the Public Relations liason for the MLB All-Star squad that played an eight-game series in Japan in November, 2000.

The Diamondbacks are the second straight franchise start-up for Swanson, who had a similar experience with the Colorado Rockies, joining that organization in 1992, a year before they played their first game in the National League. After six years with the Rockies, Swanee joined Arizona immediately following the '97 season. He has also worked in the Public Relations departments for the Kansas City Royals and San Diego Padres.

Though baseball is his passion, Swanson has had the opportunity to be involved in all sports throughout his life. His mother, the late Betty Swanson, worked for both the Kansas City Athletics and Chiefs over a 36-year span, and oftentimes had the younger Swanson tagging along, working in the equipment rooms for both franchises, and traveling with the Chiefs during their glory years of the early 70's.

Around his baseball career, Swanee has also served as a statistician, starting in 1977 with Keith Jackson on college football and evolving into stints with Monday Night Football, and the sharing of booth space with some of the top announcers in sports. He was recruited to join CBS Sports when current Suns' announcer Gary Bender was calling the play-by-play for NCAA Basketball. All totaled his statistical resume featured six Final Fours, six Super Bowls, four NFC Championship Games, five Sugar Bowls and six Cotton Bowls.

Diamondbacks Business Vice Presidents

Senior Vice President of Marketing and Sales

In 1995, Scott Brubaker was asked to bring his successful creative marketing skills from the America West Arena across the street to the Arizona Diamondbacks. The move has proven mutually beneficial to Scott and the Diamondbacks, as it was he who has led the charge on some truly innovative marketing and entertaining concepts including the famous MasterCard Pool Pavilion swimming pool in the right field bleachers of Bank One Ballpark.

Other innovations at Bank One Ballpark for which Brubaker and his staff are responsible, include the naming of the Infiniti Diamond Level, the first time a level of a stadium or arena has been corporately sponsored, but a practice that is now commonplace in the industry. Bank One Ballpark is also recognized throughout the industry as being one of the friendliest venues in the country.

Brubaker, 38, joined the Suns as a sales and marketing representative in 1986, soon after graduating from the University of Illinois. He quickly climbed the organization's corporate ladder, serving as director of marketing for the America West Arena and VP of operations for Phoenix Arena Sports, which included the operation of the two-time ArenaBowl World Champion, Arizona Rattlers, as well as the Arizona Sandsharks (Continental Indoor Soccer League), the Phoenix Smash (World Team Tennis), NHL neutral sight hockey games. Additionally, Brubaker and PAS were the co-promoters for Oscar De La Hoya's first-ever pro fight.

As the senior vice president of sales and marketing, he is charged with guiding the club's sales efforts through a downturn in sports spending and in the face of unparalleled competition in the Phoenix sports and entertainment marketplace. Brubaker's other responsibilities include overall management of the Diamondbacks' sales and marketing efforts, corporate partnerships, game operations, luxury suite sales, broadcasting, community affairs, Hispanic marketing and Tucson operations. Additionally, he oversees all of the advertising, branding and positioning within the club's marketing territory. Scott was recently recognized for his accomplishments as he was named to the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal's 2002 "Forty Under Forty" list identifying the sporting industry's top forty executives under the age of forty.

He is busy outside the office as well, serving on several boards such as Lost Canyon Executive Committee for Young Life of Arizona, the American Cancer Society Chairman's Circle, Arizona Diamondbacks Charities, and is also a member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds. He is also a passionate and extremely competitive golfer. Scott and his wife, Krissie, have four children: daughters Hilary, Heather and Hannah, and son Jayce.

Tom Harris

Senior Vice President of Finance

Tom joined the Arizona Diamondbacks as the Vice President of Finance in July of 1995. The man in charge of the entire operating budget, Harris and his accounting staff work in concert with each department to maintain their individual budgets. He also supervises all general accounting activities, and ensures operations are in accordance with ownership goals and objectives.

Harris came to the Diamondbacks by way of the Phoenix Suns and the America West Arena, where he was the Financial Controller of the Arena for two years. Prior to entering the sports industry, he was employed by Gene A. Schwarzkopf, CPA, Ltd. for three years.

A native of Winslow, an Arizona town that the Eagles made famous in the song "Take it Easy," Tom graduated in accounting from Arizona State University, and earned a Master's in Taxation from ASU in December 1992. He began his professional career in 1985 at Arthur Andersen & Co.

Away from the ballpark, Tom serves on the boards of Arizona Diamondbacks Charities and Esperanca, Inc. He is also an advisor to the Arizona State University MBA Sports Business Program. He and his wife, Kathleen, have four children, Sean, Sarah, Kelly and Katie, and make their home in Phoenix.

Dianne Aguilar
Senior Vice President of Ticket Operations and Special Services

Dianne has 26 years of ticketing experience, which included an impressive array of sporting events in the Valley before joining the Diamondbacks. She supervised ticketing for Arizona State's 1987 Rose Bowl appearance, the NBA Finals, the opening of America West Arena and the NBA All-Star Game.

Born in Phoenix and a graduate of both Tempe High School and Arizona State University, her ticketing career began in the Athletic Ticket Office of ASU during her days as a student in 1976. While still a student, she was promoted to ticket manager and during her tenure, the Sun Devils played in the '87 Rose Bowl and Sun Devil Stadium was expanded to its current size.

In 1990, Dianne was named ticket manager for the Phoenix Suns and was later named Director of Ticket Operations for the move to America West Arena. One of her monumental tasks was determining seating assignments for season ticket holders from Veterans Memorial Coliseum into the new facility. This was a skill that came in handy during the seat selection process for the opening of Bank One Ballpark.

Dianne's favorite sport, baseball, was the one she had not worked and she jumped at the chance to join the Diamondbacks as V.P. of Ticket Operations and Special Services. Her responsibilities include supervision of all ticketing, the luxury suites at Bank One Ballpark, guest services, working with the ADA (American Disabilities Act) to ensure the stadium is handicap accessible and overseeing the Tours Department.

Mark Fernandez
Vice President of Corporate Sales

Mark was promoted to his current role of Vice President of Corporate Sales in the spring of 2001, supervising all aspects of team sponsorship sales, marketing and execution, including new business development. He had spent nearly two seasons as the Diamondbacks' Vice President of Community Affairs. Though now involved on the sales side, Mark remains involved in the club's community efforts, including membership on the Diamondbacks Charities Board.

His initial responsibilities with the organization was a three-year stint as the Director of Operations in Tucson, representing both the Diamondbacks and the Chicago White Sox in the development and construction of Tucson Electric Park while establishing a marketing and community presence in southern Arizona.

Returning to the Arizona office of the Diamondbacks was a homecoming for Fernandez, who joined the America West Arena/Phoenix Suns organization in January, 1992, serving as Director of Marketing and Booking for the arena, setting numerous attendance records for national touring events. Mark also supervised guest services and was Director of Game Operations for Phoenix Arena Sports.

As is consistent with the majority of Diamondbacks' personnel, Mark gives back when away from the office, serving on the Board of Directors of the Valley of the Sun United Way, St. Joseph's Hospital and the America West Airlines Education Foundation. He and his wife, Trudie, and children, Grace, Jamie and Eden, make their home in Phoenix.

Scott Geyer
Vice President of Broadcasting

Scott's endless hours of work began in 1995 as he prepared the organization for its live television productions, as well as provided design insight into the construction of Bank One Ballpark from the media point of view. The Diamondbacks had the right man providing that information, as Geyer is in his 22nd year of sports television, serving the club as the Director for each game telecast throughout the year. He had a particularly busy off-season prior to the 2003 campaign, spearheading the search for new radio and television announcers after the departure of Rod Allen.

Prior to his move to the Diamondbacks, Geyer spent 10 years as Producer/Director of the Phoenix Suns television package, while also managing the production and post-production division of America West Arena since it opened in 1992. His baseball television resume includes directing a major league package for FOX Sports Net and a five-year stint directing AAA baseball in the Valley in the 1980's.

Scott and his wife Lisa have two sons, Adam (9) and Travis (6).

Rob Kiese
Vice President of Sales

Rob was promoted to his current role as Vice President of Sales during the off-season prior to the 2002 campaign. He has been with the Diamondbacks since 1996, joining the organization as a sales manager with the task of turning 42,000 season-ticket deposits into actual season-ticket holders. He was promoted to Director of Sales in 1997 and held that position until his most recent ascension.

A veteran of 17 years of event sales experience, Kiese was no stranger to the Phoenix sports scene prior to joining the Diamondbacks, making the move to the Valley from Houston in 1984 and joining the Phoenix Suns as a sales representative. He was promoted to sales manager in 1985 and stayed with the NBA franchise until joining the then Phoenix Cardinals as Director of Sales in 1989, working there through the 1992 season.

Rob is a 1978 graduate of Bowling Green State University. His first event sales position was with the Alley Theatre in Houston, TX. He and his wife, Bobbi, who is an attorney in the Valley, make their home in central Phoenix. When away from their respective offices, Rob and Bobbi have played softball in the Phoenix Co-ed Rec League for the past 17 years. Kiese is on the Board of Directors for the American Red Cross Grand Canyon Chapter.

Bank One Ballpark and America West Arena Vice Presidents

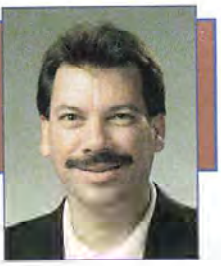
Alvan Adams
Vice President - Facility Management

As Alvan Adams makes his rounds at Bank One Ballpark and America West Arena, area fans recognize the former Phoenix Sun whose number "33" jersey hangs proudly at AWA. The Suns' first round choice in the 1975 draft, Alvan earned league Rookie-of-the-Year honors in 1976 to jumpstart an outstanding NBA career.

Adams retired from the hardwood in 1988 but returned a year later having turned his attention to the development of America West Arena. He took on the same task with the construction of Bank One Ballpark in 1996. He was named to his present role in 1999, overseeing both sports and entertainment facilities.

Once he completed his NBA career, Alvan returned to the University of Oklahoma, earning a Bachelor's Degree. His civic involvement revolves around his interest in working with youth and the historic preservation of Phoenix.

Alvan and his wife, Sara, have two children, Justin and Emily, and make their home in Paradise Valley.



Russ Amaral
Vice President - Event Services

Russ is in his fourth year as Vice President of Event Services for both the America West Arena and Bank One Ballpark. His job scope entails him overseeing guest services issues, event operations and off-season coordination of Ballpark special events.

He saw a World Series operation first-hand in 2000 when he was invited by Major League Baseball to assist with stadium operations during the "Subway Series" at both Shea and Yankee Stadiums. This proved a valuable experience the following year as the Diamondbacks successfully hosted games 1, 2, 6 and 7 of the 2001 World Series against the New York Yankees and became the "fastest ever" expansion team to win a championship.

Amaral has been with the organization for 11 years, having held positions as a Guest Services Representative, Department Manager, Event Coordinator and Director of Ballpark Services.

Amaral is a graduate of Oregon State University, earning a degree in Business Administration. He and his wife, Beverly, make their home in Phoenix.

George Bevans
Vice President - Security and Risk Management

George is responsible for developing and implementing safety and security plans for Bank One Ballpark, America West Arena and the new Dodge Theatre. Utilizing over thirty years of experience, Bevans has designed and implemented security and safety plans for such major events as the NBA Finals, NBA All-Star Game, the 2001 World Series and numerous concerts and special events.

George began his career in 1968 as a military police officer and continues to provide his hands-on approach to solving organizational safety and security problems to this day.

William Bolt
Vice President - Information Systems

When Bill joined the organization in 1991 as the Suns' Director of Information Systems, the computer count totaled five, but that figure has since grown to nearly 600 while he has been promoted to Vice President. He oversees the computer needs for all entities of Bank One Ballpark, America West Arena and the new Dodge Theatre.

Bill's role with the Diamondbacks and Suns is not his first work in professional sports, spending five seasons as the Director of Information Systems for the NFL's Minnesota Vikings. Bolt split his formative years between Detroit, MI, and Cleveland, OH, growing up a fan of both the Tigers and Indians. He then attended the University of Minnesota.

Bill and his wife, Kathie, make their home in north Scottsdale.

Bob Nanberg
Vice President - Merchandising

Bob joined the Team Shop in May, 1998, bringing 32 years of retail experience with Major National Retailers. He was the Principal in a national women's accessory chain from 1986-95.

In addition to the Team Shop, Nanberg is involved with the Salvation Army, Arizona Humane Society and Sunshine Acres Children's Home.

Tom O'Malley
Vice President and General Counsel

Tom is in his fourth season with the Diamondbacks as the chief legal officer as well as the organization's other entities, the Phoenix Suns, the Phoenix Mercury, Arizona Rattlers, America West Arena and Team Shops.

O'Malley worked for the law firm Fennemore Craig and represented businesses in all facets of commercial law. While with the firm Gallagher and Kennedy he assisted in the drafting of documents for Bank One Ballpark and also worked on cases related to trademark infringement, fraud and breach of contract. O'Malley was a founder of Insight Computers, growing the company from five employees to multi-million dollars in sales in just four years.

O'Malley graduated from the University of Kansas in 1987 before attending University of Arizona Law School. He and his wife, Laura, are the parents of Erin (6) and Tara (5).

Paige Peterson
Vice President of Bank One Ballpark

As the General Manager of Sports and Entertainment Services, LLC (SES), Paige oversees all operations of Bank One Ballpark, America West Arena and the Dodge Theatre. He joined the organization in 1995 as Controller of America West Arena, where his responsibilities included budgeting, financial reporting and settlement of events held at the arena. When SES was formed in 1999, Paige was promoted to his current position.

Prior to coming on board, Paige spent four years in public accounting with Arthur Andersen in Phoenix. He graduated from the University of Arizona, earning a degree in accounting and finance.

Paige and his wife, Jody, have two sons, and make their home in Phoenix.

Manager
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 210
Age: 49
Born: February 23, 1954 in Coshocton, OH
Residence: Scottsdale, AZ
Former Position: Catcher

TWO YEARS, TWO DIVISION CROWNS— Bob Brenly has only been a field manager for two years of his entire life, but in those two years he has walked where very few have walked before...the 49-year old former player, coach and broadcaster has won a National League Western Division crown in each of his first two seasons at the helm...since the arrival of divisional play in 1969, only B.B. and former Houston manager Larry Dierker have captured division titles in their first two seasons...ironically, both Brenly and Dierker returned to wearing a uniform and began managing after successful stints in their club's respective broadcast booth...Bob was named the second manager in franchise history when he took over the reins on October 30, 2000 and has compiled a 190-134 record in his two seasons on the bench...his success rate is even more remarkable considering he managed major portions of the 2002 season without Matt Williams, Danny Bautista, Jay Bell and Craig Counsell, and had to seal a second straight division title knowing All-Star leftfielder Luis Gonzalez would be lost for the post-season after a final week injury...due to the abundance of injuries and his "hot hand" approach to managing, Brenly employed 141 different lineup combinations in 2002, 18 more than he used during his rookie campaign as manager...the club's success in 2001 afforded Brenly the opportunity to manage the National League All-Star team in Milwaukee last summer, and though it was cannon fodder for critics to challenge the outcome of the tie game, it was one of the most exciting Midsummer Classics ever played, with every member of both teams given the opportunity to play.

A WORLD CHAMPION SKIPPER IN YEAR ONE—If someone would have told some managers in spring training that they were going to lose their closer (Matt Mantei) and 40% of their starting rotation (Todd Stottlemyre and Armando Reynoso) before the second month of the year was over, that manager might not have believed deep down a World Series title was achievable...that was far from the mindset of Bob Brenly's debut season as manager, as he attacked every day the same way, convincing himself, his coaches, players and anyone else who would listen that the 2001 club could win it all...Brenly's rookie campaign in the hot seat was nothing short of brilliant as he led the Diamondbacks to the World Series title in the organization's fourth year of operation...capped by the memorable ninth inning comeback in the seventh game against the Yankees, Brenly became the fourth skipper in history with no previous managerial experience to win the Fall Classic, first since Ralph Houk called the shots for the Bronx Bombers in 1961 against Cincinnati...Bucky Harris (1924-Senators) and Eddie Dyer (1946-Cardinals) complete the foursome of first-year success stories who won World Series titles...Brenly was the first rookie manager to reach the Series since Jim Frey led Kansas City against the Phillies in 1980, and the first in the National League since Sparky Anderson of the 1970 Reds...B.B. was also the 20th overall manager to take a team to the World Series in his first full year at the helm, the ninth in the N.L....Arizona's wins in games 1 and 2 of the Series made Brenly the only manager with no previous experience to win his first 2 World Series games...he used 123 different lineup combinations during the regular season followed by 15 different lineups out of 17 games in the post-season...no better example of Brenly's style prevailed during the World Series when he chose to put Bautista in the lineup after spending the majority of the season as an extra, and the outfielder responded by hitting .583 (7-for-12) in 5 games against the Yankees...also part of the Brenly approach when the year began was to attempt to eliminate unnecessary innings for his 1-2 punch of Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling, and the theory paid off with the duo combining to go 9-1 with a 1.30 ERA in the post-season, capped by sharing the MVP honors in the World Series...by finishing as the last team standing, the Brenly-led Diamondbacks raised the trophy in a major league record fourth season, a year quicker than the 1997 Florida Marlins...he was also the first rookie skipper to reach a League Championship Series since Toronto's Cito Gaston in 1989, and the first to reach an NLCS since Houston's Hal Lanier in 1986.

FROM THE BOOTH TO THE BENCH—When the Diamondbacks were looking to fill their managerial void after the 2000 season, the organization didn't have far to go to find their new skipper, as the affable Brenly spent the first 3 seasons of the club's history watching the action from the comfort of the television booth...he surrendered his spot upstairs at D'Back games as well as "the best seat in the house" at his weekly FOX Network assignment to sign a 3-year contract to manage the club...B.B. began his broadcast career immediately following his retirement as a player, joining the WGN radio crew in Chicago and working alongside Thom Brennaman and Harry Caray for two seasons...Brenly then took advantage of an opportunity to put the uniform back on in 1992, joining Roger Craig's staff as bullpen coach with the San Francisco Giants...he remained in uniform after a managerial change in the Bay Area, working on Dusty Baker's staff for the first 3 years of Baker's lengthy stay with the Giants...Bob went to spring training for a possible fourth year as a coach with the Giants in 1996, but 2 weeks into camp received a phone call from his old running mate in Chicago, as Brennaman advised him of the opportunity at FOX...a flight to Los Angeles and a rehearsal tape later, Brenly was again leaving the uniform for the booth... Bob's insight into the game earned him annual work in the FOX booth for all of the network's marquee baseball events including the All-Star Game, League Championship Series and World Series coverage...when Brennaman was named to describe the action for the expansion Diamondbacks, he made the recommendation of bringing his network TV partner to Arizona and the duo was together when the club debuted in 1998.

TOOLS OF IGNORANCE???—There seems to be room for discussion on the alleged "ignorance" of catchers since 9 former receivers are managing major league clubs this year...joining Brenly are Bruce Bochy (San Diego), Bob Boone (Cincinnati), Bob Melvin (Seattle), Tony Pena (Kansas City), Mike Scioscia (Anaheim), Jeff Torborg (Florida), Joe Torre (New York Yankees) and Ned Yost (Milwaukee)...the last 5 World Series titles have been won by managers who spent their playing career behind the plate (Torre 1998-2000), Brenly (2001) and Scioscia (2002)...Brenly's .586 winning percentage over his first 2 years tops all former catchers' career marks at the helm among those who managed at least one full season (see chart below):

PLAYING CAREER—Bob signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Giants after graduating from Ohio University in 1976...after 5+ years of minor league action, including the better part of 2 seasons with the Phoenix Giants, he was summoned to San Francisco in August, 1981, making his big league debut just a couple of hours away from his hometown of Coshocton, OH, when he played in Cincinnati on August 14...while that was a memorable day in his life, his debut at bat in Candlestick Park on August 28 made an even bigger splash when he homered off of Pittsburgh's Rod Scurry...his 1982 season started slowly after breaking his collarbone in spring training but when Brenly appeared for the first time on May 14 he delivered a 2-out single in the eighth inning to break up Steve Carlton's bid for a no-hitter...Bob made a solid impression to open the 1983 season, homering and knocking in 4 on Opening Day, but his most consistent work offensively lasted the entire 1984 campaign...he established career bests in virtually every category, finishing with a .291 average with 28 doubles, 20 homers and 80 RBI...he hit .316 in the first half and was named to the N.L. All-Star team, allowing him to play before the home crowd at Candlestick Park in the Midsummer Classic...his season climaxed when he was voted winner of the Willie Mac Award by his teammates...the '84 season also featured his first career grand slam off of Atlanta's Pete Falcone on June 6 in Candlestick...he was the N.L. Player-of-the-Week for August 20-26, hitting .440 with 4 homers and 14 RBI...he started the following week with an inside-the-park, game-winning home run at Montreal on August 29...Bob was Giants' Player-of-the-Month for August, hitting .312 with 8 homers and 29 RBI... though he never duplicated the numbers of 1984, Brenly recorded 73 home runs over a 4-year stretch from 1984-87...with 19 home runs in 1985, he was the first Giant catcher to lead the team in homers in 100 years when Buck Ewing hit 6 of the team's 16 in 1885...the 1986 season had its share of high points, but he will often be remembered for a game on September 14 against Atlanta that was full of the highs and the lows...on that afternoon, B.B. became just the fourth player since 1900 to commit 4 errors in an inning...playing third base, he was charged with 3 fielding and 1 throwing miscue in the fourth inning, but he reciprocated by knocking in 4 runs on 3 hits, featuring 2 home runs including a game-ending blast off of Paul Assenmacher...for the second time in his career he victimized a potential no-hitter by a Phillie hurler, breaking up Don Carman's bid for a perfect game with a leadoff double in the ninth inning on August 20...Bob had his fourth and final double-digit homer season in 1987, featuring a 3-run pinch-hit home run in Candlestick Park on May 12 off St. Louis' Ricky Horton, the 500th hit of Brenly's career...he had blasted the second grand slam of his career just 2 days earlier off of Houston's Mike Scott...his last home run of the year was a 10th inning game-winner to beat Atlanta on the final day of the season, and was the 205th blast by the Giants in 1987 to set a team record...Brenly started 5 games of the NLCS against St. Louis, delivering a home run in Game #4 off of Danny Cox...Bob never got it going offensively in 1988 hitting just .189 in 73 games...he delivered his sixth career 2-homer game on May 8 at Wrigley Field and tied a career-best with 5 RBI on August 7 in Atlanta...1989 was his last as a player and began as a free agent signee in Toronto...he was used mainly as a DH, playing in 48 games before receiving his unconditional release on July 23...his last big league homer and lone A.L. shot took place on June 14 in Milwaukee off of Mark Knudson...Brenly signed a AAA contract with the Giants affiliate in Phoenix, hitting .255 in 27 games for the Firebirds before his contract was purchased by San Francisco on August 31...the home folks welcomed Brenly back with a standing ovation as he came to the plate for his first at bat on September 2, and he responded with an RBI double off of Frank Viola...he delivered a game-winning RBI in the 12th inning at Candlestick on September 14 off the Reds' Norm Charlton.

PERSONAL—Robert Earl (Bob) Brenly...he and his wife, Joan, have a daughter, Lacey (7/9/82) and son, Michael (10/14/86) and make their home in Scottsdale...Bob was a 1972 graduate of Coshocton (OH) High School, lettering in baseball and basketball...he then graduated from Ohio University in 1976 with a Bachelor of Science in Health Education while starring on the baseball diamond, earning All-American honors for his senior season after tying Mike Schmidt's school record for home runs (10)...Brenly was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame on October 29, 1988...known for his television work prior to becoming a World Series winner, Bob actually got his first taste of working in the media while still active as a player with the Giants, hosting "The Bob Brenly Show" after every Giants game in 1988...he was also active with the ALS Society during his career, serving as an honorary chairman...away from the ballpark Bob relaxes by playing the guitar, riding his motorcycle and partaking in an occasional round of golf...he has participated in the Phoenix Open Pro-Am festivities in each of his first 2 seasons as Diamondback manager.

MARK DAVIS

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 215
Age: 42 (Turns 43 on October 10)
Born: October 10, 1960 in Livermore, CA
Residence: Scottsdale, AZ
Former Position: Pitcher

COACHING CAREER—Mark joins his first major league coaching staff in 2003 after spending 4 seasons as a pitching coach in the Diamondbacks' system...he worked with the youngest hurlers in the organization with the Arizona League squad in Tucson in 1999-2000, then spent the 2001 campaign with Missoula (Rookie)...M.D. was the pitching coach last year in El Paso (AA), working with a staff that included prospects Mike Gosling, Andrew Good, Oscar Villarreal and Brandon Webb, recording a team-record 3.75 staff ERA in '02...Davis was ticketed to coach at El Paso again in 2003, but was brought on board as the major league bullpen coach in January...he also served as pitching coach for Grand Canyon in the Arizona Fall League in 2001.

PLAYING CAREER—Mark spent 18 seasons in pro ball as a player, including big league stops with Philadelphia, San Francisco, San Diego, Kansas City, Atlanta and Milwaukee...he broke in with the Phillies in 1980 and was part of a couple of blockbuster trades during the course of his career, the first occurring in 1982 when he traveled from Philly to San Francisco as part of a 5-man exchange that included Mike Krukow to the Giants and Joe Morgan and Al Holland to the Phils...the move to the Giants also witnessed a role change for the southpaw, who had served as a starter throughout his career until the 1984 campaign when he began working out of the pen...M.D. was later shipped to San Diego in 1987 in a 7-player swap that included a future National League Cy Young Award (Davis) winner and a Most Valuable Player (Kevin Mitchell)...Mark's career flourished in 2 1/2 seasons with the Padres, becoming a full-time reliever in which he combined the 1988-89 seasons for 72 saves and a pair of All-Star Game assignments...the biggest highlight was the '89 season when Davis recorded a league-leading 44 rescues in 48 opportunities and a 1.85 ERA to win the Cy Young Award, National League Rolaids Relief Man-of-the-Year Award and San Diego MVP honors...his 44 saves at the time were the most in the National League since Bruce Sutter rescued 45 for St. Louis in 1984...Mark's terrific season was capped with free agency and Davis signed on with the Kansas City Royals, where he spent 2 1/2 years and was unable to recapture the success he enjoyed with the Padres...he was dealt in 1992 to Atlanta, which was followed by return trips to Philadelphia and San Diego...M.D. had some health issues over the next couple of years, including left shoulder surgery in August, 1996...he successfully returned to the hill in 1997, signing a minor league contract with the Diamondbacks a year before the major league club was slated to debut...he pitched in Arizona's minor league system until August 14, 1997, when he was traded by the Diamondbacks to Milwaukee, where he wound up making 19 relief appearances...included in his final big league action was the 1,000th strikeout of his career when he K'd Boston's Reggie Jefferson on September 12, 1997.

Hitting Coach
Ht: 6-1 Wt: 220
Age: 48
Born: March 18, 1955 in Merced, CA
Residence: Chandler, AZ
Former Position: Outfielder

COACHING CAREER—An organizational original, Murph is in his sixth season on the major league coaching staff and his third as the club's hitting coach...he joined the Diamondbacks in 1996 as manager of the Arizona Rookie League entry, then spent the '97 season as a coach at High Desert (A), as the Mavericks won the California League title...Murph followed that with a stint as the first base and outfield coach for the Grand Canyon Rafters in the Arizona Fall League, then joined the big league club in 1998...he spent his first 3 seasons with the Diamondbacks as the outfield and first base coach, employing his defensive expertise to a group of outfielders that features 4-time Rawlings Gold Glove honoree Steve Finley...Murph was also behind the success of a pair of position switches when Tony Womack and Travis Lee each made successful transitions from infielders to outfielders...Murph was a daily fixture at Bank One Ballpark during the winter working with hitters.

PLAYING CAREER—Recognized as one of the top centerfielders in the game during his time, Murph has the hardware to show for his efforts...he was a 6-time winner of the Rawlings Gold Glove for defensive excellence, procuring them in consecutive seasons from 1980-85 with the Oakland A's...he spent 12 years in the majors, the first 10 of which were with the Athletics before finishing up in 1988 and 1989 with Detroit and Philadelphia, respectively...though his offensive numbers didn't make the same headlines that his glove work commanded, Murph delivered 166 home runs and 609 RBI...he was named to The Sporting News All-Star team in 1981, leading the A.L. in game-winning RBI...he enjoyed a 33-home run season in 1984 with the A's, knocking in 88 runs, while posting 27 homers and 94 RBI in 1982...he also ended his playing career with 100 stolen bases, twice pilfering 26 in a season...Murph was part of an unusual trivia question in 1980, as he and Wayne Gross each stole home in the first inning of a game vs. Kansas City on May 28.

PERSONAL—Dwayne Keith Murphy...he and his wife, Brenda, have two sons, Dwayne (5/12/73) and Scott (11/23/74), and a daughter, Christina (9/2/79) and make their home in Chandler...Murph played for one season in Japan in 1990 with the Yakult Swallows, then returned stateside to coach football...a 3-sport athlete at Antelope Valley (CA) High School, football landed him a scholarship to Arizona State, but he turned it down to sign with the Athletics in 1973...he returned to the gridiron in 1991 at Monte Vista (CA) High School, coaching the freshman team, then the junior varsity the following season before taking over the head coach position at California High School from 1993-95...he then returned to baseball, joining the Diamondbacks' organization...an avid golfer, Murph can oftentimes be found on one of the many courses in the Valley.

ROBIN YOUNT

First Base Coach

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 180

Age: 47 (Turns 48 on September 16)

Born: September 16, 1955 in Danville, CA

Residence: Paradise Valley, AZ

Former Position: Infielder/Outfielder

COACHING CAREER—Robin returned to full-time duty in a big league uniform last year, his first as a major league coach since his retirement as a player after the '93 season...his title is first base coach, but he also shares his experience as both a 2-time Most Valuable Player, once as a shortstop (1982) and once as an outfielder (1989)... since his retirement as a player, Robin spent the majority of his time with his family and working with his son Dustin, who was a ninth round pick of the Baltimore Orioles in 2001...Robin's only other coaching experience prior to joining the Diamondbacks was as a spring instructor in Milwaukee's big league spring camp.

HALL OF FAMER—Robin spent his entire 20-year major league career as a member of the Milwaukee Brewers, breaking in as an 18-year old shortstop and finishing up in 1993 as an outfielder with an all expenses paid trip to Cooperstown just around the corner...he was formally elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame on January 5, 1999, in a class that included fellow first ballot inductees Nolan Ryan and George Brett...it marked the first time since the first election in 1936 that 3 players on the ballot for the first time were elected to the Hall in the same season...in 1936, Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Christy Mathewson, Babe Ruth and Honus Wagner were all in the first Hall of Fame class...Yount became the fourth former Brewer to enter the Hall, joining Hank Aaron, Don Sutton and Rollie Fingers, but the first to enter donning a Brewer hat...at age 43, Robin was the youngest inductee since Johnny Bench entered Cooperstown at the age of 42 in 1989...his playing career was also immortalized in Milwaukee's Miller Park as a member of the inaugural class of the Walk-of-Fame and with a statue outside the new ballpark.

PLAYING CAREER—Robin's 20-year career ended in 1993 with 3,142 hits in the books and a pair of American League Most Valuable Player awards...he won the honor while playing a pair of different positions, first earning the vote as the Milwaukee shortstop during their World Series season of 1982, then again as the Brew Crew's centerfielder in 1989...he was just the third player in major league history to win MVP awards at 2 different positions, joining immortals Stan Musial and Hank Greenberg...Yount's professional career began with a quick 1-year stint with Newark in 1973, then he was summoned to the Brewers at the tender age of 18 in 1974 and never saw the minors again...a lifetime .285 hitter, Robin eclipsed the .300 mark 6 times in his career, topping out at .331 during his first MVP season of 1982...he led the A.L. in doubles (46) and hits (210) in '82 while finishing with a career-high 29 home runs and 114 RBI...Yount followed the regular season with a .414 (12-for-29) effort in the 7-game World Series against the Redbirds...his second MVP season featured a .318 mark in 160 games with 21 homers and 103 RBI...he was named by USA Today as the Player-of-the-Decade for the 1980's... Robin became the third youngest player to record 3,000 hits when he singled off of Cleveland's Jose Mesa on September 9, 1992, at the age of 36 years, 11 months and 24 days...only Ty Cobb and Hank Aaron were younger when they recorded career hit #3,000...Yount called it a career after the 1993 season as the Brewers leader in virtually every offensive category...he was a 3-time All-Star (1980, '82 and '83) and won a Rawlings Gold Glove for his work at shortstop in 1982...he made the move to the outfield in 1985 after undergoing shoulder surgery the previous November... Robin's first outfield experience was in left, but on July 11, 1985, he moved over to centerfield and remained there for the rest of his career...not surprisingly, Yount was named the Brewers' Rookie-of-the-Year in 1974...he collected the first of his 3,142 hits on April 12, 1974, off of Baltimore's Dave McNally...he is the only 4-time winner of Milwaukee's MVP award (1982, '87, '88 and '89)...Robin earned the Brewers' President's Award for meritorious service representing the club both on and off the field with exemplary conduct in 1991.

PERSONAL—Robin R. Yount...he and his wife, Michele, and daughters, Melisa, Amy and Jenna, and son, Dustin, make their home in Paradise Valley...Robin was a 1973 graduate of Taft High School in Woodland Hills, CA, where he lettered in baseball and football...he earned All-League, All-City and Player-of-the-Year honors for his prep work on the diamond...he was Milwawukee's first round choice in the 1973 June draft...his brother, Larry, pitched in the Milwaukee and Houston organizations from 1968-75.

COACHING HISTORY

2002 First Base Coach, Arizona Diamondbacks.

In The Clubhouse

Head Athletic Trainer

The Diamondback training room has been a true test of Paul's abilities as not only a trainer but his expertise in rehabilitation, as he and partner Dave Edwards have excelled at getting players back on the field. The work by the training staff is enhanced by one of the top medical facilities in any professional sports venue, featuring a room dedicated to hydrotherapy and an in-house X-Ray machine with technicians.

Paul's six years of work with the Diamondbacks is his first major league action, but not his first baseball experience, breaking in with the Ft. Lauderdale Yankees in 1987. Prior to returning to baseball, Lessard had a 10-year career as a trainer in collegiate athletics.

The 40-year old Lessard graduated from Northeastern University with a degree in athletic training. He spent two years as the assistant athletic trainer for the Atlanta Falcons, then went to work in the Yankees' chain before returning to the college ranks. Paul was the senior athletic trainer at Boston University from 1988-94, then served as the head athletic trainer at Holy Cross University from 1994-97.

A native of Stamford, CT, is a member of the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association and the Athletic Trainers Organization of Massachusetts. Paul has a pair of daughters, Grace and Anne.

Dave Edwards
Assistant Athletic Trainer

Dave is in his sixth season as the assistant athletic trainer with the major league club, though he's one of the organization originals, working for a pair of minor league seasons. The 37-year old's baseball training career started in the Arizona chain in 1996 for the Rookie League entry, then it was on to High Desert, working for the California League champs in 1997. Edwards' bilingual skills are a terrific asset in the training room, eliminating any potential medical communication difficulties with Spanish speaking players, as well as serving part-time as an interpreter.

A native of Deming, NM, Edwards received a degree in athletic training from New Mexico State University in 1988. During his final days at New Mexico State, Dave began plying his trade in pro baseball with Pocatello and Everett in the Giants' chain from 1987-90. He earned his Master's in athletic training from the University of Nevada in 1991, then returned to the Valley as the head athletic trainer at Grand Canyon University from 1991-96. He was also the assistant trainer for three seasons for the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League.

Dave is single and makes his home in Phoenix.

Strength and Conditioning Coach

Dave is in his fourth full season with the big league club, joining the championship squad at mid-stream in 1999 and remaining here since. His Diamondback career began as the minor league strength and conditioning coordinator in 1998, designing both winter and in-season programs for all minor league players. Page also trained and supervised the strength coaches for each affiliate, and worked with the Tucson Sidewinders until his move to Phoenix.

His baseball strength coaching career began in the Marlins' chain, administering an in-season program with the Portland Sea Dogs in the Eastern League, also serving as their bullpen coach.

A four-year baseball letterman at the University of Southern Maine in Gorham, Dave received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1989. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the National Strength and Conditioning Association, and completed a sports medicine internship in 1997.

Dave and his wife Lori have a son, Jackson, and make their home in Tempe.

Dr. Michael Lee
Head Team Physician

Dr. Lee is in his third full season as the Head Team Physician after assisting the organization with its orthopedic needs for five years. In his current role, Dr. Lee oversees a support team of orthopedists and primary care physicians to provide whole-spectrum medical care to the entire Diamondbacks organization. He is board certified in orthopedic surgery and is an active member of the Major League Baseball Team Physicians Association.

He had previously taken care of other major league clubs, as well as serving as orthopedic consultant to the Arizona State University sports teams. Dr. Lee grew up in Phoenix, then graduated from the University of California-San Diego and attended the University of Arizona, where he completed Master's coursework in Exercise Physiology, graduating from the College of Medicine with honors in 1988. He completed his orthopedic residency at the University of Kansas, then was awarded a Sports Medicine fellowship with the University of Illinois School of Medicine.

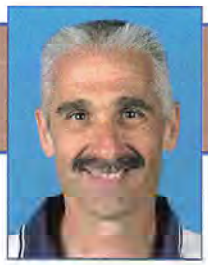
Dr. Lee returned to Phoenix nine years ago with his wife, Martha, and three children, Conor (21), Allison (19) and Brendan (18).

Dr. Roger McCoy
Team Physician

Roger L. McCoy, M.D., has been part of the Diamondbacks' family since the organization's start-up, working with the minor leaguers prior to the opening of the '98 major league season. He is a Board Certified Family Physician with special training in sports medicine. After graduating from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, he received his master's degree in anatomy as well as his medical degree from Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio. While completing his family practice residency in Toledo, he served as a team physician for the University of Toledo and a couple of local high schools for three years.

Dr. McCoy was honored as the Sports Medicine Fellow at Michigan State University where he served as team physician and a faculty member teaching and developing course work at the medical school.

Aside from his responsibilities with the Diamondbacks, he is also team physician for Arizona State University, a published author in sports medicine literature and a member of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine.



Greg Latta
Head Minor League Trainer/Rehabilitation Coordinator

Greg joined the Diamondbacks at the end of the 2000 season as the club's coordinator of rehabilitation and minor league head trainer. Working out of the Tucson complex, 43-year old Latta continues the work he did most recently for the Chicago White Sox minor league system.

After graduating from Western Michigan University in 1982, Greg took his degree in education and went in another direction, being hired by the White Sox and assigned to their AA team in Glens Falls, NY. He moved up to AAA in 1985 and through 1997 made stops in Buffalo, Hawaii, Vancouver and Nashville before making his way to Tucson and settling in as the minor league head trainer and rehab coordinator for the Sox.

Greg and his wife, Sue, and son, Nicholas, make their home in Tucson.

Bob Doty
Visiting Clubhouse/Equipment Manager

A native San Diegan, Bob made a tough decision but made the move to Arizona in the winter prior to the 1998 season, assuming the same role he held in San Diego for a dozen seasons. Adept in all phases of the equipment operation, Doty is also in charge of ordering and stocking equipment for the major league and minor league clubs. He joined the Diamondbacks after a 20-year stay in his hometown with the Padres.

The role of the visiting clubhouse attendant is an all-encompassing position including unpacking each team when their equipment arrives at Bank One Ballpark, regardless of the time of day, while also cleaning all of the uniforms and making sure the clubhouse is properly catered for the visiting players.

A graduate of University High School in San Diego, Bob and his wife Angie have a pair of daughters, Lauren and Sarah, and make their home in Phoenix.

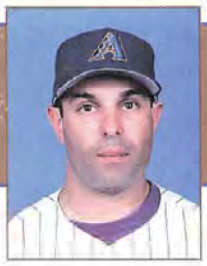
Jim Currigan
Chris Carlock
Clubhouse Video Operations

Jim Currigan and Chris Carlock provide the players and coaches with all of the video material necessary to hone their games or scout upcoming opponents. The duo is responsible for taping every game the Diamondbacks play as well as the games available on satellite of the opposition to help in game preparation.

Currigan has been with the Diamondbacks since their inception, but in 2001 assumed his new role as video coordinator. A member of the organization's in-house television production crew since 1997, Currigan was a 1997 Broadcast Journalism graduate of Arizona State University. He and his wife Mary, and son, Riley James (5/4/01) make their home in Phoenix.

Carlock, who travels with the club during the entire regular season, was a 1999 graduate of Arizona State University with a BA in Broadcast Journalism. Raised in Suisun, CA, his Diamondback career began as a production assistant on the Emmy award winning "D'Backs Playin' Hardball." He is single and resides in Phoenix.



Tony Dello
Batting Practice Pitcher/ Pitch Chart

Jeff Motuzas
Batting Practice Pitcher/ Bullpen Catcher

The behind-the-scenes uniform roles go to a pair who get the full workout during the course of a day, either home or road, in Tony Dello and Jeff Motuzas.

Dello, a Chicago, IL, native, is in his fifth season of throwing batting practice from the left side for the D'Backs, hitting pre-game ground balls, then taking a shower and heading into the seats behind home plate to chart every pitch of the ball game. He was a 1985 graduate of Woodstock High School in Chicago, then played for two seasons at Los Angeles Pierce Junior College in Woodland Hills, CA, earning all-league honors, and for two years at St. Mary's College in Morago, CA.

Motuzas also throws batting practice every day, then puts the gear on and heads to the bullpen where he warms up relievers and outfielders during the contest. He became one of the more publicized BP pitchers in 2001 when he was the pitcher in the All-Star Home Run Derby won by Diamondback Luis Gonzalez. Formerly a catcher in the Yankees' chain, Jeff was a 13th round pick of New York in 1990 after earning All-American status at Nashua (NH) High School.

Tony and Jeff spend an abundance of the "off-season" at Bank One Ballpark available to the players who choose to use the stadium facilities and batting cage during the winter months.

Both are single and make their off-season homes in Phoenix.

A great team, at home or on the road.

48

Catcher

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 220 B/T: R/R

Age: 27 (Turns 28 on September 5)

Born: September 5, 1975 in Ontario, CA

Residence: Scottsdale, AZ

M.L. Service: 2 years

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a non-drafted free agent on February 12, 1996. Signed by Steve Springer.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Rod spent the majority of the year with the big league club and though Bob Brenly didn't want to label anybody a "personal catcher," he was behind the plate for 27 of Miguel Batista's starting assignments...it was Rod's busiest year of major league action, appearing in 70 games, opening the campaign on the major league roster for the second straight season, but this time remaining with the Diamondbacks for all but 10 days in August...he finished strong, going 6-for-9 in the middle games of Arizona's 4-game season-ending sweep over Colorado... included was a 2-for-4 contest on September 27, featuring a 2-run single to cap a 4-run first inning, followed the next day with a career performance, recording his first major league 4-hit, 4-RBI game, featuring 2 doubles...Rod closed the season going 8-for-14 with 4 doubles and 7 RBI in his last 5 games...the first half included a 5-game hitting streak from May 30-June 12, capped with a 2-run homer at Yankee Stadium off of Mike Mussina that opened the scoring in Arizona's first-ever win in the Bronx, a 9-5 decision...it was also Barajas' first home run since his lone World Series start in Game #5 on November 1, which was also a blast off of Mussina that staked the D'Backs to a 2-0 lead...though he hit only 3 home runs on the year, Rod's second shot turned a 5-2 lead into a 7-2 advantage on July 13 in Dodger Stadium as Arizona took the first 3 games of a post All-Star break visit...he was hitting only .151 through play on June 25, but enjoyed a 19-game stretch in which he batted .315 (17-for-54) to get his season mark to .219...included was a big 2-out, 2-run single on August 13 in Cincinnati to help stake Rick Helling to a win and start a 3-game sweep of the Reds...Rod was 7-for-22 against opposing base stealers, highlighted by nailing 5 of the last 9 potential thieves...was optioned to Tucson (AAA) on August 21 and hit safely in all 4 of his starts during the abbreviated visit, going 7-for-15 (.467) after going hitless in 1 pinch hit at bat.

2002 DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS—Rod appeared in 2 games against the Cardinals, going a combined 1-for-4...he entered game #2 as a defensive replacement and going 0-for-1, then made the start in game #3 at Busch Stadium, going 1-for-3 featuring a homer off of Andy Benes...Barajas is a career 3-for-9 in post-season play, with 2 of the hits going for home runs.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Rod made the big league club out of spring training for the first time after being part of the September roster expansion in each of the 2 previous seasons...serving as a back-up, he made 19 starts through June 15 then he was optioned for the first of 2 trips to AAA...Rod opened the year going 6-for-18 (.333) including 3 home runs in his first 7 games, his only 3 blasts of the regular season...he had a pair of month-long stints with Tucson, but was recalled for keeps on August 24, thus was eligible for the post-season roster...he was 4-for-27 at throwing out potential base thieves, his best day taking place on May 15 in Cincinnati when he nabbed both Pokey Reese and Deion Sanders to help protect a 5-1 Arizona win...he also conspired with Mark Grace on a huge play in Arizona's October 4 win over Colorado, as the Rockies had runners at first and second with 2 out in a 5-4 game...Rod fired behind Juan Uribe at first base to end the Colorado threat and help preserve the 1-run win, the day before the D'Backs closed out the N.L. West crown...though jockeyed back-and-forth between AAA and the majors, Rod batted .321 in 45 games for Tucson (52-for-162) with 13 doubles, 9 homers and 32 RBI...a catcher by trade, Rod also appeared in 21 games at first base for Tucson. 2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—An injury to Damian Miller during the World Series gave Rod the opportunity to display his talents on the biggest stage of all as he made the start in Game #5 at Yankee Stadium...Miller was scratched from the lineup after succumbing to a right calf strain and Barajas stepped in to contribute with a pair of hits while also nabbing a baserunner attempting to steal...Rod singled in his first-ever post-season at bat in the third inning, then hammered a solo homer to left off of Mike Mussina in the fifth, his first home run since April 21...the home run was Arizona's second blast of the inning, joining Steve Finley and was the 34th time in Series history that a team homered twice in an inning, 15th by a National League club...from behind the plate he nabbed Alfonso Soriano attempting to steal second base in the third inning...Rod's only other post-season action came as a defensive replacement in Game #2 of the Division Series against the Cardinals and in Game #6 of the World Series vs. the Yankees. 2000—Rod had his first career look at AAA action spending the entire season with Tucson, leading the club in home runs (13) and RBI (75)...he was recalled to the major league club when the roster expanded in September, appearing in 5 games for the Diamondbacks, starting 3 times...Rod homered in his first big league at bat of the season, hitting a 2-run shot off of Atlanta's Terry Mulholland at home on September 16. 1999—Rod got a surprise phone call in mid-September that found him heading to the majors for the first time in his career...after completing his first full year of AA ball at El Paso, he received the news on September 18 that his contract was purchased to add depth to a depleted catching corps due to a hand injury to Damian Miller...Rod made 5 starts for the D'Backs, collecting his first big league hit on September 27 off of Colorado's Brian Bohanon...he was also behind the plate in the season finale on October 3, when Arizona posted its 100th win, contributing a double and his first major league homer, a second inning solo blast off of San Diego's Heath Murray...Rod hit .318 in 127 games with El Paso, finishing with the third best batting average among all minor league catchers. 1998–Playing for High Desert (A) in the California League, he led the entire Diamondback organization with 23 home runs...he recorded a 3-homer game on April 7 vs. Lancaster...that kicked off a stretch of 6 homers in 6 games (10 RBI), earning California League Player-of-the-Week honors...finished 5th in California League in hitting (.303) and 2nd in home runs (23). 1997–Missed the first half of the season because of a back injury, but came back to give High Desert 30 RBI and 7 HR in just 57 games. 1996–Started the season on loan to Visalia in the California League and struggled until joining Lethbridge in the Pioneer League where he hit .337 in 51 games.

PERSONAL

Rodrigo Richard (Rod) Barajas...he and his wife, Stacie, have a daughter, Aunalilia (1/26/02), and sons, Andrew (10/23/95), and Bryce (12/26/00), make their home in Scottsdale, AZ...Rod earned first-team all-conference honors at Santa Fe Springs High School and repeated the honor at Cerritos Junior College in Norwalk, where he was also team MVP...Barajas went undrafted, but was signed by Arizona after attending a tryout camp.

MIGUEL BATISTA

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 197 B/T: R/R

Age: 32

Born: February 19, 1971 in Santo Domingo, DR

Residence: Weston, FL

M.L. Service: 5 years, 45 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, November 15, 2000.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Miguel's versatility proved a valuable asset once again, though the majority of his relief work was limited to the first few weeks of the season...he worked out of the pen in 6 of his first 7 outings, with the lone start in that stretch resulting in a 6-3 victory over the Rockies on April 14, completing the first-ever 4-game sweep of Colorado in Coors Field...Batista became a staple in the rotation on April 27, making 28 starts over his final 29 appearances of the year...despite an 8-9 record, Miguel did not have a lot of margin for error in any of his defeats, with the Arizona offense scoring 3 runs or less in each of the losses, totaling 17 runs, including 4 games in which the D'Backs could muster only 1 run...to display how well he pitched, the Diamondbacks were winners in 7 of his 11 no decisions...taking it a step further, in 2 of his no decisions, Miguel tossed shutout ball, only to leave and have the club come up on the short end of a 1-0 final in each instance...both of those starts took place in Pacific Bell Park, as Batista threw 9.0 innings of 1-hit, shutout ball on May 28, the lone knock a fourth inning single by Jeff Kent...Miguel left the contest locked in a scoreless tie, with the Giants breaking through in the 10th...he later fired 7.0 shutout frames in Pac Bell on September 6, scattering 4 hits, but also left in a scoreless tie with San Francisco winning in the ninth...another sterling performance by Batista was at home on July 24, knocking off the Rockies by a 7-1 count...it was his third career complete game, first since June 5, 1999, spanning 50 starts, allowing a first inning homer to Todd Helton, then giving up 2 hits the rest of the way...Miggie had another of his tough no decisions at home on August 9 against Florida, firing 8.0 shutout innings of 2-hit ball and leaving with a 1-0 lead, but the Fish tied the contest after his departure...fortunately, Erubiel Durazo hit his second solo homer of the game, a walk-off shot for a 2-1 Arizona win...Batista posted a pair of interleague wins when the D'Backs toured 2 of baseball's shrines, opening the road trip with a 7-5 win in Fenway Park on June 7, then closing the excursion with a 9-5 victory in Yankee Stadium, Arizona's first-ever win in 6 tries in the Bronx...Miguel had mid-season problems with a blister on his middle finger, actually resorting to "superglue" to toughen the skin in the affected area...he did not allow a home run in his last 8 regular season starting assignments, spanning 45.2 innings, and only 1 in his last 60.2 frames, a first inning homer to Sammy Sosa on August 17...not known for his hitting prowess, entering the year with an .081 career average (9-for-111), Batista established a personal best with 8 hits, 1 more than he had with Montreal in 1999...included was his second career home run, a solo shot off of Los Angeles' Kazuhisa Ishii on June 2 in Dodger Stadium.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Miguel proved an invaluable piece of the pitching puzzle during the 2001 season, serving in a variety of roles on the mound while compiling a career-high 11 victories, 3 more than with Montreal in 1999...though opening the year in the pen, he finished as an integral part of the rotation allowing just 2 earned runs over his final 3 starts, spanning 19.0 innings, a 0.95 ERA...included were wins over N.L. West rival Los Angeles during the stretch run, combining a pair of 7-inning performances to allow only 1 run on 8 hits...he was a 10-0 winner in Dodger Stadium on September 29, then backed it up 8 days later with an 8-1 win at home...dating back to a relief appearance on September 2 at San Diego, Miguel gave up only 6 earned runs over his final 25.1 regular season innings for a 2.13 ERA...a consistent performer all year, Batista grabbed everyone's attention during Arizona's late-May road trip through San Diego and San Francisco...he was the starter in Qualcomm Stadium on May 24, allowing no earned runs over 4.2 innings of a game the D'Backs dropped, 3-1...only 4 days later on May 28 in San Francisco he was summoned from the bullpen to work 2.0 innings in Pacific Bell Park, retiring all 6 men he faced and reaped the benefit of a 12th inning homer by Mark Grace for a 2-1 victory...the next night he was called upon once again in Pac Bell to toss 4.0 frames of relief, allowing 3 hits in earning the victory in Arizona's longest game on record, a 1-0 triumph in 18 innings that took 5 hours, 53 minutes to complete...all told, that road trip signaled the start of a stretch for Batista in which he worked 7 times totaling 17.0 innings allowing 7 hits and no earned runs...his first win as a starter came on July 16 in his ninth start of the year, knocking off the team with baseball's best record, a 5-3 triumph over the Mariners in frenetic Safeco Field, holding the A.L. West champs to

Batista (Continued)

3 runs over 5.1 innings...it was his first win as a starter since May 17, 2000...when called upon out of the pen he retired 24 of the 30 first batters he faced, an 80% success rate, including 16 in a row from June 2-September 26. 2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Miguel's first career post-season test featured 6 overall appearances, working once in relief and once as a starter in each tier...it began in Game #2 of the Division Series against the Cardinals with 0.2 of an inning, followed just 2 nights later with a win as the starter in Game #3 at Busch Stadium to give the D'Backs a 2-1 lead in the series...the resilient righthander worked 6.0 frames in the 5-3 victory, allowing 2 runs on 3 hits with a walk and 4 strikeouts...Batista's lone loss occurred as the starter in Game #2 of the NLCS against Atlanta, dropping an 8-1 decision...he surrendered a home run to Marcus Giles on the first pitch of the game, the third game-opening homer in NLCS history, then settled in and kept the Braves off the board until Javy Lopez hit a 2-run shot in the seventh...Miguel started Game #5 of the World Series at Yankee Stadium and responded with a magnificent 7.2 shutout innings, his longest outing of 2001, allowing 5 hits...he threw 126 pitches and left the contest with a 2-0 lead, but the Yanks tied the game with 2 out in the ninth and took a 3-2 series lead when they snapped the tie in the 12th...Miguel also appeared in Game #7 when he retired the only Yankee he faced and help set the stage for Arizona's ninth inning heroics...all told, Batista worked 21.2 innings in the post-season allowing 6 earned runs for a 2.49 ERA while limiting opposing hitters to an overall .173 average. 2000—Began the year with Montreal then was traded to Kansas City on April 25 for pitcher Brad Rigby...Miguel tossed 4.0 shutout innings of 1-hit ball in his KC debut to defeat Seattle and earned a spot in the starting rotation, appearing 9 times but going 1-6 with a 6.56 ERA...he returned to bullpen duty, working 4 times before being designated for assignment on June 28...Batista was outrighted to Omaha on July 7, finishing the year with the AAA affiliate. 1999—Worked in a variety of roles on the Montreal pitching staff, serving as a starter, long reliever and set-up man...he made the start in Montreal's home opener against the Mets working 7.1 innings in a 5-1 victory...fired his first career complete game on April 14 vs. the Brewers, tossing a 6-hitter in a 15-1 win...he posted a 6-2 mark and 3.56 ERA to open the year...spent 25 days on the disabled list with a strained left oblique muscle from July 16-August 9...a career 0-for-42 at the plate, he snapped the 0'fer with an infield hit on April 8...Batista connected for the first home run of his career on May 24 in Philly, hitting a 2-run shot off of Joel Bennett in the fifth inning...earned his first career save on October 2 at Philadelphia with 3.0 innings. 1998—Proved versatile in his first full season in the majors, working predominantly in relief but was called upon for 13 starts, going 2-2 with a 3.08 ERA in that role...posted his first major league win on May 15 in Los Angeles, tossing 7.2 innings of a 4-2 triumph, his 33rd big league appearance. 1997—Lone season in the Cub chain, he opened the year with Iowa (AAA) appearing in 31 games (14 starts)...had his contract purchased by the big league club on August 10 and spent the final 6 weeks with Chicago, going 0-5 with a 5.70 ERA in 11 games (6 starts)...first major league start was a 2-1 loss to Chan Ho Park and the Dodgers in Los Angeles on August 11. 1996—Spent the majority of the season with Charlotte (AAA) in the Florida organization, but was recalled on August 8 and made his Marlin debut with a scoreless 9th inning against the Mets...it was Miguel's first big league action since the '92 season. 1995—Split the year between starting and relieving for Charlotte, his first year in the Marlins' chain. 1994—Appeared in just 3 games for Harrisburg (AA) due to a season-long stint on the disabled list with a right shoulder strain. 1993—Finished second in the Eastern League with 13 victories for Harrisburg...gave up just 11 home runs in 141.0 innings. 1992—Opened the year on Pittsburgh's major league club by virtue of being a Rule V selection the previous December...pitched once, allowing 2 runs in 2.0 innings at Philly on April 11 and was returned to the Montreal organization on April 23...made 24 starts for West Palm Beach (A) upon his return. 1991—Surrendered just one home run in 133.2 innings of work with Rockford (A). 1990—His first action on U.S. soil, Batista totaled 12 appearances with Gulf Coast (Rookie) and Rockford. 1988/89—Signed with Montreal as a non-drafted free agent on February 29, 1988, and spent two seasons with the Expos' Rookie League club in his native Dominican Republic.

PERSONAL

Miguel Jerez Batista Decartes...Miguel and his wife, Jeanette, make their home in Weston, FL...he is a native of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic where he graduated from Nuevo Horizondes High School in 1986 in San Pedro de Macoris...he was signed by the Diamondbacks after catching the organization's attention during the 2000-2001 Winter League season with the Azucareros, leading the Dominican League in strikeouts...his work in the 2001 World Series was actually his second "post-season" test of the year as he was the starting and winning pitcher in the Caribbean World Series championship game on February 7, 2001, against Hermosillo, staking the Dominican Republic to their fourth title in 5 seasons...he takes time out of his days during the season to visit schools and talk to kids about education and leadership...Batista authored a book of poetry titled "Sentimientos en Blanco y Negro"...books are available for the first time in the United States since originally being published in the Dominican Republic in August of 2000...he is the first Latin American pro player to ever publish a book of poetry...proceeds benefit Diamondbacks Charities and the Miguel Batista Foundation in the Dominican Republic, which provides needy children from Batista's hometown of Santo Domingo with transportation and resources to attend school and participate in recreational activities...he was named to the Major League Baseball All-Star team that toured Japan last November.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

A vital ingredient of the 2001 World Series title club, Danny earned the opportunity to become the everyday rightfielder after his 2001 post-season performance and was off to a terrific start until one play brought his 2002 regular season to an end...Bautista attempted to make a diving catch on a sinking liner hit by San Francisco's Benito Santiago in the second inning of a May 22 game at Bank One Ballpark, suffering a dislocated left shoulder that required surgery to repair a torn labrum, costing him the remainder of the season...at the time of his injury, Danny was hitting .325 (50-for-154) with 6 home runs and 23 RBI through 40 games...he opened the year with 4 consecutive 2-hit games, knocking in a run in each contest while going 8-for-15 (.533)...he wound up hitting safely in the first 10 games of the season and raised his average to .367 (44-for-120) through May 8, spanning 31 games...overall, Bautista hit safely in 16 of the first 17 games of the year and 24 of the first 27...included was his second career 4-hit game on May 7 in a win at home over the Pirates...he was part of 2-out back-to-back-to-back home runs in the first inning of Arizona's May 3 win at home over Montreal, hitting a 2-run shot off of Bruce Chen followed immediately by solo blasts from Steve Finley and Damian Miller.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Danny was a big part of manager Bob Brenly's bench, one of the strong suits of the World Champion Diamondbacks, appearing in 100 games, including a stretch of starting assignments during the pennant drive... he closed the year hitting safely in 13 of his last 14 regular season games at a .397 clip (23-for-58) with 11 runs scored, 6 doubles, a triple, 2 homers and 12 RBI...included was a 10-game hitting streak from September 7-28, hitting .439 (18-for-41)...dating back to August 26, he batted .391 (27-for-69) in his last 22 games to raise his season average 41 points to hit over .300 for the first time in his major league career (.302)...Danny's best single-game performance was in the heat of the race, matching a career-best with 2 home runs in the first game of a doubleheader in San Diego on August 31 to stake the club to a 4-1 win...the 2 homers snapped a 111-at bat home run dry spell dating back to May 18 in Chicago...he went 11 for his last 26 (.423) as a pinch hitter with 4 doubles, a homer and 6 RBI...on the year he was a .350 pinch hitter (14-for-40) which included a club record tying 4 consecutive pinch hits from May 18-June 3, starting with the homer in Wrigley Field on May 18, his fifth career pinch blast, first with Arizona...Bautista was used sporadically during the first half of the year, but excelled in a stretch from May 18, when he hit the pinch homer in Chicago, through July 7, a 31-game span in which he batted .355 (22-for-62). 2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—A key component in Arizona's success, Bautista hit .583 (7-for-12) against the Yankees, starting 3 of the 5 games he participated in while providing outstanding defense...he made the start in Game #2 against Andy Pettitte and went 2-for-3 with a double and an RBI in Arizona's 4-0 win...he was 1-for-2 in abbreviated work when the series shifted to Yankee Stadium, then provided a huge offensive spark as the D'Backs rebounded to win the final 2 games and claim the title...Bautista started against Pettitte again in Game #6, providing 3 hits and 5 RBI, becoming the 19th player in World Series history to knock in 5 runs, first since Florida's Gary Sheffield in Game #3 of the '97 series against Cleveland...Danny came up an RBI shy of the Fall Classic record of 6 set in 1960 by the Yankees' Bobby Richardson...his work in Game #6 gave manager Bob Brenly the confidence to play a hunch in Game #7 against Roger Clemens and Bautista delivered again, staking Arizona to a 1-0 lead with a run scoring double in the sixth inning...Danny was used sparingly in the first 2 rounds of post-season play, making a start in each series...he was 0-for-6 vs. the Cardinals in the Division Series, but was in the center of the clinching celebration when he slid home in the bottom of the ninth to end Game #5 on Tony Womack's single that sent Arizona into the NLCS...Bautista's lone start in the NLCS against the Braves was in Game #5, going 1-for-4 with an RBI and a diving catch that kept Atlanta off the board in what turned out to be a 3-2 victory propelling the D'Backs into the World Series...Danny entered Game #5 against the Braves a lifetime 3-for-20 (.150) in 16 previous post-season games but closed 2001 by going 8-for-16, including his 7-for-12 World Series work. 2000—Danny joined the D'Backs in exchange for Andy Fox on June 9 and batted .317 over the remainder of the year with Arizona...he established career bests in every offensive category including at bats (351), runs (54), hits (100), doubles (20), triples (7), home runs (11) and RBI (59)...his first hit as a Diamondback was a solo homer vs. Anaheim on June 11 to give Arizona a 3-2 win...Danny had a career-best 15-game hitting streak from August 15-September 1, hitting .351 (20-for-57) with 3 doubles, 2 triples, a homer and 17 RBI...he recorded his first career 2-homer game on July 27 in St. Louis. 1999—Was released by the Braves at the end of spring training and signed a minor league contract with Florida on April 8...opened the year with Calgary (AAA), but hit .319 in 38 games and had his contract purchased on June 11...hit safely in 36 of his 47 starts for the Marlins...made his return to Atlanta on July 6 and homered against his former mates...hit his 4th career pinch home run on September 1 at St. Louis. 1998—Mainly used as a defensive specialist for the Braves, appearing in 82 games but starting just 27...was on the disabled list from April 17-May 7 with a partial tear of the labrum in his left shoulder, then returned to the shelf from August 27-September 17 with a partial tear of the right medial collateral ligament. 1998 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Saw action in a pair of Division Series games as a defensive replacement, working in 5 of 6 games of the NLCS, including starts in games #3 and #6. 1997—Began the year with Richmond (AAA), remaining there until June 23 recall to Atlanta...visit to the Braves was short-lived as his contract was designated for assignment on July 5...he was purchased from AAA on July 10 and returned to the Braves...hit pinch-hit homer in the bottom of the 9th on August 6 to defeat the Cards, 4-3. 1996—Opened the season with the Tigers making 18 outfield starts before being dealt to Atlanta on May 31 for outfielder Anton French...season came to an abrupt end when he was hit by a pitch from Cardinals' Jeff Parrett on June 27, incurring a broken nose, a fractured orbital floor under the left eye and blurred vision...underwent successful surgery performed by Dr. Robert Crow on June 29. 1995—Spent the first 4 months of the season with Detroit before being optioned to Toledo (AAA) on August 8...was recalled on September 1...homered in 3 consecutive games from September 16-24. 1994—Danny was Detroit's opening day rightfielder but was hitting just .227 through 10 games and was optioned to Toledo on April 19...recalled on May 26 and started 13 straight games before breaking the middle finger on his left hand while attempting to make a diving catch on June 7 vs. Boston. 1993—Spent the entire year with London (AA), hitting .285 in 117 games and was rewarded with a September recall to the big league club...debuted as a pinch-runner on September 15 vs. the Blue Jays...made his first major league start on September 17 against Cleveland, collecting an infield hit off of Jason Grimsley in first big league at bat...hit his first major league homer on October 1 in Yankee Stadium off of Frank Tanana. 1992—Displayed outstanding outfield arm with Fayetteville, logging 17 assists from rightfield.

PERSONAL

Daniel (Danny) Bautista...he and his wife, Frandy, have a daughter, Daniela (3/20/98), and sons, Gerald (4/20/94) and Daniel (9/20/00), and make their winter home in the Dominican Republic...Danny signed first professional contract with the Detroit organization as a 16-year old...his stepfather, Jesus de la Rosa, appeared in 3 games for Houston in 1975...Danny and Frandy are instrumental in distrubuting food to the needy in their native Dominican Republic annually at Christmas time.

Diamondbacks Among Elite in "The Ultimate Standings"

The Arizona Diamondbacks ranked second to only the Green Bay Packers in The Ultimate Standings, the first-ever comprehensive ranking of all the 121 major professional sports franchises that make up Major League Baseball, the NFL, NBA and NHL. The results were determined from fan feedback gathered by Norwalk, CT,-based research and marketing firm Markitecture and ESPN.com, with team financial analysis provided by the Warsaw Sports Marketing Center at the University of Oregon. The Ultimate Standings were announced in the January 22, 2003, issue of ESPN The Magazine.

ESPN The Magazine and the independent marketers scored each professional franchise to criteria in eight categories that fans say matter most with the Ultimate Standings resulting in an overall ranking and the eight category rankings. The four-month project was to quantify the unique relationship between fans and their favorite teams - and to determine which franchises establish the most rewarding overall relationships.

The eight categories included: Bang for the Buck; Fan Relations; Ownership; Affordability; Stadium Experience; Players; Coaching; Championships.

The Top 10 Overall Rankings:

1. Green Bay Packers (NFL)
2. Arizona Diamondbacks (MLB)
3. San Antonio Spurs (NBA)
4. Sacramento Kings (NBA)
5. Dallas Mavericks (NBA)
6. Miami Dolphins (NFL)
7. Philadelphia Eagles (NFL)
8. Detroit Red Wings (NHL)
9. Edmonton Oilers (NHL)
10. Anaheim Angels (MLB)

The Top 10 in Major League Baseball:

1. Arizona Diamondbacks
2. Anaheim Angels
3. Oakland Athletics
4. St. Louis Cardinals
5. New York Yankees
6. Seattle Mariners
7. Minnesota Twins
8. Atlanta Braves
9. San Francisco Giants
10. Los Angeles Dodgers

CHRIS CAPUANO

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 219 B/T: L/L

Age: 24 (Turns 25 on August 19)

Born: August 19, 1978 in Springfield, MA

Residence: West Springfield, MA

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as Arizona's 8th round selection in the 1999 June free agent draft.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Chris began the season as one of the top starters before succumbing to the disabled list...Tucson was victorious in 5 of the 6 games he started, the lone setback a tough 2-1 defeat in his only road start on April 19 at Calgary...his season came to an end on May 4 vs. Colorado Springs as a an elbow injury forced him from the game after 7.1 scoreless innings, a contest Tucson eventually won 7-6 in the 12th inning...Chris was placed on the disabled list on May 6 with a left elbow strain...he had "Tommy John" ligament replacement surgery performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL on May 17.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—He tied for the Texas League lead with 28 starts...he also ranked among leaders in strikeouts (tied-second), shutouts (tied-second), strikeouts per 9-innings (third-9.43), complete games (fourth), and innings (fifth)...he lost his first 4 decisions and was 1-6 with a 6.80 ERA through May 12...Chris fanned a season-high 10 batters in 5-4 loss to Arkansas on May 7...he tossed back-to-back shutouts on June 2-7 at Wichita (7 innings) and at Tulsa...he was 3-0 with a 3.00 ERA (9 earned runs in 27.0 innings) over 4 starts from June 2-21...he struck out at least 7 batters in 13 of 28 starts...he played for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League, posting a 2-3 mark with a save and a 4.05 ERA in 7 games, striking out 26 in 20.0 innings...he got his first taste of major league camp, working with the big league club as a non-roster invitee to spring training. 2000—He missed the first 2 months of the season while completing his degree at Duke University...he joined South Bend in June and still led the pitching staff in wins (10) and ERA (2.21)...he finished third among Midwest League starters with a .193 opponents' average...he went 3-2 with a 2.25 ERA in July as he shared the organizational Pitcher-of-the-Month award with Jason Martines...he won the award outright in August posting a 4-1 mark and 0.80 ERA...he allowed 2 earned runs or less in 15 of 18 starts...he closed the year by going 7-1 with a 1.05 ERA (6 earned runs in 51.2 innings) over his last 9 starts, highlighted by a 23.0-inning scoreless streak that was snapped in the final inning of his final start...he recorded a season-high 12 K's in his last start on September 2...he played in 9 games for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League, going 1-0 with 18 K's in 12.0 innings.

PERSONAL

Christopher Frank (Chris) Capuano...he is single and makes his home in West Springfield, MA, where he graduated from Cathedral High School in 1996...he then attended Duke University, graduating in 4 years...he was selected by the D'Backs in the 1999 draft, but did not join the organization until his school work was complete.

ALEX CINTRON

Infielder

10

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 199 B/T: S/R
Age: 24 (Turns 25 on December 17)
Born: December 17, 1978 in Humacao, PR
Residence: Yabucoa, PR
M.L. Service: 118 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 36th round of the 1997 June Free Agent Draft.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Every year there is one player who is on the outside-looking-in when spring training ends and opens the year on the AAA roster, but before the season is over he is summoned on more than one occasion to aid the big league club in times of need...Alex was that player in 2002, opening the season with Tucson, but getting 4 different calls to the major league club and providing big contributions during the course of the season...he batted .330 (38-for-115) for the Sidewinders, hitting safely in 24 of the first 29 games...he was initially recalled on May 8, but appeared in just 2 games...he had a 3 1/2-week stint in AAA, capping that stay by hitting .383 (18-for-47) over his last 11 games...he was called to the majors again on June 11 and summoned to Yankee Stadium when it was determined that Junior Spivey needed a stint on the disabled list to heal a hamstring strain...Cintron was not intimidated by his first trip to the Bronx, going 5-for-6 in the final 2 games of the series, featuring a 3-hit effort that included 2 doubles and an RBI in Arizona's first-ever win at Yankee Stadium on June 12...the stop in New York ignited a 5-game hitting streak for Alex, going 8-for-15 (.533) with 5 runs, 4 doubles and 3 RBI...he made 11 starts at second base in Spivey's absence, hitting safely in 8 of those assignments, going 12-for-37 (.324)...Alex was optioned back to Tucson after Spivey returned on June 26, but he barely had time to unpack his suitcase as Erubiel Durazo went on the shelf 5 days later and Cintron came back to the big league club...this was an abbreviated stay, appearing twice over 10 days before the All-Star break...Matt Williams was activated after the break, sending Alex back to Tucson...he was summoned to the major league club one final time on August 21, finishing the regular season with Arizona, serving as a spot starter and defensive replacement...while with the Sidewinders, Cintron batted .322 in 85 games, putting up consistent numbers from both sides of the plate, hitting .328 as a righthanded batter (20-for-61) and .321 from the left side (93-for-290)...his .322 average ranked fourth in the farm system...though interrupted by an abbreviated stint with the big league club in early July, Alex hit safely in 19 of 20 games for Tucson from June 27-July 30, batting .414 (36-for-87), highlighted by a pair of 4-hit games...his .420 (29-for-69) average during July was the third-highest among all minor leaguers...he was named by SportsTicker as one of the top prospects in the PCL...in the field, he split time at shortstop (53 games) and second base (35 games) for the Sidewinders.

2002 DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS—Alex got his first taste of baseball's second season as he appeared in the first 2 games of the Division Series vs. St. Louis, but he did not have a plate appearance...he entered Game #1 as a defensive replacement in the ninth inning of Arizona's 12-2 defeat...two days later Alex was inserted as a pinch runner in the seventh inning of Game #2 with the D'Backs trailing 1-0...breaking from second base on Junior Spivey's grounder, Cintron collided with the Cardinals' third baseman Scott Rolen and was charged with runner's interference...on the play, Rolen sustained multiple sprains to his left shoulder.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Alex continued his quick climb through the organization by getting his first taste of both AAA and the majors, spending nearly 6 weeks of the campaign with Arizona...he opened the year with Tucson, hitting over .300 for the first 2 1/2 months of the season...included was a 16-game stretch from May 24-June 8 in which he batted .394 (26-for-66) with 16 runs...he was summoned to the major league club for the first time on July 23 when Tony Womack went down with a calf strain, but his playing time was limited to 3 at bats while appearing in 4 games...Alex recorded his first major league hit with a single off the Mets' Donne Wall on August 3...he was optioned back to AAA on August 6 and completed the season with Tucson...he returned to the Diamondbacks as part of the September roster expansion, but had limited playing time during Arizona's stretch run...he had the first extra-base hit of his major league career when he tripled off of Chad Fox in Milwaukee on October 6...the switch-hitting infielder was amazingly consistent from both sides of the plate with Tucson, hitting .292 (92-for-315) as a lefthanded batter and .291 (32-for-110) from the right side. 2000—His first year at the AA level, he eclipsed the .300 mark for the second straight year, hitting .301 for El Paso...started the season strong, hitting safely in 15 of the first 18 games at a .386 clip...after going consecutive games without a hit for the first time, Alex hit safely in 24 of the next 27 contests, featuring a season-high 11-game hitting streak, closing the streak with at least one RBI in 7 consecutive games...the only thing that slowed Cintron in the early going was a week-long stint on the disabled list with a lower back strain (May 19-26)...he earned a spot on the Texas League All-Star team, then continued to swing a solid bat in post-season play hitting .429 (9-for-21) in the 5-game series against Round Rock. 1999—His first full season as a pro, Alex hit .307 in 128 games for High Desert (A), sharing the shortstop spot on the California League post-season All-Star team with Lake Elsinore's Nelson Castro...Cintron hit safely in 18 straight games from August 4-22, batting at a .378 clip...his 17 sacrifice bunts ranked first in the league and fifth overall in the minors...was out of action for a week in May with a right ankle sprain. 1998—Spent the entire year at Lethbridge (A) hitting .264 in 67 games...hit .450 during an 11-game hitting streak from July 28-August 9.

PERSONAL

Alexander (Alex) Cintron...he is single and makes his home in Yabucoa, PR...as he has done in previous years, he spent a portion of his "off-season" playing winter ball for Caguas in his native Puerto Rico...he delivered a game-winning inside-the-park home run in Game #1 of the Puerto Rican Championship Series...his squad also advanced to the Caribbean World Series played in San Juan, Puerto Rico...his winterball success is not a surprise, as each year since inking his first pro contract, Alex has played on teams that have qualified for the playoffs (1997-98 with Lethbridge, 1999 with High Desert, 2000 with El Paso, and 2001-02 with the Arizona Diamondbacks).

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

One of the more heart-warming yet heart-breaking stories of the year belonged to Craig Counsell...easily the team's most valuable position player during the first half of the season, Craig took full advantage of the opportunities given to him due to injuries to veteran infielders Matt Williams and Jay Bell, but wound up on the shelf himself as the Diamondbacks made their run to a second straight Western Division title...he was sidelined from August 9 through the end of the season due to a herniated disk in his neck that required surgery on September 18 by Dr. Drew Dossett in Dallas, TX, the same surgeon that repaired fellow Notre Dame alum Raghib Ismail of the Dallas Cowboys...the surgery on Counsell was deemed a success as the numbness and tingling he had experienced disappeared within hours of the procedure...though there was no single play that attributed to the injury, Craig began experiencing numbness in his right arm on August 9, the day after making one of the more spectacular diving plays of any season on a Henry Blanco line shot in the second inning of a game against the Braves...Counsell finished that afternoon going 1-for-4 in what wound up as his final game of the year... when healthy, Craig was the focal point of the Arizona offense while also providing outstanding defensive play...he established a career-high for RBI with 51 in 112 games, 11 more than he had with Florida in 1998 and 13 more than he posted in 141 games for Arizona in 2001...he also hit .364 with runners in scoring position (40-for-110) which was third best in the National League at the time his season ended, highlighted by a .413 mark (26-for-63) with less than 2 out in the inning...he opened the year as the starting third baseman after the D'Backs broke camp without either Williams or Bell, and Counsell responded by hitting .329 through the first 13 games... he then experienced his longest drought of the year going 4 games without a hit (0-for-12) before hitting safely in 14 of the next 17 games at a .343 clip (23-for-67) from April 20-May 8...Counsell tied a team record with 5 hits against the Dodgers on May 26, the club that released him in the spring of 2000, giving him the opportunity to join the Diamondbacks...the 5-hit effort closed out a 5-game stretch in which Craig was 12-for-24 (.500) with 8 runs and 5 RBI...he later tacked on a 4-hit game on June 22 against Toronto...he had another solid month from June 21-July 21, hitting .346 (37-for-107) in a 26-game stretch, highlighted by a pair of terrific road trips...he combined stops in Houston, Cleveland, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Colorado and San Diego during that 26-game period to hit .379 (25-for-66) over the 19 road games...included was his third career 4-RBI game on June 27 in Houston...as if all of that wasn't enough, he provided Arizona with one of its biggest swings of the year, hitting a ninth inning game-tying pinch-hit home run off of the Mets' Armando Benitez in the first game of the August 3 doubleheader in Shea Stadium, a contest the D'Backs wound up winning 8-5 in 10 innings and propelling the club to a 4-game sweep in New York...it was Counsell's first pinch hit at bat of the season and his first-ever pinch homer in 73 career at bats...the versatile infielder made 88 starts at third base, with the majority of that work coming prior to the All-Star break when Williams was out with a fractured ankle...Craig also started 11 games at shortstop and 10 others at second base.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001 —Craig proved invaluable, appearing on a regular basis though he had to check the lineup card each day to see where on the infield he'd be performing...he established career highs in virtually every offensive category including games (141), at bats (458), runs (76) and hits (126)...Craig finished the year strong, hitting in 25 of his last 27 starts at a .324 clip (35-for-108) with 19 runs, 9 doubles and 15 RBI...the 25 games he hit safely in during that stretch were consecutive starting assignments from August 28-October 4...the stretch began with a career-high 12-game hitting streak which was snapped when he struck out after entering a game on September 17 as a defensive replacement...Counsell was back in the starting lineup the next night and began a new hitting streak that lasted 13 games to trump his 12-gamer as a career-best...he opened the season starting only 3 of Arizona's first 20 games, appearing mainly as a pinch hitter or a late-inning defensive replacement...he became a staple in the lineup in mid-May when Matt Williams went down with a pair of leg injuries, spending nearly 3 straight weeks as the starting third baseman...Jay Bell moved to the hot corner in early-June and Counsell took over the majority of the chores at second...his transfer around the infield continued in late-July when he began working at shortstop with the emergence of Junior Spivey at second base...all told, Craig was in the starting lineup for 124 games, including 56 at short, 46 at second and 22 at third, committing only 8 errors all year...he also got his first taste at first base, playing a couple of innings there during the first half of the season...Craig's extensive playing time was directly attributed to his work as a leadoff hitter, batting .300 (71-for-237) when at the top of the order...he recorded 7 of Arizona's 9 bunt hits during the 2001 season...Craig tied a career-high with a pair of 4-hit games, and scored a team record-tying 4 runs in a key September 5 win in Pacific Bell Park over the Giants...though not known for home runs, Counsell's fourth and final blast of the year staked Arizona to a 6-5 win over Colorado on June 30, entering the game defensively in the seventh and snapping a 5-5 tie in the eighth with a solo shot off of Kane Davis...when called upon as a pinch hitter, Craig was 4-for-8 with 4 walks and a hit by pitch. 2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Craig made his second successful career trip to the post-season, playing in 16 of Arizona's 17 games...he closed out the 1997 Fall Classic by scoring the winning run for the Marlins in the 11th inning of Game #7 vs. the Indians, then in his next World Series plate appearance 4 years later, he scored Arizona's first run in its World Series by homering in the first inning of Game #1 off the Yanks' Mike Mussina...unfortunately it was Counsell's last hit in the Series until the third inning of Game #7, an overall 0-for-19 drought...despite the dry spell against the Yankees, Craig still contributed to the cause by tying a 95-year old World Series record with sacrifice bunts in his first 3 plate appearances in Game #4 at New York, matching Joe Tinker's performance with the Cubs in the 1906 series...Counsell was also in the middle of the title clinching heroics in the ninth inning of Game #7, getting hit by a Mariano Rivera pitch to load the bases just ahead of Luis Gonzalez's series ending hit...Craig was coming off an MVP performance against the Braves in the NLCS, having been voted the honor after hitting .381 (8-for-21) with 5 runs scored, 3 doubles and 4 RBI while providing outstanding defense in the 5-game set...he was a modest 2-for-8 in the 2 games played in Phoenix then recorded back-to-back 3-hit efforts in games 3 and 4 at Turner Field, including 2 doubles and 4 RBI in the 11-4 triumph that gave the D'Backs a 3-1 series lead...Counsell hit .188 in the Division Series against the Cardinals, but one of the hits provided the margin of victory for the Diamondbacks in Game #3 at Busch Stadium, a 2-out, 3-run home run off of lefthander Mike Matthews that staked Arizona to a 5-3 lead. 2000—Craig was released by the Dodgers in spring training and signed a minor league contract with Arizona on March 20...he hit .348 with Tucson (AAA) before his contract was purchased on May 31...he didn't see much action as a regular until the waning days of the season when he started 12 of the last 15 games...he hit .377 (26-for-69) in his last 19 starts...hit .333 (40-for-120) when employed in the starting lineup (33 total starts)...Craig recorded his second career 4-hit game in his second start as a Diamondback, reaching base 5 times on June 4 at Texas featuring a double, home run and a walk...he was the first Diamondback in franchise history to reach on catchers interference when he made contact with Colorado catcher Ben Petrick to begin the game on September 25 in Coors Field. 1999—Opened the year with Florida, but hit just .152 in 37 games and was traded to the Dodgers on June 15 in exchange for minor league pitcher Ryan Moskau...the deal made Counsell the 7th member of the '97 World Champion Marlins to become a Dodger (Kevin Brown, Bobby Bonilla, Jim Eisenreich, Gary Sheffield, Devon White and Charles Johnson). 1998—Started the year in the majors for the first time in his career, but had his season cut short on one pitch at Pro Player Stadium on August 3, suffering a compound displaced fracture of his jaw bone when he was hit on the right side of his face by a pitch from Houston's C.J. Nitkowski...Craig underwent surgery at Holy Cross Hospital in Fort Lauderdale where he had several lacerations repaired and had his jaw bone internally stabilized by Dr. James Driscoli (oral surgeon) and Dr. Roberto Palma (plastic surgeon)...Counsell had established himself prior to the injury committing only 5 errors in 539 chances at second base and earning a spot on The Sporting News N.L. East All-Star team...hit his second career grand slam on April 16 in Florida off the Phils' Tyler Green. 1997—Craig capped a storybook season by going from the minors in one organization to scoring the game-winning run in the bottom of the 11th inning in Game #7 of the World Series for another organization...he began the year with Colorado Springs, his third season with the Rockies' AAA affiliate, then after a one-game stint with the big league club, he was traded to the Marlins for pitcher Mark Hutton on July 27 where his career took an upward turn...Craig batted .299 in 51 games for Florida and continued his outstanding second half in the post-season, batting .293 with a .429 OBP...Counsell not only scored the deciding run in the '97 Series against Cleveland, but his sacrifice fly in the bottom of the ninth sent the contest into extra innings...Counsell collected his first big league hit off of then Cincinnati hurler Mike Morgan in his first big league start on July 29...he later added his first major league home run on August 24 off of then St. Louis hurler Todd Stottlemyre, which was also a grand slam. 1996—Injuries limited him to just 25 games with Colorado Springs, suffering a right shin contusion that led to a stress fracture on April 30...Craig returned to action in mid-July but appeared in just 3 games before fracturing the same shin on July 17 and missing the rest of the season. 1995—Hit .281 as the regular shortstop for the PCL Champion Colorado Springs Sky Sox, leading the league in total chances (598) and doubles plays (86)...earned his first recall to the majors on September 15, appearing in 3 games. 1994—Injuries once again impeded Craig's progress, starting the year with New Haven (AA) on May 3 after suffering a broken right foot due to a spring training foul ball...played until breaking his nose on July 29, tried to make a comeback a week later picking up a hit in his lone at bat, then returned to the disabled list. 1993—Topped all California League shortstops in total chances (621), while leading his Central Valley (A) club in doubles (26) and ranking second on the club with 132 hits. 1992—An 11th round selection in Colorado's first-ever draft class, Counsell opened the year as Bend's second baseman, the first time he'd ever played that position...his year was cut short when he suffered a broken right instep on a foul ball just 18 games into the season.

PERSONAL

Craig John Counsell...he and his wife, Michelle, have been together since high school and they make their home in Mequon, WI...Craig was a 1988 graduate of Whitefish Bay (WI) High School, then graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1992 with a degree in accounting...he was a 4-year baseball letterman for the Fighting Irish, playing for current Arizona State head baseball coach Pat Murphy...Craig's father, John Counsell, was an outfielder in the Minnesota Twins' organization from 1964-68, then worked in the Milwaukee Brewers' organization as Director of Community Relations in the 1980's...the spikes that Craig wore when he scored the game-winning run in the 1997 World Series are on permanent display at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY.

2000 Signed by the Arizona Diamondbacks as their 5th round selection in the June free agent draft.

Outfielder

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 189 B/T: L/L

Age: 29 (Turns 30 on October 31)

Born: October 31, 1973 in Baton Rouge, LA

Residence: Baton Rouge, LA

M.L. Service: 4 years, 97 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from Baltimore as the ninth choice in the second round of the Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

David entered the year slated to play a role similar to the one he performed in 2001, getting periodic work in the outfield while providing a solid bat off the bench in late-inning situations...that was the plan, but it changed dramatically when Danny Bautista suffered a season-ending injury on May 22...ironically, it was Dellucci who was activated on May 24 when Bautista was placed on the disabled list, after David missed 3 weeks with a left hamstring strain...he was used sparingly during the first month of the season, getting only 2 starts in the first 27 games before straining the hamstring...he had just 2 hits in April, both of which left the yard, hitting a solo homer in his first start on April 7 in Milwaukee...he followed 10 days later on April 17 with his only pinch-hit home run of the year, a solo blast off the Cardinals' Matt Morris, his sixth career pinch homer...after the injury to Bautista, Dellucci and Quinton McCracken shouldered the majority of rightfield work...David was hot immediately following his activation from the D.L., hitting safely in his first 5 games at a .500 clip (6-for-12)...included was his first of a couple of key doubles during the year against the Dodgers, ending the wild May 26 game with a 10th inning double to score Steve Finley and give Arizona the 10-9 victory...Dellucci went into a tailspin and was hitting just .215 after play concluded on July 4, then went on a 13-game tear from July 6-24, hitting .432 (16-for-37) with 11 runs, 4 homers and 9 RBI...3 of the home runs came in a 4-start stretch from July 13-19 in which he was 6-for-13 with 6 runs...he hit a rough stretch in August, batting just .121 (7-for-58) for the month, but one of the hits proved to be one of Arizona's biggest of the year...Dellucci delivered a 2-out, ninth inning RBI double in Dodger Stadium on August 26, hitting a 3-2 pitch from Eric Gagne into the left-centerfield gap to send the game to extra innings, with the Diamondbacks prevailing 6-3 in 12...the pinch hit double came after David had collected just 1 hit in his 12 previous pinch at bats...less than a week later on September 1, David tagged another of the elite closers in the league, hitting a game-ending 2-run double off of Robb Nen to turn a 6-5 deficit into a 7-6 win over the Giants, a contest the D'Backs trailed 5-0 in the first inning...the game-winning hit off Nen ignited a 13-game stretch in which Dellucci hit .351 (13-for-37), while also suffering a mild concussion...the concussion occurred when he was stealing a base on September 10 against San Diego, as David was hit in the head by Wiki Gonzalez's throw during a headfirst slide, but fortunately did not miss any games...Dellucci hit .276 as a pinch hitter in 2002, featuring 4 hits in his last 7 pinch at bats.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001 —David established himself as one of baseball's top pinch hitters while also serving as a quality backup outfielder...despite part-time duty, his 10 home runs in 217 at bats were 3 more than his major league total through 602 career AB's entering 2001...half of his roundtrippers were as a pinch hitter, contributing to Arizona's major league record-tying 14 pinch homers...David finished the year hitting .321 in a pinch (18-for-56) with pinch hit club records in hits, homers and RBI (16)...his first pinch homer was on May 9 against Cincinnati when he delivered a 3-run pinch blast in the eighth inning to snap a 2-2 tie and stake the D'Backs to a 5-2 victory...Dellucci hit the first pinch grand slam in franchise history on July 21 in Pacific Bell Park off of Brian Boehringer...it was the first grand slam of David's career and first career 4-RBI game...he hit a ninth inning pinch homer off of Robb Nen on July 29, the 12th pinch blast for the D'Backs in 2001, which at the time tied the then single-season major league record...his contributions weren't limited to pinch hit work, as he was a key component in Arizona's 6-4 win at San Diego on May 27, going 3-for-4 featuring a 2-run homer in the seventh off of Woody Williams and a 1-out single off of Trevor Hoffman in the ninth just prior to Reggie Sanders' game-winning home run. 2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—David finished the post-season going 2-for-4 with a run scored in abbreviated action...things started slowly as he made it as far as the on-deck circle in the Division Series, but was hit for after forcing a pitching change...he finally made it to the plate in the post-season as a pinch hitter in the second game of the NLCS vs. the Braves, grounding out...Dellucci contributed a pinch single and scored a run in Arizona's 11-2 win in Game #4 of the NLCS...his next action was a week later in the sixth game of the World Series entering as a pinch runner in the fourth inning for Luis Gonzalez and finishing the evening 1-for-2...David pinch ran again 24 hours later in Game #7 and wound up in a collision at second base with Derek Jeter when Mariano Rivera's throw went astray on Damian Miller's sacrifice bunt attempt. 2000—David made the Opening Day roster after missing the second half of the previous year due to wrist surgery...he made 3 pinch-hit appearances before being optioned to Tucson (AAA) on April 17...was recalled on August 14, working mainly as a pinch hitter and defensive replacement...he finished the year 7-for-20 (.350) as a pinch hitter including a pair of RBI. 1999—David was in the midst of a terrific sophomore season in the majors when a nagging pain in his left wrist turned into a season-ending disaster...he was diagnosed with a disorder that required immediate surgery and left him on the disabled list for the remainder of the year... unfortunately for David and the Diamondbacks, he had just upped his season average to .394...Dellucci closed the year with 8 hits in his last 14 at bats before being diagnosed with the injury...while healthy he raised his mark as high as .419 on May 23 after 4 hits in Colorado. 1998—Began the season with Tucson, his first career AAA action, but was there only 17 games before getting the call to the major league club for the remainder of the year...recalled on April 27, his Arizona debut was a 2-for-4, 2-RBI game...though not an everyday player, he wound up leading the N.L. in triples with 12, just the second rookie since 1984 to lead the league in 3-base hits (Ray Lankford with St. Louis in 1991)...his first National League homer was a 2-run shot on May 1 at Montreal off of Javier Vazquez...had first career 4-hit game, including 3 doubles, on June 2 at Colorado, just the 4th expansion player in history to pick up 3 doubles in a game (Rusty Staub, Doug Rader and Charlie Hayes). 1997—Opened the year with Bowie, but made the jump from AA to the majors in June, appearing in 9 games for Baltimore...he hit his first big league home run on June 25 in Milwaukee off of Cal Eldred...he was also part of the September recalls, appearing in 8 games during the final month. 1996—Had the sixth best overall average among Baltimore farmhands, hitting a combined .305 with Frederick (A) and Bowie (AA)...was promoted to Bowie on June 26 and went 4-for-5 with 3 doubles, 2 runs and 2 RBI in debut game. 1995—Enjoyed the home field at Frederick, batting .340 (17-for-50), while hitting only .217 (10-for-46) on the road.

PERSONAL

David Michael Dellucci...he is single and resides in his native Baton Rouge, LA, where he graduated from Catholic High School in 1991, earning team MVP in both baseball and football as a prepster, while earning All-State honors on the diamond...he was also voted "Man of the Year" in high school for his success as a student athlete and being a role model for youth, and over the winter of 2001 was inducted into the Catholic High School Hall of Fame...followed high school with 3 outstanding years of baseball at the University of Mississippi, where he was an All-Southeastern Conference selection in both 1994 and '95 and earned All-American status in '95, setting 10 school records while leading the SEC in hitting...was also named Athlete-of-the-Year at Ole Miss in 1995...David was a 10th round pick of the Orioles in 1995...he is active in the Valley with Special Olympics and Easter Seals...Dellucci spends a good portion of his off-season hunting throughout the country.

Age: 32

Born: January 13, 1971 in Hermosillo, MX

Residence: Hermosillo, MX

HOW OBTAINED

Acquired with cash considerations from the Cincinnati Reds in a four-team deal that eventually landed first baseman Erubiel Durazo with the Oakland Athletics, December 15, 2002.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Elmer made 30 starts for the Reds, finishing the season with the sixth-best overall ERA in the National League (3.03), despite owning a 7-8 record...he ranked second in the league with a 2.56 road ERA and fourth with a 1.83 ERA in day games...Dessens led the Reds in ERA and ranked second behind Jimmy Haynes in starts, innings pitched (178.0) and strikeouts (93)...he was sidetracked in his pursuit of a second straight 200-inning season after landing on the D.L. from August 6-26 with a strained right groin...he went 7-5 with a 2.67 ERA in 23 starts before suffering the injury and 0-3, 4.19 in 7 starts after he came off the disabled list...at the time he went on the shelf, Elmer led Reds pitchers in almost every statistical category...he lost his first 3 starts of the year despite allowing only 5 earned runs over 16.2 innings for a 2.70 ERA...his teammates scored only 4 runs in those 3 starts...Dessens went 7-2 with a 2.66 ERA over his next 20 starts prior to his disabling, including scoreless stretches of 15.1 innings (April 14-26) and 17.0 innings (July 11-21)...the latter stretch was the longest by a Reds pitcher all season and concluded with his final victory of the year, as he tossed 7.0 scoreless frames in a 9-1 triumph over the Mets...he was a 3-time victim of blown saves, including a 10-8 Cincy loss to St. Louis on May 12 in which the Reds took an 8-0 lead into the fifth inning, and left with an 8-5 advantage...it was Cincy's biggest blown lead since September 4, 1989 vs. San Francisco (led 8-0, lost 9-8)...Elmer made 4 starts in which he lasted at least 6.0 innings without allowing a run...he threw 7.1 shutout frames at Chicago in a 6-1 victory on April 20...he followed on May 7 with an 8-2 win over the Brewers, taking a 4-hit shutout into the seventh...as a batter in that game, Elmer recorded his fourth career multi-hit game, going 2-for-2 with a walk and 2 RBI...he scattered 6 hits as he blanked the Braves for 7.0 innings in a 5-1 win on June 2...Dessens did not allow a run in consecutive starts on July 16 at Milwaukee (6.0 innings) and July 21 vs. New York (7.0 innings)...with those 2 outings, Elmer extended his scoreless streak to 17.0 innings, the longest by a Reds starter since Dave Burba's 17.0-inning scoreless streak from September 7-19, 1997...Elmer left the game on August 1 vs. Los Angeles in the fourth inning with a strained right groin and 5 days later went on the disabled list...he didn't pitch again until August 27 vs. St. Louis (5.0 ip), when in the 5-0 loss, the Cardinals' first 5 batters of the game reached base and scored...in a 4-1 loss to the Pirates on September 11, he carried a 1-0 lead into the seventh, retiring the first 19 batters of the game before Jack Wilson reached on Gookie Dawkins' 1-out throwing error...Elmer retired the next batter but then allowed 4 unearned runs on a pair of 2-run homers...in his final start on September 27, Elmer received a no decision in the 11-inning, 4-3 loss at Montreal, tying a career high with 9 strikeouts.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—In his second season with the Reds, Elmer established career highs in almost every category, including starts (34), innings pitched (205.0) and strikeouts (128)...he was one of the staff's most dependable pitchers, leading the club in starts, victories (10), innings pitched and strikeouts...he became the first Reds hurler to pitch at least 200 innings in a season since 1998 (Brett Tomko 210.2 innings and Pete Harnisch 209.0 innings)...Dessens recorded double-digit victories for the second straight season, but was victimized by 4 blown saves, most on the staff...his 15.0-inning scoreless streak from July 23-August 2 was the longest by a Reds starter all year...he did not allow an unearned run until his 32nd start of the season...his 5-0 victory on July 28 vs. Florida snapped a career-high 4-game losing streak and was his second career complete game, his first career shutout and the only shutout by a Reds pitcher all season...as a hitter, Elmer led the club with 10 sacrifice bunts and recorded a trio of 2-hit games, his first career multi-hit efforts...he finished the season with 9 hits in his final 18 at bats (.500)...on June 5 at Milwaukee, Dessens struck out in a pinch hit appearance. 2000—In his first season with the Reds, Elmer went 11-5 with a 4.28 ERA, in 40 appearances, including 10-5, 4.21 ERA in 16 starts and 1-0 with a save and a 4.43 ERA in 24 relief outings...he finished second on the club in victories and innings pitched (147.1)...Dessens posted a .688 winning percentage, tied for sixth in the National League...he threw his first career complete game in his last start of the year, a 2-hit, 8-1 victory on September 28 at Milwaukee in the final game played at County Stadium...both hits he allowed came off the bat of Raul Casanova, a single in the third inning and a triple in the fifth...Elmer closed the year going 5-0 with a 2.55 ERA...after 21 appearances out of the bullpen (0-0, 1 save, 5.14 ERA), he had a no decision in a start on June 28 against St. Louis, his first starting assignment since September 24, 1998...he began the season at Louisville (AAA), where he went 2-0 in 4 starts before he was recalled on April 26...in the 14-1 loss at Philadelphia on May 4, he entered the game in the first inning for the injured Pete Harnisch and threw 5.0 innings in the longest relief appearance of his career...he earned his first career save on June 24 vs. San Diego, throwing the final 4.0 innings in the 11-5 win...Elmer earned his first major league win since June 18, 1998 with 4.2 innings of relief in Cincy's 12-6 win at St. Louis on July 6...he recorded his first career victory as a starter with a 15-6 triumph at Colorado on July 13...as a reliever, he retired the first batter faced in 22 of 24 (92%) appearances and stranded 9 of 11 (82%) inherited baserunners...following the season, he pitched for Hermosillo in the Mexican Winter League, going 1-0 with a 0.82 ERA in 3 starts. 1999—Elmer traveled across the Pacific Ocean to display his skills after signing with the Yomiuri Giants of the Japanese Baseball League...he went 0-1 with a 3.86 ERA in 8 games for the Giants while going 4-3 with a 2.09 ERA in 15 games for Yomiuri's minor league squad...he returned to North America after the season and pitched for Hermosillo in the Mexican Winter League, going 3-2 with a save and a 3.44 ERA in 10 games (8 starts)...on December 13, he signed with Cincinnati as a free agent. 1998—Elmer made the Pirates' Opening Day roster...he made only 2 appearances before landing on the disabled list on April 9 with a strained right groin...he earned his first career victory with a scoreless frame out of the pen on May 7 vs. Cincinnati...he was optioned to Nashville on May 11 and went 2-0 in 3 games (2 starts) before returning to the big leagues on May 24...from May 3-June 22, a stretch interrupted by his trip to the minors, Elmer threw a club- and career-high 19 consecutive scoreless innings...he was optioned to Nashville on August 17, then was recalled when rosters expanded in September. 1997—Spent most of the season with the Mexico City Red Devils, leading the club in victories (16) and ranking second in starts (26)...Elmer re-joined Pittsburgh on September 5 after the Red Devils were defeated in the Mexican League championship, 4-games-to-1, by the Mexico City Tigers...he made his first appearance for the Pirates on September 10 at Montreal (0.2 innings)...he tossed 2.2 scoreless frames over his other 2 appearances. 1996—Elmer began the season at Calgary (AAA) and was the Cannons' Opening Day starter...he went 2-2 with a 3.15 ERA in 6 starts before he was assigned to Mexico City on May 7...he made 7 starts for the Red Devils, going 7-0 with a 1.26 ERA before he was recalled by Calgary and then promoted to Pittsburgh on June 21...he made his Major League debut on June 24 at Montreal...he got the starting nod and suffered the 11-3 loss, allowing 6 earned runs in 1.2 innings...in that game he had an RBI-single off Pedro Martinez in his first Major League plate appearance...Dessens went 0-2 with a 14.46 ERA in 3 starts before he was sent to the bullpen...he was on the Pirates' disabled list from July 31-September 10 with a strained left oblique muscle. 1995—Elmer was a Southern League All-Star and Baseball America Double-A All-Star after leading the league in wins (15) and ERA (2.49), becoming the first Carolina Mudcats pitcher in history to lead the league in both categories during the same season...he averaged a league-low 1.06 walks per 9-innings.

PERSONAL

Elmer Dessens Jusaino...he and his wife, Lorenia, have a son, Elmer Jr. (4/12/02)...Elmer is a graduate of Carrera Technical High School...on January 9, Elmer and the Diamondbacks agreed on a 2-year contract extension with a club option for the 2005 season...he was originally signed by Pittsburgh as a non-drafted free agent on January 27, 1993...Elmer was dealt to Arizona on the same weekend that he attended the wedding of Erubiel Durazo in their hometown of Hermosillo, MX...Durazo was the other marquee player in the deal, winding up in Oakland.

STEVE FINLEY

12

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 194 B/T: L/L

Age: 38

Born: March 12, 1965 in Union City, TN

M.L. Service: 14 years

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 7, 1998.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Steve enjoyed another consistent season in a Diamondback uniform, providing his typically outstanding second half, and continuing his stellar defensive play in centerfield to earn the team Player-of-the-Year award from the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA...he didn't hit for a high average in April, batting .232, but of his 16 hits, 7 left the yard...twice within a 5-day stretch he was a component of back-to-back-to-back home runs, something the Diamondbacks had only done once in their history prior to 2002...Fins hit the first of 3 straight off of Josh Beckett in the sixth inning on April 28 at Florida, followed by Damian Miller and Mark Grace to turn a 4-2 deficit into an eventual 5-4 win...just 5 nights later on May 3 in Bank One Ballpark, Steve was the middle man between Danny Bautista and Miller for 3 in a row in the first inning off of Montreal's Bruce Chen, as the D'Backs wound up 6-3 victors...Fins went into a 1-for-15 drought that lowered his season average to .222, but that would be the last prolonged slump of the season as his average climbed steadily the rest of the year and was capped by a furious finish at .287, his highest single-season average since 1996 with San Diego (.298)...he closed the campaign by going 9-for-19 (.474) with 7 runs, 2 doubles, 2 homers and 6 RBI in the 4-game sweep of Colorado to win the division and secure home field in the Division Series...included was his second 2-homer, 5-RBI game of the year, going 3-for-5 in the division clincher on September 28, taking southpaws Kent Mercker and Brian Fuentes deep...he hit 9 home runs against lefthanded pitchers, 7 more than the 2001 season...it was Steve's 20th career multi-homer game and the 10th time he's knocked in at least 5 runs in a game...the veteran outfielder was in the middle of some key moments in Arizona's climb to a second straight division crown...a career .267 hitter prior to the All-Star break entering 2002, Fins contributed a .284 mark (76-for-268) in 82 games prior to the break last year...included in the first half was his first 2-homer, 5-RBI game of the season on June 12 in Yankee Stadium, as the D'Backs were 9-5 winners for their first-ever victory in 6 tries in the Bronx...the second roundtripper of that affair was the last one Fins would hit for a while, going 122 at bats before taking San Diego's Jake Peavy deep in Bank One Ballpark on July 26...he supplied 3 hits and 4 RBI, featuring a 3-run homer off of Al Leiter on August 4 in New York in the third game of Arizona's 4-game sweep in Shea Stadium...known throughout his career for home runs and RBI coming in bunches, Finley hit one of those rolls from August 10-15, homering 4 times in 5 games and knocking in 10 runs as the D'Backs were in the midst of a season-high 8-game winning streak...included was his 100th home run as a Diamondback, a 2-run blast off of Jimmy Haynes in Cincinnati on August 13...Fins went deep in each of the games in the Cincy series with the Diamondbacks sweeping their last-ever visit to Cinergy Field...as the race heated up in the West, so did Steve as Arizona had a 5-1 homestand from September 9-14 in which he batted .476 (10-for-21) over the first 5 games with 3 doubles, 2 homers and 6 RBI...included was a game-tying home run against San Diego on September 11, a solo shot in the bottom of the eighth off of lefthander Kevin Walker, the 1,999th hit of Finley's career...he achieved the 2,000-hit milestone by doubling in his next at bat on September 13 off of Milwaukee's Glendon Rusch...a 4-time Rawlings Gold Glove winner, Finley committed only 2 errors on the season, including a stretch of 97 consecutive errorless games from May 18-September 19.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Steve entered the 2003 campaign on top among active players with 98 triples, 20 more than his nearest competition, Kenny Lofton (78)...Fins is tied with Hank Aaron, Andre Dawson, Jack Glascock and Bill Phillips for 160th on the all-time list.

2001—Steve recovered from a slow start offensively to finish the year at .275, matching his career average entering 2001...he began play on June 7 with a .207 average, 2 homers and 16 RBI through 53 games, but a 3-hit effort against the Dodgers was the first step in an offensive revival that saw him hit .316 (97-for-307) with 12 homers and 57 RBI over the final 86 games of the year...he had a 3-for-41 start to the year accelerated by an 0-for-30 drought from April 5-18...Fins snapped out of his initial dry spell by hitting in 16 of his next 17 games at a .338 clip (23-for-68), but then fell into another slide in which he was 13-for-79 (.165) over 23 games before the 3 hits on June 8...he dropped into one more drought just prior to the All-Star break, going 4-for-30 from June 24-

July 5 and was taken out of the starting lineup for the 3 games prior to the break and 3 contests afterward...the final turnaround began on July 14 in Anaheim when he delivered a pinch hit single and scored the tying run in the eighth inning, then drove in an insurance tally with a double off of Troy Percival in the ninth to help stake the D'Backs to a 7-5 win...from that date, Fins batted .330 (70-for-212) over 63 games with 9 home runs, 32 runs scored and 40 RBI...his streaky nature was personified over a 4-game stretch in Arizona's final homestand of the year when he knocked in 12 runs...it began in a game he didn't start on September 26 against Milwaukee, entering as a pinch hitter in the sixth and delivering a run scoring single, then tacking on a grand slam in the eighth, Steve's eighth career slam and 200th career home run...he followed the next night with a 4-RBI affair, then after going 1-for-2 with no RBI in a non-start against the Dodgers on September 28, he hit a 3-run homer the next afternoon off of LA's James Baldwin to help stake the D'Backs to an 8-1 win...Steve closed the year by hitting .344 (31-for-90) in his last 25 games with 12 runs, 7 doubles, a triple, 4 homers and 27 RBI...included in his late-season run was his first 2-homer game of the year on September 8 against San Diego...he was intentionally walked on August 12 in Atlanta, snapping Greg Maddux's streak of 72.1 consecutive innings pitched without allowing a walk...Fins' diversity was displayed on August 30 when he was summoned from centerfield to work an inning of relief in a blowout loss to the Giants at Bank One Ballpark...featuring a knuckleball, he walked a man and hit Jeff Kent, but escaped any damage on the scoreboard by recording an inning-ending double play. 2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Steve had a terrific post-season, hitting safely in 11 of 14 starts at a .365 clip (19-for-52)...he began by hitting .421 (8-for-19) in the Division Series against the Cardinals, featuring an RBI single that was all Curt Schilling needed in a 1-0 decision in Game #1...Steve came up big again in the pivotal third game of the NLCS in Atlanta, going 2-for-3 with a double and 3 RBI in the 5-1 win, then sealed Arizona's first trip to the World Series by catching the final out of Game #5 ending the 3-2 victory...as Arizona advanced to the World Series, Steve's production continued as he batted .368 (7-for-19) against New York, a complete reversal from his 1-for-12 experience the first time he faced the Yankees in the Fall Classic while with the Padres in 1998... he had 3 hits in Game #5 at Yankee Stadium including a fifth inning solo homer off of Mike Mussina that gave Arizona a 1-0 lead, his first post-season home run in his 35th career post-season game (113th at bat)...it was also the first of 2 homers in the inning for the D'Backs with Rod Barajas also going deep, the 34th multi-homer inning in World Series history, 15th by a National League club...Fins also had a big impact in the seventh and deciding game of the Fall Classic, picking up a pair of hits and scoring the first run on Danny Bautista's double in the sixth inning...Steve also made a terrific running catch in center to retire Shane Spencer to end the second inning. 2000—Steve carried the club during the first half, hitting 27 homers and driving in 75 by July 21...he was a late-addition to the All Star team, replacing Ken Griffey Jr....Fins also earned his second straight Rawlings Gold Glove, the fourth of his career...he was named the team co-Player-of-the-Year with Luis Gonzalez by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA...he made an eighth inning game-saving catch against the wall in left-center of Houston's Enron Field on July 6, aggravating a lower back injury...though he missed only one game after the run-in with the wall, Fins required a pair of injections as the season progressed...he hit his career-high 35th home run of the year on September 9 in Florida, a 2-run shot off of A.J. Burnett in a 4-1 Arizona win...he suffered a costly hit by pitch on his left hand on September 12 when hit by LA's Onan Masaoka...finished the year just 4-for-39 (.103) after the plunking...he hit a pair of 2-run homers in San Diego off of Sterling Hitchcock on April 13, staking the D'Backs to a 5-4 win...Fins reached base by hit, walk or hit by pitch in 29 consecutive games from May 5 through June 5...by the end of the streak, he had reached base in 53 of his 56 starts since Opening Day...Steve entered the All-Star Game in Atlanta as a defensive replacement in left, then knocked in the N.L.'s final run with an RBI single in the ninth...Fins started the only triple play in franchise history vs. St. Louis on May 31 when he caught Mark McGwire's fly ball and threw home to catch Placido Polanco attempting to score from third...Damian Miller then fired to third base, where shortstop Tony Womack caught Edgar Renteria trying to advance from second...Steve's ailing back was surgically repaired by Dr. Volker Sonntag at St. Joseph's Hospital after the season, a procedure that consisted of clipping a portion of the ruptured disk that was irritating the nerves and causing the pain. 1999—Steve's first year with the D'Backs featured a career best in RBI, while earning his third career Rawlings Gold Glove, first since winning in 1995 & 1996, and first in Arizona franchise history...he accomplished it all while suffering from a back ailment that twice required injections...Steve eclipsed the 100-RBI mark on Sept. 28 vs. Colorado, joining teammates Matt Williams, Jay Bell and Luis Gonzalez in the century club, as Arizona became the seventh N.L. club in history with a quartet of 100-RBI men...he was hitting just .231 on May 19 then started a 15-game stretch in which he batted .452 (28-for-62) with 6 homers and 29 RBI, totaling 58 bases for a .935 slugging pct., raising his season average 63 points to .294...included was a 5-game stretch against New York, Montreal and Texas in which he went 16-for-23 (.696) with 4 doubles, a triple, 5 homers and 18 RBI, totaling 37 bases for a slugging pct. of 1.609, earning N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors...the stretch began with 4 hits on May 30 in Shea, featuring a double, 2 homers and 5 RBI, but he trumped that 2 days later with another 4-hit effort, hitting 2 more home runs, while setting a club record with 6 RBI...he would later tie the RBI mark with 6 on September 8 in Milwaukee, the result of a club record 3-homer game, the third of his career...he hit the seventh grand slam of his career on May 10 at home vs. Montreal's Javier Vazquez...Steve collected the 1,500th hit of his career on June 13 in Anaheim off of Omar Olivares. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Fins hit safely in all 4 games vs. the Mets, finishing the series with a .385 mark (5-for-13), with a double and 5 RBI...the double and 5 RBI all took place in the second game of the series, Arizona's lone win, providing a 2-run single in the third inning and 2-run double in the fifth, then coaxing a bases loaded walk in the seventh...he entered that contest with 18 career post-season games under his belt, totaling 4 RBI. 1998—He had a pair of 4-hit games, the first included a San Diego club record-tying 3 doubles and 5 RBI vs. the Rangers in Arlington on June 7...he hit his fifth career first inning leadoff homer, taking the Giants' Shawn Estes deep to open the scoring on September 9 in San Diego...he hit the sixth grand slam of his career on April 10, delivering a 2-out blow to the D'Backs, taking Felix Rodriguez deep to end the game. POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Steve rode the offensive roller-coaster during the Padres' run into fall ball, finishing October play with a .209 mark, going 9-for-43 in 13 games...he struggled through a 1-for-10 in the Division Series vs. the Astros, but rebounded to hit .333 (7-for-21) in the 6-game NLCS....Finley was not as fortunate in the Fall Classic against the Yankees, going just 1-for-12 appearing in 3 of the 4 games. 1997—Led the Padres in homers, triples and runs, earning his first trip to the All-Star Game...added his name to the record book by becoming the sixth National Leaguer and 11th player in big league history to homer 3 times in a game twice in the same season (May 19 at Cincinnati and June 23 at San Francisco)...he recorded 13 total bases in the June 23 game, 1 more base than Nate Colbert's previous club record on August 1, 1972...the second 3-homer game led to N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors, finishing the week of June 23-29 with a .520 mark (13-for-25) with 6 homers and 9 RBI...he slugged career home run #100 on August 23 at Shea Stadium off of Dave Mlicki. 1996—He finished 10th in the N.L. MVP balloting, establishing Padres' records in runs, doubles, extra-base hits and total bases...he had a career-high 21-game hitting streak from June 20-July 14, hitting .419 (39-for-93)...he homered in 3 consecutive at bats on June 29-30 in Candlestick, hitting a 3-run blast off Mark Leiter and a 2-run shot off of Rod Beck on the 29th, then a solo homer off of William VanLandingham the following day...Finley set a career-high with 5 hits on May 23 at Philly...he hit his third career grand slam on June 1 at Philly off of lefty Dave Leiper...notched career hit #1,000 on June 5, a double off St. Louis' Donovan Osborne...had a milestone evening on Sept. 10 vs. the Pirates, joining the 20/20 club with his 20th steal, and ending the contest with a 2-out, 0-2, 2-run homer to give the Friars a 6-5 win...defensively, he earned his second straight Rawlings Gold Glove...he wrapped up 1996 by earning MVP honors on an 8-game Major League Baseball All-Star tour through Japan, hitting .400 (8-for-20) in 7 games. 1995—First year in San Diego, he was the only National League player to achieve 100 runs, 10 homers and 35 stolen bases (Minnesota's Chuck Knoblauch was the only A.L. player), while earning his first Rawlings Gold Glove...was used in the leadoff spot in 73 games, hitting a major league best .338 (103-for-305)... stole a career-high 4 bases on August 12 vs. St. Louis...was in the delivery room on Sept. 1 when son Reed was born, then went to the ballpark and played the last 2 innings of San Diego's 6-3 win over Philly. 1994—Steve appeared in 94 games because of an injury and strike-shortened season, missing nearly a month after being hit by a pitch on June 8 in Montreal, breaking the third metacarpal bone in his right hand...he was placed on the D.L. on June 13 and did not return until July 3...he hit his second career grand slam on July 17 at Pittsburgh off of Paul Wagner...Finley was part of the 11-player trade with San Diego on December 28. 1993—Slowed by an early-season ailment and injury, he did not play full-time until mid-May...was slowed in spring training by Bell's Palsy, a viral infection of a nerve in the upper neck, resulting in numbness that prevented him from closing his left eye...he then played the first 16 games of the year before getting plunked by a John Candelaria pitch on April 24 in Pittsburgh, resulting in a hairline fracture, which forced him on the D.L. from April 27-May 14...upon returning, he did not collect his first triple of the year until the 41st game and still led the N.L. with 13. 1992—Steve and teammates Craig Biggio and Jeff Bagwell were the only 3 N.L. players to participate in all 162 games...he finished in the league's top 10 in hits, triples, stolen bases and sacrifice bunts. 1991—Finley's first year as an Astro, he was acquired on January 10 with pitchers Pete Harnisch and Curt Schilling in exchange for Glenn Davis. 1990—Led the Orioles with 22 steals, while ranking second in hits. 1989—Made his major league debut with Baltimore on opening day, and on his first big league fielding chance, Steve made a diving catch while crashing into the wall in right-center, suffering a right shoulder sprain that necessitated D.L. time...was activated on April 22 and picked up first big league hit that night, a single off of Minnesota's Fred Toliver...hit first major league home run on April 25 off California's Willie Fraser...blasted first grand slam on June 5 at Yankee Stadium off of southpaw Chuck Cary. 1988—Steve was named International League Rookie-of-the-Year, leading the league in batting and hits to help Rochester to the title. 1987—Signed with Baltimore as a 14th round choice and was a New York-Penn League All-Star with Newark.

LUIS GONZALEZ

Outfielder

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 200 B/T: L/R

Age: 35 (Turns 36 on September 3)

Born: September 3, 1967 in Tampa, FL

Residence: Scottsdale, AZ

M.L. Service: 12 years, 32 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired with cash considerations from the Detroit Tigers in exchange for outfielder Karim Garcia, December 28, 1998.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Gonzo's year came to a quick end on one play in St. Louis as the final week of the regular season unfolded... attempting to make the play on a quickly sinking fly ball down the leftfield line by former high school teammate Tino Martinez, Luis collided with Tony Womack and suffered a season ending left shoulder separation that was surgically repaired on September 30 by Dr. Michael Lee...the injury closed out a campaign that didn't produce numbers quite as gaudy as the ones that got baseball's attention in 2001, but provided an overall solid year at the plate, finishing with a .288 average with 28 home runs and 103 RBI...the possessor of no career 100-RBI seasons prior to the trade that brought him to Arizona, Gonzo hit the century mark for a fourth consecutive year...since coming on board from Detroit for Karim Garcia in the winter prior to the 1999 campaign, Gonzalez has hit .316 (747-for-2365) with 142 home runs and 470 RBI...unlike the record-setting campaign of 2001 when he never went more than 2 consecutive games without collecting a hit, Gonzo had to endure some offensive slides last season... his year began slowly, hitting just .111 out of the gate (3-for-27), but on April 8 he kicked off a stretch in which he hit safely in 14 of 16 games at a .362 clip (21-for-58) with 5 home runs and 15 RBI...he then fell into an 0-for-19 drought over a 5-game stretch from April 27-May 2, dropping his season average 51 points from .282 to .231...he snapped the 0'fer with a pinch hit double on May 3, his first missed starting assignment since May 27, 2001, and the hit jumpstarted a 19-game stretch in which he batted .412 (28-for-68) with 17 runs, 4 homers and 15 RBI to return his average to the familiar .300 level...included was a 6-game hitting streak where he went 13-for-24 (.542) with 3 home runs and 10 RBI, featuring a 4-RBI effort on May 13 in Pittsburgh and a club record-tying 4-run affair on May 17 vs. Philly...once he returned his season average to the more palatable .300 mark, the opposition also began pitching with a little more caution as evidenced by his 24 walks over 19 games from May 17-June 7, including a team record tying 4 freebies on May 26 against the Dodgers...he was all of the offense that Rick Helling and Byung-Hyun Kim would need on May 30 in San Francisco, hitting a solo homer off of Kirk Rueter into McCovey Cove for a 1-0 victory at Pacific Bell Park...it was Gonzo's second career splashdown in the Cove...all told, beginning with the pinch-hit double on May 3, Gonzo had a 49-game stretch in which he batted .331 (58-for-175) with 10 home runs, 39 RBI and 37 walks...Luis experienced his second offensive drought as the month of June concluded, going 0-for-17, but he picked it up again on the Fourth of July, then really sizzled after the All-Star break, coinciding with Bob Brenly's decision to move Gonzalez out of his normal #3 spot in the order to the cleanup position...named to his third career All-Star Game, second in a row, Gonzalez came out of the break hitting .413 (38-for-92) over a 24-game stretch featuring 25 runs, 8 homers and 28 RBI...highlights included his 10th career game of at least 5 RBI in a July 17 win at Colorado...he raced to his first career inside-the-park home run on July 28, highlighting a 4-for-4 night at the plate with a fifth inning trek around the bases off of San Diego's Brett Tomko...Luis followed a week later with a couple of huge home runs in Arizona's 4-game sweep of the Mets in Shea Stadium...he delivered the key blow in the third win of the series on August 4 with a 3-run shot off of lefty Mark Guthrie to snap a 7-7 tie in the seventh inning, falling behind in the count 0-2, then fouling off 5 straight pitches before hitting one off the scoreboard in right-center...Luis prefaced that blast the day before with a 2-run homer in the first game of a doubleheader off of Steve Trachsel, giving him 1,000 career RBI...after the series with the Mets, Gonzalez fell into his longest dry spell of the year, an 0-for-24 slide that was exacerbated by his first major injury as a D'Back...he missed 7 games from August 14-21 with a rib cage injury, snapping his streak of 446 consecutive regular season games played, which was the longest active streak at the time in the majors...he had not had a full day off since September 30, 1999, the day after the D'Backs clinched their first division crown... once deemed healthy, Gonzo was back in the lineup on August 22, and the next night he proved to be fully recovered by hitting a 2-run first inning homer off the Cubs' Kerry Wood to help stake the D'Backs to a 6-2 win.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Since arriving in Arizona, Luis has homered every 16.65 at bats, hammering 142 roundtrippers in 2,365 AB's as a Diamondback...prior to the trade from Detroit, Gonzalez had gone deep once every 36.11 at bats, hitting 107 home runs in 3,864 at bats...Gonzo's route to 1,000 career RBI has also been expeditious over his last few seasons, collecting his first 500 in 1,011 games, then his second 500 in just 697 contests.

2001—Though he will be forever remembered for a ball that traveled a little over 100 feet to win the World Series, Gonzo's regular season work was recorded as one of the top power displays in big league history...he homered on the final day of the season to finish with 57, the eighth different player ever to hit at least that many roundtrippers in a season...Luis finished third in the MVP balloting behind Barry Bonds and Sammy Sosa...he obliterated his previous bests in virtually every category while placing his name among baseball's elite...his 419 total bases finished second in the N.L. and tied Lou Gehrig for the 10th highest total in big league history, while his 100 extra-base hits made him just the 12th player (15th time) to ever break the century mark in long hits...Luis set a National League record and tied Ken Griffey Jr's major league mark with 13 home runs in April...Luis set the N.L. mark and tied the big league record with 2 shots on April 26, hitting a solo homer off of Atlanta's Greg Maddux in the first inning, then connecting on a 3-run blast off of southpaw Damian Moss in the eighth... Gonzalez was named the N.L. Player-of-the-Month for April, then remained hot in May, fashioning a 14-game hitting streak in which he batted .429 (24-for-56) with 6 home runs and 13 RBI...included was his fourth 2-homer game of the young season on May 17 in Cincinnati, becoming the fastest ever to 20 home runs, achieving the mark in 40 games, a game quicker than Mickey Mantle in 1956...Luis recorded the 1,500th hit of his career by tripling on May 30 in San Francisco...he was awarded the league Player-of-the-Month award for June, hitting .417 (43-for-103) in 27 games with 26 runs, 7 doubles, 12 homers and 35 RBI, totaling 86 bases for a June slugging pct. of .835...included was the first 3-homer game of his career, going deep to all 3 fields in Kansas City to lead the D'Backs to a win...Gonzo hit another hot streak at mid-month, homering 6 times and driving in 15 in a 7-game stretch to earn co-N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors with Houston's Lance Berkman...included was a 2-homer, 6-RBI affair on June 19 in Los Angeles, then 2 nights later in Colorado he hit a grand slam off of Colorado's Gabe White, Gonzo's first slam since June 20, 1997...he recorded his seventh multi-homer game of the season on July 3 in Houston's Enron Field, taking Scott Elarton deep twice, including his second grand slam of 2001, third of his career...he continued the long ball momentum into the All-Star break, winning the All-Star Home Run Derby at Safeco Field, knocking off Sammy Sosa in the finals...Luis followed by going 1-for-2 in the Midsummer Classic after being voted into the N.L. starting lineup...he hit his 39th and 40th homers in Arizona's 100th game on July 24 against San Diego, driving in 5 in an 11-0 victory, his eighth and final multi-homer game of the year... Gonzalez was only the fifth player in major league history to hit 50 home runs before September 1 when he took Kirk Rueter deep at home on August 29, joining Bonds, Sosa, Mark McGwire and Roger Maris...he finished the year with 57 home runs, #54 was his only "walk-off" blast in '01 to stake Arizona to a 4-3 win in 11 innings over the Dodgers on September 28...he played in all 162 games for the second consecutive year...including the post-season, Luis was the first player ever to participate in 179 games in a year...Gonzo's final numbers matched him with Babe Ruth's 1921 campaign as the only players in history to hit at least .320 with 35 doubles, 50 homers, 120 runs, 130 RBI, 100 walks, 100 extra-base hits and 400 total bases in a season...Gonzalez also completed his first career errorless campaign playing in 161 games in left. 2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Luis entered the bottom of the ninth inning of the seventh game of the World Series hitless in 4 at bats, but by the end of that at bat he would be in the midst of the greatest celebration to ever hit the Valley of the Sun...with the bases loaded and a drawn-in infield he sent teammates and fans into a frenzy with a bloop single off of Mariano Rivera to drive home Jay Bell with the winning run that staked Arizona to a 3-2 win and its first World Championship...Gonzo prefaced the Game #7 heroics with 2 hits in the 15-2 runaway in Game #6, including a 2-run double in Arizona's 8-run third inning...he jumpstarted the World Series experience with a 2-run homer off of Mike Mussina in Game #1, giving the D'Backs a 3-1 lead en route to a 9-1 triumph...it was Gonzo's third roundtripper of the post-season and 60th overall on the year...the Fall Classic also featured a sidebar in which Gonzalez and his childhood best friend, Tino Martinez, each played a huge role in their club's success...raised in Tampa, FL, they played on the same Jefferson High School team that went to the state finals in 1985 and even worked in the same cigar factory that was run by Martinez's grandfather...Gonzo's overall post-season batting average was an uncharacteristic .246 (16-for-65), due in a large part to an injured right wrist from being hit by pitches and a right hamstring strain...he still provided key offensive contributions throughout Arizona's run to the title, including a big night in Atlanta in Game #4 of the NLCS when the D'Backs took a 3-1 lead in the series... Luis was on base 5 times going 2-for-3 with 2 walks and a hit by pitch while scoring twice and knocking in 3 with a ninth inning homer to blow open the 11-4 victory...he closed out the Division Series against St. Louis by reaching base safely in 7 of his last 11 plate appearances over the final 3 games, including a homer in Arizona's 5-3 win at Busch Stadium in Game #3. 2000—Luis became the first D'Back in franchise history to appear in and start all 162 games and earned co-Player-of-the-Year honors with Steve Finley as voted by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA...Gonzo was also named to his second consecutive Good Guy Award...Luis opened the season going 10-for-19 (.526) through the first 5 games, featuring a club record-tying 3-double affair on April 7 vs. the Pirates... he recorded his 300th career double on June 18 vs. San Diego...he earned the first 2 N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors (June 5-11 and July 24-30)...Gonzo recorded the first cycle in club history on July 5 in Houston, the 229th in major league history and the 10th player in baseball history to both hit for the cycle and author a 30-game hitting streak (1999)...he had his ninth career 2-homer game on August 3 against Atlanta, while driving in 5 to match the team-high for a game during the 2000 season...he drove in 8 runs during a split doubleheader in San Francisco on September 23...he was selected to travel to Japan as part of the MLB All-Star tour in November, hitting .300 in 8 games against Japanese League All-Star teams. 1999—Acquired from Detroit during the winter in exchange for Karim Garcia, Gonzo led the N.L. with 206 hits...he recorded 5 different double-digit hitting streaks, (30, 16, 13, 11 and 10)...the 30-game streak from April 11-May 18, was the first such streak of that length in the N.L. since 1989 (Jerome Walton), and the 37th player in history to hit in at least 30 straight games...consistent throughout the streak, he batted .400 (46-for-115) with 25 runs, 11 doubles, a triple, 7 homers, 25 RBI and 80 total bases for a slugging pct. of .696...the most memorable hit during the streak was at home on May 11 against Montreal, snapping a 3-3 tie with his first hit of the night, a game-ending 10th inning homer off of Guillermo Mota...once the streak ended, Luis was hitless for 2 games, then hit safely in 13 in a row, giving him a start to the season that featured hits in 48 of his first 51 games at a .398 clip (80-for-201)...he earned his first trip to the All-Star Game, going 1-for-2 with a double in Fenway Park. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Gonzo started all 4 games in the series with the Mets, going 2-for-10 with a team-high 5 walks...both of his post-season hits came in the first game of the series and each went for extra bases...he doubled in his first at bat in the first inning, then hit a 2-run homer in the sixth inning, to tie the contest. 1998 —Luis' only year in the American League was highlighted with the addition of triplets to the Gonzalez family, when Christine delivered the threesome of Megan, Jacob and Alyssa on June 26... he recorded his fourth career 2-homer game, taking Anaheim's Omar Olivares deep twice on August 10, with the second blast the 100th of Luis' career...he also picked up the 1,000th career hit with a single off of Olivares...the Tampa native celebrated his return home by belting the first-ever home run at Tropicana Field in the Devil Rays' inaugural game on March 31, a 2-run blast in the fifth inning off of Dan Carlson. 1997—Signed as a free agent with the Astros and tied Art Howe's club record with a 23-game hitting streak, the longest streak in the N.L. in '97...enjoyed a visit to Montreal on July 18-20, going 9-for-11 in the series, with 2 homers, 6 runs and 7 RBI... included was his first career grand slam on July 20 off of Omar Daal. 1996—His last year as a Cub he started twice at first base, his first major league work there since 1990. 1995—Opened the year with Houston then was traded to the Cubs on June 28, with Scott Servais in exchange for Rick Wilkins...hit his first career game-opening home run on September 27 off St. Louis' Allen Watson. 1994—Ranked 10th in the league with 29 doubles during the strike-shortened season...he hit .331 (50-for-151) in the final 41 games leading up to the stoppage of play. 1993—Singled in his final at bat on October 3 to break the .300 mark...had second career 5-RBI game on Sept. 6 vs. New York. 1992—Opened the season with Houston, but due to .158 average on May 20, was optioned to Tucson (AAA)...appeared in 13 games and hit .432 for the Toros and said goodbye to the minor leagues for the final time, returning to the majors on June 3...hit first career pinch-hit home run on June 13, a game-winning, 3-run shot off the Giants' Jeff Brantley in a 4-1 Houston win...was on the D.L. from July 21-August 5 with a partial dislocation of his left shoulder after making a diving catch vs. Pittsburgh on July 20. 1991—His first full year in the majors, he led the Astros with 50 extra-base hits, a club record for rookies, breaking Joe Morgan's team mark of 48 in 1965, earning a spot on the Topps All-Rookie team...Gonzo suffered a partial dislocation of his left shoulder attempting to make a diving catch on August 28 at Philly, disabling him from August 29-Sept. 13...had the first 5-RBI game of his career on July 3 at San Francisco...recorded first career 4-hit game on July 17 at Pittsburgh...hit first 2 major league home runs on May 1 at Wrigley Field off of Greg Maddux, knocking in 4 runs. 1990—Earned a spot on the Southern League All-Star team, while playing for Columbus (AA), tying for the league lead in home runs and sacrifice flies...was promoted to Houston after AA season, making debut on Sept. 4 in L.A. as a pinch hitter... made first start on Sept. 8 in San Francisco, picking up a double off of Steve Bedrosian for first major league hit. 1989—Was limited to 86 games for Osceola (A) due to an injured right shoulder...was on the disabled list from May 26-July 5, but still tied for the team lead in triples. 1988—Signed as Houston's fourth choice in the June draft and split his first pro season between Auburn and Asheville, totaling 70 games.

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 200 B/T: L/L
Age: 38 (Turns 39 on June 28)
Born: June 28, 1964 in Winston-Salem, NC
Residence: Paradise Valley, AZ
M.L. Service: 14 years, 154 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 8, 2000.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

After 14 seasons as an everyday first baseman, Mark had to adjust to an unfamiliar role as the 2002 campaign progressed, coming off the bench and getting spot starts throughout the year..he was the starting first baseman as the year began with Erubiel Durazo missing the first 6 1/2 weeks due to hamate bone surgery in the latter part of spring training...not as known for the long ball as the 2-base hit, Gracie homered in 2 of the first 3 games of the year, including an Opening Day solo shot to help stake Randy Johnson to a 2-0 victory over San Diego...he hit the foul pole in Florida on April 28 to complete sixth inning back-to-back-to-back home runs with Steve Finley and Damian Miller, turning a 3-2 deficit to Josh Beckett into an eventual 5-4 victory...a lifetime .300 hitter during the first month of the season, Mark hit just .222 in April (18-for-81)...he rebounded for a 10-game stretch in early May batting .300 (9-for-30), but fouled a ball off of his right ankle on May 13 in Pittsburgh that cost him the next 5 games...once deemed ready to return to work, Durazo had also returned from his injury and Gracie began serving as a spot-starter and pinch hitter...the consummate hitter proved valuable in the pinch-hit role, going 5-for-7 from May 21-June 22 with a double and 5 RBI...his seventh inning pinch single against Detroit on June 15 snapped a 1-1 tie as the D'Backs wound up 3-1 winners...it also earned him a start the following afternoon and he responded by going 2-for-3 with a home run and his 500th career double, becoming only the 38th player in major league history to achieve the 500-double plateau...Gracie had his final regular season double of 2002 on September 27 against Colorado to tie Babe Ruth for 35th on the all-time list with 506...Mark is fourth among active players trailing only Rafael Palmeiro (522), Barry Bonds (514) and Rickey Henderson (509)...Gracie spent the majority of July as the everyday first sacker as Durazo was forced to the disabled list on July 1 with a right oblique strain...Grace's best stretch in July came during the second half of a key road trip that encompassed all 4 National League West cities, as he went 9-for-20 (.450) in a 6-game stretch from July 16-21...he recorded the 2,400th hit of his career on July 19 in San Diego...his playing time once again tapered off after Durazo's return to action, as Mark was in the lineup for only 11 of Arizona's final 59 games...his offensive production also suffered during the lack of playing time, scuffling through a 4-for-41 stretch from July 22 to the end of August...though starts were sporadic during the final weeks of the regular season, Gracie made the most of his opportunities... included was a 4-hit effort on September 19 in Coors Field, his 20th career game of at least 4 hits and first dating back to September 11, 2000...less than a week later on September 27, he delivered 3 hits including a double and 2 RBI against the Rockies...while serving in the super-sub role for the latter half of the season, Gracie proved to be an all-purpose player by taking the mound for the first time in his career on September 2 in Phoenix against the Dodgers...the D'Backs were down 18-0 at the time and instead of using another reliever, manager Bob Brenly summoned Mark from the dugout...he coaxed 4 fly balls during his inning of work, unfortunately the one by Dave Ross traveled 396 feet for a home run on a 73-mph pitch for the Dodger rookie's first major league blast...it was the second time a Diamondback position player pitched (Steve Finley on August 30, 2001, vs. the Giants).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

A 3-time All-Star and 4-time Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner, Mark was voted to the Cubs' all-century team in 1999...he is a 2-time N.L. Player-of-the-Week and once a Player-of-the-Month honoree...Grace led the majors during the 90's with 1,754 hits and 364 doubles, while his 1,238 singles ranked second to Tony Gwynn... Grace joined such greats as Honus Wagner, Ty Cobb, Rogers Hornsby, Paul Waner, Lou Boudreau, Richie Ashburn, Roberto Clemente, Pete Rose and current Diamondback coach Robin Yount as decade hit leaders in the 20th century...Mark has walked more than he has fanned in every professional season and entered 2003 with 1,059 career walks and just 627 K's...during the 1990's, Grace became just the second player in Cubs history to start every season opener of a decade at the same position, joining Cap Anson (the 1880's at first base)...Mark has finished in the N.L. Top 10 in batting on 8 occasions...his 1,059 career walks are 10th among active players and tied-74th all-time (with Joe Cronin)...defensively, his .995 career fielding pct. was the highest in Cub history at first base, while his 1,890 games at that position rank second in franchise history to Anson (2,058).

2001—When Mark was not given the opportunity to return to the Chicago Cubs after 13 big league seasons, his goal was to sign with a club that had a chance at post-season success...Arizona got what it wanted, a consistent bat and terrific glove, and in turn Gracie wound up a major contributor to a World Series winner...the #1 doubles producer during the decade of the 90's posted his seventh consecutive season with at least 30 doubles, the 10th of his major league career...he had an 18-game hitting streak from May 18-June 10 in which he batted .422 (27-for-64) and fell just a game shy of his career best set 10 years earlier in 1991 with the Cubs...the streak came to an abrupt end on June 12 when he suffered a contusion on the middle finger of his left hand trying to field a bad-hop grounder...the hitting streak was filled with key moments beginning with an eighth inning grand slam off Philly's Ricky Bottalico on May 13, the third slam of Gracie's career...he made his highly publicized return to Wrigley Field and his first game back at the corner of Clark & Addison couldn't have been better scripted as he snapped a scoreless tie with a 2-run single in the sixth inning on May 18...he added a double in the eighth then was intentionally walked in the ninth as Randy Johnson posted a 4-0 win...though not known for the long ball, it was a factor on Memorial Day (May 28) in San Francisco, as Gracie snapped a 1-1 tie in the 12th inning with a solo blast into McCovey Cove...after the All-Star break, Mark hit safely in the last 9 games of Arizona's longest road trip of the year, batting at a .424 clip (14-for-33) featuring 3 doubles and 3 homers...he recorded the 2,300th hit of his career on August 1...when not in the lineup, Mark was 4-for-8 as a pinch hitter with 4 RBI...his pinch hit work was climaxed with a run scoring single off the Dodgers' Jesse Orosco in the eighth inning on September 28 in Bank One Ballpark, enabling Arizona to tie the game at 3-3 and set the stage for Luis Gonzalez's "walk-off" home run heroics in the 11th inning. 2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Mark's first extended visit to the post-season had a fitting climax as the veteran first baseman started the rally that iced the World Championship for the Diamondbacks...with 2 hits already in the books in Game #7, he delivered a leadoff single against Mariano Rivera to ignite the 2-run rally that ended on a Luis Gonzalez single... Gracie hit his first World Series homer in Game #4 at Yankee Stadium, a fourth inning upper deck blast to rightfield off of Orlando Hernandez to tie the game at 1-1...it was Mark's second career post-season home run, first since Game #1 of the 1989 NLCS against the Giants...he had a 6-game hitting streak during Arizona's run to the title, hitting safely in all 5 games of the NLCS against Atlanta, then picking up a double and 2 RBI in his World Series debut in Game #1 vs. the Yanks...Gracie and the D'Backs received a scare in Game #5 of the NLCS against the Braves when he was forced out of the contest after 4 innings with a tight right hamstring...his replacement, Erubiel Durazo, delivered a 2-run pinch-hit home run off of lefty Tom Glavine to provide the margin of victory propelling Arizona into the Fall Classic...Mark hit at a .375 clip (6-for-16) in the NLCS...since the D'Backs knocked the Braves off in 5 games, Grace was able to rest his hamstring for 5 days prior to the start of the World Series. 2000—Mark's final season as a Cub, he tied for eighth in the N.L. with 41 doubles and tied for ninth in walks with a career-high 95... reached a pair of milestones during the year, scoring his 1,000th career run on May 2 against the Astros, the eighth player in Cub history to achieve that mark, while recording his 1,000th career RBI on September 23 against St. Louis, the seventh player in franchise history to attain that total...Mark had his first career 5-hit game on August 6 in San Diego...he had 4 hits and a career-high 6 RBI on July 26 at Philly, featuring his second career grand slam (Paul Byrd)...Mark was the opening day first baseman for the 12th consecutive year, homering in the March 29 lid lifter against the Mets in Tokyo...he continued his mastery with the leather leading all N.L. first basemen with a .997 fielding percentage, committing only 4 errors in 1,205 total chances, including just 1 miscue after the All-Star break...Mark was one of four captains on the 2000 roster (Sammy Sosa, Kevin Tapani and Rick Aguilera), the first Cub captains since Ron Santo in 1973...he was disabled from May 11-30 with a left hamstring strain. 1999—Mark hit .309 for the second consecutive season, sixth straight year above .300...his 107 runs were a career-high... he recorded the 400th double of his career against the Diamondbacks on August 9 off of Omar Daal...he surpassed Ernie Banks for second on the Cubs' all-time doubles list on September 8 vs. Cincinnati...he collected his 2,000th major league hit in his 1,709th game on August 2, a single off of Montreal's Dustin Hermanson...Mark hit the first grand slam of his career on May 4 at Wrigley Field vs. Colorado (D. Kile). 1998—Had a career-high 17 home runs...he celebrated Mark Grace/Authentic Starting Lineup Collectible Figurine Day on April 19 by going 3-for-4 against the Dodgers, featuring the game-winning hit...he also provided the perfect ending for "Gracie the Swan" Beanie Baby Day on September 13 vs. the Brewers by delivering a game-winning home run in the bottom of the 10th...Grace began the season in pain playing with a fracture of the distal phalanx of his right big toe, suffering the injury in his final spring at bat on March 29. 1997—Hit his 100th career home run on July 6, a 2-run shot off the Phillies' Mark Leiter...he made his third trip to the All-Star Game, going 0-for-1 in Cleveland...he was disabled from April 4-19, straining his right hamstring while running out a triple on April 3 in Florida. 1996—Mark hit a career-high .331 while earning his fourth Rawlings Gold Glove...his .331 average was fifth in the N.L. and the highest mark by a Cub since Bill Madlock hit .339 in 1976...he was the first Cubs lefthanded batter to break the .330 mark since Billy Williams hit .333 in 1972...he recorded career hit #1,500 on September 13 with a single off the Phils' Rich Hunter...was on the disabled list from June 11-28 with a mid-back strain. 1995—One of his best overall seasons, recording a league leading and career-high 51 doubles, while adding 16 home runs, 92 RBI and his third Rawlings Gold Glove...he shattered the Cubs record for doubles in a season by a lefthanded batter, breaking Charlie Grimm's mark of 42 in 1932, the fourth overall 50-double campaign in team history, first in 59 years, joining Kiki Cuyler (50 in 1930) and Billy Herman (57 in 1935 and 1936)...Grace was the first N.L. player to achieve 50 doubles since Pete Rose (51) in 1978...Mark made his second All-Star Game appearance, playing the final 3 innings at first base in The Ballpark in Arlington...he walked 6 times in an August 10 doubleheader against San Diego, just the sixth N.L. batter to accomplish the feat...he was the N.L. Player-of-the-Week for the final week of the season hitting .516 (16-for-31) with 9 RBI...he was named to Baseball America's post-season N.L. All-Star team. 1994—Led the club with 106 games played in the strike-shortened season. 1993—Finished fifth in the league batting race with a .325 mark, while establishing career bests in hits (193) and RBI (98)...he won his second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove, committing just 5 errors in 1,573 chances (.997 fielding pct.)...led all major league first basemen in total chances and putouts (1,456) for the third consecutive year...on May 9 vs. San Diego he became the 14th player in Cub history to hit for the cycle, doubling off of Greg Harris in the first inning, singling off Harris in the third, tripling off Harris in the seventh, then homering off of Rich Rodriguez in the ninth...made his first trip to the All-Star Game, going 0-for-3 as the N.L. designated hitter at Camden Yards in Baltimore...Grace recorded his 1,000th career hit on August 31 off Philadelphia's Ben Rivera (879th career game). 1992—Mark won his first of 4 Rawlings Gold Gloves, finishing the season with a .998 fielding pct., while leading all major league first basemen in chances (1,725) and putouts (1,580)...he finished ninth in the N.L. batting race with a .307 mark...was the second toughest to strikeout in the N.L. with a 1 in 19.1 ratio. 1991—Led the N.L. in at bats (619), ranked second in games played (160) and ninth in hits (169)...he recorded a career-high 19-game hitting streak from July 24-August 13, batting .439 (36-for-82)...had the second 2-homer game of his career on July 4 vs. Pittsburgh, climaxing with a game-winning solo shot off of Bill Landrum...finished with a .995 fielding pct., leading all major league first basemen in putouts (1,520), assists (167) and total chances (1,695). 1990—Tied for sixth in the league with a .309 average...he set a major league record for assists by a first baseman with 180...had a major league record-tying 3 assists in an inning on May 23 vs. Los Angeles (fourth inning). 1989—Mark's first full season in the majors, he finished fourth in the N.L. batting race with a .314 mark, and topped the Cubs with 79 RBI...was the N.L. Player-of-the-Month for July when he batted .347 with 5 homers and 24 RBI in 27 games...had first career 2-homer game on August 19 in the Astrodome...was disabled from June 5-23 with a right shoulder strain... had an outstanding NLCS against the Giants, batting .647 (11-for-17) with 3 doubles, a triple, homer, 8 RBI and a 1.118 slugging pct. 1988—Opened the year with Iowa (AAA), hitting just .254 in 21 games, but had his contract purchased on May 2 and has never looked back...his .296 average ranked sixth in the N.L. and he earned The Sporting News' N.L. Rookie-of-the-Year award, the first Cub to win the honor since Ken Hubbs in 1962...Mark finished second in the BBWAA Rookie of the Year balloting behind Cincinnati's Chris Sabo, and was selected to the Topps Major League Rookie All-Star team...Mark made his big league debut on May 2 in San Diego, just a couple of miles from the campus of San Diego State University, where he had played just 3 years earlier...he had 2 hits in his debut game, with his first hit coming off of Jimmy Jones...he recorded his first big league double the next night off of Greg Booker, then added his first career home run in the series finale on May 4 off of Keith Comstock...Mark had his first career 5-RBI game on July 1 at Los Angeles. 1987—Was selected the Eastern League Most Valuable Player after driving in a league-high 101 runs at Pittsfield (AA)...he hit .333 with 54 extra-base hits and had a .545 slugging pct. 1986—Made his pro debut with Peoria (A), winning the Midwest League batting title with a .352 mark...earned mid-season and post-season league All-Star honors.

ROBBY HAMMOCK

Catcher

Ht: 5-10 Wt: 187 B/T: R/R

Age: 25 (Turns 26 on May 13)

Born: May 13, 1977 in Macon, GA

Residence: Dacula, GA

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as Arizona's 23rd round selection in the 1998 June free agent draft.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

While Robby came to the ballpark ready to play everyday, his only dilemma was which glove to use... appearing in 122 of 138 games for El Paso (AA), the versatile player appeared in 56 games behind the plate, 38 in leftfield, 21 in rightfield and 11 at third base, while also being employed on 6 occasions as the designated hitter...he led the team with 8 sacrifice flies, tied for second with 11 homers, ranked third with 73 RBI, finished fourth in runs (68), hits (128) and at bats (441), fifth with 28 doubles and tied for fifth with 122 games played...a .332 hitter (74-for-223) at home, he had 51 RBI, 41 runs scored and 29 extra-base hits in 61 home contests...he opened the season by hitting safely in 7 of his first 8 games at a .379 clip (11-for-29) with 8 runs scored and 8 RBI and hit in 5 consecutive contests from April 8-12 with a .500 average (8-for-16)...he hit just .205 (8-for-39) with 3 runs scored and 9 RBI in his next 12 games to close out April...he hit safely in 12 of 14 outings from the second game of a May 4 twinbill through May 19, batting .321 (17-for-53)...in a span of 18 games from May 25-June 13 (first game), he picked up at least one hit in 15 contests while hitting .368 (28-for-76) with 10 runs scored, 7 doubles and 15 RBI...included in that stretch was his best game of the season, an 18-17 contest on June 1 vs. Tulsa, in which he was 5-for-6 with 2 runs scored, a homer and 4 RBI...he hit the front end of back-to-back homers with Steve Neal in the sixth inning and tied the game with a single in the ninth...Robby concluded his season by hitting safely in 10 of his final 11 contests at a .467 clip (21-for-45) with 11 runs, 5 doubles and 7 RBI...he had at least 1 hit in 78 games, including 39 multi-hit contests...he bounced back from a rough July in which he batted .212 (18-for-85) with 10 runs scored over 23 contests to hit .359 (33-for-92) with 21 runs scored in 26 games in August...he hit .312 (44-for-141) with 60 RBI when runners were in scoring position.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—He played all eight field positions in the season finale for Lancaster...he finished with a 13-game hitting streak from Aug. 18-Sept. 3. 2000—In the season opener, he hit a 2-run home run, 2-run triple and delivered the game-winning RBI single in bottom of the ninth inning...he hit .446 (29-for-65) with 10 doubles in 20 games from April 27-May 23. 1999—He finished fifth in California League batting race (.332)...Robby was named Player-of-the-Week for May 10-16.

PERSONAL

Robert Wade (Robby) Hammock...he is single and makes his offseason home in Dacula, GA...after graduating from South Cobb High School in 1995, he went on to attend the University of Georgia...he played for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League after last season, batting .241 (21-for-87) with 15 RBI, including a stretch in which he hit .333 (21-of-63) in 13 of 16 contests.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 1, 1998.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Randy's 2002 campaign was proof that age is only a number as the record-setting southpaw delivered his first career "Triple Crown" of pitching to unanimously win a fourth consecutive Cy Young Award, the second hurler ever to win 4 in a row matching Greg Maddux (1992-95), while RJ's 5 career Cy's are only one shy of Roger Clemens' record...it was the 11th unanimous selection in history, first since Maddux in '95, the same year of Randy's first Cy Young while with Seattle...the Big Unit, who earned team Pitcher-of-the-Year honors from the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA and was tabbed the top National League lefthander on The Sporting News All-Star team...he won a club record and personal best 24 games while posting a 2.32 ERA and 334 strikeouts, the ninth time he's led the majors in K's...he is only the second National League pitcher since 1973 to lead in all 3 categories, joining the Mets' Doc Gooden in 1985 (24-4 with a 1.53 ERA and 268 K's)...as for the Big Unit, he broke his own club ERA record for a starting pitcher, eclipsing the 2.48 mark he had in 1999, and recorded his lowest single-season ERA since a 2.28 mark in 1997 with Seattle...he jumped from ninth to fourth on the all-time strikeout list, passing Walter Johnson, Gaylord Perry, Don Sutton, Tom Seaver and Bert Blyleven...he finished the campaign with 3,746 strikeouts in just 3,008.1 career innings, a ratio of 11.2 K's per 9-innings which is higher than any of the 3 pitchers still stationed in front of him (Nolan Ryan-9.6; Steve Carlton-7.1 and Clemens-8.6)...Randy became the first pitcher in big league history to fan at least 300 men in 5 straight seasons and tied Ryan as the only hurlers in the game's storied history to record 6 career 300-strikeout seasons...the Big Unit was joined in the 300-K club for 2002 by Curt Schilling, making them the first teammates in major league history to each record 300 strikeouts in the same season...he and Schilling have each won 45 games over the last 2 seasons, equaling Jim Palmer's 2-year total from 1975-76 and the most by N.L. hurlers since Steve Carlton won 47 with Philly (1971-72)...to further illustrate Randy's dominance during the 2002 season, 4 of his 35 starts totaled 26 earned runs in just 23.0 innings, allowing 5, 6, 7 and 8, losing 3 of those outings...in his other 31 starting assignments, the Big Unit was 24-2 with a remarkable 1.56 ERA, allowing only 41 earned runs in 237.0 innings...the Big Unit's regular season began and ended nearly flawlessly, winning the National League Pitcher-of-the-Month award for April by going 6-0 with a 1.37 ERA, becoming the first pitcher to win 6 games prior to May 1 twice in his career (2000) while the only other 2 hurlers ever to accomplish the feat once were Vida Blue (1971) and Dave Stewart (1988)...R.J. set the tone for 2002 with a complete game, 2-0 victory in the season opener on April 1 over San Diego, tossing a 6-hitter...it was his first of a league leading 8 complete games and ran his Opening Day record to 5-0 with a 2.38 ERA in 10 career starts (19 earned runs in 72.0 innings)...his second route-going effort of the year was on April 21 at home against Colorado, giving up an unearned run on 2 hits in a 7-1 win, establishing a season-

Bret Saberhagen	2	1985 (AL) - 1989 (AL)

(Prior to 1967, the BBWAA presented only one Cy Young Award each year. Commencing in 1967, the award was presented to a recipient in each league.)

high with 17 strikeouts...he later added another 17-strikeout game on September 14 vs. Milwaukee, while also fanning 15 once and 16 once...he has recorded 28 career games with at least 15 strikeouts, which are 3 more than Ryan accrued during his 27-year major league career...Johnson had 15 double-digit strikeout games giving him 186 in his career, just 29 behind Ryan's major league record 215...the Big Unit has posted a 125-31 record with 30 no decisions when he fans at least 10 in a game...though dominant for the majority of the campaign, the turning point to Randy's season came after a rough afternoon in San Diego on July 21 when he was tagged for 8 earned runs in just 5.0 innings, losing an 11-9 decision...his season ERA rose from 2.61 to 2.99 after that outing, but it also served as a wake-up call and he rose to the occasion...he closed the season by posting an 11-1 record and 1.31 ERA in 12 starts after the aberration in Qualcomm Stadium, allowing just 15 earned runs in 103.1 innings while recording 142 strikeouts...amazingly 6 of those runs scored in a 5.1-inning stint at home against San Francisco on August 30, his only loss in that stretch, meaning he gave up only 9 earned runs in the 98.0 innings of his other 11 starts for a remarkable 0.83 ERA... Johnson finished out the season with a 5-0 September, giving up only 3 earned runs in 41.0 innings for a 0.66 ERA, earning the N.L. Pitcher of the Month honor again...his 2002 September combined with his September work since 1993 with Seattle and Houston has produced a 28-1 record and 2.01 ERA in 39 appearances (38 starts) totaling 65 earned runs in 291.2 innings while fanning 401 hitters... Randy posted a 13-1 mark with 5 no decisions when taking the ball after an Arizona loss this year...as if his mound work weren't enough, Randy finished the year with 12 hits, while tying his own club record for RBI by a pitcher with 8, a half-dozen of which came during a 4-game hitting streak from August 25-Sept. 9...he was named to his ninth All-Star team, but chose not to attend due a sore back, the result of a collision with San Francisco's David Bell on July 6.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Randy's career strikeout total of 3,746 is fourth on the all-time list and he entered 2003 second among active pitchers to Roger Clemens (3,909)...the Big Unit's total is second among lefthanders, trailing only Steve Carlton (4,136)...Johnson's 1,083 strikeouts from 1999-2001 was the best 3-year total in major league history, 4 more K's than Ryan had from 1972-74...RJ has kept lefthanded hitters to a .194 overall average in his career (225-for-1160), and while allowing 267 regular season home runs during his career, only 16 have been hit by lefties (Von Hayes and Jim Eisenreich-1989; Wally Joyner and Mike Greenwell-1991; Mo Vaughn-1992; Darren Bragg-1996; Darin Erstad, Mo Vaughn, Jim Edmonds (2)-1997 & Larry Walker-2001; Brian Giles, Barry Bonds (2) and Shawn Green (2) in 2002...Randy had a personal 16-game winning streak that ran from August, 1995 through May 2, 1997, falling a win shy of the American League record for consecutive games won in a career...he has a career record of 224-106 for a winning pct. of .679, one of only 3 pitchers since 1900 to have won at least 200 games while winning 2 out of every 3 decisions, joining Hall of Fame lefthanders Whitey Ford (236-106, a .690 pct) and Lefty Grove (300-141, a .680 pct)...in 4 seasons with Arizona, the Big Unit has amassed some remarkable numbers, posting an 81-27 record for a .750 winning pct., while putting up single-season ERA's of 2.48, 2.64, 2.49 and 2.32, translating into an overall 4-year ERA of 2.48...he has fanned 1,417 men as a D'Back, a per season average of 354 and a strikeout per 9-inning ratio of 12.4...he has also tossed 31 complete games and 11 shutouts since donning a Diamondback uniform.

2001—The Big Unit was voted to his third consecutive Cy Young Award, posting 21 wins while leading the majors in strikeouts with 372 over 249.2 innings...his strikeout per 9-inning ratio of 13.4 was the best single-season mark in major league history eclipsing Pedro Martinez's previous record of 13.2 with the Red Sox in 1999... the Big Unit's final ERA of 2.49 was good for his second ERA title in the last 3 seasons...his 372 K's also established a career best, the third best single-season total in major league history, just 11 K's behind Nolan Ryan's all-time mark of 383...Randy also had his third consecutive year with 23 double-digit strikeout games, tying a major league record he already shared with Ryan...Johnson's strikeout total combined with Curt Schilling's 293 made them the top tandem in big league history, fanning 41 more than Ryan and Bill Singer when they K'd 624 with the Angels in 1973...Johnson concluded his remarkable year by going 16-2 with a 2.21 ERA in his last 24 appearances, allowing 42 earned runs over 171.0 innings...his 21st and final win was also the 200th of his career as RJ defeated the Rockies on October 2...Randy was 12-1 in his last 13 decisions dating back to June 29...he fanned 20 on May 8 at home against Cincinnati joining Roger Clemens (twice) and Kerry Wood as the only hurlers to strikeout 20 in a 9-inning span...unfortunately, Randy left the game in a 1-1 deadlock with the Diamondbacks eventually posting a 4-3 win in 11 innings...he struck out 16 in a rare relief appearance when he took the ball the day after the July 18 contest in San Diego was suspended due to an electrical box explosion in the light ring that darkened Qualcomm Stadium in the third inning...in relief of Schilling, Randy worked the final 7.0 innings allowing an eighth inning single for San Diego's only hit in the game while fanning 16 of the 23 men he faced to establish a major league record for K's in a relief appearance (Walter Johnson had 15 in 11.1 innings in 1913)...RJ also set a National League mark for relievers with 7 straight strikeouts, his second of 3 outings that featured 7 straight K's...the Big Unit's third 16-K game also found its way into the record book on August 23 in Pittsburgh, working 7.0 innings in a 5-1 loss, his only setback in his last 18 trips to the hill...his first inning strikeout of Jack Wilson was RJ's 1,000th in less than 3 full seasons as a D'Back...he fanned Wilson again in the sixth to become his 300th victim of the 2001 season, the first time in history that a pitcher recorded at least 300 K's in 4 straight seasons...the sixth inning was also when Randy tied a big league record with 3 K's on 9 pitches...he appeared in 17 games after an Arizona defeat, going 10-2 featuring an 8-0 mark and 1.21 ERA in his last 13 post-loss outings, giving up just 13 earned runs in 96.2 innings...he won 8 in a row from June 29-August 18 (10 games)...Randy was the All-Star starter in Seattle, his eighth overall trip to the Midsummer Classic, second straight start...the Big Unit's 372 strikeouts came while walking only 71 hitters, a differential of 301 which is the second best in major league history...when Sandy Koufax set the N.L. strikeout record with 382 in 1965 he walked only 71 men, a difference of 311. 2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Randy silenced the critics with his work in the 2001 fall season, culminated by being named the Co-MVP of the World Series with mound-mate Curt Schilling...the duo combined to go 9-1 with a 1.30 ERA in a dozen post-season outings...Randy was the starter in the 15-2 triumph in Game #6, then returned to the hill the next night in relief to record the last 4 outs prior to the come-from-behind effort to win Game #7 and the World Series title...he was the first pitcher in 55 years to win as a starter in Game #6 and reliever in Game #7 since St. Louis' Harry Brecheen (1946)...the Big Unit became the first 5-game winner in post-season history and the 13th pitcher to win 3 times in the same World Series, first since Detroit's Mickey Lolich (1968)...RJ's first-ever World Series experience began with an efficient 4-0 win in Game #2, going the distance on a 3-hitter with a walk and 11 K's, the 47th double-digit strikeout game in Series history...it was the first Fall Classic complete game since Greg Maddux vs. Cleveland in Game #1 of the '95 Series, and first complete game shutout since Schilling's Game #5 triumph over Toronto in 1993...the 3-hitter also marked the fewest hits allowed in a World Series complete game shutout since Orel Hershiser 3-hit the A's in Game #2 in 1988...the blanking of the Yankees was the first time the Bronx Bombers had been victimized by a complete game shutout in World Series play since the Dodgers' Don Drysdale fired a 3-hitter in Game #3 of 1963...Randy returned to the hill in Game #6, a 15-2 triumph allowing 6 hits over 7.0 innings...his first inning strikeout of Derek Jeter was RJ's 412th overall strikeout of the year (372 regular season/40 post-season) surpassing Koufax for the highest combined single-season total in big league history (Koufax had 382 regular season/29 World Series in 1965)...Randy also delivered a run scoring single during Arizona's 8-run explosion in the third inning, while scoring twice, the first pitcher to do so in a World Series game since Bob Gibson (Game #4. 1968)...Johnson followed the next night with his 1.1-inning relief stint, his first post-season bullpen work since going 3.0 frames against the Yankees in Game #5 of the '95 Division Series while with Seattle...his Game 6 & 7 performances made him the first hurler to start a World Series game and pitch in relief in the next game since Dave McNally in 1971 vs. Pittsburgh, when he started Game #5 and relieved in Games 6 & 7 for the Orioles...Randy's 5-game post-season winning streak began in the NLCS against Atlanta, winning Game #1 by going the distance allowing 3 hits and fanning 11 in posting a 1-0 win...he allowed a first inning single to Chipper Jones then fired 7.0 straight hitless innings to set an NLCS record, an inning more of consecutive no-hit ball than Jack Billingham recorded with Cincinnati in Game #1 of the '73 series vs. the Mets...Randy followed with a win in the N.L. pennant clincher in Game #5 at Turner Field, working 7.0 frames allowing 2 runs on 7 hits, a 3-2 decision...one of the biggest moments of the post-season, yet lost in the World Series hype was the last pitch that Johnson threw in the NLCS, fanning Brian Jordan with the bases loaded and 2-out in the seventh inning to maintain the 3-2 lead...Randy's 19 K's in his 2 starts against the Braves set an NLCS record, 2 more than the Tom Seaver ('73 Mets)...RJ's lone Division Series appearance extended his post-season losing streak to 7 games (8 starts) with a 4-1 loss in Game #2 against the Cards...Randy's 5-game winning streak after the loss to the Redbirds featured a 1.08 ERA allowing 4 earned runs over 33.1 innings with 6 walks and 38 K's. 2000—R.J. led the majors in strikeouts with 347, while topping the N.L. in winning percentage (.731) and tying for the top spot in complete games (8), shutouts (3) and starts (35)...he became the third N.L. pitcher to win the Cy Young Award consecutively, first lefthander to do so since Sandy Koufax (1965-66)...he also earned his second straight team Pitcher-of-the-Year honor from the area BBWAA...he became the 12th pitcher in history to reach 3,000 career strikeouts when he fanned Florida's Mike Lowell on September 10 in Pro Player Stadium...Johnson also recorded his 300th strikeout of the year in that game to join Nolan Ryan as the only pitchers in history to achieve that mark in 3 consecutive seasons...Johnson started the season by winning co-N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors and was 6-0 in April with a 0.91 ERA to earn league Pitcher-of-the-Month honors...he was 11-1 with a 1.40 ERA through 14 starts and 15-2 with a 2.01 mark at the All-Star break, earning the starting nod for the N.L....he had a 5-game hitting streak from April 14-May 5, going 6-for-17 (.353) with a double and 4 RBI. 1999—Randy's first year with Arizona translated into his second career Cy Young Award, joining Gaylord

Perry and Pedro Martinez as the only pitchers to win the honor in each league...he led the majors in strikeouts (364), complete games (12) and innings (271.2)...he won the division clincher in San Francisco on Sept. 24, an 11-3 win...he fanned 15 on April 10 in a win at Atlanta, the first of 23 double-digit strikeout games, tying Nolan Ryan's major league record for most in a season, 2 more than the previous N.L. mark set in 1965 by Sandy Koufax...the Big Unit reached the 300-K mark faster than any hurler in history, fanning the Marlins' Kevin Millar on August 26 in his 29th start, 2 starts quicker than any other pitcher...he blanked Seattle on July 20 for the first-ever shutout in Safeco Field while starting a stretch in which the D'Backs finished the year 51-17 to run away with the N.L. West... Randy came up on the short end of 4 consecutive shutouts from June 25-July 10 to tie a big league record...the oddity of the streak was that Arizona was no-hit by the Cards' Jose Jimenez in the first loss, followed by a 1-hitter, 2-hitter and 3-hitter in succession...it was the 10th time in major league history that a starter was blanked in 4 consecutive games, joining Willie Hernandez (1980 Cubs), Jim McAndrew (1968 Mets), Ray Sadecki (1968 Giants), Chuck Estrada (1962 Orioles), George O'Donnell (1954 Pirates), Paul Derringer (1933 Reds), Hub Pruett (1932 Boston Braves), Jesse Petty (1927 Brooklyn Dodgers) and Irv Young (1907 Boston Braves)...during the inexplicable drought, R.J. posted a 1.41 ERA, allowing 5 earned runs in 32.0 innings... he fanned 17 on June 30 in a 2-0 loss at Cincinnati starting a streak of 3 games in which he totaled 43 strikeouts, tying Doc Gooden's 3-game N.L. record set in 1984...he also earned a spot on his sixth career All-Star team, first as a National Leaguer...he was league Pitcher-of-the-Month for July, despite a 2-3 record while posting a 1.13 ERA (6 ER in 48.0 IP) while recording 64 strikeouts...he also garnered another N.L. Player-of-the-Week award for August 16-22. 1999 DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Randy appeared once vs. the Mets, absorbing an 8-4 loss in the series opener at home... he left the game with the bases loaded and the score tied at 4-4 in the ninth, but Edgardo Alfonzo hit a grand slam after RJ's departure. 1998—A record setting 10-year career with the Seattle Mariners came to an end at the trade deadline, joining a pennant race in Houston...R.J. was 9-10 with a 4.33 ERA in 23 starts for the Mariners, but turned his year around after joining the Astros, going 10-1 with a 1.28 ERA in 11 starts...he totaled a then career-high 329 strikeouts, accruing 213 in Seattle and 116 with the Astros...Johnson was acquired on July 31 with Houston clinging to a 3 1/2-game lead in the Central...after the deal, the Astros enjoyed the best overall month in franchise history, going 22-7 in August, upping the division lead to 11 games...he closed the regular season with wins in his final 7 starts, posting a 1.16 ERA (7 earned runs in 54.1 innings)...he earned N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for August, going 5-1 with a 1.17 ERA in 6 starts, leading the league in shutouts (3) and K's (61)... after a win in Atlanta over Greg Maddux on Sept. 2, Randy fired his fourth straight shutout in the Dome, 1-0 over Cincinnati on Sept. 7...he posted his eighth win in an Astro uniform on Sept. 12 vs. St. Louis, a 3-2 triumph that ended his consecutive scoreless inning streak in the Astrodome at 36.0, allowing both runs in the first inning...all told, in 5 starts in the Dome during the regular season, Johnson held the opposition scoreless in 42 of the 43 innings he pitched, allowing 2 earned runs (0.42 ERA)...he wrapped up September the same way he ended August, winning the N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month award, going 5-0 with a 1.41 ERA (6 ER in 38.1 IP). 1998 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Randy gave up 3 earned runs in 2 post-season starts and ended up with a pair of losses...he went up against Kevin Brown in the opener in Houston, losing 2-1, allowing 2 runs over 8.0 innings, while fanning 9...he then worked what ended up as the series finale, losing 6-1 to Sterling Hitchcock, allowing 1 earned run on 3 hits over a 6-inning stint, with 8 K's. 1997—Randy rebounded from an injury shortened 1996 to set a Seattle franchise record with 20 wins, leading the A.L. in opponents' batting average (.193), winning pct. (.833) and K's per 9-innings (12.3), finishing second to Roger Clemens in the Cy Young balloting...he had a streak within a streak from May 13-June 19, a stretch that witnessed a 7-game win streak (8 starts), but included was a 5-game period in which he allowed only 1 earned run over 40.0 innings (0.23 ERA)...he had a streak of 31.0 straight scoreless innings halted by an Eric Young homer on June 13 in the Kingdome...the winning streak was stopped by Oakland on June 24, a 4-1 loss featuring 19 K's by Johnson in a complete game that included a 538-foot home run by his former college teammate Mark McGwire...Randy's effort matched the major league record and set an A.L. mark for K's in a game by a lefthanded pitcher, while also tying the big league mark for K's in a loss...Johnson earned A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for June (4-1 and 0.92 ERA)...he made his second career All-Star Game start with 2.0 shutout innings in Cleveland...he fired a shutout on August 8 vs. Chicago, a 5-hitter, fanning 19, tying his own A.L. record for K's by a southpaw...it was the eighth 19-strikeout (9-inning) game in history, the first time it was done by the same hurler twice in a season...he worked 2.0 innings of relief on Sept. 27 vs. Oakland to pick up 20th victory, his first career relief win, featuring his 2,000th career strikeout (Ben Grieve). 1996—Randy was 5-0 but worked only 14 times due to a lower back injury that eventually required season-ending surgery...he made his final start of the year on May 12, then went on the D.L. the next day with an irritated nerve in his lower back...he was on the 60-day disabled list, making 1 rehab appearance for Everett (A), and was activated from the D.L. on August 6, working 2.0 scoreless frames of relief that day vs. Cleveland... he fanned 8 in 4.0 innings on August 13 vs. KC, earning his second career save...Johnson was placed on the D.L. on August 27 and underwent surgery (a micro endoscopic discecktomy) to correct an extruded disc herniation in his lower back on Sept. 12, a procedure performed by Dr. Robert Watkins in Los Angeles. 1995—Randy went 18-2 with a 2.48 ERA to win his first Cy Young Award, and only one in Seattle history, garnering 26 of 28 first place votes...he was named to The Associated Press and The Sporting News All-Star Teams, and was the A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Year by The Sporting News...he finished sixth in the league MVP balloting...the first Mariner to ever win the ERA title, he led the league in strikeouts and batting average against (.201), while ranking second in wins...he won his fourth consecutive league strikeout crown and established an A.L. record for best winning pct. in a season (minimum 20 decisions), breaking Ron Guidry's .893 mark (25-3) for the '78 Yankees...Seattle was 27-3 in his 30 starts...he equaled a career-high with a 160-pitch complete game at Cleveland on July 7, the first time he did not walk a man in a complete game...suffered his second (and final) loss of the year on August 1 at California...finished strong, earning A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Week honors for Sept. 18-24, going 2-0 with a 0.59 ERA, fanning 25 in 15.1 innings...was 7-0 with a 1.45 ERA for his final 10 starts, including a 3-hit, complete game in the 1-game playoff on October 2 vs. California for the A.L. West crown. 1995 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: He was the winner in Game #3 of the Division Series vs. the Yankees, allowing 2 runs over 7.0 innings...came back on a day's rest to work in relief in Game #5, fanning 6 in 3.0 innings as Mariners advanced to the LCS...he had a no decision in Game #3 of the LCS vs. Cleveland, allowing a run over 8.0 innings, a game that Seattle won, 5-2 in 11 innings...he was the losing pitcher in Game #6, giving up 3 runs in 7.1 frames... R.J. had off-season surgery on his right knee performed by Dr. Larry Pedegana. 1994—Finished third in the Cy Young balloting, leading the majors in K's, while topping the A.L. in K's per 9-innings (10.7), complete games and shutouts...Randy was Seattle's opening day starter in Cleveland on April 4, and with President Bill Clinton in attendance, he no-hit the Tribe until Sandy Alomar Jr. singled in the 8th, winding up with a no decision, an eventual 4-3 Seattle loss in 11...had a 7-game winning streak, featuring 3 consecutive shutouts from May 25-June 4, winning at Oakland (1-0, 4-hitter on May 25), at Minnesota (12-0, 2-hitter on May 30) and vs. Toronto (2-0, 6-hitter on June 4), earning A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Week honors...he ran the scoreless streak to 29.0 innings before strange circumstances brought it to an end...in the third inning of a June 10 start at the Kingdome, a power outage forced a 20-minute delay, then after play resumed, the A's scored a run on back-to-back doubles. 1993—Led the majors for the second straight year with a club record 308 K's, the first pitcher to top the 300-K plateau since Nolan Ryan in 1989 (301) and the first lefthander since Steve Carlton in 1972 (310)...Johnson won the A.L. strikeout crown by 112 K's, then the fifth largest margin in history...ended year with an 8-game winning streak, spanning his last 11 games, with a 2.11 ERA and a save...had second career 1-hitter on May 16 at Oakland, a 7-0 win, fanning 14 and taking a perfect game through 7.1 frames, then had the no-no broken up by Lance Blankenship with 1 out in the ninth...he tossed 2.0 perfect innings in the All-Star Game at Camden Yards, including a memorable strikeout of Philly's John Kruk...Johnson volunteered to work in relief following Norm Charlton's season-ending injury and earned his first big league save vs. Baltimore on August 16, snapping a streak of 146 straight starts...he recorded the 1000th strikeout of his career fanning Chuck Knoblauch on July 28 (the same night that Ken Griffey Jr. homered for an eighth straight game)...R.J. finished second to Chicago's Jack McDowell in Cy Young balloting, receiving 6 first place votes...he also appeared in a game as an outfielder, though he did not have any chances. 1992—Led the league in strikeouts, batting avg. against (.206) and hit batsmen (18)...he was hit by a line drive off the bat of Mike Greenwell on May 31, bruising his left elbow...after 10 days of rest, he attempted a return to action on June 10 at Texas, but pain persisted and he was placed on the D.L. until June 27... tied Ron Guidry's then-A.L. record for K's by a lefthanded pitcher with 18 strikeouts on Sept. 27 at Texas... despite the record-tying performance, he left after 8.0 innings and 160 pitches with score tied 2-2...over a 3-game stretch from Sept. 16-27, he went 0-1 with a 1.80 ERA and 45 K's, the second highest 3-game strikeout total in major league history. 1991—Despite early-season back problems that led to a 3-6 start, Randy finished second in the A.L. in K's...best outing of the year was August 14 vs. Oakland, a 4-0 win featuring 12 K's, taking a no-hitter into the 9th before Mike Gallego singled for the A's only hit...he had arthroscopic surgery after the season to repair a lateral release and a patellar shaving to remove a rough area on the back of his kneecap. 1990—He fired the first no-hitter in Mariner history, a 2-0 victory on June 2 vs. Detroit, walking 6 and fanning 8, earning A.L. Player-of-the-Week honors...he was 5-0 with a 2.40 ERA in June, winning the A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month award. 1989—He began the year with Montreal going 0-4 with a 6.67 ERA in 7 games (6 starts), with the Expos scoring 7 runs in the 4 losses...was optioned to Indy (AAA) on May 9, then was included in trade with Seattle on May 25, joining the Mariners with pitchers Brian Holman and Gene Harris in exchange for pitcher Mark Langston and a player to be named (Mike Campbell)...made his Mariner debut on May 30 at Yankee Stadium, a 3-2 win. 1988—Spent the majority of the year with Indy...he was out of action from June 14-July 31 with a hairline fracture of the 5th metacarpal on his right hand...was named the #3 major league prospect in the American Association by Baseball America...was recalled by the Expos after the minor league playoffs, and won his big league debut on Sept. 15 vs. Pirates...he fanned 11 in first career complete game vs. Cubs on Sept. 20. 1987—Spent the season with Jacksonville, leading the Southern League in strikeouts...he was 6-0 with 65 K's and only 17 hits allowed in his first 8 starts, totaling 46.0 innings...he was the S.L. Player-of-the-Month in May and closed the year ranked by Baseball America as the #2 prospect in the league. 1986—At West Palm Beach, Randy caught the eye of Baseball America for the first of 3 straight years, earning #3 prospect status. 1985—Signed with the Expos as their second choice in the June draft and reported to Jamestown.

PERSONAL

Randall David (Randy) Johnson...he and his wife, Lisa, have a son, Tanner (4/5/96) and daughters, Samantha (12/28/94), Willow (4/23/98), and Alexandria (12/4/99)...Randy was a 1982 graduate of Livermore (CA) High School, where he tossed a perfect game in his final prep start...he then attended the University of Southern California on a baseball/basketball scholarship, but concentrated solely on baseball after his sophomore season...he had a college teammate who also nabbed his share of headlines, teaming with Mark McGwire while with the Trojans...Johnson was originally drafted out of high school by the Atlanta Braves in the third round of the '82 June draft, but chose to attend USC...once an avid photographer, Randy had his work featured at Art Expo '90 in Los Angeles...following the 1990 season he made his first of two trips to Japan with fellow major leaguers, and combined with then-Angel southpaw Chuck Finley on a no-hitter on Nov. 11 in Tokyo... Randy made a cameo appearance in the baseball movie "Little Big League"...he and Curt Schilling were tabbed Sports Illustrated's Sportsmen of the Year following the World Series season of 2001...RJ is the only winner of the Warren Spahn Award, as the most outstanding lefthanded pitcher in the majors for each of the last 4 seasons, honoring the legacy of Oklahoman Warren Spahn, the winningest pitcher since 1930...Randy has also won each of the first 3 Leroy "Satchel" Paige Legacy Awards, given annually to major league baseball's "Pitcher-of-the-Year" by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum in Kansas City...he was presented his 2002 Cy Young Award by 3-time winner Sandy Koufax at the annual BBWAA dinner in New York City...Randy was voted the Seattle Post-Intelligencer's Sports Star-of-the-Year for 1993...community minded when not on the hill, Randy's success has been felt throughout the Valley, donating $161,340 to Diamondbacks Charities since joining Arizona in an effort to "Strikeout Homelessness"...he was Arizona's 2002 nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award...he was the 1999 recipient of the Bronze Sierra from the Arizona Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation for his continued work with C.F., including his years in Seattle...Randy is also involved in the Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Salvation Army...for the second straight January, Randy participated in the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic near Palm Springs...he has also played in the Phoenix Open Silver Pro-Am for 4 straight years and the celebrity putting contest, each of which benefit area charities...the Big Unit had the opportunity to live a golfer's dream by playing Augusta National, the home of the Masters, prior to spring training in each of the last 2 years.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Unlike the 2001 season, when he became the closer after an injury to reliever Matt Mantei, B.K. was Bob Brenly's go-to guy in the pen from the outset when a game was on the line in 2002...proving that there were no lingering effects from the unfortunate circumstances in the 2001 World Series, he set a single season team record for saves with 36 in 42 chances, shattering the record of 30 set by Gregg Olson in 1998...Kim finished the year with an 8-3 record and career-best 2.04 ERA in a team-high 72 appearances...his work earned him a spot on his first National League All-Star team in just his third full year in the majors, first full season as a closer...he made good on his first 10 save situations, inheriting 9 runners and not allowing any to score...he did not allow a run in his first 7 appearances of the year, spanning 6.2 innings, and was touched for only 1 run in his first 19.0 innings for a 0.47 ERA through May 8...he also recorded at least 1 strikeout in each of his first 20 appearances, totaling 42 K's in 26.0 innings for a 14.5 strikeout to 9-inning ratio...included in that stretch was a record-setting performance in Philadelphia on May 11, becoming the 33rd big leaguer at the time to strikeout the side on 9 pitches, fanning Scott Rolen, Mike Lieberthal and Pat Burrell...the strikeout was a much bigger part of his arsenal in the first half of the season, fanning 60 over 44.1 frames for a 12.2 ratio, but just 32 in his last 39.2 innings, a 7.3 mark...though his strikeout numbers tailed off in the second half, he still finished with 92 in 84.0 innings for a 9.9 per 9-inning ratio...after allowing 5 earned runs in a 10.1-inning stretch from May 11-26, B.K. went on another roll tossing 15.0 consecutive shutout innings over 12 outings from May 29-June 21, allowing only 6 hits while fanning 15 and making good on all 7 save situations in that span...Kim's only hiccup of the 2002 regular season occurred right after that stretch, allowing 7 earned runs over a pair of appearances in Houston on June 25-27...he entered the game on the 25th with the score tied and a man aboard in the eighth inning, but was tagged for a pair of 2-run homers...just 36 hours later in Minute Maid Park, he was called upon with Arizona clinging to a 4-3 lead in the ninth and after retiring the first man, 3 of the next 4 reached before Gregg Zaun ended the affair with a pinch-hit grand slam, just BK's third blown save in 22 opportunities...the Korean-born hurler treated the tough couple of games as a mere inconvenience as he then recorded saves in 7 consecutive situations, spanning his next 8 appearances...included in that stretch were saves in his first 4 appearances after the All-Star break as Arizona embarked on an 11-game journey through each of the 4 cities in the N.L. West...the first 3 rescues came on consecutive days after the break in Los Angeles, July 11-13, working an inning in each contest allowing only 1 hit, earning National League Player-of-the-Week honors for the abbreviated post All-Star break week...he followed on July 16 by recording the final 2 outs in Arizona's 5-3 win in San Francisco...as the Diamondbacks began putting some space between themselves and the rest of the division, Kim kept contributing, providing 4 wins and 8 saves (in 10 chances) from August 3-September 19...included was his team record-tying 30th save on August 20 at home against Cincinnati, then his record-breaking rescue just 2 days later also against the Reds...one of his more exciting saves, his 32nd of the year took place in Bank One Ballpark on August 23 against the Cubs, as he fanned Sammy Sosa with 2 men aboard to protect a 3-2 win over Kerry Wood...Kim closed 2002 allowing only 3 earned runs in his last 25.2 innings for a 1.05 ERA spanning 22 outings, including no earned runs in his last 8 outings, totaling 8.2 frames...he appeared in the last 3 games of the season, retiring all 8 Rockies he faced and earning a pair of saves...he was scored upon in only 11 of his 72 outings on the year, totaling 19 earned runs in 84.0 innings...eliminate the 7 runs over a 2-game span during the visit to Houston in late-June and B.K. gave up just 12 earnies in 83.0 frames for a sparkling 1.30 ERA.

2002 DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS—With the D'Backs never holding a late lead in any of the 3 games against St. Louis, Kim's only work came in the series finale at Busch Stadium, entering in the eighth inning with Arizona trailing, 4-3 and allowing 2 runs on 2 hits and 3 walks.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—B.K. opened the year in a set-up role but was thrown into closer mode just 3 weeks into the season when Matt Mantei went down with an elbow injury that eventually required "Tommy John" surgery...Kim responded with 19 saves in 23 opportunities while going through stretches in the year where he was virtually unhittable...he finished with 113 strikeouts in 98.0 innings for a ratio of 10.4 K's per 9 innings...he led all National League relievers by limiting opposing hitters to a collective .173 average, keeping righthanded hitters to a .151

mark (27-for-179) and lefties to a .199 average (31-for-156)...he also shattered Arizona's single-season appearance record, working 78 times to break Greg Swindell's mark of 64...Kim recorded 13.0 consecutive shutout innings from May 3-22, allowing only 3 hits while fanning 18...his most impressive performance was on May 18 in Wrigley Field when he struck out 7 in a 3-inning stint...B.K. later worked 13.2 consecutive shutout innings from July 1-27, featuring a streak of 36 batters faced without allowing a hit until Ben Davis doubled on July 25... the hitless streak featured 30 at bats and 6 walks with 22 strikeouts...overall in 11 July appearances, Kim had a 1.23 ERA allowing 2 earned runs and fanning 24 in 14.2 innings while holding the opposition to a .087 average (4-for-46)...from June 9-July 29, he retired the first man he faced in 21 consecutive appearances...the month of August featured Kim's best monthly ERA of the year, posting a 1.08 mark in 14 appearances allowing only 2 earned runs in 16.2 innings...of the 8 earned runs he was charged with in September, 6 were the direct result of 5 homers... despite the long ball troubles, B.K. proved he was ready to pitch in a pennant race, facing the Dodgers 4 times in a 9-day stretch in late-September and allowing only 2 hits in 7.0 shutout innings...he also delivered his first major league hit during the 2001 regular season, an eighth inning, 2-run single off of the Cubs' Jeff Fassero on August 17 in B.O.B., upping Arizona's lead to 7-2. 2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—B.K. came within an out of recording saves on consecutive nights during the World Series in Yankee Stadium only to fall victim to 2-run homers in each game that eventually led to a pair of D'Back losses...but, had it not been for Kim's work in the Division Series against St. Louis or the NLCS against the Braves, the Diamondbacks might not have been able to enjoy a trip to the Fall Classic and eventual crowning as World Champs...he earned a save in Game #3 in the first round against the Cardinals, coaxing a double play grounder from pinch hitter Mark McGwire to seal a 5-3 win in Busch Stadium...Kim earned saves in games 4 & 5 of the NLCS, capped by the rescue in the National League title clincher...he saved the final game of the NLCS in relief of Randy Johnson with Arizona holding a 3-2 lead, retiring 6 of the 7 men he faced, including Julio Franco on a fly ball to center to propel the D'Backs into the World Series...it would be 10 days before his next action, as Kim worked Game #4 of the Fall Classic on Halloween night in Yankee Stadium...entering in the eighth inning with Arizona in possession of a 3-1 lead, he struck out the side then coaxed a groundout by Derek Jeter to open the ninth before allowing a single to Paul O'Neill...Kim fanned Bernie Williams for the second out in the ninth, but Tino Martinez connected for a game-tying home run that sent the game into extra innings...Jeter untied it in the 10th with a 2-out fly ball that cleared the barrier in right field just after the clock struck midnight for the first-ever big league game in November...figuring that lightning couldn't strike twice in 24 hours, Brenly summoned Kim from the pen in the ninth inning of Game #5 and the D'Backs holding a 2-0 lead, largely due to Miguel Batista's 7.2 innings of shutout ball...B.K. gave up a leadoff double to Jorge Posada, then retired the next 2 hitters before Scott Brosius tied the game with a homer to left...the Yankees dodged a bases loaded situation in the 11th then won the contest in the 12th to send the series back to Arizona...by facing the Yankees, B.K. became the first native of Korea to ever appear in World Series competition. 2000—His first full year in the majors, he went 2-3 with 14 saves in 16 opportunities and a 1.82 ERA spanning his first 33 appearances...B.K. wasn't nearly as successful in his final 28 outings (1 start), going 4-3 with no saves in 4 opportunities with a 7.84 ERA...he finished the year with 111 strikeouts in 70.2 innings, a 14.1 strikeout per 9-inning ratio while holding opposing hitters to a .200 average... B.K. twice fanned 5 in relief (April 11 at San Diego and June 11 vs. Anaheim)...he was optioned to Tucson on July 30 after giving up 9 earned runs in 7.1 innings in late-July...he made 2 starts for the Sidewinders in an attempt to regain his pre-All Star break form, pitching 8.1 innings and giving up just one hit while fanning 13, then was recalled by the Diamondbacks on August 10...he allowed just 1 hit in his first 5 appearances (7.2 innings) after returning from Tucson, striking out 10...B.K. made his lone major league start on September 26 in Colorado allowing 4 earned runs in 2.1 innings of a no decision. 1999—Kim signed with Arizona in spring training, opening the year with El Paso...he made it look easy, going 2-0 with 32 K's in 21.1 innings, then went to Tucson (AAA), posting a 2-0 mark with 21 K's in 17.1 frames and was summoned to the majors...B.K. made his big league debut in Shea Stadium on May 29, retiring the Mets in order in the ninth, ending the game with a strikeout of Mike Piazza to save the 8-7 Arizona win... Kim earned his first major league win on October 2 over San Diego, working 0.1 of an inning...he was disabled from August 2-September 7 with a neck strain. 1998— A member of the Korean National team he got his first taste of competition on U.S. soil performing against the U.S. Olympic team in Tucson in the summer of 1998, fanning 15 in 6.2 innings...he then accompanied the Korean National team to Italy for the World Championships, where they competed in the finals, once again facing the U.S. squad, earning a save with 3.0 innings of hitless relief to preserve a 3-1 Korean win...he was a member of the Gold Medal winning club in the Asian Games, a tournament that also included teams from Chinese Taipei and Japan...B.K. fanned 12 against China in the Asian Games, featuring a stretch of 8 consecutive K's...his work in the Asian Games earned him the opportunity to sign a baseball contract, receiving a deferment from any military commitment to the Korean government. 1997—He was the winning pitcher over the Cuban team in the Four Nations Invitational Games played in Osaka, Japan.

PERSONAL

Byung-Hyun Kim...he is single and splits his winter between his home in Gwangju, Korea and Mesa, AZ...he graduated from Kwang-ju First High School in 1997, and at the time he signed he was a sophomore at Sungkyunkwan University in Seoul...he was named both the Most Valuable Player and Most Valuable Pitcher for the National High School championships in Korea...he was selected as a delegate to the Korea Junior National Team in 1996, then named to the National Team in both 1997 and 1998.

MIKE KOPLOVE

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 5-10 Wt: 178 B/T: R/R

Age: 26 (Turns 27 on August 30)

Born: August 30, 1976 in Philadelphia, PA

Residence: Philadelphia, PA

M.L. Service: 144 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as Arizona's 29th round selection in the 1998 June free agent draft

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Mike opened the season in the bullpen for Tucson (AAA), but wound up one of the top righthanded set-up men in the National League while earning team Rookie-of-the-Year honors from the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA...he opened the year with 23 appearances in AAA, recording 3 saves with a dominant 1.17 ERA, holding PCL hitters to a collective .196 average (21-for-107) with 31 K's and 4 walks in 30.2 innings...he was recalled on June 5 and pitched against Houston that night, retiring all 3 batters he faced in the 12th inning...Kop allowed only 1 run over his first 12 games with the big league club, totaling 11.0 innings for a 0.82 ERA, as opponents managed only a .154 average against him...he picked up his first big league victory on July 11 as Arizona opened the post-All-Star Break portion of the schedule with a 4-3 win at Los Angeles...Mike worked both ends of a double-dip at Shea Stadium on August 3, tossing a scoreless frame while allowing a hit and walk in the opener, then recording a 1-2-3 ninth to close out the nightcap...he was the fourth pitcher in club history to work both halves of a doubleheader joining Willie Banks and Alan Embree (August 20, 1998 at Philadelphia) and Bret Prinz (August 31, 2001 at San Diego)...Mike improved his record to 3-0 with 2.0 innings the following day in Shea as the D'Backs won their third straight on the way to a 4-game sweep of the Mets...he absorbed his first loss of the year in his next outing after Andruw Jones belted a solo home run in the 13th inning to lead the Braves to a 4-3 win on August 6...Mike threw 8.2 hitless innings from August 22-30, as opponents went 0-for-24 with 3 walks...he limited the opposition to a .150 average (19-for-127) in his first 33 outings after the All-Star Break...he picked up wins in back to back outings on September 11 and 15 vs. San Diego and Milwaukee, respectively...the latter of those 2 appearances included 3.0 scoreless frames of 2-hit ball as he notched his sixth victory, tying Robert Ellis' club record set in 2001 for wins by a rookie...Mike allowed only 2 runs over 20.1 innings for a 0.89 ERA in 13 outings from August 22-September 19...he was roughed up at Coors Field on September 21, yielding a career-high 7 hits and 4 runs over 2.0 innings causing his opponents average to jump from .168 to .193...unfortunately, Kop was touched for 12 earned runs in his last 6.1 innings, spanning 6 appearances which raised his season ERA from 1.79 to its final 3.36 mark...Mike held the first batters he faced in his outings to a combined .154 average (8-for-52), good for seventh among National League relievers...on the year, Koplove limited lefties to a .174 average (12-for-69) but walked 21 while striking out 18...righthanders hit .230 (35-for-152) with 2 walks and 28 strikeouts.

2002 DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS—Mike's lone post-season action resulted in a loss in the second game of the series against the Cardinals...he worked a 1-2-3 eighth inning with Arizona trailing by a 1-0 count, but after the D'Backs tied the contest in the bottom of the frame, Kop was touched for a run on 2 hits in the ninth to absorb the tough 2-1 loss.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Mike joined the Diamondbacks after an outstanding finish to his minor league season and was used in a variety of key situations during the pennant race due to the late-season injury to Bret Prinz...he made his major league debut in San Francisco on September 6 allowing hits to the first 2 men he faced but they would be the only hits he surrendered over his first 5 big league outings...his second appearance was a 3.1 inning stint against San Diego on September 8, keeping the Padres off the board while the D'Backs rebounded from a 5-3 deficit and won an 8-6 contest in 10 innings...he had a streak of 28 consecutive batters faced without allowing a hit from the last out of his big league debut until surrendering a home run to Milwaukee's Luis Lopez on September 26, though he issued 5 walks and hit 2 men in that span...Koplove's year began in El Paso (AA), posting a 3-2 record with 4 saves and a 2.66 ERA in 34 games, then was promoted to Tucson (AAA) where he pitched in 17 games and recorded either a win or a save in 13 of his outings, going 4-1 with 9 rescues and a sparkling 2.82 ERA...he was particularly tough on AAA righthanded hitters allowing only 8 hits in 53 at bats by righties, a .151 average...from July 1-August 21, Mike combined 21 appearances between AA and AAA to go 5-0 with 8 saves and a 0.66 ERA. 2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Mike was on the active roster for the Division Series and NLCS, but did not pitch...he was inactive for the World Series. 2000—Mike opened the year at High Desert (A) and allowed 3 earned runs in 0.1 of an inning in his season debut...he then surrendered only 1 earned run over his next 19 outings (none in his last 16 games) before a promotion to El Paso (AA) on June 3...was 1-0 with 2 saves and a 0.73 ERA in first 9 games with El Paso...he held opponents to a .225 batting average, third-best average among Texas League relievers...during the playoffs, Mike was 1-0 with a save and a 1.69 ERA in 4 appearances against Round Rock...was 1-1 with a 2.86 ERA for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League. 1999—Led South Bend (A) in appearances...fell 9.0 innings short of qualifying for the organizational lead in ERA. 1998—Paced all Pioneer League relievers with a 0.75 walks per 9-inning ratio.

PERSONAL

Michael Paul (Mike) Koplove...he is single and spends the winter in his native Philadelphia, PA, where he graduated from Chestnut Hill Academy in 1995...he added a 6-week old Weimaraner puppy named Roosevelt to his family just prior to the opening of spring training...Mike first attended Northwestern University but transferred to the University of Delaware for the 1998 college season, helping lead the Blue Hens to the 1998 America East Championship and the NCAA Atlantic II Regional...though drafted by Arizona in the 29th round of the 1998 June Free Agent Draft, Mike made the time to complete his degree and graduated in June of 1999 from Delaware...played shortstop for the Delaware Valley Gulls of the Atlantic Collegiate League in 1996.

MATT MANTEI

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 198 B/T: R/R

Age: 29 (Turns 30 on July 7)

Born: July 7, 1973 in Tampa, FL

Residence: Sawyer, MI

M.L. Service: 7 years, 131 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Florida Marlins in exchange for pitchers Vladimir Nuñez and Brad Penny, and a player-to-be-named (outfielder Abraham Nuñez), July 9, 1999.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Matt spent the previous off-season and nearly half of the regular season rehabilitating from "Tommy John" surgery on his right elbow before returning to action on June 28, nearly a year and 2 months since suffering the injury...his rehab assignment began in El Paso with an inning of work in a start on May 11 vs. San Antonio...after 4 appearances for the Diablos, he moved on to Tucson where a scoreless inning of work on May 20 initiated a 9-game, 10.0-inning streak without allowing an earned run...overall he faced 44 batters, holding opponents to a .211 average (8-for-38) while issuing 4 walks, fanning 9...Matt was recalled from his rehab assignment and activated from the disabled list on June 27...he was summoned into a game the next night in Cleveland, entering with 2 outs in the fourth inning and retiring all 4 batters he faced in his first major league action since April 24, 2001, vs. Florida...he allowed an earned run in his first 5.0 innings of relief spanning 6 games, giving up 3 hits and a walk with 3 K's...Mantei worked 2.0 innings on July 15 at San Francisco, the first time since September 1, 2000, vs. Florida that he had worked at least 2.0 innings, a span of 20.0 innings in 23 appearances...Matt did not allow a run in 8.0 innings over 8 outings and gave up only 4 hits from August 24-September 10...he was scored upon in only 2 of his last 13 trips to the hill, but those 2 outings accounted for 5 earned runs in just 1.2 innings...as if the pennant race wasn't exciting enough, Matt and his wife, Erica, welcomed their first child when son Hayden Matthew was born on September 12...he limited the opposition to a .226 average with runners in scoring position (7-for-31) and was even stingier when there were 2 out, allowing just 3 hits in 16 at bats (.188).

2002 DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS—Matt's lone outing against the Redbirds came in Game #1, as 2 of 3 men reached via a walk and hit in his 0.1 of an inning, with both runs scoring after his departure.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Matt's season was abbreviated to say the least as he suffered a right elbow injury just 8 appearances into the season...the injury occurred against the Marlins on April 24 in Bank One Ballpark and eventually required "Tommy John" surgery to bring his season to an abrupt end...he was 2-for-2 in save opportunities prior to the injury, earning a rescue in the season opener on April 3 in Los Angeles, preserving a 3-2 win, then posting a rescue in a 2-1 triumph on April 16 in St. Louis. 2000—Matt's year started slowly due to an early stint on the D.L., then finished strong with saves in 15 of his last 16 chances...he began on the 15-day disabled list with tendinitis in his right biceps and a returned to the D.L. from May 5-20 with shoulder weakness...his injury troubles began in spring training with an ankle problem that hampered him throughout camp and eventually led to the biceps and shoulder ailments...due to the injuries he didn't record his first save until May 25 vs. Pittsburgh...he finished the year allowing just 5 earned runs in his last 28.2 innings for a 1.57 ERA...he had 12 consecutive save conversions from July 6-September 12...he tied Byung-Hyun Kim's record for consecutive strikeouts by fanning 8 straight batters over 3 appearances from July 27 to August 3. 1999—A key acquisition two days prior to the All-Star break, Mantei was 22-for-25 in save situations after joining the D'Backs, fanning 49 in 29.0 innings for a 15.2 strikeout per 9-inning ratio...the trade was consummated with the Marlins on July 9, the same night that 15,000 pins were being distributed in Pro Player Stadium in honor of Mantei, but while fans were receiving his likeness on a pin, Arizona got the real thing...dubbed the "Iceman" during his stay in south Florida, Mantei recorded a save in his first appearance as a D'Back on July 11, working a scoreless ninth at home vs. Oakland... had a stretch of 12.0 consecutive scoreless innings from August 14-September 14, allowing 7 hits with 25 K's...all told, he was 32-for-37 in save situations, rescuing 10 of 12 while a member of the Marlins...during his stint with the D'Backs, Matt held lefthanded hitters to a .140 average, surrendering just 7 hits in 50 at bats...overall, opposing hitters finished with a composite .189 average against him (44-for-233). DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Matt was called upon once in the post-season, working 2.0 innings in the fourth game of the series at Shea...he was saddled with the 4-3 setback, surrendering a 1-out homer to Todd Pratt in the 10th inning. 1998—Started the year with Charlotte (AAA), making 16 appearances before a May 20 recall to the Marlins, appearing that night with an inning against the Diamondbacks...gave up only 1 earned run in first 11 outings after recall, spanning 14.0 innings (0.64 ERA)... led the Marlins with 9 saves, earning club Rolaids Relief Man Award...earned first win on June 12 vs. the Mets...was disabled from August 19-September 4 with a right ankle sprain. 1997—Opened the year on the D.L. following off-season rotator cuff surgery...was transferred to the 60-day list on May 16... appeared in 9 minor league games as part of rehab work. 1996—Made the Marlins opening day roster and fanned 24 in his first 16.0 innings of year...earned first big league win on May 19 at Chicago...was optioned to AAA just 8 days later, then was recalled on June 21, but placed on the D.L. with a sore right shoulder. 1995—Was on the D.L. at the outset due to off-season back strain...activated on June 18 and made major league debut that day in Philly, working an inning with a walk. 1994—Spent entire season with Appleton in the Mariners chain, leading the club with 26 saves and 2.06 ERA...left unprotected by Seattle, he was acquired by Florida in the Rule 5 draft on December 5. 1993—Led the Northwest League with 12 saves for Bellingham...earned the save on August 16 by striking out the side in the ninth inning of a 1-0 win over Spokane in Bellingham's annual game in the Kingdome...was named the righthanded relief pitcher on the league's All-Star team and earned Rolaids Relief Man-of-the-Year honors for the league...also named the ninth best prospect by Baseball America.

PERSONAL

Matthew Bruce (Matt) Mantei...he and his wife, Erica, and newest arrival, son, Hayden Matthew (9/12/02) make their off-season home in Sawyer, MI...Matt graduated in 1991 from River Valley (Michigan) High School, earning All-State honors in baseball...he signed as Seattle's 25th round choice in the '91 June draft.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a minor league free agent, January 9, 2002

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Quinton was a pleasant surprise for the 2002 Diamondbacks making the big league club as a non-roster invitee and being a major contributor to the success of the team...he provided manager Bob Brenly with much needed depth in what turned out to be a depleted outfield as the season wore on...McCracken finished the year leading the team with a career-high 8 triples and in sacrifice bunts (13), while finishing with a .309 average, the first .300+ season of his big league career...the end of his regular season was cut short when he fouled 2 balls off his left calf in 2 different at bats on September 26, causing him to miss the final 3 games with a deep bone bruise...he saw little playing time early, starting just 3 games in the first month...his first work as a starter was during a mid-April visit to Colorado against the organization that originally drafted him in 1992 and "Q" played a huge role in Arizona's first of a pair of 4-game sweeps over the Rockies...he doubled and tripled in the April 13 win, then tacked on 3 more hits and scored 3 times the following afternoon, featuring a game-tying homer in the fifth inning, while serving as the leadoff man for the first time as a D'Back...he wound up haunting his old club all season, batting .444 (20-for-45) in 13 games against the Rockies with 13 runs, 5 doubles, 2 triples, a homer and 8 RBI, totaling 32 bases for a .711 slugging pct...McCracken was still used mainly as a late-inning defensive replacement or pinch hitter until Danny Bautista went down in mid-May with his left shoulder injury... "Q" began sharing the rightfield duties with David Dellucci, and took full advantage of his opportunity...he hit in 16 of the 18 games he participated in during June, batting .403 on the month (29-for-72) with 8 doubles and 12 runs... included was an 11-game hitting streak from June 15-29, batting .447 (21-for-47)...within the hitting streak was an 8-game stretch in which McCracken collected 18 hits in 34 at bats (.529) featuring 6 doubles, 2 triples and 8 runs, jumping his season average as high as .389 after play on June 21...he dropped into a 3-for-30 slide, but one of the hits during the drought was a 2-run triple off of L.A. closer Eric Gagne in the eighth inning on July 3, capping a 3-run rally as Arizona won a 5-3 decision...just 8 days later he provided the margin of victory over L.A. again, delivering a 2-out, run scoring double in the eighth inning to snap a 3-3 tie and give the D'Backs the first of 3 straight wins in Dodger Stadium...Q's late-inning heroics continued later in July, drilling a 2-run double in the eighth against Colorado on July 23, bringing the D'Backs from a 1-run deficit to a 6-5 win...the following night he knocked in a pair in a win over the Rockies, then had a 3-run double in the seventh inning on July 25 against San Diego, giving him 7 RBI in a 3-game stretch...the run of RBI came during a month-long stretch from July 22-August 21 in which McCracken batted .347 (34-for-98) featuring 19 runs, 10 doubles, a triple, 2 homers and 19 RBI, spanning 27 games...he experienced his only other drought of the year, a 3-for-29 slide, before picking things back up for the stretch run...he finished the campaign with 30 multi-hit games, impressive considering he started only 78 games...while Tony Womack was the main leadoff hitter during the year, McCracken was employed in the role on 20 occasions hitting .386 (32-for-83) with 18 runs scored, 9 doubles, 3 triples, a homer and .447 on-base pct...he finished the season 6-for-29 (.207) as a pinch hitter...his lone pinch RBI occurred on a seventh inning single that snapped a 3-3 tie in the first game of a doubleheader on August 3 at Shea Stadium, a contest the D'Backs won, 8-5 en route to a 4-game sweep of the Mets.

Below is a list of RBI hits by "Q" in games from the seventh inning or later during the 2002 season:

2002 DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS—Consistent with his regular season work, Quinton posted solid numbers in his first-ever post-season action, hitting .364 (4-for-11) in the 3 games against the Cards...after 2 hits and an RBI in the series opener, he provided yet another clutch late-inning hit with a 2-out run scoring double in the eighth inning of game #2 to temporarily tie the score at 1-1...he also singled, walked and scored a run in the series finale in Busch Stadium.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Quinton opened the year in spring training with St. Louis, but was released on March 28 and signed with the Twins' organization...he spent a majority of the season with Edmonton (AAA) with a brief stint in Minnesota...signing with Edmonton on April 14, he batted .382 (50-for-131) with 19 runs, 10 doubles and 19 RBI in his first 29 contests...he hit safely in 21 of 23 games from April 16-May 10...he reached base via a hit or walk in 22 consecutive games from May 20-August 4..."Q" joined Minnesota on June 5 and made 14 starts, 8 as the D.H. and 6 in the outfield, as well as 8 pinch-hitting appearances...he was optioned back to Edmonton on July 20, then designated for assignment on July 28 and outrighted to Edmonton on August 2...he hit safely in 23 of his last 25 games from August 9 until the end of the season, featuring a 19-game hitting streak from August 9-28, batting .347 (34-for-98)...he finished the season tied for second in the PCL in batting average...he elected free agency on October 8. 2000—Quinton began the season on the big league roster, one of four stints with the Devil Rays, before being optioned to Durham (AAA) on April 7...he hit at a .415 (17-for-41) clip in 9 straight games from May 8-June 3, interrupted by a trip to the big leagues from May 13-28...started his first game of the season against Oakland on May 25, a year and a day after tearing the ACL in his right knee..."Q" was also called-up from June 18-July 2 and August 7-18...overall, he participated in only 15 games for Tampa Bay...spent time at all three outfield positions for Durham. 1999—He was sidelined in spring training through March 25 with a sprained right knee...his season came to an abrupt end in the sixth inning on May 24 when he collided with the left-centerfield wall at Tropicana Field and suffered a torn ACL (anterior cruciate ligament) in his right knee...Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL, performed successful reconstructive surgery on June 3...prior to the injury he started 36 of his 40 appearances and hit from every spot in the lineup except for cleanup and ninth...went 3-for-5 with a triple, a 3-run homer off of Doug Linton, and a career-high tying 4 RBI on April 21 vs. Baltimore. 1998—Quinton was voted by the Tampa Bay chapter of the BBWAA as the Devil Ray's first-ever Most Valuable Player...he scored the first run in franchise history on Opening Day (March 31) against Detroit, coming around on Wade Boggs' home run...batted .483 (14-for-29) with 6 multi-hit games in the first week of the season, earning A.L. Co-Player-of-the-Week honors...his 179 hits were the most ever by a player on a first-year expansion team, topping Charlie Hayes' 175 for the '93 Rockies, with the record breaker coming off of Boston's Tom Gordon on September 13... Quinton trailed only fellow A.L. switch hitters Jose Offerman (191) and Ray Durham (181) in hits...started 148 contests (101 in centerfield, 47 in leftfield) and paced his teammates in hits, games, at-bats, runs, total bases (252), doubles, and sacrifice flies...ranked fifth among A.L. outfielders with a .992 fielding percentage, committing only 1 error in his first 147 games...trailed Cleveland's Kenny Lofton with 18 outfield assists, setting an expansion record...he posted a team-best 18-game hitting streak from August 18-September 9 and tied Tommy Davis' 1969 record streak with the expansion Seattle Pilots...led the team with 52 multi-hit contests, which included 13 3-hit efforts and a 4-hit game on September 8. 1997—Entered as the fourth outfielder with the Rockies but started 71 games in center, aided by an injury to Ellis Burks...had 13 successful stolen bases to open the season, tying a Colorado record, before Florida's Charles Johnson threw him out on June 1...he combined August and September to hit .397 (27-for-68). 1996—Quinton made 58 starts in center and a pair in right as a rookie...trailed Edgar Renteria (.309), Jason Kendall (.300) and Todd Hollandsworth (.291) for the highest average among N.L. rookies (min. 300 plate appearances)...stroked a pinch-hit double off of Trevor Hoffman on April 16 for his first major league hit...batted .195 (8-for-41) with 5 starting assignments through May but got more playing time when Larry Walker was shelved with a broken clavicle...hit his first career home run off the Cubs' Amaury Telemaco on July 27 at Coors Field. 1995—He began the year at New Haven (AA) before a June 25 promotion to Colorado Springs (AAA)..."Q" collected 44 hits in 111 at-bats (.396) in August before hitting safely in 9 postseason contests and helping the Sky Sox capture the PCL crown...he led all minor leaguers and switch-hitting professionals with a combined .359 average at New Haven and Colorado Springs...promoted to the big league club on September 16. 1994—Was a non-roster invitee to spring training, but spent the entire season in New Haven (AA), leading the team in runs, hits, doubles and steals while reeling off a 21-game hitting streak in June. 1993—He made the transition from second base to centerfield and captured Colorado's Minor League Player-of-the-Year award...boosted his average from .220 in June to .292 at the end of the season, aided by a 13-game hitting streak to close out the season. 1992—A draftee out of Duke University, he got an opportunity to play at second base for Bend (Northwest Rookie League) when starter Craig Counsell was injured...he was batting .212 late in the season when he revisited the idea of becoming a switch-hitter and added the left side to his repertoire...a double in his first at-bat set off a 2-week tear in which he batted .531 and captured consecutive Player-of-the-Week honors.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Minnesota Twins in exchange for infielder Hanley Frias, March 28, 2001.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Talk about finishing with a flourish, that's exactly how Chad's season concluded, hitting .432 (16-for-37) in his last 16 games, including a huge season-ending contest to aid Arizona's effort to gain the home field advantage in the Division Series...starting the final game of the year to catch former AAA battery-mate John Patterson, Moeller was 4-for-4 with 3 runs scored, a double, 2 homers and 6 RBI...it was his first career 4-hit and multi-homer game, while the 6 RBI tied Steve Finley and Luis Gonzalez for the second best single-game performance in team history, trailing only Erubiel Durazo's 9-RBI affair on May 17...the first home run of the game was his first in the majors since September 27, 2001, a span of 107 at bats...Moeller finished the year with 7 of his last 8 hits going for extra bases, featuring 5 doubles and the 2 home runs...Chad opened the season on the big league roster but was designated for assignment on April 9 without appearing in a game...fortunately for the Diamondbacks, he cleared waivers and played at an All-Star caliber level for Tucson (AAA) before receiving the call-up to the big league club in mid-July, where he remained...Chad received the call-up on July 15 when Damian Miller was placed on the disabled list...he started as Randy Johnson's catcher on July 16, going 2-for-3 with a 2-run double...Chad closed the year by catching the Big Unit's final 17 starting assignments, with Johnson going 12-2 in that span...Moeller was outstanding against righthanded pitching batting .338 (27-for-80) with all 11 of his doubles...he threw out 3 of 17 opposing base thieves...while with Tucson, he recorded 4 RBI on May 24 vs. Omaha and on June 6 at Fresno...he raised his average 30 points from .286 to .316 on May 28 with a 4-for-4...Chad had a 10-game hitting streak from May 30-June 14, batting .452 (19-for-42) with 7 runs, 2 doubles, a triple, 3 home runs and 14 RBI...his average reached as high as .356 on June 13...selected to the Pacific Coast League squad at the Triple-A All-Star game as a back-up catcher, Chad was unable to participate due to minor foot surgery although the surgery did not result in any missed playing time other than the All-Star Game...he was named the D'Backs Organizational Player-of-the-Month for June after hitting .329 (25-for-76) with 15 runs, 4 doubles, 5 homers and 24 RBI in 20 contests...he excelled at the dish with runners in scoring position during his AAA work, batting .365 (23-for-63) with 4 doubles, 2 triples, 4 homers, 39 RBI, 13 walks and 8 strikeouts.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Chad was acquired from the Twins in exchange for infielder Hanley Frias just as the D'Backs were breaking camp in Tucson and preparing for the start of the season...he opened the season with Tucson (AAA) then was summoned to the big league club for the first time on June 6, making 9 starts and providing a trio of 2-hit games in that span...his first RBI as a Diamondback was a suicide squeeze bunt that drove home David Dellucci on June 20 in Los Angeles...Chad was optioned back to Tucson on July 16, finishing up the year with the Sidewinders before rejoining the big league club as part of the September roster expansion...he caught Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling in consecutive wins on September 27 & 28 over the Brewers and Dodgers, respectively, while combining to go 3-for-6 at the plate...included was his first home run as a D'Back in the win over Milwaukee, hitting a solo shot to left off of Ruben Quevedo...it was Moeller's second career big league homer, but first to exit the yard as his initial roundtripper was a race around the bases in the Metrodome on July 29, 2000, off the Yankees' Ramiro Mendoza. 2000—Chad's last year in the Twins' organization, he opened in Salt Lake for his first taste of AAA action, but wound up getting his first big league test at mid-season...he was recalled and made his major league debut on June 20 at Texas...he recorded first big league hit on June 22 at Texas off of Matt Perisho...Moeller's first major league homer was an inside-the-parker on July 29 off the Yankees' Ramiro Mendoza...he was on the disabled list from August 13-30 with a torn meniscus and ligament damage in his right knee. 1999—Spent the entire year at New Britain (AA), hitting .248 in 89 games...best stretch was over 15 games from May 27-June 15 in which he batted .462 (18-for-39), including a season-high 9-game hitting streak...Chad played for Grand Canyon in the Arizona Fall League, leading the league in batting. 1998—Moeller began the year at Ft. Myers and batted .327 through 66 games...he earned Twins' Minor League Player-of-the-Week for May 1-7...he was selected to the Florida State League All-Star game on June 20 at Ft. Myers, and was named to FSL post-season All-Star squad...he was promoted to New Britain after All-Star appearance, finishing the year in AA. 1997—Spent the entire year with Ft. Wayne, hitting .289 in 108 games and was elected to the Midwest League All-Star game on June 17 at Lansing...he threw out 41 of 120 runners attempting to steal (34%) and was rated the "Best Defensive Catcher" in the Midwest League by Baseball America...Moeller was named to the Midwest League post-season All-Star team...he played for Sun Cities in the Arizona Fall League. 1996—First year as a pro, Chad hit .356 through 17 games for Elizabethton before suffering season-ending right knee injury that required surgery on July 12...he threw out 12 of 26 (46%) of runners attempting to steal before falling victim to injury.

PERSONAL

Chad Edward Moeller...he and his wife, Nicole, make their home in Scottsdale...Chad was a 1993 graduate of Upland (CA) High School, lettering in baseball and football...he followed with a collegiate career at the University of Southern California, earning Pac-10 All Conference honors in 1996...Chad was Minnesota's seventh round pick in the 1996 June draft...he played in 19 games for Licey in the Dominican League last winter.

MIKE MYERS

Lefthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 219 B/T: L/L

Age: 33 (Turns 34 on June 26)

Born: June 26, 1969 in Arlington Heights, IL

Residence: Highlands Ranch, CO

M.L. Service: 8 years, 10 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Colorado Rockies in exchange for outfielder Jack Cust and catcher J.D. Closser, January 7, 2002.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Acquired in the off-season, Mike won a career-high 4 games, doubling his previous best victory total and notched 4 saves, matching his combined total from the last 5 seasons and his highest total since recording 6 rescues for Detroit in 1996...he finished second on the club with 69 appearances, coming up an outing shy of his 7th consecutive 70-appearance year...Mike's longest stretch of not appearing was 7 games from August 5-11...he faced only one batter in 25 outings...he totaled only 37.0 innings, his lowest total since splitting his rookie season with Florida and Detroit in 1995...he began the season performing exactly as planned when Arizona acquired him to serve as a left-handed specialist...lefthanded hitters opened the season 0-for-24 with 13 strikeouts against Myers until Philadelphia's Travis Lee doubled on May 16...prior to Lee's hit, the only other lefthanders to reach base were Colorado's Todd Helton and the Cards' Jim Edmonds, both of whom were hit by pitches, and Montreal's Brad Wilkerson, who walked...Mike then hit a rough stretch against lefties as they collected 7 hits in their next 16 at-bats (.438) leading up to the All-Star Break...after play resumed, Mike rebounded by holding lefthanders to a combined 1-for-14 effort (.071) from July 12-August 4...from the other side of the plate, righthanders got off to a hot start against Mike, going 14-for-31 (.452) off him through May...as the calendar flipped to June, Mike found success against righties, limiting them to a .194 average (6-for-31) over the season's final 4 months...he picked up his first victory for Arizona with 2.0 scoreless frames on April 13 against Colorado, his former club...he recorded saves in back-to-back outings on April 16-20, the first time he'd rescued consecutive games since August 7-9, 1996, while with Detroit...he established a career-best with his third win of the season on May 18, pitching a scoreless ninth prior to Junior Spivey's walk-off home run off the Phillies' Jose Mesa...Mike was scored upon in only 2 of 30 outings from June 27-September 5, totaling 12.1 innings of mound work...he notched his fourth save on September 11 vs. San Diego with a double play and a game-ending strikeout...despite the up-and-down year against lefties, he has limited them to a composite .188 mark (77-for-409) in the last 5 years...only 8 of the first 42 runners he inherited ever saw home plate and he finished the year with 13 of 49 scoring.

2002 DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS—Mike got his first career taste of post-season action, totaling 1.2 shutout innings against the Redbirds...he closed out the ninth inning of Game #2, allowing a hit before retiring the last 2 men he faced...Myers worked a scoreless eighth inning in the series finale, keeping the Diamondbacks within a run of St. Louis.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Over the last 4 seasons Mike has stranded 83% of the runners he has inherited (206 of 249)...when taking the hill with runners in scoring position in that span, opposing batters have hit .196 (36-for-184)...known as a specialist against lefthanded hitters, Myers has held lefties to a collective .188 mark (77-for-409) in his last 5 campaigns, 2 of which were spent at elevation in Coors Field...he has made 545 career relief appearances and owns 115 career holds and only 19 blown saves.

2001—The durable southpaw specialist made 73 appearances for the Rockies, joining Baltimore's Buddy Groom as the only hurlers in history to appear in at least 70 games for 6 consecutive seasons (Groom extended the record with 70 appearances in 2002)...only 7 hurlers had ever recorded at least 70 appearances in 4 consecutive years...in a strange coincidence, the duo was swapped for each other on August 7, 1995, when Groom was dealt by the Tigers to Florida for a player-to-be-named who turned out to be Myers...both of Myers' 2001 wins were in Coors Field against the eventual World Champion Diamondbacks (April 14 and September 18)...he appeared 15 times out of the 19 games contested between Colorado and Arizona...Mike stranded 51 of the 65 runners he inherited for a 78% success rate, the eighth best figure in the National League...he retired 49 of 73 first batters faced, a 67% success rate...he continued his stingy attitude toward lefthanded hitters, limiting them to a collective .231 mark (21-for-91)...strangely, both of the home runs he surrendered were to lefthanded hitters, Ray Lankford on April 5 and Jeromy Burnitz on September 28, each time in Coors Field...he finished the year with an overall ERA of 3.60, including a better than credible 3.65 mark in hitter friendly Coors Field...Mike had a 2.88 season ERA entering the month of September, but was tagged for 5 earned runs over his final 5.2 frames of work on the year. 2000—Mike finished third in the N.L. with 78 appearances for the Rockies, tying Chuck McElroy's team record from 1998...Myers compiled a career-low 1.99 ERA, eclipsing Steve Reed's 1995 team relief mark of 2.14...he retired 73% of the first batters faced (57 of 78), and when beginning an inning the success soared to 84% (56 of 67) which was eighth best in the league...he stranded 55 of the 64 runners he inherited, an 86% success rate which was second only to Curtis Leskanic's 90% mark (28-of-31), the pitcher for whom he was traded prior to the 2000 season...Mike's lone save of the year was against his former mates on June 2 at Milwaukee, his first since May 15, 1998, with the Brewers against the Rockies...he finished the year with a 2.05 ERA in 43 appearances at Coors Field...Myers did not allow a run in 2000 until Colorado's 76th game of the year, his 34th appearance, opening the campaign with 18.1 consecutive shutout innings...the streak was halted with a Ryan Klesko home run at San Diego on July 1...Myers held opposing left-handers to a .120 average (11-for-92)... he was honored for his overall effort by being selected to travel to Japan in November as part of MLB's All-Star Goodwill tour. 1999—Mike's last year with Milwaukee, only 15% of the runners he inherited scored, the second best mark in the N.L. to Colorado's Jerry Dipoto (13%)...Myers worked a career-high 2.1 innings on June 12 against the Twins...he established a career-best for strikeouts in a game when he fanned 4 Diamondbacks on September 8. 1998—Led the N.L. with 23 holds...control was an issue as he walked 22 men in 50.0 innings, a 3.96 per 9-inning ratio...he surrendered only 1 earned run from Opening Day to May 20, spanning 16.2 innings... he had a better stretch from May 26-July 16, working 22 games without allowing an earned run...Myers had a 0.58 ERA at the All-Star break, but posted a 6.16 mark afterwards. 1997—His 88 games were 2 shy of the A.L. appearance record while establishing a Tiger club record for the second straight season, bettering his 83 in 1996... Mike's 88 games were 10 more than any A.L. hurler. 1996—Myers made 83 appearances to break the Detroit record set in 1984 when Willie Hernandez worked in 80 games for the World Champions...Mike also set a major league rookie appearance record, 3 more than Mitch Williams with Texas in 1986. 1995—Myers pitched for 4 teams in 4 leagues, including big league action with Florida and Detroit...he made Florida's Opening Day roster and made his big league debut in the April 25 opener, tossing a shutout inning against the Dodgers...he was optioned to Charlotte (AAA) May 6, and pitched there until the Tigers acquired him on Aug. 8 as the player-to-be-named in the Groom trade... Mike made 11 relief appearances for Detroit, including his first major league win, Sept. 19 vs. Baltimore. 1994—He started the year at Edmonton (AAA), making 1 start before landing on the disabled list April 13 with bone spurs in his left elbow...he opened a rehab assignment July 11 with Brevard County (A). 1993—Mike recorded a team-leading 27 starts at Edmonton (AAA), tying for second in the PCL. 1992—Mike split the season between the Giants' affiliates, Clinton and San Jose...combined at the 2 stops, he was 6-3 with a 1.85 ERA...Mike allowed just 1 home run during the entire season (92.1 innings) with the roundtripper occurring in his final outing on August 30. 1991—A Midwest League All-Star, he helped Clinton clinch the Midwest League championship. 1990—Mike's professional career began with Everett in the Northwest League.

PERSONAL

Michael Stanley (Mike) Myers...he and his wife, Robyn, and sons, Christian (2/13/96) and Daryl (10/7/97), and daughter, Laryssa (12/22/00), make their home in Littleton, CO...Mike is a graduate of Crystal Lake Central (Ill.) High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and soccer...he attended Iowa State University (1988-90) and earned 1989 All-Big Eight honors in baseball...he helped Team USA win a silver medal in the 1989 IBA Presidential Cup in Taiwan...he won a gold medal with Team USA at the 1987 U.S. Olympic Festival...in 2000 he contributed funds to build a youth field in Steamboat Springs, CO...he is also a contributor to the Touch 'em All Foundation founded by country singing great Garth Brooks.

JOHN PATTERSON

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 208 B/T: R/R

Age: 25

Born: January 30, 1978 in Orange, TX

Residence: Scottsdale, AZ

M.L. Service: 49 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent on November 7, 1996...originally selected by Montreal Expos in first round (fifth overall) of June, 1996, draft, but was declared a free agent.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

The Diamondbacks got a tantalizing glimpse of their future during the second half of the season as John made 5 starts for the big league club in the heat of a pennant race...with the home field in the Division Series hanging in the balance, the 24-year old righthander took the ball in the final regular season game on September 29 against Colorado and posted an 11-8 win, allowing 2 runs on 5 hits over 5.0 innings...he prefaced that appearance 5 days earlier in St. Louis, blanking the Central Division titleholders on 1 hit over 6.0 frames, fanning 8... unfortunately he left the game in a scoreless tie and the Redbirds wound up 3-2 winners...Patterson, who was subbing for the injured Rick Helling, made his big league debut on July 20 in San Diego, working 6.0 innings allowing a run and 3 hits in front of a gathering of 54,980 in Qualcomm Stadium... he left that contest trailing by a 1-0 count, but Arizona rallied for a 7-1 victory...the game was a significant step for Patterson, who finally made it to the big leagues after undergoing "Tommy John" surgery on his right elbow on May 25, 2000...he took the hill again on July 25 in Bank One Ballpark with 7.1 shutout innings against the Padres, allowing only 5 hits in posting his first big league win, a 10-0 decision...the only reason he had a big league ERA of any substance was by virtue of his third start, a rough 3.1-inning stint in Shea Stadium on August 4, allowing 7 runs via 4 homers, but the Arizona offense erupted to post a 12-7 triumph...he was optioned back to Tucson on August 7 as Helling returned from the D.L...eliminating that outing in New York from his big league work, John combined his other 6 appearances (4 starts) surrendering only 4 earned runs in 27.1 innings for a sparkling 1.32 ERA...he picked up his first major league hit on July 25 off of San Diego's Tom Davey...he had what appeared to be his second big league hit in the season finale on September 29 off the Rockies' Denny Stark, but Gabe Kapler charged the ball in rightfield and threw Patterson out at first base...John began the year in extended spring training to continue strengthening his elbow, and made his season debut with AAA Tucson on May 5 vs. Colorado Springs (Rockies)...he opened his AAA season losing 4 of his first 5 decisions, but wound up going 9-1 in his last 14 outings (13 starts).

BRET PRINZ

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 216 B/T: R/R

Age: 25 (Turns 26 on June 15)

Born: June 15, 1977 in Chicago Heights, IL

Residence: Peoria, AZ

M.L. Service: 1 year, 64 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as Arizona's 18th round selection in the 1998 June Free Agent Draft.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Bret had 3 tours of duty with the Diamondbacks in 2002, making the opening-day roster, and working 11 times before being optioned to Tucson on April 30...Prinz retired the first batter faced in 5 of his first 6 outings, but was charged with 6 earned runs in his first 6.1 innings of work and was optioned to Tucson on April 30...he was recalled May 28, and surrendered the game-winning hit at San Francisco that night...after 4 more appearances, including a loss June 4 vs. Houston, he was optioned again on June 11, but this time, Bret specifically requested an assignment to Lancaster (A), so he could be reunited with pitching coach Royal Clayton to work on his mechanics...Prinz went 1-0 with 6 strikeouts over 7.0 innings in 5 games with the JetHawks, not allowing a hit in his last 5.0 innings...he rejoined Tucson on July 1, and was 1-0 with 11 saves in his first 20 games back with the Sidewinders...all told, in 33 games in the minors he was 2-0 with 17 saves, 4 walks and 34 K's...Prinz recorded saves in 7 consecutive appearances with Tucson from August 2-14...he returned to the Diamondbacks on September 2, appearing in 4 games during the final month of the season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Bret completed a meteoric climb through the organization by getting the staff's attention during his first big league spring training, then only 3 weeks into the season receiving his first call to the majors...drafted in the 18th round in the 1998 draft and a '95 graduate of Peoria's Centennial High School, the 24-year old ended up experiencing a bittersweet season, recording outstanding rookie numbers before right shoulder tendinitis ended his year prematurely...his 9 saves led all major league rookies, 8 of which took place prior to the All-Star break...he debuted the day of his recall on April 22...he earned a win in his second big league outing working 2.0 shutout innings against Florida on April 24...Prinz followed the next night against the Marlins with a scoreless ninth inning to save Arizona's 10-7 triumph...he opened his major league career with 12.1 consecutive shutout innings spanning 13 appearances...over a longer haul had a season ERA of 1.00 through his first 29 trips the mound, allowing 3 earned runs in 27.0 frames while going 4-0 with 8 saves...the injury bug bit on August 25 in Philly when he was forced from a game after just 1 batter due to a left hamstring strain...Prinz rebounded from the hamstring soreness to work 1.2 innings against the Giants just 4 days after the injury occurred...he worked both ends of the doubleheader on August 31 in San Diego, earning a save in game #1, but allowing a run in 1.2 innings in the nightcap and the shoulder tendinitis cropped up the next day...Bret appeared just once after the diagnosis, allowing 2 runs on September 18 in Colorado. 2000—At the urging of the minor league coaching staff, Bret adjusted his delivery from conventional to sidearm and became a dominating closer...after only 6 appearances at South Bend (A), where he did not allow an earned run, Prinz was promoted to El Paso on April 25...he allowed just 1 earned run in his first 9 outings for the Diablos, spanning 11.2 innings for a 0.77 ERA...Bret wound up finishing second in the Texas League with 26 saves, while walking just 16 men and fanning 69 in 60.2 innings to earn the Texas League Rolaids Relief Man Award with 94 points (9-1 record with 26 saves)...he was a member of the T.L. All-Star team in the Tex/Mex All-Star series...he jumpstarted El Paso's run that led to a playoff berth, as the Diablos were 7-12 prior to his arrival, but went 67-54 after Prinz came on board, as he figured in 35 of the wins...while at South Bend, Bret combined with 3 other hurlers on a no-hitter at Peoria on April 21. 1999—Was employed mainly as a starter in his first full season pro stop, going 6-10 for South Bend (A) in 30 games (23 starts)...tied for fifth in the Midwest League with 16 home runs allowed. 1998—Signed with the Diamondbacks as their 18th round choice in the June draft, making 4 relief appearances for the Rookie League club in Tucson, then going to Lethbridge for the remainder of the year...worked 11 times for Lethbridge, featuring 10 starts.

PERSONAL

Lefthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 202 B/T: L/L

Age: 28 (Turns 29 on May 1)

Born: May 1, 1974 in Okinawa, Japan

Residence: Austin, TX

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a minor league free agent, December 14, 2001.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Stephen started slowly at Tucson (AAA) but stepped into the ace southpaw role when the time came...he established a Sidewinders record and led the Pacific Coast League with 15 victories, which also tied for second among Triple-A pitchers and tied for fifth among all full-season minor leaguers...his 129 strikeouts registered eighth in the PCL and tied for 10th among Triple-A pitchers...in his April 19 road start, he blanked Calgary over 5.0 innings for his first victory...in his only relief appearance of the season on May 19 at Sacramento, he was saddled with the loss despite working 7.0 frames and yielding 2 runs on 3 hits...only 3 days later, he emerged victorious on May 22 vs. Portland, allowing a run on 4 hits over 7.0 innings...Stephen carried that momentum into June, going 8-0 in 10 starts from June 7-August 3, posting a terrific 1.92 ERA (13 ER in 61.0 IP) with 53 strikeouts...over the long haul, he was 13-1 in 16 games from June 7 through the end of the season, allowing 2 earned runs or less in 14 contests...his only setback during the stretch was on August 8 at Tacoma as he allowed 4 runs (2 earned) over 5.2 innings...he twirled his second career shutout in a 13-0 thumping of Las Vegas in the opener of an August 23 twinbill, giving up 3 hits, walking 3 and fanning 6 in 7.0 frames...he delivered a strikingly similar appearance on August 28 at Fresno, notching the victory with 7.0 shutout innings, scattering 3 hits, walking 4 and striking out 6...he was victorious in his final 5 starts from August 13-September 2 with a 2.14 ERA (8 ER in 33.2 IP)...at the plate, he hit .333 (15-for-45) with 4 doubles, 4 RBI and a .380 on-base percentage...he was the fifth hardest AAA pitcher to run on, as 15 of 23 would-be basestealers were nabbed...he held opponents to a .194 average (30-for-155) with runners in scoring position...he worked 6.0 or more innings in 15 of his 28 starts...in the offseason, Stephen pitched for Hermosillo of the Mexican Pacific League, posting a 5-4 record in 13 starts with the league's ninth-best ERA at 3.89 (31 ER in 71.2 IP), holding opponents to a .206 average (51-for-248) with a league-high 54 walks and 62 strikeouts, which ranked third.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Stephen split time between El Paso (AA) and Tucson (AAA), opening the season with 4 relief appearances with the Diablos before he was called up to Tucson, who was in need of a lefty out of the bullpen when Troy Brohawn was promoted to the big leagues...he picked up his first win of the season on May 14 with 2.0 shutout innings...he had a 5-game scoreless streak spanning 5.0 innings from May 30-June 10...he was returned to El Paso on June 18 and spent the rest of the season as a starter...he was 0-4 in his first 6 starts and picked up his first win on the road on July 24 at Midland, allowing 1 run on 4 hits in 6.0 innings...following that win, he went 4-2 in his final 7 starts...August 14 was a milestone date as he tossed the first complete game 9-inning no-hitter in Diamondbacks' franchise history, a 2-0 win over Arkansas...his efforts were rewarded as he was named Pitcher-of-the-Week for August 13-19...he followed the regular season by traveling to Venezuela where he went 5-4 in 12 starts for Aragua. 2000—He appeared in 5 games, making 3 starts for Tucson (AAA) before biceps tendinitis in his left arm sidelined him for the remainder of the season. 1999—Stephen fanned a season-high 10 batters in 6.0 innings vs. Arkansas in his final AA start...he was promoted to Tucson and lost his first 2 outings...was diagnosed with a left elbow ligament sprain, forcing him to the D.L. from June 1-July 25. 1998—He allowed 2 or fewer runs in 11 of his 17 starts, and after a 7-inning, 1-hit effort on July 10, was promoted to Tucson, where he did not allow over 2 earned runs in any outing...he got an unofficial taste of the big league life, making the start for Arizona in a June 29 exhibition against South Bend (A), a game that was rained out in the fourth inning. 1997—He spent the entire year with Tampa (A) and was 0-2 with a 6.00 ERA as a reliever, but went 4-5 with a 3.03 ERA in a starting role...he recorded a pair of 9-strikeout performances. 1996—He shared duties between starting and relief at Greensboro, working in 32 games (17 starts), fanning 111 men in 100.1 innings. 1995—His first year as a pro, he was 4-0 with a 2.22 ERA in 8 games in Rookie ball, but was 0-3 in 6 starts for Oneonta (A).

PERSONAL

Stephen LeCharles Randolph...he was born in Okinawa, Japan, and now makes his home in Austin, TX, where he graduated from James Bowie High School in 1992, lettering in baseball and basketball...he earned All-District honors as junior and senior, and was All-Central Texas in '92...Stephen attended Galveston Junior College and was part of the JUCO World Series champion in 1994, while earning All-Conference honors for both seasons at Galveston and was an All-Tourney selection at the World Series in Grand Junction, CO...he then attended the University of Texas in Austin for his junior year...Randolph was drafted by the New York Yankees in the 18th round of the 1995 draft and signed on June 7, 1995...he was then one of Arizona's first efforts in the Rule V draft, nabbed from the Yankees on December 16, 1997.

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 235 B/T: R/R

Age: 36 (Turns 37 on November 14)

Born: November 14, 1966 in Anchorage, AK

Residence: Paradise Valley, AZ

M.L. Service: 12 years, 154 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Philadelphia Phillies in exchange for pitchers Omar Daal, Nelson Figueroa and Vicente Padilla, and infielder Travis Lee on July 26, 2000.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Curt had never recorded a 20-win season prior to his arrival in Arizona, but registered his second in as many years by posting a 23-7 mark and 3.23 ERA in 36 games (35 starts) during the 2002 campaign...combined with his previous club record of 22 wins the year before, his 45 wins over the last 2 seasons equal Randy Johnson's total over the same time frame and are the most by any hurler since Baltimore's Jim Palmer (1975-76) and the most in the National League since Steve Carlton won 47 with Philly (1971-72)...since the advent of divisional play in 1969, Schilling joined Jim Palmer, Catfish Hunter, Wilbur Wood, Mickey Lolich, Fergie Jenkins and Mike Cuellar as the only hurlers to post at least 22 wins in consecutive seasons...for the second straight season, Curt was runner-up to the Big Unit in the Cy Young race, though for the second straight season he was recognized the The Sporting News as the National League Pitcher-of-the-Year...the Schilling/Johnson duo became the first teammates in major league history to each record 300 strikeouts in the same season, with Schill attaining the mark for the third time in his career when he fanned Milwaukee's Jorge Fabregas on September 15...he finished with the second highest strike-out total in the majors at 316, 99 more than the nearest National League hurler (Kerry Wood) and 77 ahead of the A.L. chart-topper Pedro Martinez...Schill opened the season with a 12-1 mark and 2.79 ERA through 14 starts, displaying his trademark pinpoint control, walking only 10 men in his first 103.2 innings of work...he actually issued only 8 free passes through his first 103.1 frames of action, but on June 8 in Boston he walked 2 men in the eighth inning, started by a freebie to Johnny Damon to snap a streak of 44.0 consecutive innings without a walk, spanning 165 batters... Schill wound up with a 3-2 win over Pedro Martinez in that contest to extend his club record winning streak to a career-high 9 games, 2 more than his previous best from 1993...his second win of the year was probably his most impressive outing in a campaign full of impressive outings, tossing the second 1-hitter of his career on April 7 in Milwaukee, while establishing a single-game personal best with 17 K's...the lone hit in the 2-0 victory was a third inning Raul Casanova single...he posted a 5-0 mark in 6 starts in May, allowing 14 earned runs in 52.0 innings for a 2.42 ERA while walking only 2 men and striking out 62 to earn the National League Pitcher-of-the-Month award, the third time in the last 4 years he's won the league May honor...his 9-game streak was halted with back-to-back inter-league losses at home to Detroit and Baltimore...after a no decision in Houston on June 25, Schilling's winning ways resumed by stringing together 6 straight from June 30-July 27, earning the league's Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for July while also being tabbed by manager Bob Brenly as the starting pitcher in the All-Star Game at Milwaukee...he worked 2.0 innings against the American League, allowing a hit while fanning 3...Schill's July numbers included wins in all 5 of his starts, giving up 7 earned runs in 38.1 innings for a 1.64 ERA, allowing only 1 home run, a 2-out, ninth inning solo shot by Rich Aurilia in a 2-1 win over the Giants on July 5...the 6-game winning streak that began with a complete game in Cleveland on June 30 kicked off a stretch in which Schilling went 11-2 with a 2.16 ERA, allowing 27 earned runs in 112.2 innings...his season ERA took a hit in his last 3 outings, allowing 8 earned runs in a 9-4 loss at Colorado on September 20, then 6 more on September 25 in St. Louis, literally making 2 mistakes and both were hit for 3-run homers (Scott Rolen and J.D. Drew)...he then worked an inning of relief in the season finale on September 29, allowing another 3-run homer...the last 3 appearances upped his season ERA from 2.81 to 3.23...the relief appearance was his first since May 13, 1992, with Philly, a span of 308 consecutive starts between relief stints... Schill finished the year the major league leader in fewest walks per 9-innings at 1.1, surrendering only 33 free passes in 259.1 innings, topping Odalis Perez in the N.L. (1.5) and Minnesota's Rick Reed in the A.L. (1.3)...amazingly, on the day of his 21st victory on August 21 at home against Cincinnati, Schilling had surrendered only 20 walks on the year...his walk total finally surpassed his win total when he gave up 3 freebies on August 26 in Los Angeles...he finished the season with 32 starts in which he walked 2 or fewer men, including 15 with no walks...he recorded 14 double-digit strikeout games to up his career total to 77...he was 6-2 in 9 starts after an Arizona loss after posting a 13-1 mark in those contests a year ago...Curt went 11-2 in 14 starts against National League West opponents in 2002 and is a combined 22-3 within the division dating back to the start of last year...offensively, Schilling established a career high for hits in a season with 15, eclipsing his previous best of 14 with Philadelphia in 1997.

2002 DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS—Curt worked the second game of the series against St. Louis in Bank One Ballpark, allowing only 1 run on 7 hits with a walk and 7 K's, but left the duel with Chuck Finley trailing by a 1-0 count...the D'Backs tied the game in the eighth, but St. Louis rallied for a run in the ninth and an eventual 2-1 decision.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Curt entered the 2003 season fifth among active pitchers in career strikeouts with 2,348, the 35th best total in major league history...only Roger Clemens (3,909), Randy Johnson (3,746), Greg Maddux (2,641) and Chuck Finley (2,610) rank ahead of Schilling among active hurlers...he is also fourth among active pitchers with 76 complete games and fourth in strikeouts per 9.0 innings at 8.74.

2001—Curt was second to teammate Randy Johnson in the National League Cy Young balloting, earning a pair of first place votes, 29 second place and somebody actually voted him third, the first time since 1956 that starting pitchers from the same club finished 1-2 in the voting...Schilling ended the regular season with a career-high 22 wins, surpassing his personal best season by 5 while tying the Cards' Matt Morris for the major league lead...he became the first 20-game winner in team history with a 7-2 victory in San Francisco on September 5, then was joined in the 20-win club by Randy Johnson on September 27...Schill's 293 strikeouts ranked second in the league to the Big Unit as the duo combined for a major league record 665 K's to break the mark previously held by Nolan Ryan and Bill Singer, who totaled 624 for the 1973 Angels...the 2001 season was also the first time a pair of teammates ranked 1-2 in strikeouts since Dizzy Trout and Hal Newhouser with the 1944 Detroit Tigers... Curt finished the year with a major league best 256.2 innings while leading the N.L. in complete games (6), ranking second in winning pct. (.786) and third in ERA (2.98)...the Diamondbacks went 27-8 in the 35 games Schilling started...he was most impressive in contests following an Arizona loss, posting a 13-1 record 1.72 ERA in 17 post-loss starts, allowing 25 earned runs in 131.0 innings...he was also tough on N.L. West rivals going 11-1 with a 2.55 ERA (37 earned runs in 130.1 innings)...he opened the season going 10-1 with a 2.60 ERA through his first 13 starts...one of his most dominant performances came against the Dodgers on April 10 in his second start of the year, tossing the first complete-game 2-hitter in team history, taking only 1 hour, 53 minutes to post a 2-0 win over Kevin Brown...Curt earned his first 2 career N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors during the 2001 season...he tossed back-to-back complete games against the Giants on May 21 then in San Diego 5 nights later, totaling 3 earned runs on 9 hits over 18.0 innings...in the win over the Padres, Schill had a perfect game for 7.1 innings before Ben Davis broke it up with a bunt single...Curt garnered the weekly honor again for his work at home against Montreal on July 31 and the Mets on August 5, allowing 2 earned runs in 17.0 innings with 21 K's...he was named the National League Pitcher-of-the-Month for May, going 5-1 with a 2.35 ERA...Curt achieved the 2,000 mark in career strikeouts when he fanned Colorado's Juan Uribe on September 18 in Denver...Schill was named the All-Star starting pitcher, but passed the honor to Randy Johnson after pitching at home against Oakland just 2 days prior to the Midsummer Classic...it was the fourth time in the last 5 years that Schilling had been named to the National League squad...the durable hurler worked at least 7.0 innings in 29 of his 35 starts... one of the outings that he didn't get to the seventh was out of his control as an electrical box exploded in the top of the third inning at San Diego on July 18, suspending the game until the next day when Randy Johnson picked it up and completed the combined 1-hitter for a 3-0 Arizona win...he was tagged for a career-high 37 home runs during the year, 31 of which were solo shots...a grand slam by Barry Bonds on July 26 snapped a streak of 19 consecutive solos allowed, the longest such streak in major league history, 2 more than Jose Rijo (1993) and Mark Leiter (1995). 2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Curt put an exclamation point on the year during the post-season, capped by sharing World Series MVP honors with teammate Randy Johnson...he twice took the ball on 3 days rest, the first hurler to start 3 World Series games since Jack Morris with Minnesota in 1991...Curt's World Series totals featured a 1.69 ERA, allowing 4 earned runs over 21.1 innings while walking 2 and fanning 26...he cruised to a 9-1 win in Game #1 of the Series allowing a run on 3 hits over 7.0 innings, extending his personal post-season winning streak to 5 consecutive starts dating back to the fifth game of the '93 Series...Schill then worked 7.0 frames in Game #4 at Yankee Stadium, leaving the contest with a 3-1 advantage after allowing only 3 hits and a walk with 9 K's...unfortunately, the Yanks rebounded to post a 4-3 win in 10 innings...Curt took the ball in the dramatic seventh game, entering the eighth inning in a 1-1 deadlock, but Alfonso Soriano staked New York to a short-lived 2-1 lead with a 1-out homer that ended Schilling's night...the Diamondbacks scored twice in the ninth inning off of Mariano Rivera to win the final game by a 3-2 margin and ice their first World Championship...Schilling jumpstarted Arizona's post-season experience with a complete game 3-hitter in Game #1 of the Division Series, a 1-0 victory over the Cardinals...it was his second consecutive post-season complete game shutout dating back to the '93 World Series when he blanked Toronto on a 5-hitter in Game #5...it was also the first 1-0 complete game win in Division Series history and first in any post-season since Jack Morris' Game #7 gem in the '91 Fall Classic against Atlanta...Curt closed out the first round of the playoffs with a route-going 2-1 triumph over the Redbirds in Game #5, the only blemish a game-tying homer by J.D. Drew in the eighth inning...Schill remained in the contest and was the beneficiary of Tony Womack's ninth inning heroics that sent the D'Backs to the NLCS...the home run by Drew snapped a streak of 25.0 consecutive shutout innings in post-season play by Schilling dating back to '93...he had only one start against the Braves in the NLCS, going the distance in Game #3 at Turner Field in a

5-1 win...he scattered 4 hits and 2 walks while fanning 12 for his fourth consecutive complete game in post-season play dating back to '93, and third route-going effort in as many tries in 2001...he was the first pitcher since Orel Hershiser in 1988 to complete 3 consecutive starts in the same post-season, and the first hurler to go the distance in 4 straight since Bob Gibson completed 8 in a row from 1964-68...Schilling was only the seventh pitcher since 1922 to complete at least 4 straight...all told, Curt was 4-0 with a 1.12 ERA in 6 post-season appearances, allowing 6 earned runs in a post-season MLB record 48.1 innings...he also established major league post-season records for starts (6) and strikeouts (56) while his 3 complete games tied the top spot. 2000—Curt's year began on Philly's disabled list as he recovered from off-season arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder, and ended in his old hometown of Phoenix, acquired by the Diamondbacks in a July 26 swap that sent Travis Lee, Omar Daal, Nelson Figueroa and Vicente Padilla to the Phils...Schill recorded his 100th career win in his second start of the year, a 6-0 win in Atlanta on May 6...his last start as a Phil was a 4-1 complete game win in Pittsburgh on July 23, tossing a 3-hitter...it was his second complete game in 3 starts and occurred in a stretch in which he went the distance in 6 of 9 starts, 4 of them taking place as a Diamondback...the trade took place while the club was in St. Louis and Schilling in Philly, thus he met his new teammates just hours before taking the mound in Florida for his first start with Arizona...his D'Back debut on July 28 in Pro Player Stadium was a success, scattering 6 hits over 8.0 innings in a 4-1 victory over the Marlins...his 11-2 win over the Cubs on August 18 climaxed an 11-start stretch in which Schilling went 8-3 with a 1.90 ERA, giving up just 19 earned runs over 90.0 innings...he was involved in the decision in 17 of his last 19 starts, including 15 consecutive decisions from June 27-September 7, going 8-7. 1999—Curt missed the last 2 months of the season, yet still finished second in the N.L. in complete games (8), fifth in winning pct. (.714) and opponents batting average (.237), seventh in ERA (3.54), eighth in fewest walks per 9-innings (2.2) and 10th in strikeouts per 9-innings (7.6)...he led the Phillies in complete games, strikeouts (152), tied for first in wins (15) and ranked second in innings (180.1) despite making just 5 starts after the All-Star break...he was the Opening Day starter for the fifth time as a Phillie and his third straight assignment, the most by a Philly righthander since Robin Roberts started 12 in a row (1950-61)...Curt won 13 games prior to the All-Star break, the most by a Philly hurler since Steve Carlton won 14 in that span in 1980...Schilling's first half culminated with earning the starting role for the All-Star Game in Fenway Park, his third consecutive All-Star selection...his first half of work featured a career-best 5 consecutive complete games (May 7-29), joining Tommy Greene (Philly-1993) and Pat Hentgen (Toronto-1996) as the only pitchers in the 90's to accomplish the feat...he was rewarded with N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for May...he recorded the 1,500th strikeout of his career on June 3 getting the Giants' Rich Aurilia...Curt missed a start on July 28 vs. Florida with tendinitis in his right biceps, his first missed start since May 14, 1996, a streak of 117 consecutive starts...he lost an 8-2 decision to the D'Backs on August 7, then went on the D.L. with inflammation in his right shoulder...he was activated on September 3, winning that day over Cincinnati, 10-2, but then made his final start of the year, losing a 10-2 decision to Houston on September 8, fanning just 1, his lowest strikeout total since April 24, 1994...he was shut down for the remainder of the season and eventually had an anterior thermal capsular reduction and posterior capsule release on his right shoulder by Dr. Craig Morgan on December 13. 1998—Curt led the majors in complete games (15) and innings (268.2), and topped the N.L. in strikeouts (300)...at the time he was just the fifth pitcher in major league history to fan 300 in back-to-back seasons joining J.R. Richard, Nolan Ryan, Sandy Koufax and Rube Waddell (Randy Johnson has since fanned 300 in a major league record 5 straight)... Schilling's complete game total marked the most by a Phillie since Steve Carlton went the route in 19 games in 1982, and they were the most by a righthander since Jim Lonborg's 16 in 1974...Curt fanned a season-high 15 on April 15 at Atlanta...he was selected to his second consecutive All-Star team, but did not pitch...his 300th and final strikeout was Kevin Orie on September 26...Schilling was also a member of the MLB All-Star team that traveled to Japan in November. 1997—Finished fourth in the Cy Young balloting, leading the majors with 319 strikeouts, an N.L. record for K's by a righthander...Curt surpassed J.R. Richard's previous mark of 313 when he fanned Devon White on September 26 at Florida...he broke Carlton's club record of 310 K's by getting Sammy Sosa on September 21 at Chicago...recorded 17 double-digit strikeout games, and set a then single-game best with 16 K's on September 1 vs. the Yankees...he was the Opening Day starter for the third time and earned his first win, combining with Ricky Bottalico on a 3-0 victory at Los Angeles, the Phillies first season-opening shutout since 1984...Curt was the Phils' lone All-Star Game representative, fanning 3 in 2.0 shutout innings at Cleveland...he stole the first base of his career on August 22 vs. the Dodgers. 1996—Season began on the disabled list as he recovered from previous season's surgery on his right shoulder...made 4 minor league rehab starts then made his '96 debut on May 14 vs. the Giants, posting a 7-0 win, his first career victory over San Francisco...despite missing 6 weeks, he led the league with 8 complete games...tossed a shutout on August 5 vs. Pittsburgh, his first blanking since Game #5 of the 1993 World Series...he struck out 7 consecutive batters on August 26 at San Francisco, the first pitcher to do so since Roger Clemens (1992)...he drove in a career-high 3 runs on July 4 vs. Florida. 1995—The season started with promise, but wound up being cut short by shoulder trouble...he was 4-0 through his first 9 starts, incurring first setback on June 13...he was among the N.L. leaders in innings, strikeouts and opposing average when he was forced to miss a start on July 23 due to tendinitis and inflammation in his right shoulder...he received a cortisone injection on August 4 by Dr. Craig Morgan, but still experienced discomfort...underwent season-ending arthroscopic surgery by Dr. Morgan on August 23, repairing a superior labral tear anterior posterior (SLAP) lesion, while also cleaning up some fraying of the rotator cuff and removing a bone spur from the right shoulder. 1994—Made his first career Opening Day start, began the year 0-7 in 9 starts, his longest career losing streak...was disabled for the first time in his career from May 16-July 25 with a tender right elbow, and had a bone spur removed on May 20...injury trouble continued when he had surgery on his left knee on June 10 after a freak incident when the knee popped after getting up from a seated position...finally won his first game of the year on July 25 at Florida. 1993—Earned Philly's Player-of-the-Month award for April (4-1, 2.54 ERA) and September (4-1, 3.47 ERA)...finished tied for second in the N.L. in complete games (7) and fourth in strikeouts (186). 1993 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Curt was the starter in Game #1 of the NLCS against the Braves and set a record by fanning the first 5 batters he faced, a game that ended up a no decision for Schilling and an eventual 4-3 Phillies' win in 10 innings...he was also not involved in the decision in Game #5, yet wound up the series MVP without earning a win, totaling 16.0 innings, a 1.69 ERA and 19 K's...he started 2 games of the World Series against the Blue Jays, losing his first start by an 8-5 count, but throwing a 5-hit shutout in Game #5. 1992—Went to spring training with Houston, but was traded on April 2 and led the major leagues in lowest opponents avg. (.201), while ranking second in the N.L. in complete games (10), tied for third in shutouts (4) and fourth in ERA (2.35), the lowest ERA by a Phillies' righthander since Jim Bunning's 2.29 mark in 1967...after 16 relief appearances Curt made his first start on May 19 against Houston, a 4-3 win that was also Curt's first start since September 6, 1989, with Baltimore...tossed his first career shutout on June 8, a 3-hitter over Pittsburgh...fired back-to-back shutouts on July 22 vs. San Diego and July 27 vs. the Mets...had an overall scoreless innings streak of 29.0 from July 22-August 1...he fired a 1-hitter on September 9 vs. the Mets, the first 1-hit effort by a Phillie since David Palmer on August 2, 1988 in St. Louis. 1991—Traded by Baltimore on January 10 in a 4-player deal that also put Steve Finley and Pete Harnisch in Houston uniforms in exchange for Glenn Davis...Curt worked exclusively in relief for the Astros, appearing in 56 games on the big league level and 13 other contests at Tucson (AAA)...set a career-best with 8 saves, opening the year as the club's closer, converting 5 of his first 6 chances...struggled in May and June and was optioned to Tucson on June 26...recalled on August 2 when Jim Clancy was traded to Atlanta. 1990—Opened the year at Rochester (AAA) and was recalled on June 29 after 15 appearances...earned his first major league save on June 29 vs. Minnesota...he did not allow a run in 20 of his first 23 outings, and had a stretch of 20.0 consecutive scoreless innings...recorded his first major league win on July 11 vs. Kansas City. 1989—Spent the majority of the season with Rochester (AAA), leading the International League in innings (185.1), while tying for the top spot in wins (13), starts (27), complete games (9) and shutouts (3)...earned a September recall and went 0-1 in 5 outings. 1988—Began the season with New Britain (AA) and had an 8-5 record and 2.97 ERA in 21 games when traded to the Orioles on July 30...he went 5-2 with a 3.18 mark with Charlotte (AA) and was promoted to the big leagues...made his debut with a no decision vs. Boston on September 7, but wasn't as fortunate in next 3 starts, incurring losses each time out. 1987—Led the South Atlantic League in strikeouts (189) and ranked fourth in complete games (7), going 8-15 with Greensboro (A). 1986—Curt was selected by the Red Sox in the second round of the January draft and spent his first pro season at Elmira (A), leading the club with a 2.59 ERA in 16 games (15 starts).

Schilling 2001 Clemente Winner

Since 1970, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award (originally known as "The Commissioner's Award") which recognizes the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. The award, now sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others. The 2001 individual winner was Arizona's own Curt Schilling, but for the first time in the Award's history a second honor was presented to the citizens of New York City for their humanitarian efforts following the tragedy of September 11.

In 1972, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was renamed to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer, was killed in a plane crash New Years Eve, 1972, delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua.

Early in the season, each team is asked to submit three candidates to a panel formed by John Hancock Financial Services. The panel will select a nominee from each club. A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, will then select a winner from the list of 30 nominees. The winner of the Roberto Clemente Award will receive a $25,000 donation from John Hancock Financial Services for the local charity of his choice at an on-field ceremony during the World Series. John Hancock will also make a cash contribution to the Roberto Clemente Foundation and to each nominee's local charity.

Other winners of the award have included Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Sammy Sosa, Willie Mays, Lou Brock, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken, Jr. and Kirby Puckett to name a few.

John Hancock is a proud sponsor of Major League Baseball and the title sponsor of The John Hancock All-Star FanFest, an interactive "Baseball Heaven on Earth" held in conjunction with MLB's All-Star Game.

JUNIOR SPIVEY

Infielder

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 201 B/T: R/R

Age: 28

Born: January 28, 1975 in Oklahoma City, OK

Residence: Phoenix, AZ

M.L. Service: 2 years, 26 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a 36th round selection in the 1996 June free agent draft.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Junior wasn't even sure he had a big league job when he arrived in Tucson for spring training, but injuries to both Matt Williams and Jay Bell opened the door of opportunity and he took full advantage to the point of earning a spot on the National League All-Star team...he led the Diamondbacks in hitting (.301), runs scored (103), hits (162), doubles (34) and hit by pitches (16), while finishing third on the club in RBI (78) and tied for third in homers (16)...Junior was the Opening Day second baseman, hitting seventh in Bob Brenly's lineup, but before the season ended he batted in every spot in the order with the majority of his work coming in either the 2 or 3 spots...Spivey opened the year just 5-for-23 for a first week average of .217, but he caught fire during the latter portion of Arizona's first road trip and was below the .300 mark for just one day the remainder of the season...he had a pair of doubles on April 9 in San Diego then flourished in Colorado, going 8-for-14 with 3 doubles, a triple and 6 RBI in the first 3 games of a 4-game sweep of the Rockies in Coors Field...after a pair of 0'fers, Junior reignited, hitting safely in 8 straight from April 16-25, hitting .533 (16-for-30) with 11 runs, 4 doubles, 2 homers and 6 RBI to up his season average to .373...he closed that streak with a 3-game visit to Atlanta on April 23-25, going 7-for-12 with 7 runs, 3 doubles and a home run...his season average tapered off to .323 after play on May 14 as he recovered from a mild rib cage strain that limited his play for 3 days, but he proved to be healthy on May 15 in Pittsburgh, going 3-for-4 with a double and a homer...that performance jumpstarted another hot streak for Junior, who hit .417 (15-for-36) over his next 9 games with 10 runs scored, 4 doubles, 2 triples, 4 homers and 10 RBI...included in that stretch was the only walk-off home run of his career, a game-ending tape measure blast off of Philly's Jose Mesa on May 18, measuring 461-feet...his consistency at the plate continued as he had an 18-game hitting streak from May 31-July 4, with an injury being the only thing to slow Spivey down...he had hit safely in 9 straight before suffering a right hamstring strain while rounding third base on June 10 in Yankee Stadium...the injury came the day after he recorded the first inside-the-park home run in his career, the second in franchise history, racing around the bases in Fenway Park on June 9 as the D'Backs completed a 3-game interleague sweep of the Red Sox...it was the first inside-the-parker by a Fenway visitor since June 2, 1989 (Junior Felix)...despite missing 15 days with the hamstring injury, Spivey didn't miss a beat upon his return, hitting safely in 9 more games to extend the hitting streak to a 2002 team-high 18 games...during the streak he batted .371 (26-for-70) with 18 runs and 10 RBI...his average dipped below the .300 mark for the first time since April 16 after going 0-for-4 on September 20 in Colorado, but he remedied that by finishing the season hitting .342 (13-for-38) in the last 9 games featuring 10 runs, 3 homers and 7 RBI.

2002 DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS—Junior's first career post-season opportunity resulted in a 2-for-13 series against the Cardinals...he batted in the #2 spot in all 3 games, going 1-for-5 in each of the first 2 affairs.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Junior was a prime example of Bob Brenly's managerial method of riding the hot hand at the right time, providing a mid-season spark to an offense that was in need of a jumpstart...frustrated with disabling injuries that allowed him to play in just 78 games over the last 2 minor league seasons, Spivey was recalled from Tucson on June 2 and brought an infusion of speed and solid defense at second base when called upon...he was on base 4 times in his first start on June 7 vs. the Dodgers, walking twice before delivering his first big league hit with a sixth inning single off of Gregg Olson...he finished up a memorable initial start with a solo homer off of veteran Jesse Orosco in the eighth as Arizona posted a 13-9 win over their N.L. West rivals...those highlights were just a precursor to bigger and better things...Junior became just the fifth rookie in the last 50 years to record a pair of 5-hit games in starts against a pair of baseball's elite hurlers while joining Wally Moon (1954 St. Louis Cardinals), Ken Hubbs (1962 Chicago Cubs), Rico Carty (1964 Milwaukee Braves) and Chris Singleton (1999 Chicago White Sox)...his first 5-hit effort was in Coors Field on June 21 going 5-for-6 with a triple, 3 runs and 3 RBI...he duplicated the feat on August 12 in Atlanta going 5-for-5 with 3 runs, with 4 of those hits coming off of Greg Maddux...the 5-hit games were the only ones recorded by a Diamondback in 2001 and tied the club mark set initially by Tony Batista and tied later by Travis Lee and Greg Colbrunn...Junior reached base safely via a hit or walk in his first 13 major league starts and 25 of his first 26 starting assignments, hitting .337 in that span (32-for-95) with 16 walks...the return to form by Tony Womack and the emergence of Craig Counsell as an everyday player down the stretch limited Junior's playing time late in the year...the offense he provided as a Diamondback came a bit by surprise since he was hitting just .232 through 54 games with Tucson (AAA) at the time of his recall. 2000—As if his 1999 season wasn't brief enough with just 44 games played, Junior had another bout with the disabled list that kept his game tally down to just 28 for the Sidewinders and 6 games at El Paso...he opened the season going 8-for-16 at the plate...Junior recorded the first multi-homer game of his pro career on April 27 at Salt Lake, knocking in 5 runs in a 16-7 Tucson victory...his first bout with a left hamstring injury that would haunt him all year took place on May 7 in a game against Salt Lake, sending him to the disabled list until June 14...when deemed healthy he was sent to El Paso (AA) where he went 8-for-19 with 5 doubles and a home run in just 5 games before tearing the left hamstring on June 22 at San Antonio...he appeared as a pinch hitter 2 nights later but did not get an at bat and his season subsequently ended. 1999—The injury bug that haunted Junior in 2000 began biting in the '99 season, as he participated in just 44 games for El Paso (AA)...his season didn't begin until May 15, missing the first 6 weeks due to a ligament tear in his left thumb that occurred in spring training and required surgery...once healthy, he managed to bat .293 before requiring surgery to repair the hamate bone in his left hand, ending his season. 1998 —Junior combined stops in High Desert (A) and Tulsa (AA) to accumulate an organization-leading 42 stolen bases and 92 walks...he was Arizona's Minor League Player-of-the-Month for May, hitting .337 with 7 RBI and 12 stolen bases while with the Mavericks, earning a spot in the California League All-Star Game, but a finger sprain prevented his participation...after hitting .281 in 79 games for High Desert, Spivey made the move to AA, playing on loan with Tulsa of the Texas organization...he hit .311 for Tulsa, but was most impressive in the post-season, hitting .342 in 10 playoff games as they won the Texas League title. 1997—Spent the entire season at High Desert, hitting .273 for the California League champs...his best stretch was a 16-game hitting streak from July 29-August 15...after a hitless game ended the 16-gamer, he immediately began a 10-game skein. 1996—First year as a pro, his career started in the Valley with the Phoenix (Rookie) club, ranking second in the league with a .333 mark, while leading the circuit with 11 stolen bases...he earned Organizational Player-of-the-Month for June, then was promoted to Lethbridge, hitting .336 in 31 games.

PERSONAL

Ernest Lee (Junior) Spivey, Jr....he is single and split last winter between Oklahoma City and the Valley... Junior graduated in 1993 from Douglass High School, then attended Northwestern Oklahoma State for a semester, intending to play basketball...he later transferred to Cowley County (KS) Junior College to test his skills on the baseball diamond and wound up a 36th round choice of the Diamondbacks in their original draft effort of 1996...upon conclusion of the '98 season in Tulsa, he played for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League...Junior's work last year earned him a spot on the semi-annual Major League Baseball All-Star tour of Japan last November...he was also active in the community during the off-season, including an appearance at the Diamondbacks Holiday Angel Party in December.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

The franchise appearance leader entering 2002, Greg was limited to 34 games due to a couple of injuries, his lowest workload since becoming a full-time reliever in 1997...he opened the season on the shelf and missed the first 29 games on the schedule with left shoulder tendinitis...he succumbed to the injury during spring training, appearing in only 5 exhibition games...he worked 1.0 inning in a rehab outing with Tucson (AAA) before joining the big league club on May 4...he made his regular season debut that night by retiring the 3 Expos he faced... Greg struggled over his first 16 trips to the hill, posting a 6.50 ERA, allowing 13 runs on 17 hits over 18.0 innings of work...the final 6 outings of that slide included a rough stretch from June 14-July 2 when he allowed 8 hits, 7 of which were home runs, over 8.2 innings...Greg regrouped in the last game before the All-Star Break and posted a 1.29 ERA over 16 appearances from July 7-September 21...he limited the opposition to a .208 average (11-for-53) in his first 15 games after the break...he landed back on the disabled list from August 18-September 5 due to a bulging disk in his back...he had a streak of 10.0 consecutive scoreless innings snapped on September 22 when he took the loss at Coors Field, surrendering 4 hits, including a 3-run homer by Todd Helton...it was the first roundtripper he surrendered since July 2...he had more success against righthanders this season, limiting them to a .234 average (18-for-77) while lefties hit him for a .339 mark (20-for-59)...he finished the year with only 1 walk over his last 17.0 innings pitched.

2002 DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS—Greg worked twice against the Cardinals...he was victimized by his own error in Game #1, allowing 4 runs (1 earned) on 2 hits and a walk in no official innings...he returned to the hill in Game #3 at Busch Stadium and though he didn't face a batter, he recorded an out by picking Fernando Vina off of first base to end the St. Louis fourth inning.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Greg pitched in 64 games for the second straight year, displaying the best control of his career, walking only 8 men in 53.2 innings while fanning 42...he tied a career best with 2 saves, working a scoreless 18th inning in San Francisco on May 29 to preserve Arizona's 1-0 win, then recording the final 2 outs of a 3-2 triumph over the Cubs on June 14..."Zeke" was scored upon in just 5 of his first 28 outings before the Rockies scored in all 3 games he appeared in from June 21-24 in Denver...Greg allowed only 1 of the first 16 runners he inherited to cross the plate through June 2...he recorded some key outs for the D'Backs down the stretch, including a strikeout of Shawn Green at home on September 28, entering with the score tied at 3-3 to help set the stage for Luis Gonzalez's game-ending homer in the 11th...Greg retired 71% of the first batters he faced (45 of 63) while only 9 of 32 inherited runners scored. 2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Greg blanked the opposition in 6 of the 7 games he worked, appearing twice in both the Division Series and NLCS, and 3 times against the Yankees in his first-ever World Series action...after 1.2 shutout frames against the Cardinals in the first round of action, Swindell gave up his first career post-season run, allowing a home run to Atlanta's B.J. Surhoff in Arizona's 8-1 Game #2 loss...Zeke avenged that matchup 3 nights later in Turner Field, coaxing an infield pop-up by Surhoff as he represented the tying run in the seventh inning of Game #4...Swindell totaled 2.2 shutout frames against the Bronx Bombers, including a solid 1.1 innings in Game #3 at Yankee Stadium to keep the D'Backs within a run of an eventual 2-1 loss...in Game #5 with the Diamondbacks leading by a 2-0 count in the eighth, Greg retired Tino Martinez with 2 aboard to end a Yankee threat. 2000—Greg recorded his lone save in his only opportunity on April 15 with 3.0 shutout innings for a 7-4 triumph over the Giants at Pacific Bell Park...he was tough early, giving up 2 earned runs over 16.0 innings (11 games) for a season-opening 1.13 ERA...after allowing 6 earned runs over 3.2 frames, Greg had his best overall streak of the year with 19.0 straight scoreless innings over 15 games from May 29-July 4...included was a streak of 55 batters faced without allowing a walk...Greg inherited 26 runners on the year with only 4 scoring, including just 1 of the last 12...he fanned 5 in a 3-inning stint at Philly on April 26. 1999—Greg allowed only 9 earned runs in his last 48 outings and 50.0 innings, a 1.62 ERA as the club ran away with the N.L. West crown...he missed the last 2 weeks of June with a rib cage injury, then was scored upon in just 4 of 35 appearances after coming off the D.L....Greg had a 13.1 inning shutout streak from August 4-September 4...his lone save was on April 19 in B.O.B., retiring the only Phillie he faced to preserve a 3-2 win, his first-ever National League save. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Greg appeared in the last 3 games of the series with Mets, totaling 3.1 innings allowing a hit and 3 walks (1 intentional), with a strikeout...he finished up Arizona's lone win, working the final 2.0 frames, allowing a hit, while fanning a man, retiring 6 of the 7 he faced...he tossed an inning in Game #3 at Shea, then recorded an out in Game #4. 1998—Greg's year began with Minnesota, his second straight with the Twins, but he joined the playoff race at the trade deadline with a trade to Boston...a starter for the first 10 years of his career, he worked exclusively in relief for the first time, appearing in a career-high 81 games, third most in the A.L...Swindell left stranded 90% of the runners he inherited, with only 5 of the 48 crossing the plate (3 of 30 with Minnesota and 2 of 18 with Boston)...he was impressive during a 17-game stretch from May 8-June 10, allowing 2 earned runs in 23.2 innings, a 0.76 ERA. 1998 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: After more than 12 years and 4 different franchises, Greg got his first shot at pitching in the post-season, working 1.1 shutout inning in the second game of the Division Series against Cleveland, the club he originally signed with in 1986. 1997—Made 65 appearances, with his lone start on May 10 vs. Toronto, still his last start...posted first career save on Sept. 20 against Milwaukee. 1996—Started his fourth consecutive year with the Astros, but was slowed by a groin injury that disabled him from April 20-May 22...Greg was released on June 3 and signed as a free agent with Cleveland on June 15...he was a winner on June 18 vs. the Red Sox, his first triumph in a Cleveland uniform since Sept. 21, 1991, vs. Baltimore... was outrighted on Sept. 6, then inked a contract with Minnesota. 1995—Appeared in 33 games, starting 26 of them...tossed the 12th shutout of his career on June 26 vs. St. Louis...posted 100th career victory on August 29 at Atlanta, working a pair of hitless innings of relief...he was also employed as a pinch hitter once during the '95 season, fanning in the at bat. 1994—Opened the year by winning 5 of his first 6 decisions, including a stretch of 17.0 consecutive scoreless innings from April 8-19. 1993—Tied for sixth in the league in fewest walks per 9-innings at 1.89...was disabled with a left shoulder strain from July 6-25...recorded 1,000th career strikeout, fanning Jim Deshaies on Sept. 20...finished year with 11th career shutout on October 1 in Cincinnati. 1992—Dealt to the Reds from Cleveland in exchange for pitchers Jack Armstrong, Scott Scudder and Joe Turek...made N.L. debut on April 9 in Houston, but didn't post first N.L. victory until April 25 at San Diego...finished ninth in the N.L. with a 2.70 ERA...had stint on disabled list (August 23-Sept. 7) with stress fracture in left rib cage...ranked third in the league in fewest walks per 9-innings (1.73). 1991—The last of 6 straight seasons with the Indians, led the staff in innings pitched, strikeouts and complete games...fanned a season-high 12 on April 24 vs. K.C....he tied a career-high with a 10-inning performance on June 11 vs. Toronto...walked only 31 men in 238.0 innings, a 1.17 walks per-9 inning ratio. 1990—Established a career best in starts, leading the Cleveland staff in that department as well as innings and strikeouts...snapped an 11-start drought with 8.1 innings in a win over California on July 1, a victory that kicked off a 4-game winning streak...he parlayed that into an 8-2 stretch from July 22-August 22. 1989—Made his first Opening Day start on April 3 vs. Milwaukee...tied a career-high with a 6-game winning streak from May 28-June 24, and through July 20 was victorious in 9 of 10 decisions...tied a career-low with a 2-hitter on June 7 vs. California, his third career... was named to the A.L. All-Star team and worked 1.2 innings allowing 2 hits and fanning 3 in Anaheim Stadium... disabled from July 26-August 30 with a left elbow ligament strain... gave up 3 earned runs or less in 20 of his 28 starts. 1988—Had a career-year, winning 18, including 12 complete games, leading the Cleveland staff in virtually every category...won 10 of his first 11 decisions from April 6-May 2, including a season-opening 6-game winning streak...tossed back-to-back complete games on April 6 at Texas and April 11 vs. Baltimore, earning A.L. Player-of-the-Week honors by posting a 0.95 ERA...established a career-high with a 10-inning stint on April 16 at Baltimore, blanking the Orioles...carried a no-hitter into the seventh on May 19 vs. Chicago, and wound up with a 2-hit shutout... the Tribe scored only 28 runs in his 14 losses...was second in the A.L. in walks per 9-innings (1.67). 1987—Tossed his first career shutout, 3-0 on April 19 at Baltimore, a 6-hitter...made first professional relief appearance on April 15 at New York, retiring only man he faced...fanned a career-high 15 in 4-2 win vs. Kansas City on May 10...he suffered a broken middle finger on his right hand when hit by a Wade Boggs line drive on May 26 at Boston, but did not miss a start...had his season cut short with a sore left elbow, sidelining him after July 2. 1986—Signed with Cleveland as the second overall pick in the June draft, and began pro career with

Swindell (Continued)

Waterloo, going 2-1 with a 1.00 ERA in 3 starts, fanning 25 in 18.0 innings...was promoted to the majors on August 21, making big league debut vs. Boston...had a season-high 9 K's on Sept. 1 at Toronto...started a 4-game winning streak with first major league win on Sept. 6 at Milwaukee...final win in streak was Sept. 23 at California, his first career complete game.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Luis received a spring training invitee and remained on the radar screen at El Paso (AA) as one of the Texas League's top prospects according to SportsTicker...he hit safely in 6 straight from April 5-10, scoring 5 times with 8 RBI...he landed on the disabled list from May 9-21 with a right rib cage strain...upon his return, he batted .400 (16-for-40) with 7 doubles and 9 RBI in 10 contests in May...he hit in 16 of 20 games at a .347 clip (26-for-75) with 12 runs, 14 RBI and 7 doubles from May 21-June 10...Luis picked up his first-career cycle on May 26 vs. Round Rock, going 5-for-5 with a career-high 6 RBI...he featured a .407 average (11-for-27) during a 7-game hitting streak from June 20-29...he recorded another cycle on August 24 at Shreveport, going 4-for-5 and matching his career-high 6 RBI, making him only the second minor leaguer (Hank Blalock, Tulsa, June 26 & 28, 2001) in modern history to hit for the cycle twice in a season...his second cycle kicked off a 7-game hitting streak through August 30 in which he hit .467 (14-for-30) with 5 runs and 11 RBI...with runners on base, he hit .303 (56-for-185) with 11 doubles, 3 triples, 6 homers and 52 RBI...he had a strong year at home, hitting .306 (57-for-186) with 33 runs, 4 homers and 36 RBI in El Paso...Luis played in 37 games for Azucareros in the Dominican Winter League.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Things started slowly for Luis in A-ball but he wound up with his first taste of AA action and emerged as one of Arizona's top farmhands, as evidenced by his selection by Baseball America as the D'Backs top prospect entering 2002...he began the year with South Bend (A) and struggled through the first month before doctors detected a left ankle fracture...after a month on the D.L., he returned to action with Yakima, then after 11 games was sent to Lancaster (A) on June 30...he hit safely in 12 of 13 games from July 2-23, interrupted only by an unsuccessful pinch-hit appearance on July 13, batting 23-for-50 (.460)...Luis earned a promotion to El Paso (AA) on July 28, kicking off his stay with a 17-game stretch in which he batted .362 (25-for-69)...he then displayed his skills for Azucareros in the Dominican Winter League. 2000—He spent the majority of the year with Missoula, though season began on the disabled list with a broken hamate bone in his left wrist...he was activated May 21, then transferred to Missoula for the start of its season...he tasted the big league life playing for the Diamondbacks in the Hall of Fame Game on July 24 in Cooperstown, NY, earning MVP honors after going 2-for-4 with a double and 2 runs scored vs. Cleveland...he was named Pioneer League Player-of-the-Week for July 10-16 after batting .500 with 12 runs scored, 5 homers and 14 RBI...he hit .353 (30-for-85) with 5 doubles, 6 home runs, 21 RBI in 19 games from July 10-August 1...he was selected to the Pioneer League post-season All-Star team. 1999—He led the league in runs (74) and ranked fourth in steals (27)...he touched Helena for grand slams twice in 6 days, June 22 and June 27, earning league Player-of-the-Week honors for June 21-27...he was rated by Baseball America as the No. 8 prospect in the Pioneer League.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Following a season that was cut short due to an elbow injury, Jose returned to the mound having moved up another notch in Arizona's farm system to Tucson (AAA)...he struggled at the outset, going 0-2 with no saves and a 14.04 ERA (16 ER in 10.0 IP) in an 11-game stretch from April 6-May 29, though a back strain landed him on the disabled list for 3 weeks of that span (May 4-24)...once healthy his numbers improved dramatically, going 1-0 with 5 saves in 17 games from June 1-July 11, limiting opponents to a .143 average (9-for-63) and fanning 30 batters in 18.2 frames...he finished 12 of the 17 games, which included 15 scoreless appearances while holding opposing batters hitless in 12 of those affairs...he notched his first victory of the season on June 3 at Las Vegas, closing out the game with 2.0 shutout innings...Jose held the opposition hitless in 7.1 shutout innings and had 3 saves over a span of 7 games from June 6-June 18...on the road he allowed 11 runs (9 earned) in 23.1 innings and a .222 opponents average (18-for-81)...he was tough on righthanded hitters, holding them to a .204 clip (21-for-103) with 44 K's...June was his best month against opponents as they hit only .149 (7-for-47) with 24 strikeouts and 5 walks...Jose fanned at least 1 batter in 38 of his 49 appearances, including a string of 22 consecutive games with a strikeout from April 27-July 11...he appeared in 13 games last winter for Azucareros of the Dominican League.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Jose had a promising campaign cut short due to a season-ending elbow injury...he had shuffled between rookie and A-ball for 4 seasons before being thrust into the closer role at El Paso (AA), where he posted an amazing 15.68 strikeouts per 9-inning ratio...he went 1-0 with 5 saves while posting a 0.54 ERA (1 ER in 16.2 IP) with 29 K's in his first 15 games at the AA level...he held opponents scoreless in 11 consecutive contests (13.0 IP) from April 16-May 12, striking out 22 and walking 8...he did not lose a game until June 5, a span of 24 games and 24.0 innings...a member of the World All-Stars team at the Futures Game in Seattle during the All-Star break, he also nailed down AA All-Star honors...he made only one more appearance following the Futures Game, tossing 1.0 shutout inning on July 20, before he was shelved for the remainder of the season...he was most effective with runners on base, holding opponents to a .181 (17-for-94) average, and was equally impressive with runners in scoring position as opposing hitters batted .159 (10-for-63)...he limited righthanded hitters to a .183 (21-for-115) average with 50 strikeouts...he was ranked as the tenth best Texas League prospect by Baseball America while named sixth best in the Arizona organization. 2000—He led South Bend (A) with 14 saves and ranked third among Midwest League relievers with 11.09 strikeouts per 9-inning ratio...he did not allow a run over 11 appearances and converted 9-of-9 save opportunities from May 7-June 5...he was disabled from July 10-29 with right shoulder strain...he transferred to Missoula (R) after activation from the disabled list...he dominated the Pioneer League by striking out 24 in 11.2 innings, holding the opposition to a .075 average and not allowing a run. 1999—A reliever for the Rookie League club in Tucson, he ranked second in the league in saves (8), games finished (17) and Rolaids relief points (22)...he led relief pitchers with 14.76 strikeouts per 9-inning...he was rated by Baseball America as the No. 4 prospect in the Arizona League.

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 235 B/T: R/R

Age: 25

Born: February 24, 1978 in Rocky Mount, NC

Residence: Rocky Mount, NC

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as Arizona's 2nd round selection in the 1999 June free agent draft.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Demonstrating no ill effects from "Tommy John" surgery performed 2 years prior, Jeremy led Tucson relievers with 54 appearances and 62.2 innings on the hill...contrary to conventional wisdom, he had more success against lefthanded batters (.211, 19-for-90) than he did vs. righties (.318, 49-for-154)...a trio of forgettable games ballooned Ward's season ERA from 2.52 to 4.31, accounting for 13 earned runs over only 2.0 innings...Jeremy closed out the season with his best mound work, posting a 1.20 ERA (2 earned runs in 15.0 innings pitched) over his last 14 games of the year from July 25-September 2...his lone save of the year came on June 23 at Memphis...he notched his fourth victory of the season on August 20 at Oklahoma, matching his entire career win total entering the season...during a portion of the off-season, Jeremy pitched for Azucareros in the Dominican League.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Jeremy's stay in El Paso (AA) was short-lived as he assumed the closing duties at Tucson...he closed out 6 games, including 4 perfect appearances (5.0 innings), for the Diablos before receiving the call to AAA on April 22...he notched saves in 5 straight appearances from May 30-June 8...he assembled a 7-game, 10.1 inning scoreless streak from July 8-August 26...Jeremy was placed on the disabled list on July 20 after suffering a lower back strain...Jeremy played for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League, posting a 3-0 record with 2 saves in 8 outings and a 5.06 ERA (6 ER in 10.2 IP)...Jeremy's AFL season was cut short as he joined fellow D'Backs Chris Capuano and Ken Huckaby as members of the 2001 USA Baseball World Cup Team that participated in the XXXIV IBAF World Cup from November 6-18 in Taipei, China. 2000—His year began with an invitation to major league spring training and ended with right elbow surgery...Jeremy made 2 appearances before injuries spoiled his season...he was disabled from April 13-June 26 with a right flexor strain...he made a pair of rehab appearances in the Arizona League (R) and returned to AAA for 3 more games, only to return to the D.L. for the remainder of the season...Dr. Lewis A. Yocum performed "Tommy John" ligament replacement surgery. 1999—Jeremy pitched at 3 levels in his first pro season, beginning at High Desert (A) and finishing with a scoreless outing for Tucson (AAA)...tied for El Paso (AA) team lead in saves (7) despite only 19 outings... opposing batters hit a collective .195...named one of the Arizona Fall League's top two righthanded relievers by a vote of managers and coaches after recording 3 saves and a 1.62 ERA (.198 opponents' average) for Scottsdale.

MATT WILLIAMS 9

Infielder

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 223 B/T: R/R

Age: 37 (Turns 38 on November 28)

Born: November 28, 1965 in Bishop, CA

Residence: Scottsdale, AZ

M.L. Service: 14 years, 113 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Cleveland Indians in exchange for Travis Fryman and Tom Martin, December 2, 1997.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

The mere thought that Matt would be in a position to contribute to the club's success in 2002 seemed remote after the grisly scene in Tucson on the morning of February 25, but not only did he contribute, his presence in the lineup coincided with Arizona's second half resurgence...Williams missed the first 87 games of 2002 after suffering a dislocated left ankle and broken fibula while taking ground balls on a back field in Tucson on the morning of February 25...the subsequent surgical procedure that night included the attachment of an eight-hole plate to the damaged fibula, the insertion of a large screw (syndesmosis screw) to hold the ligament that connects the fibula to the tibia, and the repairing of the deltoid ligament on the inner aspect of the injured ankle...due to the extent of the injury he didn't have the luxury of a spring training, then participated in only 9 minor league rehabilitation games before being thrown into the heat of the pennant race...Williams was activated immediately following the All-Star break and was in the lineup for 2 of the 4 games in Los Angeles, where Arizona took 3 of 4 from the then-division leaders...he used the majority of that road trip to knock the rust off a swing that had not had a lot of at bats, going just 4-for-29, but once the team returned home things began to change offensively... Matty had an 8-game hitting streak from July 22-August 5 in which he batted .300 (9-for-30) with 8 runs, 3 homers and 7 RBI...the biggest home run in that streak was a seventh inning solo blast off of Shawn Estes in New York on August 5, to secure the 4-game sweep of the Mets in Shea...Williams had that streak halted with an 0-for-7, but picked up again on August 9, hitting .400 (10-for-25) in a 7-game stretch, scoring 5 runs and knocking in 4...to emphasize the importance of Matt to the Arizona lineup, from July 22-August 26, he played in 24 games hitting at a .295 clip (26-for-88) while the club went 20-4 in those contests, turning a 1-game advantage into a season-high 9-game lead...he snapped out of an 0-for-13 slide on September 4, highlighting a 5-run first inning against LA's Andy Ashby with a 3-run homer, leading Arizona to an important 7-1 win...he caught fire as the Diamondbacks needed wins down the stretch, hitting .306 (22-for-72) in his final 18 games, with 11 runs, 4 doubles, 2 triples, 6 homers and 18 RBI...included was a big finish as Arizona swept the Rockies in a season-ending 4-game series... Matty went 8-for-18 (.444) in the series, featuring a big 3-run triple in the first game of the set on September 26 to stake Arizona to a 4-2 victory...he followed 2 days later in the division clinching game going 4-for-5 with 2 homers, his 12th career 4-hit game, first since June 11, 1999, in Anaheim, and his 31st career multi-homer affair (30th 2-homer), first since August 16, 1999, vs. the Cubs...he finished the year with 374 career homers, tying Rocky Colavito for 52nd all time and entered 2003 ranking 10th among active players in roundtrippers.

2002 DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS—Matty started all 3 games of the series against the Cardinals with his lone hit coming in Game #1, a first inning single.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Matt was one of 11 players who hit 300 home runs over the 1990's, joining Mark McGwire (405), Ken Griffey Jr. (382), Barry Bonds (361), Albert Belle (351), Juan Gonzalez (339), Sammy Sosa (332), Rafael Palmeiro (328), Jose Canseco (303), Frank Thomas (301) and Fred McGriff (300)...prior to the 90's there were only 12 men in history to hit at least 300 homers in a decade...he owns 4 Rawlings Gold Gloves and 4 Silver Slugger Awards.

2001—Matt opened the year healthy but couldn't avoid the injury bug which cost him 47 games during the summer months...after hitting safely in 15 of 16 games, a portion of which he played with a mild left hamstring strain, Williams suffered a left hip flexor injury on May 17 while scoring a run in Cincinnati...he proved ready to return to work by going 6-for-17 with 2 doubles, 2 homers and 5 RBI in a 5-game injury rehab with Tucson, then rejoined the D'Backs out of the All-Star break in Anaheim...he was 3-for-5 with 2 doubles highlighted by a tie-breaking shot to the wall off of Troy Percival in the ninth inning to stake Arizona to a 7-5 come-from-behind win in the series finale against the Halos...that contest signaled the beginning of a 38-game stretch in which Matt batted .324 (47-for-145) with 12 doubles, 8 homers and 27 RBI...during that span he hit safely in 15 consecutive starts from July 29-August 18, batting at a .328 clip (20-for-61)...he drove in runs in 6 straight games from August 10-15 with the D'Backs winning all 6 of those contests...included were home runs in 3 straight from August 12-15, blasting a trio of 2-run shots...Matt hammered the 11th grand slam of his career on September 21 in Los Angeles, his first of the year and sixth as a Diamondback, keying a 10-0 win over the Dodgers...as the regular season wound down, he had a 6-game hitting streak from Sept. 23-29, featuring a double in each of the first 5 games of the streak while hitting .385 (10-for-26)...he recorded the 300th double of his career on April 27 and 350th home run on May 1...his home run on August 25 in Philadelphia was the 59th ball to land in the upper deck in The Vet's 31-year history, the third time he's reached the upper tank...Williams made 2 starts at shortstop, the last on April 27, his first work there since 1996...April 24 marked his first starting assignment at short since August 21, 1991. 2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Matty's third career trip to the World Series ended with the ultimate celebration as he was waiting with open arms for Jay Bell, who crossed home plate as the deciding run in the seventh game, and the two Diamondback originals embraced... Williams started all 17 post-season games of Arizona's title run, but due to a slow start he finished with a deceptively low .217 average (13-for-60)...he fashioned a .289 mark (13-for-45) over the last 13 games of the post-season after an 0-for-15 start...he snapped the 0'fer with a leadoff double in the ninth inning of Game #5 off the Cards' Dave Veres to ignite the Division Series winning rally...that hit also ignited a personal stretch in which Matty batted .321 (9-for-28) over the next 8 games, climaxed by a huge home run that iced the second game of the World Series... the blast, a 3-run seventh inning shot off of Andy Pettitte, expanded the lead to 4-0 and allowed Randy Johnson to cruise on a 3-hitter...the home run put Matty in the World Series record book as the first player in history to homer in the Fall Classic for 3 different teams...Williams went hitless in the 3-game visit to Yankee Stadium, but came home and had 3 hits in the 15-2 Game #6 blowout...included was another record when he became the first player ever to double twice in a World Series inning...he was also the 18th player in Fall Classic history with 2 hits in an inning, first since Minnesota's Gary Gaetti in Game #1 of the '87 Series against St. Louis...Matt's offensive production was consistent with Arizona's record during the World Series, as he went 7-for-15 (.467) during the 4 wins in Bank One Ballpark, but was 0-for-11 in the 3 setbacks in the Bronx. 2000—Matt's year literally began on the wrong foot when a foul ball broke the second metatarsal in his right foot on March 28 in the final Tucson exhibition game of the spring...he had surgery performed 4 days later by Dr. Pete Mitchell, who inserted a metal plate into the affected area...it was the second time in Matt's career that he broke the second metatarsal in his right foot, missing 11 weeks of the 1995 season with San Francisco...he was on the disabled list from March 29-May 23...during a rehab stint with El Paso (AA), he suffered a right quadriceps strain that eventually led to another stint on the 15-day D.L., missing time from June 25-July 13...Matt finished the campaign strong by hitting safely in 14 of the final 15 games at a .421 clip (24-for-57) with 9 runs scored, 2 doubles, 5 homers and 18 RBI...he homered 5 times in the last 10 games of the year, beginning with an impressive visit to Pacific Bell Park on September 21-24, his first look at the Giants' new home due to the injuries, going 10-for-20 (.500) with 2 home runs and 9 RBI in a 5-game series...included was a grand slam off of Livan Hernandez in the series finale on the 24th, the 10th of his career...the slam also led to his second 5-RBI game of the year and 14th career game in which he drove in at least 5 runs. 1999—Had a monster year at the plate, finishing third in the National League MVP balloting, including a pair of first place votes...he was voted by the fans to start at third base in the All-Star Game in Boston, his fifth appearance at the Midsummer Classic, fourth time he'd been selected by the fans...he was an easy choice for the Arizona Chapter of the BBWAA, earning team Player-of-the-Year honors...he destroyed his previous single-season RBI best with 142, 20 more than his league leading total from 1990 with the Giants...he also set personal bests in average (.303), hits (190) and doubles (37)... Matt had 8 games of at least 4 RBI and a pair of multi-homer games, upping his career total to 30...he was the league Player-of-the-Month for April, batting .357 with 8 homers and 25 RBI...included was his first of 2 Player-of-the-Week honors, winning for April 19-25 by batting .550 (11-for-20) with 4 homers and 11 RBI (also June 7-13)...his first homer on April 6 in Dodger Stadium was the 300th of his career...he was the first of 4 D'Backs to crack the century mark in RBI, and when teammates Jay Bell, Luis Gonzalez and Steve Finley achieved the mark, Arizona was the seventh club in N.L. history with a quartet of 100 RBI...the next-to-last weekend of the regular season was memorable for Matty, who returned to "The Stick" for a final time, getting 2 hits in the first game of the series, the night Arizona clinched its Western Division crown, then after a well deserved day off, he was honored in pre-game ceremonies as a member of the all-time San Francisco Giant starting lineup...his last game ever at Candlestick featured a double and run scored in his final plate appearance...Williams recorded his 1,500th career hit on July 15 at Texas, and just 12 days later posted his 1,000th career RBI with a double in San Diego... defensively, Matt tied a full-season career low with 10 errors, matching his miscue total from 1995 with the Giants. 1999 DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Matt hit .375 in the 4 games against the Mets, going hitless in the series opener, then finishing on a 6-for-12 run...he had 3 hits, including a double and 3 runs scored in Arizona's lone win in the second game of the series, then added a pair of hits in Game #3 at Shea. 1998—Matt persevered through a pair of injuries to land his

A Record Fall Classic for "The Marine"

Matty's clutch hitting in the 2001 World Series enabled him to set or tie 4 different records during the series against the Yankees.

His clutch 3-run homer in Game #2 off of Andy Pettitte made Williams the first player in history to homer for 3 different teams in World Series history. Matt had gone deep in Game #3 of the 1989 Fall Classic in the "Battle of the Bay" against Oakland, then he homered in the fourth game of the 1997 Series against Craig Counsell's Florida Marlins.

Williams' blast also made him the seventh player in history to his World Series homers in both leagues joining Enos Slaughter, Bill Skowron, Roger Maris, Frank Robinson, Reggie Smith and Kirk Gibson. Matt was also only the fourth player ever to homer in 3 different decades, joining Joe DiMaggio (30's, 40's and 50's), Yogi Berra (40's, 50's and 60's) and Eddie Murray (70's, 80's and 90's)

Matt also made the record book with a pair of doubles in the third inning of the Game #6 blowout of the Yankees, the 18th player in Series history to collect 2 hits in an inning, first to record 2 doubles.

ninth consecutive 20-homer campaign...homered in 3 straight games on April 14-16 in St. Louis, beginning the streak with his sixth career grand slam (off of Kent Mercker)...he was hitting .309 on May 2, before suffering an injury to his left hand that hampered him for the remainder of the year... after returning to action, he hammered his second slam of the year and seventh career on May 20 at Florida off of Andy Larkin...the injury bug bit again in early July, fouling a ball off his left foot on July 3 in Houston, and though he continued to play for 2 weeks, he was eventually diagnosed with a stress fracture and placed on the D.L...he returned to action on August 3 in Chicago, and as luck would have it, he was hit on the right hand by a pitch in his first game back, forcing him to miss 4 more games. 1997—Only year as an American Leaguer, Matt was part of a 6-player deal on November 13, 1996, and wound up playing in his second World Series...earned his fourth Silver Slugger Award and was also rewarded defensively with his fourth Rawlings Gold Glove, first since 1994...led the Tribe with 105 RBI...hit 3 homers in a game for first time in major league career on April 25 at Milwaukee...followed the next night with 2 more home runs vs. the Brewers, tying the big league record with 5 in 2 games, the 20th time ever, third by an Indian (Joe Carter-1989 and Albert Belle-1995)...a 2-homer game on June 28 at New York also tied career bests with 4 hits and 6 RBI...had another 6-RBI game on August 27 at Anaheim, collecting all 6 in the fourth inning to equal a major league record (a 3-run homer and 3-run double off of Allen Watson)...second half included a career-high 24-game hitting streak (August 13-Sept. 8), the eighth longest in Tribe history...established a personal single-season best with 12 thefts, featuring his first career multi-steal game on June 8 at Boston, pilfering 3 bags...hit just 7 of his 32 homers in Jacobs Field, while his 25 road shots were 1 shy of Albert Belle's club record of 26. 1997 POST-SEASON: Hit safely in 14 of the 18 games he played in during the post-season, including a 7-game streak that began in the second game of the Division Series and ran into the LCS...homered in the second game of the Division Series off of losing pitcher Andy Pettitte...he had an outstanding Fall Classic, going 10-for-26 (.385) in the 7 games against the Marlins...hit safely in first 6 games of the series, going 10-for-24 (.417)...he homered in Game #4, driving in a pair in the 10-3 win...also walked 7 times during the series, including 3 in Game #7. 1996—Played in just 105 games due to strained right shoulder that eventually required surgery... became the first San Francisco Giant to start 8 straight opening days...collected his 1,000th major league hit on April 26 off of Florida's Kevin Brown...originally damaged shoulder on July 16 in Colorado attempting to break up a double play in a collision with Walt Weiss...moved across to first base the following inning, then started 12 of the next 15 games at first before going on the D.L. on August 5...had the shoulder scoped on August 17 by Dr. Warren King in San Francisco, with the procedure revealing slight fraying of the labrum, bursa scarring and rotator cuff inflammation...was voted the N.L. starting third baseman in the All-Star Game, but was unable to play due to a severely bruised left elbow after a hit by a pitch in San Diego on July 6. 1995—Was limited to 76 games after fracturing the second metatarsal bone in his right foot after a foul tip on June 3 vs. Philly...injury required surgery by Dr. King and Dr. Gordon Campbell, who inserted pins in the displaced fracture...missed 68 games with the injury, with Giants going 28-40 in his absence, dropping 8.0 games in the standings...at the time of the injury, he was leading the league in avg. (.381), homers (13), RBI (35) and hits (50)...was named the N.L. Player-of-the-Month for May, hitting .405 (45-for-111) with 12 homers and 31 RBI...was elected to start All-Star Game in Arlington, TX, but unable to play due to injury...hit fifth career grand slam, first since 1990, taking Cubs' Frank Castillo deep on Sept. 9 in Wrigley. 1994—Led the majors with a career-best 43 home runs in the strike-shortened season, setting an all-time franchise record (NY and SF) for homers by a third baseman...at the time of the strike he was on pace to tie Roger Maris' then single-season record of 61...voted the starting third baseman on the N.L. All-Star team, first time elected, second game...he finished second in the MVP balloting behind Jeff Bagwell, while earning a spot on The Sporting News, Associated Press and Baseball America Post-Season All-Star teams... earned third Rawlings Gold Glove, while also winning Silver Slugger honors...had more extra-base hits (62) than singles (57)...40 homers through July 31 set then N.L. record, surpassing previous mark of 36 by Johnny Bench, Willie Mays, Willie Stargell and Mike Schmidt...also set N.L. mark with 33 home runs prior to All-Star break...hit career HR #200 off of Cincy's Erik Hanson on August 1. 1993—Finished second in N.L. in total bases (325), second in extra-base hits (75), third in homers (38), third in slugging (.561), fifth in RBI (110) and sixth in runs (105), finishing sixth in MVP vote and earning the UPI Comeback Player-of-the-Year award...was also named the top third baseman in the majors by Associated Press...season mark of .294 was a 67-point increase over '92 season, the biggest gain in the N.L...teamed with Barry Bonds (46 HR) to produce SF's first 40/30 homer tandem since Bobby Bonds and Willie McCovey in 1969...earned second Rawlings Gold Glove. 1992—Hit a pair of homers on May 13 in Philly, then had the longest home run drought of career, 128 AB's from May 22-July 7. 1991—Ranked second in the N.L. in home runs (34), fourth in total bases (294) and 10th in RBI (98)...earned first Rawlings Gold Glove, joining Jim Davenport as only Giant 3B to win award...drove in runs in 10 consecutive games (August 27-Sept. 6)...hit career homer #100 off Darryl Kile on October 1. 1990—His 122 RBI were most ever by a Giant third baseman, breaking Mel Ott's mark of 116 in 1938. 1989—Opened the year as the Giants' third baseman and hit his second career grand slam on April 9 in Cincy off of Danny Jackson...set LCS 5-game record for RBI with 9, featuring a homer and 4 RBI in Game #4...homered off Dave Stewart in Game #3 of the World Series vs. Oakland. 1988—Had a pair of stints with the Giants, recalled from Phoenix for the first time on June 2 and started 10 games at short...hit 3 homers and drove in 9, including first career grand slam on June 4 off Houston's Nolan Ryan...had second career 2-homer game on Sept. 24 at L.A...while with Phoenix, tied a 25-year old PCL record with 4 homers on May 25 vs. Albuquerque. 1987—Assigned to Phoenix, but had contract purchased on April 11 and had first major league hit that day off Dodgers' Orel Hershiser...hit first big league homer in Candlestick Park on April 19 off Atlanta's Jeff Dedmon...was the starting shortstop when Giants set MLB record for most double plays in 3 games, (13) and 4 games (17), on April 24-27 in Atlanta...replaced Joel Youngblood (broken wrist) on the LCS roster vs. St. Louis but did not play. 1986—Signed with Giants in June as the third overall pick in the draft and reported to Everett (A)...knocked in 10 runs in 4 games before earning quick promotion to Clinton (A).

PERSONAL

Matthew Derrick (Matt) Williams...he has 2 daughters, Alysha (12/28/89) and Rachael (8/11/92), and a son, Jacob (1/2/91), and make their home in Scottsdale...Matt graduated in 1983 from Carson (NV) High School, then attended UNLV, hitting .351 with 25 homers and 89 RBI in 57 games as a junior, earning All-American honors as a shortstop from The Sporting News...Matt was inducted into the UNLV Athletic Hall of Fame prior to the '97 season...he was a member of the 1985 USA National Team that traveled the Orient... Matty is very active in community endeavors, contributing $750,000 to the Valley of the Sun United Way and Diamondbacks Charities, while also participating in a variety of functions in the region year-round...Matt and Nike donated $30,000 in tickets to San Francisco youth in 1995, and he donated $50,000 to Cleveland charities during his lone season there...his grandfather, Bert Griffith, was a first baseman/outfielder for the Brooklyn Dodgers and Washington Senators from 1922-24...Matt was originally drafted out of high school in 1983 in the 27th round by the New York Mets but elected to attend UNLV...he co-starred in an episode of the HBO presentation, Arli$$, in 2000.

HOW OBTAINED

Acquired from the Pittsburgh Pirates in exchange for minor league outfielder Paul Weichard and a player-to-be-named (Jason Boyd), February 26, 1999.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Tony enjoyed a consistent offensive season at the plate that featured a big jump in run production over his 2001 campaign, while also returning the bunt hit to his arsenal and displaying patience at the plate...he scored 90 runs, 24 more than 2001, and tied his career-high with 57 RBI, 27 more than the previous season...Womack also took advantage of his speed, dropping 15 bunt hits, a dozen more than his total in '01...his year began as the classic leadoff catalyst, going 6-for-10 in the opening series against San Diego, opening each contest with a hit...after a 1-for-22 drought through the first 6 road games, Tony turned things around by hitting at a .350 clip (14-for-40) over his next 10 games featuring 11 runs and 5 doubles...that stretch was highlighted by his 11th career 4-hit game on April 17 against St. Louis, including a pair of doubles...Womack opened May in the throes of another drought, 6-for-42, and for the second straight season was moved to the lower part of the batting order, where for the second straight year he flourished...he hit .378 (17-for-45) over his first 12 games in the bottom-third of the order with 9 runs and 10 RBI...he remained in the lower part of the order through July 1, then 2 days later was returned to his familiar leadoff spot, where he remained for all but 3 of his remaining starts...from July 3-28, the Diamondbacks won 9 of 11 home games and Tony had a huge impact in those contests, hitting .395 (17-for-43)... included was the 6-game homestand sweep of Colorado and San Diego, with Womack hitting .500 (12-for-24) with 7 runs and 6 RBI...the aforementioned homestand kicked off a season-ending stretch in which Tony batted .308 (73-for-237) in his last 58 games with 37 runs, repeating a second half trend that he began during the title season of 2001, posting a .327 mark after the All-Star break...his 2002 second half work featured a 12-game hitting streak from August 10-23, hitting .352 (19-for-54) then following a 2-game 0'fer that encompassed 11 at bats, he went on another tear hitting in 11 consecutive starts at a .378 clip (17-for-45)...from August 10-September 9, Womack hit safely in 24 of 26 starts at a .327 clip (36-for-110) with 15 runs scored and 18 driven in...among the significant individual moments in that stretch was an eighth inning double off the Cubs' Kerry Wood to snap a 2-2 tie and give Arizona a 3-2 victory on August 23...Tony also had a huge game on September 1 at home against San Francisco, as the D'Backs were in danger of being swept by the Giants and trailed by a 5-0 count entering the bottom of the first inning...Tony opened the home half of the first with his sixth career leadoff home run, then tacked on a 2-run shot in the fourth to pull Arizona to within a run at 6-5, where it remained until he delivered a bunt hit to load the bases in the ninth and set the stage for David Dellucci's game winning double...it was Tony's first career 2-homer game, both of which came off of Ryan Jensen...Womack closed out Arizona's 5-1 mid-September homestand with a 13th inning single off of former mate Nelson Figueroa to stake the Diamondbacks to a 6-5 victory...he recorded milestone hit #1,000 on September 26 against Colorado, reaching on a bunt hit to ignite a 3-run third inning of a 4-2 win over the Rockies...defensively he was charged with 20 errors at short, but had a 32-game errorless streak from July 16-August 30.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—The ultimate rollercoaster ride for Tony, both on and off the field, he closed the year with some of his best overall offensive production in a Diamondback uniform...on April 22 he received word that his father, Thomas C. Womack, had passed away...Tony left the club for a week, then emotionally struggled for the majority of the first half...he returned to the lineup on May 3, but combined with a slump that had begun before his father's passing, his season average dropped to .212 due to a 2-for-36 slide...Bob Brenly attempted to take some of the pressure off of Tony by moving him from leading off to the seventh spot in the order and he responded by going 11-for-33 (.333) in a 9-game stretch...he returned to the top of the order on May 18, but hit another slide that dropped his mark to .217 and he was moved to the eighth spot on June 13...Tony experienced another offensive surge after that switch, hitting .321 (18-for-56) in a 14-game stretch...included was an amazing afternoon on June 17 against the Tigers, honoring his dad's memory by going 3-for-4 with 2 doubles and a grand slam to lead Arizona to an 8-3 Father's Day victory...Tony suffered a right calf strain while running out a ground ball on July 21 in San Francisco and was forced to the disabled list until August 6...once healthy, he hit at a .323 clip (10-for-31) in his first 8 games back...he saved his best production for the stretch drive, hitting safely in 11 straight games from September 8-27 at a .434 clip (23-for-53), featuring 9 multi-hit games in that span...the hitting streak climaxed with a huge 3-game set at home against the Brewers going 8-for-15 (.533) with 7 runs and 6 RBI...he tied a career-high with 4 RBI on September 26 vs. Milwaukee then tied a team record by scoring 4 runs in the series finale the next night...he closed the campaign by hitting at a .388 clip (33-for-85) with 12 multi-hit games in his final 19...included was a game-opening home run on October 5 in Milwaukee, the first by a Diamondback since Tony did it on May 14, 2000, and the fifth of his career. 2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Tony will be long remembered around the Valley for a pair of ninth inning hits that enabled the Diamondbacks to achieve World Champion status...he snapped out of a 2-for-12 beginning to the Division Series by going 3-for-5 in game #5 vs. the Cardinals, capped by the series-winning hit under the toughest of circumstances...Womack came to the plate with runners at first and third and one out in the ninth inning of a 1-1 game and southpaw Steve Kline on the hill...a failed squeeze attempt on a pitch out of the strike zone represented the second out while pinch runner Danny Bautista advanced to second base on the play...Tony followed with a single into left-center field driving home Bautista and sending the D'Backs into their first NLCS...he hit .200 (4-for-20) against the Braves in the NLCS, with half of those hits and 3 runs coming in Arizona's 11-4 thrashing of Atlanta in Game #4 at Turner Field...Tony's first career World Series experience started slowly but he saved the best for last, finishing the Fall Classic by going 8-for-21 (.381) in the last 4 games...he singled to open Game #4 of the Series in Yankee Stadium, snapping a personal 0-for-15...he was the catalyst in Arizona's 15-2 triumph in Game #6 against the Yankees, opening the contest with a double to right off of Andy Pettitte and finishing the night with 3 hits including 2 runs and 2 RBI...he trumped that contest with his Game #7 performance, capped with a run scoring double off of

Mariano Rivera in the ninth inning that tied the game at 2-2 and put the eventual World Series winning run at third base. 2000—Tony topped the National League in triples with a club record 14, despite playing on an injured left knee that required season-ending surgery on September 26...he finished fourth in the league with 45 stolen bases, snapping a 3-year streak of winning the Lou Brock Award...he had 3 hits in Milwaukee on May 2 triggering a career-high 24-game hitting streak, tying for the longest in the N.L. in 2000 (Tony Eusebio)...Womack batted .360 (40-for-111) during his streak with 23 runs scored...he hit his fourth career game-opening home run on May 14 in San Diego...he recorded his 10th career 4-hit game on June 21 against the Padres, highlighted by a pair of triples, tying his own club record, the only Diamondback to triple twice in a game...he established a franchise record with 4 stolen bases vs. the Braves on August 3, tying his personal best...he made a late-season run in the stolen base race, matching a personal high for any month by stealing 17 bases in August while getting caught only once and featuring a club record streak of 15 consecutive successful thefts...Tony finished the year making good on 25 of his last 27 theft attempts...he had the first walk-off homer of his career, hitting a game-ending 2-run shot off of the Cards' Dave Veres on July 20...Womack finished off the first triple play in franchise history on May 31, taking Damian Miller's throw and tagging out Edgar Renteria of St. Louis at third base after Mark McGwire's fly ball was caught by Steve Finley and relayed to Miller, catching Placido Polanco as he tried to score. 1999—Acquired from Pittsburgh a week into spring training (February 26), Tony led the majors in stolen bases with 72 while making the position switch from second base to rightfield...he became the first player to lead the N.L. in thefts for at least 3 straight seasons since Vince Coleman (1985-90)...Womack suffered a fractured right ulna just a couple of days into the exhibition season, the result of a Jim Parque pitch, delaying his D'Back debut by a week...he had a career-high tying 4-hit game on May 7 in New York...he hit the first inside-the-park home run in franchise history on July 21 in Houston, a grand slam that staked the D'Backs to a 7-4 win...trailing 4-3 in the eighth inning and facing an 0-2 pitch from Billy Wagner, Tony delivered a sinking liner to left that rolled to the wall untouched...it was the first grand slam of his career, and the first inside-the-park grand slam in the majors since May 3, 1998 (Seattle's Dan Wilson)...the last N.L. inside-the-park slam was Tony Gwynn on June 26, 1997, in Dodger Stadium...on the bases, Tony went 63-for-76 (83%) when swiping second base, and was a perfect 9-for-9 when pilfering third. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS—Tony was the leadoff man in each of the 4 games vs. the Mets, playing in rightfield in the first and third games, and serving as the starting shortstop in games 2 & 4...he was 2-for-18 (.111) with a triple and 2 runs scored...the triple occurred in his second post-season at bat in Game #1 of the series. 1998—Tony's second full season with the Bucs, he led the N.L. in stolen bases for the second straight year with 58, the first Pirate since Omar Moreno (1978-79) to lead the league in thefts in consecutive seasons...he was the second toughest to double-up in the N.L., hitting into just 4 double plays, a 1 in 164 AB ratio...Tony set a major league record by going 918 at bats without grounding into a double play (May 28, 1997 to August 5, 1998), spanning 220 games and 980 plate appearances...he had 32 infield hits, including 11 bunt hits...he tied a career-high with 4 hits on July 5 at Wrigley Field...Tony had a then career-best 16-game hitting streak from July 3-22, the longest streak by a Buc in '98, hitting .507 (34-for-67)...he had the second inside-the-park homer of his career on July 13 vs. the Cubs...he swiped 20 consecutive bases from July 5-August 16...he was 50-for-56 (89%) when attempting to steal second base and 8-for-10 when trying to take third. 1997—His first full season in the majors, Tony led the N.L. in stolen bases (60)...he grounded into just 6 DP's, a 1 in 106.8 AB ratio, all 6 occurring before May 28...he led the Pirates with 51 multi-hit games, and had a team-high 28 infield hits, including 9 bunt hits...his 60 thefts were the most by a Pirate since Omar Moreno swiped 60 in 1982 (Moreno was also the last Pirate to lead the N.L. in steals with 77 in 1979)...Tony stole a club record 32 in a row between April 6 and July 4, breaking Max Carey's mark of 31 in 1922...he was named to the National League All-Star squad, just the fifth Pittsburgh second baseman to be named to the team, joining Carlos Garcia (1994), Phil Garner (1980-81), Bill Mazeroski (1958-59, 1962-64 & 1967) and Frank Gustine (1946)...hit his first major league homer on April 16 at San Diego off of Dario Veras...collected first career inside-the-park homer on May 26 vs. the Cubs...Tony hit his first career leadoff homer on July 27 at San Francisco, hitting Mark Gardner's first pitch of the first game of a doubleheader, then set a career-high with 4 hits in the second game...he hit his second game-opening homer on August 19 off of San Diego's Pete Smith in Three Rivers...he went 4-for-4 with a club record-tying 4 stolen bases on Sept. 6 at Cincinnati (Moreno was also the last Pirate to swipe 4 in a game on June 2, 1980)...he was 44-for-49 (90%) when attempting to steal second base, and 16-of-18 (89%) when swiping third...Tony swiped second and third in the same inning 6 times...he had off-season surgery to repair soft tissue injury in his left knee. 1996—He spent the full-season with Calgary (AAA), earning the vote as the Cannons' Most Popular Player...he played 79 games at shortstop, 40 at 2nd base and 16 in centerfield...Tony's contract was purchased by Pittsburgh on Sept. 4, and he made his first major league start in centerfield on Sept. 8 in Los Angeles...he made 3 starts in center and 2 at second with the Pirates, while also playing rightfield on Sept. 27 at Chicago. 1995—Opened the year on the Calgary roster, but was optioned to Carolina (AA) on June 3... despite abbreviated season with Carolina, he led the club with 31 thefts. 1994—Began the year with Buffalo (AAA), but was recalled by the Pirates on May 31, appearing in 2 games, then optioned back to Buffalo on June 8...was recalled again on July 20, appearing in 3 games, then was optioned on August 2, finishing the year with Buffalo...he led the club and ranked second in the American Association in stolen bases (41)... set a Buffalo franchise record for most at bats in a year without a home run (421), breaking Felix Fermin's mark in 1988 (352 at bats). 1993—Tony split the year between Salem (A) and Carolina, combining the 2 stops for a .301 mark with 41 RBI and 49 stolen bases in 132 games...his contract was purchased by the Bucs on Sept. 8 and he debuted 2 nights later as a pinch runner vs. Colorado...Tony made 5 starts at short for the Pirates and collected his first major league hit on Sept. 21 off the Mets' Dave Telgheder...picked up his first 2 major league stolen bases on Sept. 29 vs. Philly. 1992—Spent the entire year with Augusta (A), swiping 50 bases in 75 tries, ranking fourth in the league. 1991—His first professional season, Tony signed as a seventh round pick by the Pirates and spent the year with Welland (Rookie).

PERSONAL

Anthony Darrell (Tony) Womack...he and his wife, Janet, have a daughter, Jessica (9/12/95), and a son, Alsander (3/16/99), and split their winters between Greensboro, NC, and Phoenix...Tony graduated from Gretna (VA) High School, lettering in baseball and basketball...his high school #7 was retired, the first Gretna athlete to have a jersey retired...he earned a bachelor's degree in sports management from Guilford (NC) College...Tony was the co-recipient with Kevin Young of the 1997 Clemente Award, given annually since 1973 by the Pittsburgh chapter of the BBWAA...he is a huge proponent of literacy, and has instituted the extremely successful "Tony Womack's Cover-to-Cover Reading Competition," a program to encourage grade school kids to read and attend Diamondback games as his guest as a reward...he is also a member of the Greater Phoenix Black Chamber of Commerce, and has participated at the opening day of the Phoenix Open signing autographs for kids...he has also been a 4-time participant in the Pepsi All-Star Softball Game in Palm Springs.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a minor league free agent, January 24, 2003.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Manny signed with San Francisco less than 2 weeks before spring training, opened the season pitching for the Giants' Triple-A affiliate in Fresno and concluded his year by making his first career post-season appearances...he appeared in 45 games for Fresno and was called up by the Giants on July 27...he made his San Francisco debut on July 30 at Philly, allowing a run in an inning of work...on August 10 vs. Pittsburgh, Manny tossed 2.1 hitless frames and earned his first win in the majors since pitching for the Cubs against the Giants on April 29, 2001...he landed on the D.L. on August 15 with a right hip flexor strain...after 4 rehab appearances with Fresno, he returned to the Giants in September and pitched 10 times as San Francisco secured the wild card...Manny led PCL relievers with 24 saves at the time of his promotion and finished the year ranking third in rescues...he notched saves in 6 straight appearances from June 25-July 7 and over a longer span from June 18-July 23, yielded only 1 earned run over his final 14.2 innings before being called up to the majors...he was named to the PCL squad for the Triple-A All-Star Game, striking out the side in the ninth inning.

2002 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—Manny's first playoff appearance came in Game #2 of the Division Series vs. Atlanta, tossing 2.0 hitless frames at Turner Field with 2 strikeouts and a walk...he returned to the mound in Game #3, this time at Pac Bell Park and did not enjoy the same success, allowing 2 runs in 0.2 inning...with the bases loaded and one out in the sixth inning of a 1-1 game, he surrendered a single to Vinny Castilla, followed by a Keith Lockhart homer.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—He began the calendar year with the Florida Marlins but was traded to the Cubs on March 30 in exchange for southpaw pitcher Oswaldo Mairena...he broke camp with Chicago and appeared in 17 games, including one start on April 29 vs. San Francisco...he notched the win in the Cubs' 11-2 victory with 5.0 strong innings of 2-hit ball, striking out 4 and walking 1...the only run he allowed came on a solo homer by Barry Bonds...Aybar made 9 more relief appearances before he was outrighted to Iowa (AAA) on June 15...he made 8 appearances (7 starts) for Iowa before he was dealt to Tampa Bay on July 27 as part of a trade for Fred McGriff...Aybar's final start before the deal was a 6-hit shutout at Portland on July 26, including 8 strikeouts...he closed the year with 11 outings (3 starts) for Durham (AAA)...he was 1-2 with an 8.20 ERA in 3 starts for the Bulls but finished the year in the pen, going 0-1 with a 2.08 ERA in 8 games. 2000—He split the campaign between 3 organizations as he was involved in a pair of trades, yet finished 11th among NL relievers with 79.1 innings pitched...Manny made only a single appearance for Colorado, allowing 3 runs in 1.2 innings as he took the loss at Atlanta on April 5...two days later he was dealt to Cincinnati for lefthanded pitcher Gabe White...Aybar absorbed his second loss of the year, permitting an unearned run in only 0.1 inning at Los Angeles on May 22...he picked up a win during interleague play, pitching the final 2.0 innings in a 7-5 win at Cleveland...he made a total of 32 relief appearances for the Reds before landing on the disabled list from July 2-24 with a right groin strain suffered while running the bases on July 1 at Arizona...he made 3 rehab outings with Louisville (AAA) but before he could pitch again for Cincinnati, he was traded to Florida on July 26 for righthander Jorge Cordova...Manny made his debut for the Marlins that same night at Atlanta with 2.0 shutout frames...he yielded only 1 run over his first 9 outings with Florida from July 26-August 19, spanning 12.0 innings for a 0.75 ERA...his lone win for the Marlins came on August 6 at Cincinnati with a pair of scoreless frames. 1999—He established career highs in games (65), innings pitched (97.0) and strikeouts (74)...he worked 93.1 innings of relief, tied for fifth in the National League...made the longest relief appearance of his career on May 4 at Atlanta, tossing 6.0 shutout innings for the victory in relief of Kent Mercker who was ejected in the second inning...Manny recorded his first pro save May 21 at Los Angeles...his other rescues came on June 6 at Detroit and July 25 at Colorado...he made his only start of the year in an emergency role on May 9 vs. Pittsburgh, allowing 9 earned runs in 3.2 innings...after the season he was traded to Colorado in a 7-player deal on November 16. 1998—He spent the season traveling I-55 between St. Louis and Memphis as he had 4 stints with the Cardinals and 3 more with the Redbirds (AAA)...he opened the year in the Cardinals rotation, going 2-2 with an 8.46 ERA in 5 starts during April...he was optioned to Memphis on April 28 and recalled on May 16...he returned to AAA on July 10 and came back to St. Louis on August 21 to start the second half of a doubleheader at New York (NL)...Manny took the loss, allowing a run on 3 hits with 4 walks and 6 strikeouts over 5.0 innings...the game's lone run came on Edgardo Alfonzo's solo home run with one out in the first inning...Aybar was sent down again the next day and was recalled once again on September 8...his final win of the year came as an emergency starter for Kent Mercker on September 20 at Milwaukee...Aybar earned the victory as he scattered 4 hits and 4 walks over 5.1 innings of 3-run ball...that outing included his first Major League homer (off Scott Karl)...Manny went 10-0 with a 2.60 ERA in 13 starts for Memphis, with his 10-game win streak tied for the longest in baseball. 1997—Finished seventh in the American Association with a 3.48 ERA and fifth with 114 strikeouts for Louisville (AAA)...he was promoted to the big leagues on August 4 due to injuries to the St. Louis rotation and made his Major League debut that night in New York...he worked 5.1 innings allowing 4 runs on 7 hits with 2 walks and 4 K's in a rain-shortened 4-2 loss...absorbed the 2-1 loss as he tossed a career-high 8.0 innings in a duel against Montreal's Pedro Martinez on August 25...Manny picked up his first big league win on September 3 vs. Chicago White Sox, working 6.0 innings...he recorded his first 2 hits and collected his first RBI in that game. 1996—He finished sixth among Cardinal farmhands with a 3.09 overall ERA at Arkansas (AA) and Louisville...his 3.05 ERA at Arkansas was fifth in the Texas League. 1995—Manny ranked second in the Cardinals' farm system with 142 strikeouts and 161.0 innings pitched while his 3.13 ERA placed him seventh...led all South Atlantic League starters with a .199 opponents average. 1994—He finished third in the Arizona Summer League (R) with 79 strikeouts for Chandler. 1993—He made a full-time transition from infielder to pitcher with Estadio Quisqueya of the Dominican Summer League...he went 4-4 with a 3.15 ERA and 66 strikeouts over 71.1 innings. 1992—Manny played 55 games as an infielder, batting .203 with a home run and 11 RBI... he picked up the victory in the only game he pitched.

Infielder

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 210 B/T: R/R

Age: 28 (Turns 29 on December 7)

Born: December 7, 1974 in Cincinnati, OH

Residence: Chandler, AZ

M.L. Service: 49 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as minor league free agent, November 10, 2002.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Mike was with the big league club as a non-roster invitee during spring training, but was unable to crack the Rockies' 25-man roster...he spent his second straight season in Colorado Springs (AAA), appearing in 64 games for the Sky Sox... he began the year swinging a hot stick, batting .400 (8-for-20) over his first 6 games...after a 2-for-39 drought from April 10-22, Bell rebounded to hit safely in 23 of his next 25 games at a .384 clip (38-for-99)...the hot streak ran from April 25-July 28, but also encompassed a lengthy stay on the disabled list from May 13-July 21 due to an inflamed left hand...he battered lefthanded pitchers for a .354 average (29-for-82) while righties limited him to a .247 mark (39-for-158).

CHRIS DONNELS

18

Age: 36 (Turns 37 on April 21)

Born: April 21, 1977 in Los Angeles, CA

Residence: Coto de Caza, CA

M.L. Service: 6 years, 27 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a minor league free agent, January 14, 2002.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Chris made the club out of spring training as a non-roster invitee and provided manager Bob Brenly with a dependable lefthanded bat off the bench while also filling in at third base when the need arose...he was used sporadically, mainly as a pinch hitter going 10-for-43 in that role...one of his early pinch hits helped propel Arizona to the first-ever 4-game sweep of the Rockies in Coors Field, delivering a 2-run 10th inning triple on April 13 to give the D'Backs a 7-5 win in the third game of the series...he made his first start for Arizona the following afternoon and snapped a 3-3 tie with a sixth inning sacrifice fly as the Diamondbacks completed the sweep...C.D. had a modest 4-game hitting streak from May 10-14, starting with an eighth inning pinch double on May 10 in Philly to break up Vicente Padilla's bid for a no-hitter... Chris then started on May 13-15, going a combined 3-for-11 with a double and 3 RBI...he hit his first home run as a Diamondback on May 22 at home off the Giants' Felix Rodriguez...Donnels also homered on June 10 in Yankee Stadium off of lefthander Mike Stanton after entering the game defensively when Junior Spivey left with a disabling hamstring strain...C.D. hit his fifth career pinch homer, first with Arizona, on July 17 in Coors Field, taking lefthander Dennys Reyes deep...it was his first pinch homer since September 2, 2001, and 17th career roundtripper, fourth off of a southpaw...as July wound down, Chris began getting treatment on pain in his lower back, then on August 2 he was placed on the 15-day disabled list with a low back strain...he was activated on September 1 and returned to his role as a lefthanded bat off the bench..he wound up making 11 starts at third base.

2002 DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS—Chris played in each game of the Division Series, his first-ever post-season action...he pinch hit in each contest, going 0-for-2 with a walk.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Chris was the opening day starter at third base for Los Angeles, as Adrian Beltre opened the season on the disabled list...he made his professional pitching debut on May 5, coaxing Gary Matthews, Jr. to ground out to end the eighth inning in a 20-1 road loss at Chicago...his 0.1 inning on the mound was the first by a Dodger position player since Jeff Hamilton tossed 1.2 innings on June 3, 1989...he was placed on the 15-day disabled list on May 19 with a right lumbar sprain and was sent to Las Vegas (AAA) on May 31 to rehab...he returned to the Dodgers on June 4, serving in a pinch-hitting role...he went 4-for-16 (.250) in 17 pinch-hitting appearances, including his first pinch-hit homer of the year on July 16...he was outrighted to Las Vegas on July 19...Chris returned to Los Angeles on September 1...he hit his second pinch-hit home run of the season on September 2. 2000—Played first base, second base, third base and leftfield in 27 games for Los Angeles...began the season in Albuquerque (AAA), where he put up MVP-caliber numbers...led all minor league hitters with a .660 slugging pct...homered in 6 straight contests from June 6-12, falling one game short of the Albuquerque and P.C.L. records (7, Claude Westmoreland, 1977) for consecutive games with a home run...he batted .372 with 11 homers and 33 RBI for the Dukes in June, earning the Dodger organization's Player-of-the-Month honors... Donnels participated in the Triple-A All- Star Game on July 12 at Rochester...was promoted to Los Angeles on July 19 but went on the 15-day disabled list on August 2 with a sore right shoulder...returned to Albuquerque on August 12 for a rehab assignment prior to his reinstatement with the big league club on September 1...picked up 6 hits in 15 pinch-hit appearances (.400) with a home run, a 2-run shot off Colorado's Mike DeJean at Coors Field on September 9...the home run was also the Dodgers' ninth pinch-hit blast of the season, setting a franchise record. 1996-99—Chris spent 4 seasons playing with Kintetsu in 1996, then 3 years with the Orix Blue Waves. 1995—Opened the season with Houston but was claimed off waivers by Boston on June 10...had two brief 4-game stints at Houston's AA-affiliate in Jackson and with Boston's AAA-affiliate at Pawtucket. 1994—Spent the year with the Astros and finished second on the team with 30 pinch-hit appearances, picking up 8 hits, third on the team...blasted a pinch-hit homer on April 9 against the Mets...started 15 games (11 at third base, 3 at second base, 1 at first base), batting .278 in those contests. 1993—Served mainly in a pinch-hitting role with the Astros during the first half and late into the second half, tying for second on the team with 7 hits and 6 RBI... started 16 of the last 20 games at first base after Jeff Bagwell broke his left hand on September 12 ...hit his first major league home run off of Philadelphia's Ben Rivera in his first plate appearance upon entering the game as Bagwell's replacement. 1992—Spent a majority of the season with Tidewater (AAA)...helped out the Mets in two separate visits, from April 16-May 7 and August 1 through the end of the season, starting 20 games at third base and 9 at second base... picked up 3 hits at Chicago on September 14, tying a career-high...the Florida Marlins made him their 15th pick in the third round of the Expansion Draft on November 17...he was waived on December 18 and picked up by Houston. 1991—Had two brief stops with New York from May 6-20 and June 5-11 before being recalled on August 20 to close out the season...his major league debut on May 7 against the Dodgers included a lot of "firsts" as he got his first start at third base and picked up his first hit, an RBI single off of Tim Belcher, in his first plate appearance. 1990—A third baseman for Jackson (AA), he led all Texas League third basemen in putouts, assists and double plays. 1989—Assigned to St. Lucie in the Florida State League (A), he was named the Most Valuable Player after hitting .313 with 17 homers and a league-leading 78 RBI. 1988—Hit a combined .227 (75-for-331) with St. Lucie and Columbia. 1987—Began the season with a short 26-game stay in rookie ball with Kingsport, before earning a promotion to Columbia (A).

PERSONAL

Chris Barton Donnels...he and his wife, Michele, and son, Tanner Michael (8/3/93), and daughter Taryn Sally (8/24/96), live in Coto de Caza, CA...Chris graduated in 1989 from South Torrance (CA) High School where he earned All-League honors three times and co-MVP honors as a senior...while attending college at nearby Loyola Marymount (CA) he won an MVP award, was a 3-time West Coast Athletic Conference first team all-star and batted .389, .350 and .365...the Lions' career record holder for homers (45) and RBI (225), he was an integral part of the 1986 squad that went 50-15, captured the conference title and went 1-2 in the College World Series in Omaha, NE...he was a two-time American Baseball Coaches Association All-American selection (2nd team in 1986; 3rd team in 1987) and still holds the single season records for home runs (21) and RBI (91).

Jackson "Grandfathered" Into #42

Mike Jackson is one of only three active players who are still permitted to wear the #42, six years after the number was officially retired by Major League Baseball to honor Jackie Robinson. The Yankee's Mariano Rivera and the Mets' Mo Vaughn are the only other two players who were in a major league camp when spring training began in preparation for the 2003 season. Four other players are also "grandfathered" into the #42 should they play again, including Butch Huskey, Scott Karl, Jose Lima and Lenny Webster.

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 205 B/T: R/R

Age: 30 (Turns 31 on July 11)

Born: July 11, 1972 in Edwardsville, IL

Residence: Edwardsville, IL

M.L. Service: 2 years, 48 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the New York Mets in exchange for a player-to-be-named (minor league pitcher P.J. Bevis) on August 16, 2002.

2002 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Mark spent the first 4 months of the season with Colorado before a whirlwind August finally landed him in Arizona...two days before he was dealt to the New York Mets, he participated in the Hall-of-Fame Game vs. the Chicago White Sox, going 5-for-6 with 2 doubles, a home run and 4 RBI to earn MVP honors...he was traded with righthanded pitcher John Thomson to the New York Mets on July 31 in exchange for outfielders Jay Payton and Robert Stratton and pitcher Mark Corey...Little played in 3 games for the Mets, including a pinch hit appearance and a start in the August 3 twinbill against Arizona, before being optioned to Norfolk (AAA) where he played in a pair of games...he was acquired by the Diamondbacks on August 16 in exchange for minor league pitcher P.J. Bevis and assigned to Tucson (AAA)...Mark hit safely in his first 10 appearances for the Sidewinders...he was 4-for-4 with a run and a double on August 23 at home against Las Vegas...he was called up to the big league club on September 1 and made his D'Back debut the following night, starting in centerfield against Los Angeles...he picked up his first hit as a Diamondback on September 3 in his second straight start...after the injury to Luis Gonzalez and final weekend leg injury to Quinton McCracken, Mark started all 4 games against his old mates from Colorado, going 5-for-14 in the series sweep that propelled Arizona to the division crown and home field for the first round of the post-season...he also reached base on 5 other occasions in the series, getting hit by 4 pitches and walking once...he tied a team record with a pair of plunkings on September 26, the 12th time a D'Back has been hit twice in the same contest...the following night Mark was hit by a Denny Neagle pitch with the bases loaded in the first inning.

2002 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS—A late-season addition during the regular season, Mark was on the post-season roster and appeared in two games of the National League Division Series against St. Louis...in Game #1, he pinch-hit for David Dellucci in the eighth inning, grounding into an inning-ending fielder's choice to Cardinals' shortstop Edgar Renteria and entering the game in the ninth inning as a defensive replacement in leftfield...he got the starting nod in leftfield for Game #2, going 0-for-3 with a pair of strikeouts and a groundout.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Mark became the 11th player in Colorado history to make the Opening Day roster as a non-roster invitee...his playing time was limited to 51 games, including 13 starts, as he missed 92 games while on the disabled list with a pair of injuries...in his 9 starts in centerfield, he hit .441 (15-for-34) with a homer and 15 RBI...he was retired in a pinch-hit appearance on April 2 vs. St. Louis, his first major league action since September 27, 1998, as a member of the Cards...he drilled his first hit with Colorado, a pinch-hit single, on April 8 vs. San Diego...Mark picked up his first major league RBI on April 12 at St. Louis as his 2-run, pinch-hit single proved to be the difference in a Colorado 6-4, come-from-behind victory...he was 1-for-4 with a run and a stolen base in his first start on April 13 vs. Arizona...his first career homer, a 419-foot blast off Chris Peters in the second frame, highlighted a 4-for-5 night vs. Montreal on May 11, as he finished with 4 runs scored, 4 RBI, a double, 2 homers and 11 total bases, which tied him for third highest single-game total at year's end for Colorado...he matched a club mark, accomplished 11 other times, with 2 outfield assists on May 26 at San Francisco...his .366 (15-for-41) average for May was third on the team...he landed on the 15-day disabled list on June 1 (retroactive to May 29) with bone irritation/stress fracture in his left foot and was transferred to the 60-day disabled list on July 25...his second stint on the shelf ultimately ended his season as he was placed on the disabled list on August 26 as a result of turf toe on the big toe of his right foot and moved to the 60-day disabled list on September 12. 2000—He played for the Pacific Coast League champions at Memphis (AAA)...he established a career-high with 64 RBI and matched his career-best with 15 homers...he ranked among St. Louis farmhands in doubles (tied fourth), triples (tied fifth), steals (sixth), hits (eighth), runs (tied eighth) and home runs (ninth)...Mark was disabled from May 18-June 14 with left wrist tendinitis...he hit for the cycle on June 23 at Colorado Springs...he hit safely in 21 of 23 games from July 13-August 5...he compiled an 8-game RBI streak from August 11-19, driving in 16 runs...he homered in 4 consecutive contests from August 15-18. 1999—He participated in major league spring training as a non-roster invitee but spent the season with Memphis (AAA) in the Pacific Coast League...he was on the disabled list from April 8-June 9 following right elbow surgery and June 19-29 with a strained left quadriceps. 1998—Mark began the season with Oklahoma (AAA) but was traded in August and ended his season on St. Louis' big league roster...he had a 10-game hitting streak from April 7-17, hitting .404 (17-for-42) with 6 doubles, 2 triples, 3 homers and 13 RBI...he was traded to St. Louis on August 9 to complete a July 31 trade and reported to Memphis (AAA)...he started in right field in his major league debut on September 12 at Houston, going 0-for-2 with a walk and a strikeout against Randy Johnson...on August 16 at Busch Stadium, he singled off of Pittsburgh's Javier Martinez for his first major league hit...he swiped his first stolen base on August 19 at Milwaukee. 1997—Mark led Oklahoma City (AAA) in runs, finished third in steals, tied for third in triples and ranked fourth in homers...among American Association outfielders, his 280 putouts and 297 total chances paced the league while his 9 assists tied for fourth...hit 3 homers at Nashville on June 19...after batting .225 in his first 86 games, he hit .341 (44-for-129) in his final 35 contests...he competed for Zulia in the Venezuelan Winter League. 1996—Playing for Tulsa (AA), he nabbed the organizational Player-of-the-Month award for April by hitting .360 (32-for-89) with 5 homers and 16 RBI...he homered in the Texas League All-Star Game on June 9...he compiled an 11-game hitting streak from June 16-30...after suffering a partial tear of his right rotator cuff on July 21, he made 5 appearances as the designated hitter before succumbing to the disabled list on August 2...he rehabilitated his injury in the Florida State League. 1995—Mark paced Charlotte (A) in runs, doubles, triples, walks and steals...in the Florida State League, he ranked third in triples and fifth in extra-base hits (48). 1994—He was selected by the Rangers' in the eighth-round of the June draft and assigned to Hudson Valley (A)...he led the team in on-base percentage, ranked second in batting average and hits and hit safely in 11 straight games from August 1-11.

PERSONAL

Mark Travis Little...he and his wife, Charity, have a daughter, Ryan (2/22/02), and reside in Edwardsville, IL...Mark graduated in 1990 from Edwardsville (IL) High School and capped off his senior season with a trip to the Illinois Class-AA baseball championships...he went to Lake Land College in Mattoon, IL before attending Memphis State University, where he was a 2nd team All-American in 1994.

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 215 B/T: R/R

Age: 36 (Turns 37 on May 1)

Born: May 1, 1966 in San Luis Potosi, MX

Residence: Chandler, AZ

M.L. Service: 10 years, 72 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a minor league free agent, December 13, 2002.

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

Armando spent the majority of the year rehabilitating from a winter-time operation to repair a herniated disc in his neck...he finally returned to major league duty on September 21, with 1.1 innings of scoreless relief at Colorado...it was his first action since June 9, 2001, at Kansas City... Reynoso also appeared in the season finale on September 29, allowing a couple of runs in 0.1 of an inning...he made 6 rehab starts during the summer for Tucson (AAA), posting a 1-2 record with a 5.20 ERA, allowing 29 hits and 16 runs in 27.2 IP, with 9 walks and 16 strikeouts...the win was on August 1 at Portland, pitching 6.0 scoreless innings, walking 1 and fanning 4.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001—Armando was Arizona's fourth starter as the season began, but he was sidelined twice with a right shoulder strain that ended his year after only 9 starts...Armando opened the season 1-4 through 6 starts before missing a scheduled assignment on May 9 with shoulder soreness...Reynoso landed on the disabled list, retroactive to May 5, in hopes of resting and rehabilitating the shoulder back to health...he managed to make just 3 more starts, dropping 2 of those to fall to 1-6 on the year, before succumbing to the injured shoulder again causing him to return to the D.L. on June 10 for the remainder of the year...it was later determined that the injury was the result of a disc injury in his neck that was sur-gically repaired by Dr. Volker Sonntag during the off-season...his lone win was on April 17 in St. Louis, allowing 3 runs over 6.0 innings of a 17-4 decision...Armando was the starting pitcher in Arizona's home opener on April 6, but suffered a 12-9 loss allowing 7 earned runs in 4.1 innings...the long ball was Reynoso's nemesis, surrendering 13 home runs in just 46.2 innings. 2000—Armando's second consecutive double-digit victory season (11)...he held the opposition to 3 earned runs or less in 21 of his 30 starts...he had mirror-image wins in Pennsylvania allowing a run on 4 hits over 7.0 innings in a 6-1 victory over the Pirates on August 11, followed by a 5-1 win at The Vet on August 16, giving up a run on 6 hits in a 7.1-inning stint...he finished the year on a high note, snapping a career-high 5-game losing streak with a complete game victory in Denver on Sept. 28, just hours after learning about the birth of his third child, Jesus...Armando arrived at Coors Field three hours before game time and learned that his wife Yolanda had entered a Phoenix hospital in labor...though tempted to return to the Valley for the child's birth, Jesus arrived a couple of hours before the scheduled first pitch and Armando chose to stay and make his final start of the year...he went the distance for the second time in 2000, allowing 3 runs on 7 hits in a 12-3 victory...his other complete game was a 6-1 win at home over the Rangers on July 14, a 6-hitter in which he walked none and fanned 5, his first complete game since June 5, 1997. 1999—His first year with Arizona, he won 10 games for the division champs...Armando suffered an 11-0 loss in Houston on April 27, but it was his last defeat for nearly 3 1/2 months, posting a then club record 7-game winning streak that spanned 17 starts...the streak was halted with a 4-2 loss at home vs. Milwaukee on August 14, before posting 2 more wins, giving him a 9-1 mark from May 2-August 28. 1998 —A member of the Mets, his season opened on the D.L. as he continued to recover from a pair of arthroscopic procedures that were performed on August 18, 1997...the first was to remove bone chips from his right elbow, while the other was to debride the rotator cuff and labrum, both of which were partially torn...the surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL, the same surgeon who worked on Reynoso's elbow in 1994... after 7 minor league rehab starts, he finally took a big league mound on July 24 at Wrigley Field, his first start in the majors in a year and 8 days, and answered any questions regarding his health, winning a 5-0 decision with 8.0 innings of 5-hit ball...that win ignited a 5-game winning streak in which he posted a 1.54 ERA (6 earned runs in 35.0 innings)...he wound up going 7-1 through his first 8 starts. 1997—Armando made 16 starts for the Mets, his first year with the New Yorkers after a 4-year stint with Colorado...he was 6-3 before tendinitis struck his right shoulder during a July 16 start at Shea vs. the Cubs, his final appearance of the season...he underwent a pair of arthroscopic procedures by Dr. Andrews (August 28)...while healthy, Reynoso tossed the first shutout of his career, a 6-0 decision over the Marlins on June 5 at Shea, a 5-hitter, his first complete game since May 3, 1994...he no-hit his former mates from Colorado for 6.2 innings on May 19 in New York, before a Jeff Reed homer spoiled the no-no bid...Reynoso hit his third (and most recent) career homer, a solo shot off of Houston's Mike Hampton on May 13. 1996—His final year with the Rockies, as he was dealt to the Mets on November 27 in exchange for reliever Jerry Dipoto... Armando tied a career best with 30 starts, while helping his cause with 8 pickoffs, featuring a trio of games with 2 picks. 1995—Didn't get to work in the majors until June 18 relief appearance vs. the Braves, missing the first 2 1/2 months while recuperating from elbow surgery the previous May...made first start on June 22, winning a 3-2 decision at San Diego, working 5.0 innings, his first win in the majors in 57 weeks (May 15, 1994)...still picked off 7 runners during abbreviated campaign. 1994—Was Colorado's Opening Day starter, working 6.0 innings in a no decision at home vs. the Phillies...he made just 9 starts until undergoing surgery on May 26, when Dr. James Andrews transplanted a ligament from Armando's left wrist into his right elbow, strengthening the injured area...Reynoso also had his right knee arthroscopically repaired at that time by Dr. Andrews...despite the shortened year, Armando recorded 5 pickoffs. 1993—Though he did not make the 25-man club out of spring training, he ended up Colorado's Pitcher-of-the-Year, falling one victory short of the then-expansion record of 13, finishing 12-11... was recalled from Colorado Springs (AAA) on April 30, making his Rockies' debut that night in Florida, going the distance in a 6-2 win over the Marlins...he twice fanned a career-best 8 men, each coming in complete games (May 10 and June 26 vs. the Giants)...11 of his 12 wins came after Colorado losses...he was 7-3 in 11 starts at Mile High Stadium...his 8 pickoffs were the most by an N.L. righthander...first major league hit was a home run in Mile High off of SF's Trevor Wilson (May 10)...his second home run was a 3-run shot at Shea off the Mets' Bobby J. Jones on August 28, leading to a 7-5 win. 1992—Spent the majority of the year with Richmond (AAA), finishing second in the International League in ERA, while tying for second in complete games...was promoted to Atlanta in September, earning his lone career big league save on October 3 vs. San Diego...was unprotected in the off-season and selected in the third round of the expansion draft by Colorado. 1991—Tied for the I.L. lead in shutouts, while earning a spot in the AAA All-Star Game...had his contract purchased by Atlanta on August 8 and won major league debut on August 11 with 6.0 shutout innings vs. Houston, allowing 2 hits...followed with a win in his second start, August 16 at San Diego, allowing 2 runs over 7.0 innings...had 6 pickoffs over a 4-start stretch (August 16-31), 5 of which came in the first inning. 1990—Went 20-3 with a 2.60 ERA in 27 starts for Saltillo in the Mexican League, featuring 12 complete games and 5 shutouts... included was a 7-inning no hitter vs. Monterrey...Reynoso signed with Atlanta on August 15 and made 4 appearances for Richmond.

PERSONAL

Martin Armando Reynoso Gutierrez...he and his wife, Yolanda, and daughter, Alejandra (11/3/89), and sons, J. Armando (3/16/93), Jesus (9/28/00) and Juan Diego (9/29/02) make their home in Chandler, AZ...Armando graduated in 1984 from Escuela Secundavia Mista del Estado in his native Jalisco, Mexico...after participating in semi-pro ball in Mexico, he signed as a free agent with Saltillo in 1988, where he was 44-23 with 29 complete games until signing with the Braves in 1990.

HALL OF FAME ROAD TRIP
Baseball As America*, the Hall of Fame and Museum's first-ever national exhibit tour, continues with its second year in 2003. The exhibit opened in New York City in 2002 and will visit 10 world-class museums across the country through 2005. The national tour is sponsored by Ernst & Young. In 2003, the tour will visit Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Petersburg, Fla. Additional tour stops include Washington, D.C., St. Louis, Houston and two cities yet to be announced.

Just like the Hall of Fame experience in Cooperstown, Baseball As America is a national celebration of America's romance with baseball. It represents the richness of baseball as the American pastime and celebrates enduring American values – freedom, patriotism, opportunity and ingenuity. Visit the tour Web site, baseballasamerica.org, for complete details.

A LOOK AHEAD TO 2004
Ballots for the 2004 Hall of Fame/BBWAA election will be distributed in early December with results from the voting scheduled to be announced in early January 2004. The Veterans Committee will not vote again until 2005. A partial list of first-year candidates for election in 2004 include: Joe Carter, Dennis Eckersley, Paul Molitor and Dennis Martinez.

1999 Division Series vs. New York Mets

New York Mets (3) vs. Arizona Diamondbacks (1)
October 5-9, 1999

The Diamondbacks not only had their first taste of post-season play in 1999, they also had the fastest taste in major league expansion history, winning the Western Division by 14 games to qualify for the second season in their second season, a year faster than the previous best. Colorado held the previous quickest qualification at three years, though they did so in 1995 as a Wild Card entry and in a 144-game season. Arizona's division title came six years faster than any other expansion club, beating the New York Mets and Kansas City Royals who each won a title in their eighth campaign.

By virtue of their division title, the Diamondbacks had a home-field advantage, taking on the New York Mets, who qualified as the Wild Card club with a one-game playoff victory in Cincinnati the day before. The Mets seemed to still be riding the momentum from their visit to Cincinnati, immediately taking the home-field edge away from Arizona with an 8-4 win in the series opener. The D'Backs rallied to even the series at a game apiece behind the arm of Todd Stottlemyre and bat of Steve Finley, cruising to a 7-1 win in game #2. Stottlemyre, continuing his amazing return from a tear in his right labrum, worked 6.2 innings of 4-hit ball, allowing just a run, while Finley went 2-for-3 with a double and 5 RBI. Matt Williams also chipped in with 3 hits and 3 runs scored.

The Diamondbacks weren't as fortunate upon arriving in New York, losing both games before getting a shot at returning to Bank One Ballpark for a possible fifth game. The Mets dominated game #3, posting a 9-2 win in their return to Shea, scoring 3 times off of starter Omar Daal in a 4-inning stint, then putting the game away with a 6-run sixth inning

Arizona's season came to an abrupt and heartbreaking end in a Saturday matinee at Shea, as Todd Pratt ended the affair and the Diamondbacks season with a 10th inning homer. The Diamondbacks had taken a 3-2 lead in the eighth, when Jay Bell doubled home a pair of runs, missing a 3-run homer by a matter of inches. Pratt, subbing for the injured Mike Piazza, had been hitless in 7 at bats in the series prior to sending the Mets to the next level with his shot just out of Finley's reach in centerfield.

2001 Division Series vs. St. Louis Cardinals

Arizona Diamondbacks (3) vs. St. Louis Cardinals (2)
October 9-13, 2001

Pitching and clutch hitting were the themes in the 5-game Division Series against St. Louis, ultimately won by Arizona when Tony Womack singled in the tie-breaking run in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game #5 to sent the Diamondbacks into their first League Championship Series. Curt Schilling and Matt Morris set the tone for the tightly-contested series in the opening game at Bank One Ballpark, with Schilling prevailing by a 1-0 count, tossing a 3-hit complete game. The Redbirds rebounded to even the series at a game apiece with a 4-1 win over Randy Johnson, the last loss experienced by the Big Unit in the 2001 post-season.

With the series squared at 1-1, the scene shifted to Busch Stadium, where Craig Counsell struck a huge blow in Game #3 with a seventh inning, 3-run homer off of southpaw Mike Matthews to stake Arizona to a 5-3 victory and 2-1 lead in the series. The Cards sent the set back to Phoenix for a deciding game when they recorded a 4-1 win in St. Louis after a 3-hour, 36-minute rain delay prior to Game #4.

Pitching was once again the focal point in the series finale, as Schilling and Morris continued their stingy ways, each surrendering solo homers to account for all of the scoring entering the ninth inning. The Diamondbacks prevailed in the bottom of the ninth, but not before some tense moments. With the potential winning run at third base and one-out in the inning, Womack was unable to make contact on a suicide squeeze attempt, leaving Midre Cummings as a sitting-duck between third and home. On the play, pinch runner Danny Bautista moved up to second base, then scored the series-winning run when Womack poked a Steve Kline pitch to left-center to set off the first of three post-season celebrations for the Diamondbacks.

2001 Championship Series vs. Atlanta Braves

Arizona Diamondbacks (4) vs. Atlanta Braves (1)

October 16-21, 2001

Coming off the nerve-racking series against St. Louis, Arizona made relatively quick work of the ??-time division champion Braves, taking 4 of the 5 games in the N.L.C.S. to advance to its first-ever World Series appearance. Randy Johnson, who had dominated the regular season throughout his career, was in the crosshairs of critics for incurring a post-season losing streak that had been extended to 7 games with a Division Series setback to St. Louis. The Big Unit quickly silenced the critics with his performance in the League Championship Series and his eventual World Series work, finishing the 2001 post-season with 5 consecutive wins.

The winning streak began in Game #1 against the Braves, as Johnson outdueled Greg Maddux by tossing a complete game 3-hitter for a 2-0 win in Bank One Ballpark, fanning 11 in the process. Atlanta rebounded the following day for an 8-1 win to send the series to Turner Field tied at a game apiece. The Diamondbacks, who swept a 3-game visit to Atlanta during the regular season, continued their mastery in the south by taking all 3 games of the N.L.C.S. in Atlanta to earn a trip to the Fall Classic and eventual meeting with the vaunted New York Yankees.

Curt Schilling made his only start in the N.L.C.S. in Game #3, going the distance on a 4-hitter with 12 strikeouts while posting a 5-1 victory. Steve Finley contributed 2 hits including a double and 3 RBI, and eventual Series MVP Craig Counsell added 3 hits and scored a run. The D'Backs took a commanding 3-1 lead in the series with an 11-4 triumph in Game #4, taking advantage of 4 Atlanta errors to score 6 unearned runs. Counsell was again the focal point for the offense, collecting 3 hits with 2 doubles and 4 RBI, while Luis Gonzalez hit a 3-run homer to ice the affair in the ninth. Arizona's ticket to the World Series was punched the following night when Johnson returned to the hill and recorded a 3-2 victory over Tom Glavine. The crushing blow was a pinch-hit 2-run homer by Erubiel Durazo off of Glavine in the fifth inning to stake the Diamondbacks to a lead. Johnson and reliever Byung-Hyun Kim combined to finish off the Braves, with Kim coaxing a series ending fly ball to center by Julio Franco.

2001 World Series vs. New York Yankees

Arizona Diamondbacks (4) vs. New York Yankees (3)
October 27-November 4, 2001

The Diamondbacks and Yankees provided a still-healing country with one of the most exciting World Series on record, with Arizona prevailing with a furious ninth inning rally in Game #7 to capture the title in just its fourth year, the fastest ever by an expansion team.

The home team won all 7 games with the D'Backs making their first-ever trip to Yankee Stadium in possession of a 2-0 series lead. The Fall Classic began with Curt Schilling and Randy Johnson teaming up for back-to-back dominating performances, as Schilling gave up just 3 hits and a run over 7.0 innings for a 9-1 win, followed the next night with a complete game 3-hitter by the Big Unit as he fanned 11 in a 4-0 triumph over the 3-time defending world champs. As was the case in the NLCS against Atlanta, the Diamondbacks took advantage of the opponents miscues to score 5 unearned runs in the opener. World Series first-timers Luis Gonzalez and Mark Grace displayed their veteran status with Gonzalez hammering a 2-run homer to chase starter Mike Mussina, while Grace, the long-time Cub, delivered a key 2-run double. Johnson made a pair of clutch hits stand up in Game #2, with Danny Bautista establishing himself with a run scoring double off of Andy Pettitte in the second inning, then Matt Williams providing the crushing blow with a seventh inning 3-run homer off the Yankee southpaw.

The scene then shifted to New York, where emotions still ran high after the tragic events of September 11. Prior to working out for the first time in Yankee Stadium, the Diamondbacks paid homage to those who perished in the attack and met with hundreds of the rescue workers and police and fire officials when the team buses traveled to Ground Zero. The focus returned to the field the following night when the latest date for a World Series game on record, October 30, began with President George W. Bush throwing out the ceremonial first pitch. It was the first time a President participated in a World Series pre-game since Dwight Eisenhower made the ceremonial toss prior to Game #1 of the 1956 series in Ebbets Field.

The Diamondbacks entered Yankee Stadium only 2 wins shy of capturing the crown, but due to the strangest of circumstances, they would return to Phoenix later in the week still seeking 2 wins. The Yankees won a trio of 1-run decisions, posting a 2-1 victory in Game #3, then recording a pair of heart-wrenching decisions the following 2 nights.

Schilling, who had downplayed the "mystique" and "aura" of Yankee Stadium, gave up just a run on 3 hits in 7.0 innings while working on 3 days rest for the first time in his career. What happened after his departure in Game #4 and the following night in Game #5 actually lent credence to the hallowed ground in the Bronx. Leading 3-1 with 2 outs and a man aboard in the bottom of the ninth inning in Game #4, Byung-Hyun Kim was tagged for a game-tying home run by Tino Martinez to send the Halloween night crowd into a frenzy at Yankee Stadium. Derek Jeter then ended the contest in the 10th inning with an opposite field fly ball into the short porch in right field off of Kim, just minutes after the clock struck midnight to end the first-ever November World Series game.

With the series tied a 2-2, the historic home of the Yankees added to its "mystique" as the New Yorkers rallied from yet another 2-run deficit with 2 outs in the bottom of the ninth inning to complete a 3-game sweep in the Bronx. Trailing by a 2-0 count entering the bottom of the ninth inning, Scott Brosius hit a game-tying home run off of Kim to send the affair to extra innings. New York then survived a bases loaded situation in the 11th before Alfonso Soriano plated the tie breaking run in the bottom of the 12th to stake the Yanks to a 3-2 lead as the series returned to the Valley. It marked the first time in World Series history that a team won 2 games in the same Series when trailing by at least 2 runs entering the ninth inning. Lost in all of the excitement was a terrific pitching performance by Miguel Batista, who fired 7.2 shutout innings and left with a 2-0 lead over Yankee ace Mike Mussina.

The Diamondbacks proved worthy to the task ahead, and took away any doubt about their resiliency with a 15-2 thumping of the Yankees in Bank One Ballpark to send the series to a deciding seventh game. Danny Bautista had 3 hits and knocked in 5 runs to lead Arizona's 22-hit attack. The D'Backs jumped all over New York for a 15-0 lead after just 4 innings, highlighted by an 8-run outburst in the third. Randy Johnson tossed 7.0 strong innings to earn the win, yet still managed to keep something in the tank for a possible Game #7 appearance.

The latest World Series ever played culminated with one of the more thrilling final games in history, as Curt Schilling and Roger Clemens dueled, the first meeting of 20-game winners in a Game #7 since John Tudor and Bret Saberhagen squared off in 1985, when the Royals defeated the Cardinals. The D'Backs took a 1-0 lead on a Bautista double in the sixth, but the Yankees answered in the seventh on a Tino Martinez RBI single. New York's Alfonso Soriano broke the tie by hitting an ankle-high pitch from Schilling into the left field seats to open the eighth inning. Schilling was removed in favor of Miguel Batista, who recorded the second out of the inning, then the Big Unit was summoned from the bullpen, less than 24 hours after his 7-inning performance in Game #6. Johnson retired all 4 men he faced in 1.1 innings which set the stage for Arizona's bottom of the ninth rally.

With Mariano Rivera on the hill and the possessor of 23 consecutive post-season saves, Mark Grace opened the bottom of the ninth with a single to center. The inning unraveled in Arizona's favor when Rivera threw wildly into centerfield on a potential force out at second base. Following a fielder's choice on a failed sacrifice attempt, Tony Womack doubled down the line in right to tie the game and leave runners at second and third with 1 out. Craig Counsell was hit by a pitch to load the bases, then Luis Gonzalez capped the remarkable rally with a bloop single over the drawn-in infield to send Bank One Ballpark and the state of Arizona into a frenzy. Johnson was credited with the win, giving him a 3-0 mark in the series, as he and Schilling was named the World Series Co-MVP's. The duo combined to go 4-0 in 6 appearances, allowing only 6 earned runs in 38.2 innings.

2001 World Series Notebook

- The Diamondbacks entered the World Series with Craig Counsell as the only active player in possession of a World Championship ring while the Yankees were 3-time defending champs.

- Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling were the second co-MVP's in World Series history joining the Los Angeles Dodger trio of Ron Cey, Pedro Guerrero and Steve Yeager...it marked the 20th and 21st time a starting pitcher won the award, first since Florida's Livan Hernandez in 1997.

- It was the third time in World Series history that the home team won every game, joining the Twins against St. Louis in 1987, and Twins against Atlanta in 1991.

- The Diamondbacks outscored New York 31-5 in the 4 wins, and were outscored 9-6 in the trio of 1-run losses in Bronx.

- The Diamondbacks were the fastest expansion team to get to the Fall Classic a year quicker than Florida in '97...other expansion clubs to make the World Series and the year they qualified - Mets (eighth year), Royals (12th year), Seattle Pilots/Milwaukee Brewers (14th year), San Diego (16th year), Toronto (16th year)... remaining expansion clubs that have not appeared in the Series include the Angels, Senators/Rangers, Colt 45's/Astros, Expos, Mariners, Rockies and Devil Rays.

- Arizona pitching held the Yankees to .183 team average (42-for-229), the lowest average ever in a 7 or 8 game World Series... previous low was .185 by St. Louis vs. Kansas City in 1985.

- Arizona's overall staff ERA of 1.94 was lowest in World Series play since Cincinnati's 1.70 mark in a 4-game sweep of Oakland in 1990 and lowest in a 7-game set since Kansas City had a 1.89 mark in '85 vs. the Cardinals.

- The Diamondbacks were the first team in 80 years to win the first 2 games they ever played in the World Series, the fourth team overall joining the 1914 Boston Braves, 1919 Cincinnati Reds and 1921 New York Yankees.

- The walk-off finish to game #7 was the 11th overall "sudden death" ending to a World Series, the third in a row that involved a 7-game series...the last was the '97 finish when Craig Counsell scored the tie-breaking run in the 10th inning as Florida defeated Cleveland...the other was Minnesota's 10th inning win over the Braves in the Metrodome in 1991.

- The Diamondbacks are the 19th team to win the series after trailing 3 games to 2...it was also the 11th time a team won games 6 & 7 at home.

- It was the first time the Yankees were involved in a game #7 of any post-season series since the 1964 World Series went to the limit against St. Louis.

- The Diamondbacks snapped New York's post-season series streak at 11, handing the Bronx Bombers their first series loss since the 5-game Division Series with Cleveland in 1997.

- When Curt Schilling and Roger Clemens hooked up in the final game, it marked the sixth time 20-game winners squared off in the seventh game, first since John Tudor (St. Louis) and Bret Saberhagen (Kansas City) in 1985.

- The 15-2 win in game #6 alone was worth the following tidbits:
  ...The Diamondbacks recorded a World Series record 22 hits.
  ...The 15 runs tied with Toronto for third highest in a World Series game.
  ...The 13-run margin of victory tied for second best ever matching the Yankees' 16-3 win over Pittsburgh in game #2 of '60 World Series, and was the second highest ever, just behind an 18-4 Yankee win in game #2 of the 1936 win over the Giants.
  ...The 15-0 lead after 5 innings tied the biggest lead by any team at any time in World Series game...the Yankees had a 16-1 lead in game #2 of the '60 series against Pittsburgh.
  ...Arizona's 8-run third inning marked the best inning since game 6 of 1968 series when Detroit scored 10 times in third inning of 13-1 win over St. Louis.

October 1-5, 2002

Destiny - a word heard often during the Diamondbacks run to the 2001 World Series Championship, was also a theme during the 2002 National League Division Series, a rematch with the St. Louis Cardinals. Only this time, destiny set up shop in the opposing dugout.

The Diamondbacks, sweeping a season-ending four game series against Colorado, clinched the NL West title, and homefield advantage against the Central Champion Cardinals, who had gone through an emotionally difficult season, losing broadcaster Jack Buck and pitcher Darryl Kile during the summer. The Cardinals also had momentum, having swept Arizona in a three-game set in St. Louis the week prior to the Division Series matchup.

In that same series in St. Louis, the Diamondbacks lost outfielder Luis Gonzalez to a separated left shoulder, adding to a list of Diamondbacks injuries that included fellow outfielder Danny Bautista, infielder Craig Counsell and pitcher Brian Anderson.

The Cardinals made an early and loud statement in Game #1 at Bank One Ballpark, posting a 12-2 win. St. Louis broke a 2-2 tie in the fourth by scoring 3 times, then later tied a Division Series record with 6 runs in the seventh.

Game #2 saw a return to form for Diamondbacks pitching, with Curt Schilling locked in a duel with the Cardinals' Chuck Finley. Arizona tied the game at 1-1 in the eighth inning on Quinton McCracken's RBI double, only to have the Cardinals score the game-winning run in the ninth for a 2-1 triumph, and a 2-0 series lead.

The series shifted to St. Louis for Game Three, but a change in venue did not bring a change in Arizona's fortunes. St. Louis completed the series sweep at Busch Stadium with a 6-3 victory. The Cardinals broke a 2-2 tie in the fourth by scoring twice.

Arizona Diamondbacks Chronology

June 28: A bill submitted by Rep. Chris Herstam, R-Phoenix, allowing Maricopa County to assess a quarter-cent sales tax for a baseball-only stadium, passes the Arizona Legislature. The tax can be levied only after a franchise is granted.

1993

July 25: Major League Baseball talks of adding new teams. Phoenix Suns owner Jerry Colangelo gets assurance from owners that Phoenix and Tampa are the top prospects. He begins a drive for investors and a stadium.

November 10: At a jam-packed news conference at America West Arena, Colangelo announces he will put together an ownership group that will apply for a Major League Baseball expansion franchise.

February 17: Maricopa County Supervisors vote 3-1 for the stadium tax, with one abstention. Baseball owners have until April 1, 1995, to award Phoenix a new franchise, or the stadium financing deal is off.

June 17: Ellerbe Becket beats out two other finalists working on the design of the new downtown stadium. A site just south of Jefferson Street and west of Seventh Street is selected for the retractable-roof, natural-grass showplace.

November 2: At a meeting in Chicago, the expansion committee hears presentations from Colangelo and other would-be ownership groups from Orlando and Tampa-St. Petersburg and two from northern Virginia.

March 9: At a meeting in Palm Beach, Fla., baseball's owners name the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays the 13th and 14th expansion teams in Major League Baseball history. The franchises are priced at a record $130 million apiece. Richard H. Dozer is named president and Joe Garagiola Jr. becomes vice president and general manager.

March 11: Season ticket deposits are first taken at a celebration party on the plaza in front of America West Arena. Despite a soaking rain, more than 2,000 people show up to take part in the team's first official fan celebration.

April 5: The Diamondbacks finalize a deal with Bank One that will result in the new downtown stadium carrying the name of Bank One Ballpark.

Aug. 17: The Diamondbacks unveil their first farm team, the Lethbridge Mounties, soon to be renamed the Black Diamonds, of Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada in the Pioneer League.

November 15: Still two seasons away from Opening Day, the Diamondbacks have a manager. Buck Showalter, who was the American League's Manager of the Year in 1994 with the New York Yankees, leading them to a wild-card playoff spot in 1995, signs a 7-year contract that will put him in the dugout when the expansion team takes the field in 1998.

November 16: Ceremonies, including a game between two Little League teams, celebrate the groundbreaking for the Bank One Ballpark.

May 17: America West Airlines rolls out a Boeing 757 painted in a Diamondbacks' theme, with a huge baseball logo on the tail. Immediately, fans, staff, sponsors and investors climb on board and head to Denver, where they see the Colorado Rockies defeat the St. Louis Cardinals, 12-11.

May 31: The Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox jointly announce that they will share a new spring-training facility in Tucson, beginning in 1998.

June 4: Lefthanded pitcher Nick Bierbrodt of Long Beach, Calif., becomes the team's first-ever choice in the amateur draft.

June 24: More than 6,000 fans turn out at Scottsdale Stadium to see the Diamondbacks' Arizona League team make its debut. Outfielder Juan Garcia homers to lead off the first inning and then adds another, but Oakland's rookie-league team wins, 15-7.

October 11: The Diamondbacks announce the signing of Olympic first baseman Travis Lee, the second overall choice in the June draft. He and three other players had been declared free agents by Major League Baseball. Three weeks later, another of the four, righthanded pitcher John Patterson, signs with Arizona.

January 16: Meeting in Scottsdale, baseball's owners vote to place Arizona in the National League's West Division.

March 3: Pitchers and catchers report to Yuma, Ariz., for the Diamondbacks' first minor league spring training camp. Players will be assigned to High Desert in the California League or South Bend in the Midwest League.

September 12: Affirming that they are a statewide team, the Diamondbacks sign a player-development contract that makes Tucson the franchise's Class AAA affiliate in the Pacific Coast League.

November 17: Jay Bell becomes the Diamondbacks' first major leaguer when he leaves the Kansas City Royals to sign a five-year contract with Arizona.

November 18: Arizona and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays each select 35 players in the MLB Expansion Draft held at Phoenix Civic Plaza. The Diamondbacks' first choice is lefthanded pitcher Brian Anderson of the Cleveland Indians.

December 1: Third baseman Matt Williams comes to the Diamondbacks from Cleveland in a headline-making trade that sends third baseman Travis Fryman and lefthanded pitcher Tom Martin to the Indians. Williams signs a five-year contract extension which commits him to Arizona through 2003.

January 10: Single game tickets go on sale for Opening Day on March 31 against the Colorado Rockies. All tickets are gone before lunch.

February 13: Pitchers and catchers take the field at Kino Veterans Memorial Sportspark in Tucson to inaugurate the Diamondbacks' first major-league spring training.

February 27: In the Diamondbacks' first Cactus League exhibition game, Edwin Diaz hits a ninth inning sacrifice fly that scores Kelly Stinnett with the winning run in a 6-5 victory over the Chicago White Sox at Tucson Electric Park.

March 20: Jerry Colangelo and county officials break bottles of sparkling water over the rotunda railings to highlight the official dedication ceremony at Bank One Ballpark.

March 29: The final exhibition game of the season serves as a trial run for Bank One Ballpark as 49,198 fans see the White Sox defeat Arizona, 3-0.

March 31: With 50,179 fans overflowing Bank One Ballpark, the Diamondbacks celebrate the first regular season game in franchise history. Colorado wins, 9-2. Travis Lee collects Arizona's first hit (a first inning single), first homer, first run and first RBI.

April 4: Arizona celebrates its first victory, a 3-2 win over San Francisco that evens Andy Benes' record at 1-1.

July 30: Omar Daal pitches the franchise's first complete game shutout, scattering four hits in a 4-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs at Bank One Ballpark.

September 4: A 3-1 win over Houston gives the Diamondbacks their seventh consecutive victory, equalling the longest winning streak by any expansion team in history.

September 13: Andy Benes comes within two outs of pitching a no-hitter in a 5-0 win at Cincinnati, highlighting a September in which he was 3-0 with an 0.47 ERA. Benes ends the season with a string of 27.1 scoreless innings.

December 1: Lefthanded pitcher Randy Johnson decides to pitch in his hometown and agrees to a 4-year contract.

February 25: President Clinton visits the Diamondbacks at their spring training facilities in Tucson, visiting with players and staff members before accepting a team uniform jersey with his name and the numeral 1 on the back.

April 11: Luis Gonzalez cracks a seventh-inning homer off Atlanta's Greg Maddux, beginning a hitting streak that will last through May 18. Gonzalez is the 37th player in major-league history to reach the 30-game plateau.

April 19: Jay Bell is named National League Player-of-the-Week, becoming the first Diamondback ever to win the award. Before the season ends, he will be joined by Matt Williams (twice), Randy Johnson (twice) and Steve Finley. Williams was also NL Player-of-the-Month for April and Johnson was Pitcher-of-the-Month for July.

May 12: Matt Williams 2-run, game-winning homer caps a 5-run ninth as Arizona comes from behind for an 8-6 win over Montreal. It is the third straight night that the Diamondbacks beat the Expos with a homer in their final at bat. Jay Bell was the hero on May 10, with Luis Gonzalez doing the honors on May 11.

June 25: Bank One Ballpark plays host to its first no-hitter as St. Louis' Jose Jimenez outduels the Diamondbacks' Randy Johnson, 1-0. The game's only run scores on Thomas Howard's single in the top of the ninth inning.

July 9: Arizona's bullpen is solidified with the addition of closer Matt Mantei, acquired from Florida for pitcher Vladimir Nuñez, pitcher Brad Penny and a player to be named later.

July 11: Jay Bell's grand slam in the sixth inning wins $1 million for fan Gylene Hoyle of Chandler, who predicted the player and the inning before the game as part of Shamrock Farms Grand Slam Sundae. As an afterthought, the Diamondbacks beat Oakland, 7-4.

July 13: Third baseman Matt Williams and second baseman Jay Bell become the first Diamondbacks to start an All-Star Game. Pitcher Randy Johnson and left fielder Luis Gonzalez also make appearances. No team had more representatives.

July 21: Tony Womack legs out a ninth-inning, inside-the-park grand slam off relief ace Billy Wagner to give the Diamondbacks a 7-4 victory in Houston. It is the first inside-the-park homer in franchise history.

September 24: Matt Williams scoops up Doug Mirabelli's ground ball for the final out of an 11-3 victory in San Francisco that clinches the National League West championship for the Diamondbacks. Arizona becomes the first expansion team to reach the playoffs or win a division title in its second year of competition.

September 26: An estimated 8,000 fans jam the Bank One Ballpark Plaza to greet the Diamondbacks on their return home from their sweep of the Giants.

October 3: The Diamondbacks notch win No. 100 of the year in the season finale. Bernard Gilkey and Rod Barajas hit back-to-back home runs in a 10-3 win over San Diego at Bank One Ballpark.

October 5: In the team's first post-season appearance, Arizona drops an 8-4 decision to the New York Mets. Edgardo Alfonzo's ninth-inning grand slam, his second homer of the day, makes the difference.

October 6: Todd Stottlemyre scatters 4 hits over 6.2 innings to help the Diamondbacks notch their first post-season win, 7-1, Steve Finley's two-run single in the third puts Arizona ahead to stay.

October 9: Arizona's season ends when Todd Pratt homers in the bottom of the 10th inning to give New York a 4-3 victory in Game Four of the NL Division Series.

November 11: The Diamondbacks earn their first Gold Glove Award when Steve Finley is honored as one of the National League's top fielding outfielders.

November 16: After leading the major leagues in strikeouts, innings pitched and complete games, Randy Johnson gives the Arizona franchise its first major individual trophy by winning his second Cy Young Award.

April 11: Randy Johnson is selected co-National League Player-of-the-Week, sharing the honors with Montreal's Vladimir Guerrero. Johnson was also selected N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month for April. Later in the season, Luis Gonzalez would be selected Player-of-the-Week for the week of June 5-11, and again for the week of July 24-30.

May 31: Arizona turns its first-ever triple play, in the fifth inning of a home game with St. Louis. With the bases loaded and nobody out, the Cardinals' Mark McGwire hit a fly ball to center, which was caught by Steve Finley, who then fired to home plate, where catcher Damian Miller tagged Placido Polanco, then threw to third base, where shortstop Tony Womack tagged out Edgar Renteria.

July 5: Luis Gonzalez becomes the first Diamondback to hit for the cycle, accomplishing the feat in Houston with a ninth-inning home run in a 12-9 Diamondbacks win.

July 11: Pitcher Randy Johnson and outfielder Steve Finley represent the Diamondbacks at the All-Star Game in Atlanta. Johnson is the starting pitcher for the National League, while Finley enters the game as a defensive replacement as singles home a run in his only at-bat.

July 20: The first-ever weekday matinee at Bank One Ballpark ends in dramatic fashion, as Tony Womack's two-run homer in the ninth gives Arizona a 3-2 win over St. Louis, in front of 40,937 fans.

July 24: The Diamondbacks defeat the Cleveland Indians, 12-7, in the Hall of Fame Game at Doubleday Field in Cooperstown. Minor league outfielder Luis Terrero was named the game MVP collecting 2 hits with a double and 2 runs.

July 26: Pitcher Curt Schilling is acquired from Philadelphia for pitchers Omar Daal, Nelson Figueroa and Vicente Padilla, and first baseman/outfielder Travis Lee.

July 28: In his debut game with the Diamondbacks, Curt Schilling scatters six hits over eight innings, leading the Diamondbacks to a 4-1 win at Florida.

September 10: Randy Johnson becomes the 12th pitcher in major league history to record 3,000 career strikeouts with a fourth inning strikeout of Florida's Mike Lowell at Pro Player Stadium. Earlier in the game, Johnson records his 300th strikeout of the season, joining Nolan Ryan as the only pitchers to collect 300 strikeouts in three consecutive seasons.

October 2: Buck Showalter is relieved of his duties as manager of the Diamondbacks.

November 7: Outfielder Steve Finley wins his second consecutive Gold Glove award, his fourth award overall.

November 14: Randy Johnson wins his second consecutive National League Cy Young Award, becoming the eighth pitcher in history to win the award three times.

December 8: Free agent first baseman Mark Grace signs a two-year contract with the Diamondbacks. Grace comes to Arizona after nearly 13 full seasons with the Chicago Cubs.

April 3: The Bob Brenly managerial era opens with the Diamondbacks defeating Los Angeles, 3-2.

April 26: Luis Gonzalez sets a National League record and ties Ken Griffey Jr.'s Major League record for home runs in the month of April by hitting his 12th and 13th round-trippers in a 13-6 victory over Atlanta...Gonzalez also earns National League Player of the Month honors.

May 8: Randy Johnson ties a Major League record with 20 strikeouts over 9.0 innings. Johnson did not get the decision, as the Diamondbacks scored three runs in the bottom of the 11th for a 4-3 win over Cincinnati...the performance later earns him co-National League Player-of-the-Week honors for the week of May 7-13.

May 29: Erubiel Durazo's game-winning RBI double in the top of the 18th gives Arizona a 1-0 win at San Francisco in the longest game, by innings, in franchise history. The marathon comes one day after the two teams played a 12-inning contest, with the Diamondbacks also coming out victorious.

June 4: Curt Schilling is named National League Pitcher-of-the-Month for May, after going 5-1, with a 2.35 ERA.

June 8: Luis Gonzalez ties a club record with three home runs in a game, one to each field, as the Diamondbacks defeat the Royals in Kansas City, 11-4.

June 17: Tony Womack's grand slam in the fourth inning sparked an 8-3 Father's Day home win over Detroit. It was an emotional moment for Womack, as his father had passed away two months earlier.

July 2: Luis Gonzalez earns his second National League Player-of-the-Month award of the season, after hitting .417 in June, with 12 home runs and 35 runs batted in.

July 19: Randy Johnson sets a major league record for strikeouts by a relief pitcher, fanning 16 San Diego Padres in a 3-0 Diamondbacks win. The relief appearance was necessitated when a transformer blew at San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium the night before, suspending play in the bottom of the second inning. Johnson had been scheduled to pitch the next day, and took over for starter Curt Schilling when the game resumed.

August 12: Junior Spivey becomes the fifth rookie in the last 50 years to record a pair of 5-hit games, as Arizona completes a sweep of the Braves in Atlanta, winning 9-1. Spivey's first 5-hit game came June 21 in Colorado.

August 19: Arizona completes a sweep of the Chicago Cubs to extend its winning streak to a club record-tying 9 games.

August 23: Randy Johnson becomes the first pitcher in major league history to record four consecutive 300-plus strikeout seasons, recording his 300th strikeout of the 2001 season in Pittsburgh.

August 30: Steve Finley becomes the first position player to pitch in a Diamondback game, tossing a scoreless ninth inning against San Francisco.

September 5: Curt Schilling becomes the first 20-game winner in club history, defeating the Giants, 7-2, in San Francisco. Schilling is also the season's first 20-game winner.

September 8: Matt Williams' 2-run homer in the bottom of the tenth gives Arizona an 8-6 win over San Diego. Steve Finley ties the game in the ninth with his second home run of the game, ending Padre reliever Trevor Hoffman's streak of 27 consecutive save conversions.

September 11: Tragedy strikes America, as terrorist attacks in New York, Washington D.C. and Pennsylvania lead to a postponement of baseball for one week. The games are rescheduled for the week following the original end of the regular season, which pushes the World Series into November for the first time.

September 27: Randy Johnson becomes a 20-game winner for the second time in his career, as he defeats Milwaukee at Bank One Ballpark. During the same game, Johnson ties a major league record by recording his 23rd double-digit strikeout game of the season, the third consecutive season he has recorded 23 double-digit strikeout games. Johnson also joins Schilling as the first 20-game winning teammates since 1999.

September 28: Luis Gonzalez' 54th home run of the season comes in the bottom of the 11th inning, giving Arizona a crucial 4-3 win over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

October 5: Behind the complete-game, 3-hitter by Albie Lopez, the Diamondbacks clinch a tie for their second National League West Division crown in 3 years, blanking the Brewers in Milwaukee, 5-0. Later that night, San Francisco loses at home to the Dodgers, giving the Diamondbacks the title outright.

October 9: The Diamondbacks open the National League Division Series with a 1-0 victory over St. Louis, behind the complete-game, 3-hitter by Curt Schilling.

October 12: Craig Counsell's 3-run homer in the seventh gives the Diamondbacks a dramatic 5-3 victory over the Cardinals in St. Louis, and a 2-1 lead in the best-of-five Division Series. St. Louis attempts to rally in the ninth, but falls short as pinch-hitter Mark McGwire grounds into a game-ending double play.

October 14: Tony Womack's ninth-inning single scores Danny Bautista with the game-winner as the Diamondbacks post their first-ever playoff series win, defeating the Cardinals 2-1 of the Division Series. Curt Schilling tosses his second complete game of the series, limiting the Cardinals to six hits, while striking out nine.

October 16: The Diamondbacks are victorious in their first-ever National League Championship Series game, defeating Atlanta in Phoenix, 2-0. Randy Johnson ends a personal 7-game post-season losing streak with a complete-game 3-hitter.

October 19: Arizona takes a 2-1 lead in the best-of-seven series with a 5-1 win in Atlanta. Curt Schilling throws a complete-game 4-hitter, and singled and scored as part of a 3-run fifth inning.

October 20: Arizona explodes for 12 hits en route to an 11-4 victory over the Braves, to take a 3-1 series lead. The Diamondbacks capitalize on 4 Atlanta errors.

October 21: The Diamondbacks become the fastest team to reach the World Series, winning the National League pennant in their fourth year of existence by defeating the Braves 3-2 in Turner Field, winning the NLCS. Craig Counsell is named series Most Valuable Player, after hitting .381 in the series. Randy Johnson wins his second game of the series, with Byung-Hyun Kim recording his second save with 2.0 scoreless innings of relief. Erubiel Durazo's 2-run, pinch-hit homer in the fifth inning is the game-winner.

October 27: The World Series comes to Arizona, as the Diamondbacks open the Fall Classic with a 9-1 victory over the American League Champion New York Yankees. Curt Schilling limits New York to 3 hits over 7.0 innings, while Craig Counsell and Luis Gonzalez each homered.

October 28: Randy Johnson tosses a 3-hit shutout and strikes out 11 in his first World Series appearance, as the Diamondbacks defeat the Yankees 4-0 to take a 2-0 series lead. Matt Williams' 3-run homer in the seventh inning breaks open a pitcher's duel between Johnson and Andy Pettitte.

November 3: After dropping 3 heartbreaking games in New York, the Diamondbacks respond with a 15-2 blowout of the Yankees, sending the World Series to a decisive seventh game. Arizona does all its scoring in the first 4 innings, including a series record 8 runs in the third. Randy Johnson goes 7.0 innings to pick up his second victory of the series, while Danny Bautista goes 3-for-4 with 5 RBI.

November 4: The Diamondbacks complete one of the most dramatic World Series in history, and become the fastest team to win a World Championship, by defeating the Yankees 3-2 in the seventh and deciding game. Luis Gonzalez' looping single just beyond shortstop Derek Jeter's grasp scores Jay Bell with the series-winning run. Randy Johnson comes on in relief to pick up his record-tying third Series victory. Johnson and fellow pitcher Curt Schilling are named World Series co-Most Valuable Players.

November 7: Over 400,000 people line the streets of Downtown Phoenix for a parade honoring the World Champion Diamondbacks. Following the parade, over 50,000 people pack Bank One Ballpark for a celebration rally.

November 13: Randy Johnson wins his third consecutive National League Cy Young Award, and the fourth of his career. Johnson collects 30 of the 32 first-place votes, with the other 2 going to teammate Curt Schilling, who finished second.

December 13: The Diamondbacks are the guests of President George W. Bush at the White House. Earlier in the day, the team is treated to a tour of the United States Capitol by Arizona Senator John McCain. President Bush congratulates the Diamondbacks and thanks them for giving the country something to take its mind off the tragedy of the September 11th terrorist attacks.

April 26: Randy Johnson wins his 6th straight start to open the year, eventually winning Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for April.

May 17: Erubiel Durazo, in only his second game back from a spring training wrist injury, breaks the club RBI record and ties the home run mark...he hits three 2-run home runs and adds a 3-run double in the eighth inning.

May 29: Curt Schilling improves to 10-1 on the year with the 7-3 win at San Francisco...he adds to the offense, going 2-for-4 with a run scored...his performance on the mound secures Pitcher-of-the-Month honors, going 5-0 with a 2.80 ERA during the month of May.

July 9: Bob Brenly guides the National League squad at the All-Star Game in Milwaukee, WI...joining him at Miller Park are his entire coaching staff, with Robin Yount serving as the A.L.'s honorary captain...Curt Schilling got the starting nod and pitched 2.0 shutout innings...Damian Miller tied an All-Star Game record with 2 doubles...Junior Spivey, Luis Gonzalez and Byung-Hyun Kim also played, while Randy Johnson was selected by bypassed the game.

July 13: Byung-Hyun Kim ties the club record with his third save in as many days...he also notches his first Player-of-the-Week honors for July 11-14.

July 27: Curt Schilling limits the Padres to a lone run over 8.0 innings to complete his perfect month 5-0 in as many starts...he wins the Pitcher-of-the-Month award, posting a 1.64 ERA during July.

August 10: Randy Johnson gets the victory and, in the process, strikes out 14 to move past Tom Seaver and into fifth place on the all-time strikeout list...this performance helps Johnson win Player-of-the-Week honors for August 5-11.

August 16: Curt Schilling picks up his 20th win as he strikes out 12 Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field.

September 2: Arizona suffers its worst defeat ever, falling 19-1 at the hands of the Los Angeles Dodgers...some of the dark cloud over the contest is lifted as Mark Grace becomes the second position player in team history to take the mound...he surrenders David Ross' first career home run in the ninth.

September 4: Randy Johnson tosses a 3-hitter as Arizona wins 7-1 over Los Angeles...Johnson moves past Bert Blyleven and into fourth place on the all-time strikeout list...it was also Johnson's 20th win, making he and Curt Schilling only the sixth pair of teammates since 1950 to each win 20 games in back-to-back seasons.

September 9: Randy Johnson sets a M.L.B. record with his fifth straight 300+ strikeout season...he also tied Nolan Ryan for most 300+ strikeout seasons in a career (6) and picked up his 21st win, tying his career high.

September 15: Curt Schilling does not get the victory in Arizona's 6-5 win in 13 innings, but he strikes out 8 Milwaukee Brewers to join Randy Johnson as the only teammates in M.L.B. history to each record 300+ strikeouts in the same year.

September 18: Greg Colbrunn becomes the second player in team history to hit for the cycle as he turns the trick in Arizona's 10-3 win at San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium...he goes 5-for-6 and becomes the first player since George Brett (16 innings) on May 18, 1979, to hit 2 home runs and complete a cycle in the same game.

September 26: Randy Johnson establishes a personal best and a club record as he picks up his 24th victory, tops in the majors...he finishes the year 24-5 and captured his first career "Triple Crown" of pitching with a 2.32 ERA and 334 strikeouts...he is only the second National League pitcher pitcher since 1973 to lead in all 3 categories, joining the New York Mets' Doc Gooden in 1985...additionally Johnson also earns Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for September (5-0, 0.66 ERA).

November 5: Randy Johnson is the unanimous selection for his fourth consecutive Cy Young Award...he is only the second hurler ever to win 4 in a row matching Greg Maddux (1992-95)...it was Johnson's fifth career Cy Young Award, leaving him only one shy of Roger Clemens' record.

Scouting and Player Development

Scouting

Kendall Carter
National Supervisor

Kendall Carter is in his seventh season as the National Supervisor after a year as the Diamondbacks' Western Region Supervisor. He joined the Diamondbacks after five years as a scout for the Seattle Mariners. Signed as the Texas Rangers' 14th round selection in the 1984 June draft, Carter spent two years in Class A with Ranger farm teams in the Midwest and Florida State Leagues.

An Arizona native, Carter was the Class AAA player-of-the-year at Scottsdale Coronado High in 1980. He stayed in the area and pitched for Arizona State University from 1981-84, compiling a 47-9 record. He still holds the school mark for most pitching appearances (102) and shares the school record for most victories (47) with Craig Swan. Carter set an NCAA freshman record for victories (19-1) for ASU's 1981 national championship team, and earned All-America honors for his effort. The 19 wins also tied the school record for victories in a single season. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame last fall. In February, he was inducted into the City of Scottsdale Sports Hall of Fame.

As an assistant coach at ASU from 1986-90, his primary position was recruiting coordinator. The Sun Devils advanced to the College World Series in 1987 and 1988.

Ed Durkin
Eastern Supervisor

Ed Durkin is in his seventh season with the Diamondbacks, his fourth as the Eastern Regional Supervisor. He joined the organization in September, 1996, serving as the professional scouting supervisor, which involved him heavily with the 1997 Major League Expansion Draft.

Durkin has 15 years of scouting experience, having served for nine seasons with the Milwaukee Brewers, first as a full-time scout (1988-92), and later as a natoinal cross-checker (1993-96). He makes his home in Safety Harbor, FL.

Kris Kline
Central Supervisor

Kris Kline is in his fourth season with the Arizona organization, all as Supervisor for the Central Region. After four seasons as a player in the Anaheim Angels' minor league system, Kline spent the next 10 years as a scout for the Angels before joining the Diamondbacks.

Kline, a high school teammate of Diamondbacks' National Scouting Supervisor Kendall Carter, was on the Class AAA State Championship team at Scottsdale Coronado High School in 1979. He later played baseball at Grand Canyon College, helping the Antelopes to the 1982 NAIA National Championship.

Charles Scott
West Supervisor

Charles Scott is in his third season with the Diamondbacks as Western Regional Supervisor. He joined the Diamondbacks in November, 2000, after serving four seasons as a scout with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. He received the Topps Scout-of-the-Month Award for August 1997. In addition to his scouting duties, Scott also coached a high school Connie Mack team in 1998 and 1999.

He played collegiately at Arizona State University and was drafted in 1985 by the Cleveland Indians. Scott played parts of nine seasons in the Indians, Minnesota Twins and Seattle Mariners systems. He resides in Novato, CA.

International Scouting

From the first players signed (both from the Dominican Republic) by the organization in 1995, the Diamondbacks have placed a great emphasis on scouting talent from around the globe. The D'Backs have scouted and signed players from Australia, Canada, Colombia, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Korea, Mexico, Netherlands Antilles, Nicaragua, Panama, and Venezuela. In addition to players from the U.S. and Puerto Rico, the Diamondbacks have also signed players who previously played in Japan and Taiwan.

Junior Noboa serves as Latin-American Coordinator and as well as director of the Diamondbacks' baseball academy inthe Dominican Republic. Noboa was the first international hire in August 1995, and a month later signed the organization's first players. In 1997, he was the first recipient of the Roland Hemond Award, given annually to the member of the baseball department who best exemplifies the "Diamondback" approach to their work. In 1999, Noboa found Geraldo Guzman, a carpenter who had not played professionally since 1992 and appeared in 13 games for Arizona in 2000.

Jim Marshall continues to serve as Director of Pacific Rim Operations, a role he has filled since joining the organization in 1996. His main duty is to maintain relations with baseball organizations in Australia, Japan, Korea, and Taiwan. He also serves as a major league and advance scout for the Diamondbacks.

Marshall played in the major leagues for five seasons from 1958-62, including stints with the Baltimore Orioles, the Chicago Cubs, San Francisco Giants, the original 1962 New York Mets and the Pittsburgh Pirates. He managed the Cubs from 1974-76 and the Oakland Athletics in 1979.

His first visit to Japan came on a 1960 goodwill tour while with the Giants. Three years later he signed with the Chunichi Dragons of the Japanese Central League and hit .268 with 78 home runs and 252 RBI in three seasons there.

2002 First-Year Player Draft

Arizona's first selection in the 2002 June free agent draft was infielder Sergio Santos from Mater Dei High School in California. After selecting collegiate players with the first pick in each of the organization's previous two drafts, it was the first time since 1999 that the team's initial pick was a high school player. Santos was only one of 4 high schoolers taken by Arizona in the first 20 rounds of the draft. The D'Backs signed eight of their first 20 picks and 29 of 50 overall.

All-Time Organizational Awards

2002 Organizational Player and Pitcher of the Year

Scott Hairston led the farm-system in average (.345), runs scored (99), doubles (46), home runs (22) and total bases (309) while playing for South Bend (A) and Lancaster (A). The second baseman was named to USA Today Baseball Weekly's Minor League All-Star team after posting the third best average (.345) in Minor League Baseball while ranking first in extra-base hits (73) and finishing second in doubles (46) and slugging percentage (.603).

With his selection as Arizona's 3rd round pick of the 2001 First Year Draft, Scott became the ninth member of his family to play professional baseball.

Mike Gosling began his professional career with El Paso (AA-Texas League) in 2002 and led the league in wins (14) and shutouts (2) while ranking third in ERA (3.13) and innings pitched (166.2).

The Diamondbacks' 2nd-round draft pick in the 2001 First Year Draft, Mike was drafted out of Stanford University following his junior season.

Covering the Diamondbacks

Diamondback Broadcasters

Thom Brennaman
Television Play-by-Play

One of the most versatile announcers in the industry, Thom Brennaman is in his sixth season with the Diamondbacks. Thom handles the play-by-play duties on 3TV and Fox Sports Net, and will make periodic appearances in the play-by-play chair on KTAR Radio. He also serves as host of the weekly magazine show "D-Backs, Playin' Hardball" on 3TV.

In addition to his work with the Diamondbacks, Brennaman continues his role with FOX Network's Major League Baseball telecasts, having served last season as play-by-play announcer for selected Division Series games, as well as the American League Championship Series.

Brennaman joined the Diamondbacks two years before they took the field. He came to Arizona after six seasons with the Chicago Cubs, working on both WGN Television and Radio. Prior to that, Thom spent two years working alongside his father, Hall of Fame broadcaster Marty Brennaman, with the Cincinnati Reds. In addition to calling Reds games on television with Hall of Fame catcher Johnny Bench, Thom spent time as a weekend sports anchor for WLWT-TV, and as morning drive sports anchor on WLW Radio.

A graduate of Ohio University, Thom has spent the past two winters in the basketball hotbed known as the ACC, serving as the voice of Fox Sports Net's Sunday Night Atlantic Coast Conference College Basketball package. This past New Year's Day, he called his fourth consecutive Cotton Bowl for the FOX Network. Thom previously handled University of Cincinnati basketball telecasts and NFL Football for FOX, and served as play-by-play announcer for the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament on CBS Radio.

Fans can even hear Thom's work on their computers. Thom serves as the "voice" of Acclaim Sports' All-Star Baseball 2002, teaming with his former broadcast partner, and current Diamondbacks Manager, Bob Brenly.

Thom and his wife Polly reside in Scottsdale with their three dogs, Bear, Wiley and Bora. In their very limited spare time, Thom serves on the board of the Arizona Humane Society, and the Brennamans are also actively involved with Sunshine Acres, a Christian Children's Home.

Greg Schulte
Radio and Television Play-by-Play

Valley sportscasting veteran Greg Schulte is in his sixth year as a play-by-play announcer for the Diamondbacks. Greg will be heard again on KTAR Radio, and will move to the television side on both 3TV and Fox Sports Net when Thom Brennaman is away on his FOX Network assignments on weekends.

A part of the Phoenix radio scene since 1979, Greg joined the Diamondbacks after spending 14 years at the Diamondbacks flagship radio station, KTAR. Over that time, Schulte was involved with nearly every major sports entity in the market. He served for 15 seasons with the Phoenix Suns, working with Al McCoy first as producer, and, for the last two seasons, as color commentator. He also served as analyst for Arizona State University football and basketball, and shared play-by-play duties for ASU Baseball. In addition, Greg spent three years as pre and post-game host for the NFL Cardinals broadcasts after they arrived from St. Louis.

While he has been involved in a variety of sports, it doesn't take long to realize that baseball is Greg's passion. Intense preparation is the key to each Schulte broadcast. That, coupled with a natural enthusiasm for his craft, has made Greg a favorite with Diamondbacks fans.

Prior to his arrival in Arizona, Schulte was sports director at WQUA in Moline, Il, and also handled play-by-play duties for University of Iowa basketball. Greg and his wife of 29 years, Nancy, have two children, Scott (22) and Stephanie (18), and reside in Glendale.

Steve Lyons
Television Analyst

A veteran of 11 major league seasons as a player and broadcaster, Steve Lyons joins the Diamondback broadcast team as a television analyst in 2003, and will work with Thom Brennaman, on 3TV and Fox Sports Net.

Fans are already familiar with Lyons' broadcast work, having spent the past two seasons working on Saturday's with Brennaman on the FOX Network Game of the Week package. Last fall, Lyons and Brennaman teamed to broadcast the 2002 American League Championship Series. The two will be seen on the FOX Package again this season.

Lyons spent 9 seasons as a major league infielder/outfielder with Boston, the Chicago White Sox, Montreal and Atlanta, compiling a .262 career batting average. He led American League third basemen in 1986 with 36 double plays.

Following his playing career, Lyons moved into the broadcast industry as a talk show host at WMVP Radio in Chicago and WEEI Radio in Boston. He then joined FOX Sports as a studio analyst, and later as an anchor on Fox Sports Net. He earned a 2000 Sports Emmy Award for his work on the FOX Studio show.

A graduate of Oregon State University, Lyons and his wife Christa reside in Hermosa Beach, CA with their daughter, Alexandra. Steve has two older daughters, Kristin and Kori, who reside in Phoenix.

Jim Traber
Television Analyst

Former major league first baseman/outfielder Jim Traber is in his third season as an analyst for Diamondbacks telecasts on 3TV and Fox Sports Net.

Traber spent seven seasons in the Baltimore Orioles organization, playing in 264 games at the major league level over a four-year span (1986-89). Traber then spent two seasons with the Kintetsu Buffaloes in Japan. In two seasons, Traber had a batting average of .287, with 53 home runs and 184 RBI, tying Orestes Destrade for the Pacific League RBI title with 92 in 1991.

Traber made a successful transition from athlete to broadcaster, becoming a sports talk show host. His broadcast experience includes a stint in the Valley, with a talk show in Phoenix for one year, while also hosting a show for the past 10 years in Oklahoma City. Jim has also been a frequent host of ESPN Radio's "GameNight". While in Phoenix, Traber appeared as a contributor to Fox Sports Net's pregame show prior to Diamondbacks' telecasts during the 1999 season. He has also served as an analyst for the FOX Network Saturday Game of the Week package during the 2001 season.

Traber and his wife Julie have five children, Trabes (15), Chelsea (13), Beau (12), Katelyn (11) and Courtney (10).

Victor Rojas
Radio Analyst

Having grown up in the game of baseball, Victor Rojas brings a wealth of experience from a variety of perspectives to the position of radio analyst for the Diamondbacks. Rojas will be heard on all 162 games broadcast on KTAR and the Diamondbacks Radio Network.

Rojas, the son of former major league player and manager Cookie Rojas, comes to Arizona after two seasons with the independent Newark Bears. In addition to his broadcast work, Rojas also served in the Player Procurement department, and was responsible for the signing of veterans Jamie Navarro, Jack Armstrong, Jose Canseco, Jim Leyritz, Lance Johnson, Pete Incavigilia, Billy Ashley and Mark Leiter.

Rojas was also heard last season on MLB Radio, serving as host of its morning show, The Baseball Breakfast. Rojas also was part of MLB Radio's broadcast of the 2002 All-Star Game in Milwaukee, as well as the Arizona Fall League Championship Game in November.

Rojas played in the California Angels organization, served on the baseball staff of the Florida Marlins in 1993, and served as pitching coach for the Rio Grande entry in the Texas-Louisiana League in 1994.

Born in Miami and raised in Overland Park, Kansas, Rojas graduated from broadcast school (Brown Institute/Bauder College) in 1987. He played college baseball at College of the Desert in Palm Springs, California and Lewis-Clark State University in Lewiston, Idaho as a catcher and pitcher. Victor and his wife Kimberly are expecting their first child in April. Victor also has a daughter, Brianna Nicole (11), who resides in Southern California.

Joe Garagiola
Television Analyst

Joe Garagiola, a member of the broadcasters' wing of the Baseball Hall of Fame, returns for his sixth season as an analyst.

Garagiola has combined insight and humor over five decades of baseball broadcasting, including nearly 25 years on the Saturday Game of the Week telecasts on NBC. In addition, Garagiola spent 11 years as a co-host on NBC's Today Show, as well serving as host of a number of popular game shows.

Garagiola's broadcasting career began shortly after his playing career ended. Joe broke into the major leagues in 1946 as a catcher with the St. Louis Cardinals, and contributed four hits in Game Four of the 1946 World Series, won by the Cardinals in six games. Joe also played with the Chicago Cubs, New York Giants and Pittsburgh Pirates. Upon retirement in 1954, Garagiola was offered a position on the Cardinals' broadcast team, working with fellow Hall of Famers Harry Caray and Jack Buck. Garagiola would eventually move to the television booth with the New York Yankees, working with the initial co-winner of the Ford C. Frick award, Red Barber. At NBC, Garagiola shared the booth with two more Cooperstown enshrinees, Curt Gowdy and Vin Scully.

A Valley resident, Garagiola has been extremely active in the community and was honored as the 1998 recipient of the Children's MVP Award presented by the Jim Eisenreich Foundation. The award goes to a former player who has made significant contributions to children's causes. He works tirelessly for B.A.T., the Baseball Assistance Team, and is very visible at major league spring training camps, educating players on the evils of spit tobacco.

Garagiola was honored in February, receiving the Arizona Ecumenical Council's Humanitarian Award for his work with children on the Gila River Indian Reservation. He was honored in November of 2001 by the Arizona Chamber of Commerce for his work in the community, which includes his efforts on behalf of the St. Peter's Indian Mission in the Gila River Indian Community. Nicknamed "Awesome Fox" by the staff of St. Peter's, the baseball field at St. Peter's School is named "Awesome Fox Field" in his honor.

Jeff Munn
Radio Play-by-Play

Jeff Munn, the Arizona Diamondbacks' Public Address Announcer since the club's inception, is in his third season as the club's radio play-by-play announcer during weekends when Thom Brennaman is away on assignment for FOX, and Greg Schulte is handling television play-by-play duties.

Munn will continue to serve as the Public Address Announcer when he is not behind the radio microphone. Over the past 12 seasons, Munn has also been the Public Address Announcer for the NBA Phoenix Suns, and the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

In 1996, Munn was selected as one of four announcers for the basketball competition at the Atlanta Summer Olympics, and handled the announcing duties for the Men's Gold Medal Game. He has also served as an announcer for the 1993 U.S. Figure Skating Championships, the 1995 NBA All-Star Game, 2000 WNBA All-Star Game, and the 1997 ArenaBowl (Arena Football).

Munn has been an announcer for 27 years, starting as a senior at Phoenix Carl Hayden High School. A year later, he took on the football and men's basketball announcing at Phoenix College. In 1980, he was hired by Arizona State to be the baseball stadium announcer, and served in that capacity for 12 seasons. In addition to baseball, Munn announced Women's Volleyball, Wrestling, Gymnastics, Women's Basketball, Softball and Track and Field for the Sun Devils. He also served as football announcer for 14 seasons, and men's basketball announcer for four seasons.

Munn attended Arizona State University, majoring in history. He resides in Tempe with his wife of 11 years, Laurie, and their two children, Patrick (7) and Hayley (4).

Diamondbacks en Espanol

Once again this season, the Diamondbacks will present a Spanish language broadcast package, with all 81 home games and 26 selected road games will be broadcast on KSUN (1400 AM). In addition, Fox Sports Net will simulcast Diamondbacks Spanish radio on SAP for selected telecasts, and 25 home games are set for Spanish language telecast on MAS Arizona.

Miguel Quintana
Spanish Radio Play-by-Play

Miguel Quintana, who began his broadcast career in Phoenix 20 years ago, is in his sixth season as the Diamondbacks' Spanish play-by-play voice. Quintana will be heard on all 108 games to be broadcast on KSUN Radio.

Miguel began his career as a 15-year-old sportswriter for El Sol in Agua Prieta, Sonora. In 1981, he joined KIFN Radio (now KVVA) in Phoenix as a sports commentator, and later moved to KTVW (Channel 33), eventually becoming sports director. Quintana also worked in Los Angeles for KVEA-TV, before returning to the Valley in 1995 to serve as play-by-play voice for the Arizona Sandsharks indoor soccer team.

Miguel has been a baseball commentator for the Mexican Pacific League and has done play-by-play for the Arizona Rattlers. He has three daughters, Lisette (19), Jasmine (14) and Jennifer (9).

Oscar Soria
Spanish Television and Radio Analyst

At the tender age of 32, Oscar Soria is one of the most respected baseball commentators in the Hispanic community. Oscar is in his fourth full season as an analyst on Diamondbacks' Spanish broadcasts, working with Miguel Quintana on KSUN Radio, and lending his insights to the telecasts on ¡MAS!. Oscar will also serve as a broadcaster on 30 home telecasts on Fox Sports Net that will be also be broadcast in Soria is a veteran of 13 seasons as a broadcaster with the Hermosillo Naranjeros, and has been in the booth for four Carribean Series, including the 1996 series when Mexico took the crown in Santo Domingo. He also covers the Diamondbacks for El Imparcial, writing a daily column, and when in Hermosillo, he hosts a television show on baseball. Oscar was among the nominees of announcers for the Mexican Pacific League "All Century Team", finishing second in the balloting.

Oscar has also covered basketball, boxing, soccer, tennis and football for Teleman in Sonora. He gradutaed from Universidad del Noroeste with a degree in accounting. Oscar and his wife, Benny, have a daughter, Paula (2), and make thier home in Hermosillo.

Richard Saenz
Director of Hispanic Marketing/Spanish Radio Analyst

The man overseeing the Diamonbdbacks' marketing efforts in the Hispanic community puts on the headsets again this season, as Richard Saenz is in his third season as an analyst on Spanish radio broadcasts on KSUN, when Oscar Soria is working on ¡MAS! Telecasts.

Saenz has been with the Diamondbacks' organization since 1996. Prior to that, he spent 18 years with the Arizona Electric Power Cooperative in his native Benson, eventually becoming the company's Director of Business Development. Saenz also served for years as Mayor of Benson (1989-93).

Saenz played baseball for two years at Cochise College in Douglas, then continued his education at Eastern Oregon State University in LaGrand, Ore. He and his wife, Sheri, make their home in Phoenix. Richard has a daughter, Alisha, and a two-year old granddaughter, Jayden.

Remembering Our Friends

John Michaelson
Radio Booth

The KTAR Radio booth in Bank One Ballpark was named after John Michaelson prior to last season, honoring the veteran producer/engineer who passed away after the 2000 season. A veteran behind the scenes in radio brodcasting for years, including three seasons on Diamondback broadcasts, John was a tireless worker and friend to all who came in contact with him.

Steve Pascente
Memorial Press Lounge

Steve Pascente was one of the most dedicated at his craft and died while on location covering football in Washington D.C. His wife, Julie, has kept his memory alive with the Steve Pascente Charitable Foundation, which supports a variety of foundations including Widowed With Children, The Steve Pascente Memorial Scholarships at Arizona State University and The Andre House. When the Diamondbacks opened the 1998 season against the Colorado Rockies, Nick Pascente, the son of Steve and Julie, served as honorary batboy.

Dick Dozer
Memorial Press Box

Dick Dozer spent the majority of his life covering Major League Baseball for the Chicago Tribune, but he was hardly a stranger to the Valley. After leaving the beat of the big leagues, he arrived in Phoenix and wrote for the Gazette, while also contributing his time in organizing the annual "Dream Game," an oldtimers contest that benefitted the Phoenix Memorial Hospital Foundation, and working with the Mesa Ho-Ho-Kams. Dozer was BBWAA Chapter President in 1976. He passed away in 1994, yet his memory lives on daily in the Diamondbacks' front office, as his son, Rich, serves as team President.

Media Coverage Policies

Director - Public Relations — Mike Swanson
Assistants to the Director — David Pape and Casey Wilcox
Media Coordinator - Public Relations — Susan Webner
Staff Assistant — Jeff Munn

It is once again a privilege for our staff to be of assistance as you cover the Arizona Diamondbacks. Bank One Ballpark already ranks as one of the premier sports facilities in the world, and our department will do its best to take care of any reasonable requests. Following are the Public Relations policies for the 2003 season. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to ask any member of our staff and we will make every effort to fulfill your needs.

WORKING PRESS CREDENTIALS: Pursuant to newly adopted Major League Baseball policy, all season credentials issued by the Diamondbacks will include a laminated picture identification laminated. Due to security issues, no member of the media will be allowed access to Bank One Ballpark without showing a photo ID. Daily passes will be issued to media members who do not qualify for season credentials. Media who qualify for daily credentials include: freelance writers on a specific assignment for a publication, representatives of weekly and monthly publications working on special coverage, and additional radio and television representatives when the need arises for extra pre-game personnel (i.e. live shots, etc.). Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer, or director, on company letterhead at least 48 hours in advance of the game being requested. Requests may be made via FAX only if the requesting affiliation is currently on file with the P.R. office.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS: Daily photo passes will be issued to photographers on assignment for legitimate news gathering organizations, and representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Requests for photographer credentials must follow the procedure detailed above. The Arizona Diamondbacks will not issue credentials to freelance photographers. Please remember that priority in all photo areas will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. Field photo space at Bank One Ballpark is at a premium and priority for space will be given to daily publications and wire services. There is also a small space designated for in-game photography in the front row of the press box. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products only. Any other use of photographs taken will be considered a violation of existing trademark and copyright restrictions.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of the credential and bar future use.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: All credentials will list specific locations in Bank One Ballpark where access is permitted. Members of the media must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. The clubhouse is the dressing and preparation area for the players for that day's game and is not a place for the media to congregate. The clubhouse will close 50 minutes prior to the first pitch, and there may be times where the clubhouse will close earlier for team meetings. Generally, no more than a 10-minute "cooling off" period is applied after games. Post-game access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined by the individual club's policies.

FIELD ACCESS: All members of the media with field access provided on their credential will be allowed to conduct interviews during specified times prior to the start of the game. The field must be cleared 50 minutes prior to the beginning of the game, and at no time is the media permitted in fair territory, or outside the first and third base bags. These precautions are for the safety of all involved while batting practice is in progress.

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS: Non-rightsholders are permitted to transmit live reports from Bank One Ballpark prior to and after every game. All television live shots must be done in designated areas outside the clubhouse due to space limitations, or on the warning track area outside either dugout. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or the game is in progress. Radio stations and assigned correspondents for out of town reports are allowed to give inning or half inning score updates. At no time can they file reports once play is under way. Any violation of these policies will result in immediate revocation of credentials.

CELLULAR PHONES: The use of cellular phones is prohibited on the field or in either clubhouse. The only time a radio correspondent can use a cellular phone for an interview would be in either dugout after receiving advance permission from the player or staff member. Any other telephone interviews must be arranged through the Diamondbacks' Public Relations Department.

ROVING CAMERAS: Television stations are prohibited from using a camera light in the seating area of the ballpark. Should a light come on, the game could be stopped by the umpiring crew and any stoppage in play due to a camera light will result in revocation of the credential. Separate credentials will be available for "roving" the stands prior to games. For the comfort of our fans, interviews are to be conducted on the concourse, not in the stands while the game is in progress.

WORKING PRESS BOX: The press box at Bank One Ballpark is located directly behind home plate. The writers' wing is on the first base side, while the broadcast booths are behind the plate and towards the third base side. Game notes and statistics will be available for pick-up at least 2 hours before game time in the area immediately behind the working press box. The Diamondbacks are also pleased to offer additional working space, with television monitors, in the area behind the press box. A fax machine and copier are available in the press box should the need arise. The press box is an active working area and cheering and loud conversation will not be permitted. At no time will guests be permitted in the press box. The Arizona Diamondbacks prohibit any person under the age of 18 from entering the press box level on game days.

PRESS DINING: The press dining room is located behind the press box. As is consistent with all National League clubs, pre-game meals for the media will be available for a nominal charge ($8.00), and will be served 2 hours prior to game time and up through the end of the first inning. Media members must be properly credentialed for admittance to the dining room.

PHONES FOR MEDIA: The Arizona Diamondbacks are fortunate to have an ample supply of Charge Call phones in the press box. If for some reason media members feel there are not enough lines available, they should investigate installing their own line for use during the season. To have a phone extension installed for the season, or for a single visit to Bank One Ballpark, please contact Vicki Berryman at (602) 462-6099.

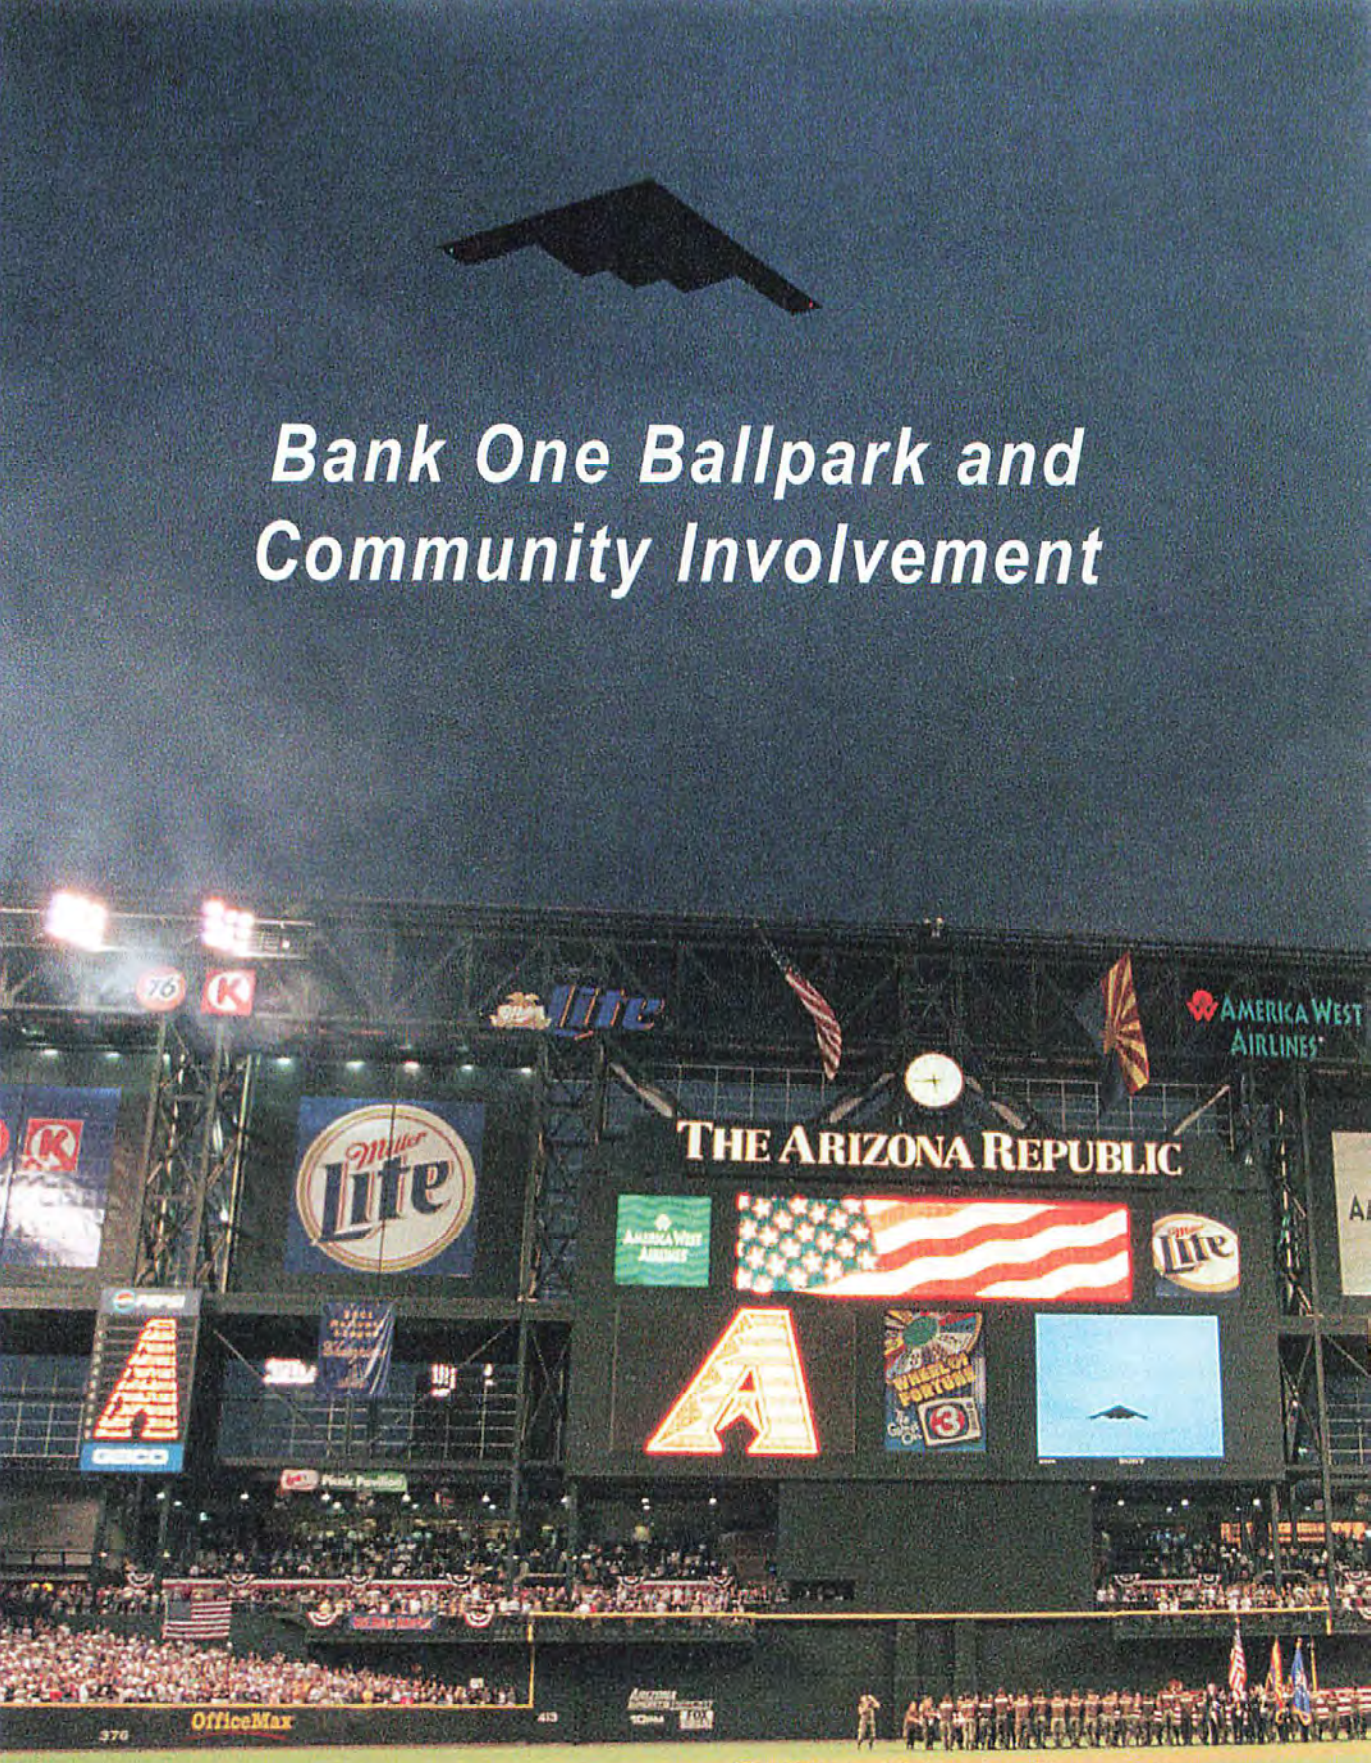
Bank One Ballpark and Community Involvement



The B2 stealth bomber flies over the opening in the Bank One Ballpark roof during the National Anthem before game #7 of the 2001 World Series.

Bank One Ballpark

Officially, the home of the Arizona Diamondbacks is, like many in Major League Baseball, a "baseball-only" facility. In the case of Bank One Ballpark, however, the term is very misleading. While designed to serve as a state-of-the-art home for Major League Baseball, there is much more that goes on inside the B.O.B. than just baseball. In five years of operation, sports such as college football and basketball, soccer and motocross, and a variety of concerts and trade shows have taken place on the field that served as site of the dramatic 7th game of the 2001 World Series

Owned by Maricopa County, the Ballpark (seating capacity 49,033) joins its next-door neighbor, America West Arena, in making Downtown Phoenix the sports hub of the Valley of the Sun. Located just one block east of the Arena, the Ballpark is bounded by Jefferson Street on the north, Fourth Street on the west and Seventh Street on the east, and is within easy driving distance of two major freeways (Interstate 10 to the north, Interstate 17 to the south). Bank One Ballpark also holds the distinction of being the second-highest facility in the major leagues, sitting 1,100 feet above sea level. It trails only Denver's Coors Field in terms of elevation.

THE STRUCTURE

Ground was broken on Bank One Ballpark on November 16, 1995, with the construction project taking 28 months at a cost of $354 million. The facility was designed by Ellerbe Becket, with architect Bill Johnson as the design principal. John Wasson was the project manager for the Diamondbacks, with Huber Hunt & Nichols serving as the managing contractor.

The Ballpark incorporates the traditional look of red brick and green structural steel in a setting that blends into its surroundings. Many of the building's design details are borrowed from the historic warehouse district that surrounds it. One former warehouse, the Arizona Citrus Growers' Packing House, is actually preserved and incorporated into the south facade of the building. Appropriately, that former food warehouse is used as a commissary for the Ballpark's concession stands.

THE ROOF

Game in and game out, fans attending Diamondbacks games are always anxious to see the retractable roof in action before or after the game.

The roof comprises nine million pounds of structural steel, operating on the same tried-and-true technology found in drawbridges and overhead traveling cranes. A pair of 200-horsepower motors open or close the roof in slightly more than four minutes, utilizing more than four miles of cable strung through a pulley system. Each half of the roof consists of three moveable trusses, which telescope over a fixed-end truss. The east and west sides of the roof can operate either in unison or independently. Either side of the roof can be opened to any position in order to maximize sunlight on the turf and minimize sunlight on the interior steel and concrete.

In 2002, the Diamondbacks played 56 games with the roof closed, 8 more than the previous season, while 25 were played with the roof open.

ROOF OPEN - ROOF CLOSED?

It's a major discussion point among fans on a daily basis - to open or not to open the Ballpark roof.

The decision is made on a game-to-game basis, and it depends on the outside conditions. In the early portion of the season, conditions are generally more favorable to opening the roof, not just because the air temperature is lower, but also because the air is drier, meaning the temperature drops rapidly after sunset.

Into the summer months, the famed Arizona monsoon adds higher humidity to the triple-digit temperatures, making it necessary to keep the roof closed. Even with that, there have been days where daytime cloud cover has kept the temperatures down, allowing for the roof to be opened that night.

Last season, a hotline was established for fans to call in and get that day's "roof forecast". The number is 602-379-ROOF (7663).

THE FIELD

The playing field at Bank One Ballpark consists of Bull's Eye Bermuda, which has proven to be the best suitable grass for a facility with a retractable roof. A sign of that suitability is the fact that, in 1999, 135,000 square feet of sod had to be replaced during the season. Last season, a record-low 3,300 square feet was replaced.

Even though more than half of the games are played with the roof closed, the turf receives sunlight at every opportunity. On game days, the roof remains open into the afternoon to allow maximum exposure. When areas of the field receive to little natural sunlight, large incandescent growth lights provide a substitute.

A visible feature of the field takes fans back in time almost 100 years. There is a dirt path between the pitcher's mound and home plate, reminiscent of the paths seen in very early pictures of the game.

The path is actually symbolic of the Bank One Ballpark experience - The best of baseball history and tradition displayed in a setting that features all the modern conveniences.

KEEPING COOL

Midway through the 2001 season, the Ballpark became the beneficiary of the new Northwinds cooling system designed for highly populated facilities in Downtown Phoenix. The Northwinds system site is located directly south of the Ballpark.

The unique aspect of the system is that, while conventional cooling systems use cold water, the Northwinds system uses ice, which is produced on site during the overnight hours. The system starts with a base of three million pounds of ice. On a typical summer day, with no Diamondbacks game schedule approximately one million pounds will have to be reproduced. On a scheduled game day, the figure jumps to two million.

With the new system, the time needed to cool the Ballpark is reduced, allowing more time for the roof to remain open, which in turn allows more sunlight on the grass.

SEATING AND TICKETS

Sightlines in Bank One Ballpark are second to none. More than 80 percent of the seats are inside the foul poles, and there is no upper deck around the outfield. What's more, the seats down the foul lines beyond the infield are slightly canted toward the infield so that no fan will have to twist his or her body to look toward second base and the pitcher's mound.

All lower-deck seating is directly accessible from the lower concourse, which is at the same level as the outside pedestrian entry plazas and gates. The concourse itself is open to the playing field so fans can stay in touch with the game while visiting the concession stands, merchandise stores or other amenities.

The Infiniti Diamond Level provides exclusive locations and amenities. Lounges and dining areas serving approximately 4,400 club seats are featured. Above the club seats are 69 private luxury suites, which offer the utmost in comfort and catering.

The upper concourse seats approximately 20,000 fans. Escalators on the west side of the Ballpark can take fans to either of the upper levels.

VERSATILITY

While it is primarily known for baseball, Bank One Ballpark has hosted a wide range of events in its three years of operation. The list includes concerts, religious convocations, the Arizona National Boat Show and two annual motocross events. The Ballpark has also served as the site of the Fiesta Bowl National Band Championship each of the last four years. The Ballpark was also the site of the first-ever outdoor college basketball game, as Arizona State's women's basketball team hosted Tennessee on December 27, 2000. Prior to the start of the 2002 season, the Ballpark hosted a soccer match between the national squads from Mexico and Yugoslavia.

Bank One Ballpark also serves as the home of college football's Insight Bowl. Operated by the Fiesta Bowl, the event brings together representatives of the Big East and Pacific 10 Conferences. This past December, Pittsburgh and Oregon State added to the tradition of the bowl, billed as "College Football Like You've Never Seen It Before".

Bank One Ballpark proved its versatility by hosting the Insight.Com Bowl in each of the last three Decembers, including Oregon State and Pitt last year.

FOOD

You name it, and you can find it at the nearly quarter mile of concession stands in the Bank One Ballpark concourses, but the dining experience begins before fans go through the Ballpark gates.

Among the concession stands on the concourses are those that feature McDonald's, Little Caesar's Pizza, Blimpie's Subs and Garcia's Mexican Food. In addition, specialty ice cream, yogurt, smoothies, shaved ice and specialty popcorn are also available. Fielder's Choice offers fans a wide selection of fresh fruits and vegetables.

Both the upper and lower concourses feature Taste of the Majors, a concession stand which offers food items associated with each National League city.

Friday's Front Row Sports Grill continues to be a popular year-round destination for Ballpark visitors. Friday's offers fine food and beverages, along with patio seating during Diamondbacks' games. The restaurant is open every day except Christmas.

The Arizona Baseball Club, located in right field on the Infiniti Diamond Level, provides fine dining and a spectacular view for fans with club seats or luxury suites.

MASTERCARD POOL PARTY PAVILION

No matter what the event in Bank One Ballpark, the MasterCard Pool Party Pavilion always attracts attention, even when it's not in use. It is in use, of course, during Diamondbacks games. The Pavilion offers up to 35 guests the chance to watch Diamondbacks' games while enjoying a swimming pool and Jacuzzi. Catering and other amenities are included in the nightly rental of the Pavilion.

Located behind the outfield wall in right-center, the MasterCard Pool Party Pavilion sits 415 feet from home plate. This, of course, means home runs will occasionally find their way into the Pavilion. When a Diamondback homers into the Pavilion, water cannons fire streams of water 30 to 35 feet into the air.

For the trivia buffs, we offer this note: the first player to hit a home run into the Pavilion was Mark Grace on May 12, 1998, while a member of the Chicago Cubs.

PARKING

Bank One Ballpark utilizes the established downtown parking infrastructure for its guests. An attached 1,500-car parking garage provides parking for guests on the Infiniti Diamond Level. Away from the park, downtown Phoenix offers some 33,000 parking spaces within a 15-minute walk of the Ballpark. The Diamondbacks estimate that about 15,000 spaces are needed to accommodate a sellout crowd.

Downtown parking was virtually unaffected by the Diamondbacks/first-ever weekday day game on July 20, 2000, when a near capacity crowd watched the Diamondbacks and St. Louis Cardinals. During the 2001 postseason, two games were played on weekdays, as well as the post-Victory Parade celebration following the World Series. All were done without significant interruption to downtown activities.

Pedestrian access to the Ballpark was enhanced prior to the 2002 season with the construction of a bridge over the railroad tracks just south of the Ballpark on 4th Street. The bridge is connected to the Ballpark Parking Garage, and is equipped with elevators for the physically challenged.

FOX SPORTS NET DIAMONDTOWN

Fans making their way along the Ballpark's main concourse can experience baseball's history and tradition through Fox Sports Net's DiamondTown. Video walls, a graphic timeline and three-dimensional exhibits give fans 10 themed areas featuring the best of baseball and Diamondbacks history.

BAXTER'S DEN

Every mascot needs a home, and the home of D. Baxter the Bobcat can be found behind the picnic area in center field. Baxter's Den offers fans a variety of interactive games, and gives fans of all ages a chance to meet Baxter in his home. Baxter appears in his "den" during each home game to pose for pictures and sign autographs.

MUSIC

As is the case with the overall atmosphere of Bank One Ballpark, music at Diamondbacks' game is a blend of the old and the new. Bobby Freeman provides traditional organ music. Freeman also served as ballpark organist for the Pacific Coast League Phoenix Firebirds before joining the Diamondbacks in 1998.

In addition to the organ, Diamondbacks' Audio Engineer Eric Hanson "plays the hits" through a variety of current songs recorded on tape. As is the case in many ballparks, Diamondbacks' players are serenaded with their favorite tunes as they come to bat.

Grant Trenbeath
Head Groundskeeper

In baseball, players receive accolades most often when numbers go up. In the case of Bank One Ballpark Head Groundskeeper Grant Trenbeath, accolades are warranted because numbers are going down.

Trenbeath and his crew's efforts during the 2002 season resulted in a record low amount of turf replacement. Only 3,000 square feet of the Ballpark surface needed new sod during 2002, after having to replace 9,000 square feet the year prior. The low figure is a tribute to Trenbeath's continued dedication to his craft

Trenbeath has been a pioneer in handling grass in a retractable roof venue. He has served as a consultant to other retractable roof venues in Major League Baseball, sharing his expertise on how to balance maintaining a strong playing surface with the need for fan comfort.

Trenbeath has worked in turf management for 11 years, spending three seasons with the Oakland Athletics' minor league affiliate in Medford, Oregon, then joining the A's as head groundskeeper for their minor league complex and spring training for three seasons before joining the Diamondbacks seven months prior to their inaugural season.

Trenbeath attended Willamette University in Oregon. Grant and his wife, Trina, make their home in Chandler.

Diamondbacks in the Community

Established in 1997, before the Arizona Diamondbacks ever played a major league game, Arizona Diamondbacks Charities focuses on the three areas of need: homelessness, indigent healthcare and children's programs of all types, including education and youth baseball field development.

A 13-member board of Diamondback and Maricopa County appointees are responsible for annually approving all grant applications. Gifts are given through two different grant cycles. Program grants (gifts of approximately $5,000-$10,000) are given to Arizona non-profits for program funding. The deadline for this application is December 31 of each year. The other is our Grand Slam Award. This is the first year for the Grand Slam Award, $100,000 gift that will be given to on Arizona non-profit. The deadline for the Grand Slam Award is November 30 of each year.

Arizona Diamondbacks Charities generated over $1.48 million in 2002 to be distributed before the beginning of the 2003 season. Funds for Arizona Diamondbacks Charities are raised through events such as the annual Diamondbacks Charities Golf Classic, "Shirts Off Our D'backs," ALS Autograph Party, MDA Wives Auction, Bank One Ballpark tour program and other team related activities.

The Arizona Diamondbacks take great pride in being recognized as a leader in community giving. Our commitment to the needs of our state will continue be a cornerstone of our corporate mission.

Board members are:

Honorary Chairman	Jerry Colangelo
President	Mike Kennedy
Vice President	Rich Dozer
Treasurer	Tom Harris
Executive Director	Karen Couch
Members	Annette Auxier	The Honorable Tom Patterson
	Scott Brubaker	Andrew Sandoval
	Mark Fernandez	Rick West
	Brad Nelsen	Michael Yates
	Hope Ozer

Education

The game of baseball requires athletic skills, teamwork and knowledge of the game. Playing sports also reinforces values of perseverance, character and self-confidence. These skills are important not only in the game of sports but in academics, relationships and life. The Diamondbacks set out to share these lessons with the community by hosting events and programs to remind youth and adults of the importance of education and setting goals.

Luis Gonzalez's "Kids Going Gonzo For School"

Luis Gonzalez and the Diamondbacks rewarded economically disadvantaged urban students for attendance, effort in school, and living by "Gonzo's Ground Rules." Partnering with Communities In Schools of Arizona and Teach for America, this program is also designed to support and develop quality teaching in areas of need. More than 150 classrooms and over 5,000 students were invited to attend a Diamondbacks game. Each child receives a T-shirt, a free meal, and a lucky group of 100 students have the opportunity to meet Luis prior to the game.

Read Your Way To the Ballpark

Since 2000, Arizona Diamondbacks Charities and The Arizona Republic joined with 13 public library districts and 46 individual libraries in Maricopa County to present Read Your Way To The Ballpark, a summer reading program for children and their families. More than 100,000 kids participate in the program annually, which features a game board with incentive points as you start at your library and end up at the BOB. Kids ultimately work toward winning a free ticket to a Diamondbacks game.

Tony Womack's "Cover To Cover" Reading Competition

This program is based on Tony's goal to encourage kids to "finish what they start" and more specifically that children develop a commitment to, and passion for, reading. Tony hosts one class, from each of the 10 - 15 schools per season that participate, at a Diamondbacks game. Each class is treated to luxury bus transportation, a free meal, an autograph and a T-shirt.

Education

The Diamondbacks host a variety of events to interact with fans and raise awareness for important causes. As an integral part of the community, the Diamondbacks take an active role in helping to influence positive change and build lasting relationships with fans, neighbors, and community organizations.

Spring Training for Special Pre-School Athletes

More than 500 special-needs pre-schoolers participate in this event which features twelve baseball oriented training stations hosted by Arizona Diamondbacks and Arizona State University ballplayers. Each child receives a medal of distinction presented by the Diamondbacks.

Bike to BOB

The Diamondbacks know the importance of wearing a helmet when at bat and when on a bicycle. As part of a bike safety educational campaign, the Diamondbacks and Maricopa County's Clean Air Campaign host "Bike to BOB" where hundreds of cyclists ride their bicycles from Steele Indian School Park to the Ballpark for a Diamondbacks game.

Holiday Angel Party

The Diamondbacks host an annual Holiday Angel Party at the Ballpark inviting children from local shelters to enjoy games, karaoke and special visits from Diamondbacks players and Santa Clause. Each child also receives a gift, a nutritious lunch and Randy Johnson and Diamondbacks Charities provide a brand new pair of Nike Shoe for each child.

Community Programs

The Diamondbacks sponsor a variety of programs throughout the year inviting members of the community, from children to senior citizens, to share in the excitement of baseball and instill a sense of community pride. Through teamwork, these programs have accomplished various missions that include improving the lives of those who are less fortunate and educating the community of important social issues.

Randy Johnson's "Striking Out Homelessness"

Randy Johnson's "Striking Out Homelessness" is an extension of Randy's personal commitment to donate $150 for every strikeout he has during the year to help the homeless. At the end of the season Randy donates the accumulated funds to a handful of very worthy non-profit organizations throughout the state. To date, Diamondbacks Charities and the Randy Johnson Foundation have donated more than $200,000 to fight homelessness.

Matt Mantei's Iceman's Igloo

Children and their family members who are affected by cancer, are treated to a game in a party suite. All kids receive T-shirts and pizza. Prior to the game, families meet Matt in an auxiliary locker room where he answers questions and signs autographs.

Season Ticket Donations

The Diamondbacks donate more than 8,000 tickets per year to non-profit organizations and individuals who would not otherwise be able to attend a game due to financial or physical limitations. Diamondbacks season ticket holders also share in the spirit of generosity by donating tickets to the Diamondbacks Community Affairs Department. Through this unique donation program, thousands of additional tickets were distributed to underprivileged Arizonans.

Community Corner

The Diamondbacks teamed up with non-profit organizations, governmental agencies and charitable causes to host Community Corner, a program that educated Ballpark visitors on a variety of issues. During home games, the Diamondbacks invite organizations to share information and help raise community awareness about their causes by having fans visit them at the Community Corner kiosk in the ballpark.

Diamondbacks Wives

The wives of Diamondbacks players and front office executives are consistently active in the community by providing their name, enthusiasm and support to many projects and important causes. The Diamondbacks Wives host a series of community events to raise money and awareness for various social issues.

Back to School Clothing Drive

Wives of the Arizona Diamondbacks host an "Undies Drive" each season for disadvantaged youth. Fans donate new packages of socks and underwear, which benefits the Back To School Clothing Drive Association. In 2002, more than 20,000 pieces of socks and underwear were generated, which provided more than half of the Valley's need with an estimated value of $24,000.

MDA and ALS Broadcast Auctions

The Diamondbacks Wives team up with the Muscular Dystrophy Association and the ALS Association for auctions during Diamondbacks broadcasts. Each broadcast auction raised more than $100,000.

Arizona Diamondbacks Charities and Fundraising Events

The Diamondbacks host several fundraising events during the year to benefit Arizona Diamondbacks Charities and the charitable organizations it represents. Proceeds raised from these events go back to the community by providing grants for statewide non-profit organizations focusing their efforts on youth educations and development, the homeless and healthcare for the indigent.

Arizona Diamondbacks Charities

Arizona Diamondbacks Charities was established in 1997, before the Arizona Diamondbacks ever played a game. $1.9 million was generated in 2002 to be distributed, via a grant application process, before the beginning of the 2003 season.

Shirts Off Our D-backs

The Diamondbacks host this annual event during the last regular season home game. 40 lucky fans are presented with autographed jerseys from Diamondbacks players and coaches on field. One-dollar scratch-off cards are sold throughout the Ballpark raising more than $120,000 annually for Arizona Diamondbacks Charities and the Valley of the Sun United Way.

Diamondbacks Charities Golf Classic

This event gives participants the opportunity to play golf at an exquisite golf resort and participate in one of a kind experience - playing golf with Arizona Diamondbacks players and coaches.

The Diamondbacks community Affairs department offers a variety of programs for the community. Fan mail and requests for player appearances, donations, and sponsorships must be submitted in writing, address to the following:

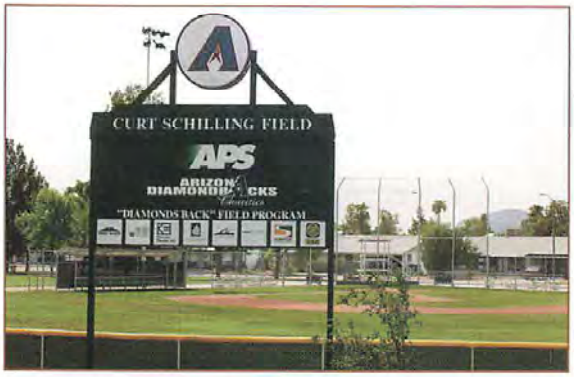
Youth Baseball and Softball

Matt Williams Field



Curt Schilling Field

The Diamondbacks have made a commitment to sharing with the community one of the skills they know best, baseball. Their dedication, enthusiasm and respect for the game are visible both on and off the field. Through the organization's community outreach efforts, the Diamondbacks are revitalizing the spirit of baseball to youth in inner cities, renovating fields in underprivileged communities and providing support and training for junior athletes.

"Diamonds Back" Youth Field Program

Arizona Diamondbacks Charities implemented this field-building project for constructing new and rebuilding current youth fields for baseball and softball. The fields are selected by Arizona Diamondbacks Charities based on need, usage, and ownership and maintenance abilities.

Project Vision

A baseball field can bring together neighborhoods and families. It is a place for making friends and making memories. It is a place for learning a game and learning lessons of life. Through Arizona Diamondbacks Charities, the "Diamonds Back" Field Program is committed to supporting and enhancing youth baseball in our state. This program's sole mission is to design and build youth ball fields so that more children can experience the great game of baseball. Arizona Diamondbacks Charities, our Diamondbacks players and community partners such as APS are creating diamonds from dirt, and making a Major League difference in the lives of Arizona's youth.

Description

Field building project for new and rebuilt youth fields for little league, girls softball and regulation fields in the state of Arizona. Fields are selected by Arizona Diamondbacks Charities based on need, usage, ownership and maintenance abilities. Upon completion, fields are donated to owner who will maintain facility and regulate usage.

Execution

Funding comes from corporate sponsors, player participation and Arizona Diamondbacks Charities Youth Baseball Fund, as well as in-kind and donated services and materials. A design and construction team will build fields, led by Nelsen Architects and Summit Builders as general contractor.

An application and selection process will determine most fields. Interested parties must complete and submit a "Diamonds Back" Youth Field application form. This application is also available for any smaller grants for youth baseball and softball needs. To request an application, write to Jeff Jacobs, Baseball Outreach & Development Manager, Arizona Diamondbacks, P.O. Box 2095, Phoenix, AZ 85001.

Fields may include: backstop, full fencing, dugouts, bleachers, bullpens, irrigation, fully turfed playing field, warning tracks, electric scoreboard, scorer's table and storage unit and lighting system. Projects will depend on existing infrastructure, needs and future funding.

Training Centers

Arizona Diamondbacks Training Centers, a traveling series of youth baseball instructional camps, was launched in the spring of 2000, focusing on developing baseball skills the Diamondbacks way. The weeklong Training Centers are aimed at providing instruction in all aspects of baseball to youth, ages 7-14, while continuing to promote the enjoyment, participation and interest in baseball in Arizona. In 2002, more than 2,500 Arizona youngsters have taken part. The camps are coordinated with community organizations throughout the state.

Little League Baseball District Days

This unique fundraising program was made available to specific Little League Districts throughout Arizona. Little Leagues are given the opportunity to sell group discounted tickets to little leaguers and their families, with fundraiser rebates going back to each league. Participating Little Leagues and their uniformed players are invited to participate on the field at a Diamondbacks game for a pre-game parade, along with a ceremony and check presentation to the district.

Inter-tribal Invitational

To support baseball in the Native American Community, the Diamondbacks host their annual inter-tribal baseball tournament. This event brings together 34 teams from twelve Native America communities throughout Arizona and culminates in a presentation of the tribal communities at a Diamondbacks game.

D. Baxter the Bobcat

Mascot

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 200

Introduced: June 23, 2000

Residence: Baxter's Den at Bank One Ballpark

D. Baxter the Bobcat came out of the bag on June 23, 2000 at Bank One Ballpark. The idea for the mascot came from Diamondback second baseman Jay Bell's son, Brantley, who explained to his dad that the team should have a "BOB" cat as a mascot since the team plays in the BOB (Bank One Ballpark). Jay informed management about his son's idea and the mascot was developed.

Today, Baxter has gained acceptance throughout the baseball world for his athleticism and his mean "fur" ball. Along with his numerous game-day responsibilities, Baxter also serves as an ambassador for the Diamondbacks organization via visits to hospitals, schools, community festivals, and corporate functions throughout the Phoenix-metro area and the state of Arizona.

For more information on Baxter, call (602) 462-6632.

Joseph Black, Jr.

On May 17, 2002, Major League Baseball and the Arizona Diamondbacks suffered a great loss with the passing of Joe Black. He began his playing career in the Negro Leagues and shuffled through various professional leagues before making his Major League debut in 1952 with the Brooklyn Dodgers as a teammate of Jackie Robinson. In his rookie season, he made baseball history when he became the first black pitcher to win a World Series game and was eventually named the National League Rookie of the Year.

Joe remained an integral part of baseball following his playing days. As Vice President of B.A.T., the Baseball Assistance Team, he dedicated his time to helping fellow baseball players who had fallen on hard times. He contributed his vast knowledge of the game as a consultant to the Commissioner of Major League Baseball. A resident of Phoenix, he worked in the Diamondbacks' Community Affairs Department, sharing his stories as a guest speaker for numerous community groups.

Beyond baseball, Joe was a pioneer in the business world and worked tirelessly to impact the civil and human rights advancements for minorities.

In remembrance of Joe, his name was placed on the leftfield wall of Bank One Ballpark, next to the retired number of former Brooklyn Dodger teammate, Jackie Robinson.

The Arizona Fall League will honor Joe's memory with the Joe Black Trophy, awarded to the league's Most Valuable Player. Ken Harvey (Kansas City Royals) of the Scottsdale Scorpions was the inaugural honoree.

Spring Training

Tucson Electric Park

The Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox share Tucson Electric Park during the month of March, with thousands of fans from both the Valley and Windy City making the trip to the Old Pueblo for exhibition action. T.E.P. seats 11,000 which includes room for 3,000 fans on the lawn beyond the outfield fence.

The Diamondbacks not only have the good fortune of training less than two hours away from Bank One Ballpark, they work in one of the top-of-the-line spring facilities in baseball. Tucson Electric Park is the centerpiece of the Pima County Kino Sports Complex, that also includes six-field practice facilities for both the Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox.

Tucson Electric Park has a capacity of 11,000, including 8,000 seats in the main grandstand and another 3,000 available on the outfield lawn. Also the summer home of the Tucson Sidewinders, T.E.P. features a major league clubhouse that the D'Backs use in the spring, and clubhouses for visiting clubs and umpires. The home clubhouse also has an indoor batting cage located on the lower level on the way to the playing field.

During the spring session, the Diamondbacks will dress daily in the major league clubhouse at Tucson Electric Park, while doing the majority of their work at the minor league complex across Ajo Way. Once the exhibition season begins, Arizona will take batting practice either on the stadium field, or on a diamond behind T.E.P., where the D'Backs also have a half-field for infield work.

The spring of 2002 marks the 56th year for spring training in the Tucson community, with last season the first time that three clubs called the Old Pueblo home. While the D'Backs and White Sox work at the Kino Complex, the Colorado Rockies continue to call Hi Corbett Field their spring home.

Tucson Electric Park has a symmetrical playing surface, measuring 340 feet down each foul line and 405 to straightaway centerfield. The spring home for the Diamondbacks is located at 2500 East Ajo Way in Tucson.

Items of Interest

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: To win a batting title a player must have 502 or more actual plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games.

DISABLED LISTS:

(1) 15-DAY DISABLED LIST--The minimum period of inactivity is 15 calendar days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be on the list at one time.

(2) EMERGENCY DISABLED LIST--The minimum period of inactivity is 60 calendar days. There is no limit on the number of players on this list at one time, but his list may only be used when the club is at the maximum limit of 40 players under control. Players on the 60-day list do no count against the 40-man roster.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: To win the ERA title a pitcher must have at least as many innings pitched as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season and have the lowest ERA.

MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR: 172 days constitutes a full year of major league service.

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has:

(1) Exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or

(2) Accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-man roster (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and

(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and

(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches at least one inning, or

(b) He enters the game regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

SUSPENDED GAMES: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on original date of this game.

WAIVER REGULATIONS: From 30 days after the start of the season, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire. Otherwise, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings at the close of the preceding season. With respect to trades, no waivers are necessary from 5 p.m. (ET) the after the scheduled end of the regular season through July 31. Waivers are necessary from August 1 through the day after the scheduled end of the regular season.

How to Figure

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, take that number and divide it by the total innings pitched.

FIELDING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

E POWER TO MAKE IT HAPPEN

KES POWER TO DO BIG THINGS. LIKE LIGHTING
SCOREBOARD, ILLUMINATING A PARKING LOT
PENING THE ROOF OF A STADIUM. BUT IT ALSO
S POWER TO DO LITTLE THINGS. LIKE RUNNING A BLENDER, TURNING ON A STEREO OR JUST MAKING A PIECE OF TOAST. AT APS, IT'S OUR JOB TO MAKE SURE THAT POWER IS AVAILABLE WHENEVER AND WHERE EVER YOU NEED IT. FOR JUST CRUMBS.
